Dallas County Council of Republican Women
General Meeting
November 13 – 9:30 a.m.

Speaker: Alan Lowe, Director of the George W. Bush Presidential Library And Museum

At: Pete Sessions' Office – 6306 Greenville Ave., Dallas

Alan Lowe, Director of the George W. Bush Presidential Library, will speak about his career with the National Archives and the role of the Presidential libraries. He will give in depth information on the mission of and plans for the George W. Bush Library. Currently working from its temporary headquarters in Lewisville, TX, the Bush Library will move to a beautiful new facility at SMU with a scheduled dedication date in early 2013. Lowe will provide details on that future facility and the many resources and programs the Library will provide.

The check represents the proceeds of the POWER Rally held in September. The money will be used to support Republican candidates running in local races, as well as DCRP's Get Out The Vote effort

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

How many times do we need to say it?

Vote a straight ticket!

I won't even say: "vote to the end of the ballot".

Why is it so difficult for Republicans to vote the entire ticket without question? Perhaps we are so very intelligent and not led by the ring in our nose and that we want to make our own choice, but the important mission this year is to get the Romney/Ryan team in the White House and to make Dallas County a Republican County. We may not agree with the Republican Party Platform in every aspect, but if we do not express our intent for conservative leadership I am quite sure that we will not have a County of our choosing. I am afraid like no other time in my life and you should be as well. There is absolutely no excuse for everyone not to go to the polls, whether during Early Voting or on Election Day. Offer to take your neighbors and friends to vote with you! All voting places will bring an electronic voting machine or ballot to the car for disabled persons. We CAN NOT let the liberal politicians keep this County or we will all have to pay with our blood, sweat and tears. Our children and grandchildren deserve more! As a daughter of a World War II Veteran, I would hate to meet my father in the after-life and have to explain how I threw in the towel and did not do everything in my power to help save the United States of America.

Deborah Guerriero

A BIG REMINDER FROM OUR COUNTY CHAIR, Wade Emmert:
"If you won't vote for a Republican that you do not know, You will get a Democrat that you do not want"!

PLEASE select the Straight Republican Vote Ticket!!! It is easy and you will be out in 5 minutes!

Alan C. Lowe, Director
George W. Bush Presidential Library and Museum

Alan C. Lowe obtained his B.A. (1986) and M.A. (1988) in history at the University of Kentucky. In 1989, Lowe joined the staff of the Ronald Reagan Presidential Library in Simi Valley, California as an archivist. In 1992, he moved to the Office of Presidential Libraries at the National Archives and Records Administration in Washington, D.C. In the Office of Presidential Libraries, Lowe helped to oversee the many Presidential libraries located throughout the nation. During part of this time, he also served as interim Director of the Franklin D. Roosevelt Presidential Library in Hyde Park, New York.

From 2003 to 2009, Lowe served as the founding Executive Director of the Howard H. Baker, Jr. Center for Public Policy at the University of Tennessee. In that capacity, he created a host of public, educational, and research programs to increase civic engagement and promote a better understanding of policy issues. He also oversaw the completion of a facility for the Baker Center on the University of Tennessee campus.

In April 2009, Lowe began serving as Director of the George W. Bush Presidential Library. The mission of the Bush Library is to serve as a resource for the study of the life of George W. Bush, the Presidency, American history, issues of public policy, and civic education. The Library accomplishes its mission by preserving and providing access to Presidential records and other collections, hosting public programs, creating educational initiatives, and producing innovative museum exhibits. Currently located in a temporary building in Lewisville, Texas, the Library will move to a new facility on the campus of Southern Methodist University, slated to open to the public in 2013.

Lowe is a member of the Advisory Board for the Institute for Rural Journalism and Community Issues at the University of Kentucky. From 2003 until 2006, he served as the representative of former Senate Majority Leader William Frist on the Advisory Committee on the Records of Congress. He served as President of the Association of Centers for the Study of Congress, and as President of the Board of Directors of the William Blount Mansion Association. Lowe sat on the Board of Directors for WUOT, and for the East Tennessee Economic Council. He also served on the Advisory Panel for the Mayo Clinic Health Policy Center. In the summer of 2007, he was selected to take part in the 53rd annual National Security Seminar at the United States Army War College. Lowe is a graduate of the Leadership Knoxville class of 2007.

Lowe is a native of Bourbon County, Kentucky. He and his wife, Kathy, and daughter, Carolyn, reside in Lewisville, Texas.

Anita Hill Award

The Anita Hill Award will be presented annually at the DCCRW Christmas party. The award will honor one outstanding Republican woman who has consistently and continuously supported the Republican Party, its candidates, and its goals, objectives and values year after year.

To be eligible for nomination, individuals must have been a home member of a Dallas County Council Republican Women's club for at least five years, (including holding a current membership) and demonstrate a consistent Republican voting record.

Individuals may only win the award one time. Nominees may not be elected officers or directors on the current DCCRW board. Clubs and/or individuals may nominate a candidate.

The selection committee will consist of the Council President, one prior Anita Hill award winner, and one other Council board member. The Council President will serve as committee chairman.

Nominations will be accepted between September 1 and November 1 of each year. The selection committee will select the award winner from nominees in secret. The winner will be announced and honored at the annual Christmas party in early December.

Form may be obtained from the DCCRW website.

LEGISLATIVE ISSUES

Janet Clesi

More Obama Legislation by Fiat

Obama has just asked (threatened) contractors to violate federal law to help him get reelected. The Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act (known as WARN) requires companies with at least 100 employees to notify them 60 days before a mass layoff. Obama has promised to pay their legal fees that they will incur from violating the law.

Is it a SURPRISE THAT Obama ignores a law to aid his re-election.

Special POWER Rally Section

On behalf of the 2012 POWER Team, thank you for supporting the 2012 Power of Women to Elect Republicans "POWER" Rally! The POWER Rally message was simple and direct - we can, we must and we will elect Republicans in November ! As POWER women, we must use our great influence to elect GOP candidates at every level of government - starting in the White House, thru out the U.S. Congress, Texas and Dallas County! The stakes have never been higher. Survival of America, the land of the free and home of the brave, depends on the outcome of the November 6 elections.

Thank you for your commitment to our great Nation and to the Republican Party!

"Celebrate the POWER!"
