for the last two years. The women who make up our clubs are truly amazing, always going above and beyond to make a difference in our political landscape on behalf of our shared Republican principles. From turning out in record numbers to elect a Republican President, to rallying in Austin on TFRW Legislative Day, supporting local candidates and speaking out on issues, organizing and hosting the TFRW Convention in Dallas – all while engaging your own clubs with topical speakers and other special events – you never stop. And even as we celebrated at our annual Christmas Tea with our Dallas County DA Faith Johnson and our new DCRP Chair Missy Shorey (note – both WOMEN!), we are all looking ahead to 2018 and the challenges that we face in Dallas County. Thank you to all that have served with me on the 2016 and 2017 DCCRW boards and as leaders in your clubs, you have my undying respect.

Congratulations to Jeannee O'Neill of First Republican Women for recognition with DCCRW's 2017 Jan Patterson Lifetime Achievement Award. Jeannee's service to our party for decades is exemplary. She has forgotten more than some of us even think we know about the processes that serve as the foundation for all that we try to do. If you ever need a resource for anything in Dallas County party, club or election processes, Jeannee is your go-to gal.

And congratulations to our new council President, Marty Forte of Preston West Republican Women, and the 2018 DCCRW Board – you can look forward to exciting new things from the council in 2018 with a goal to provide unique and engaging opportunities for your club members to invite guests (potential new members) and grow our clubs.

With that in mind, here are a few dates you need to add to your calendars right now and then watch your inbox for more details:
