The Dallas County Council of Republican Women does not hold regular meetings in the summer. The September meeting will be the POWER Pep Rally! Details of the October meeting will be sent closer to the meeting date.

Some of the local Republican Women's Clubs meet during the summer. They would love to have you visit! See www.dccrw.org/local_clubs.html to find out more about what they have planned.

Please forward this email to your Republican friends and other like-minded women!

President's Message

It is officially summertime and I hope you are savoring a little change of pace, maybe enjoying a trip and/or visits with great folks in fun places. It won't be long til we are back in full swing, so make every day count!

The state convention is now a memory, run offs are finally decided and we can now focus on November, but for the time being we can slow down a little. Thanks by the way to all who worked those recent elections and of course, to those planning to work the elections yet to come in 2014!

the opening of the Victory Center yet? This is a great facility, open daily, and there is always some work we can all do to help improve Republican prospects on the November ballot. One of the Coppell Republican clubs has challenged the rest of us to see which club can volunteer the most hours, with an actual prize offered for the winning club! Let's rise to that challenge, knowing that the real winner will be the County of Dallas when our candidates prevail in November. So when you are in town and have a little window of time, grab a friend and go donate a couple of hours to help out at the Victory Center, located in the SW quadrant of the Central Expwy/Walnut Hill intersection. Manager K.C. Morland and his staff will be glad to see you!

And remember that the POWER Pep Rally is coming the first Saturday in September. Have you bought your ticket yet? The committee is working hard through the summer to be sure every detail is taken care of. A great program, powerful speakers and a very appealing marketplace will make this an event to remember. Please plan to be there and bring a friend! See you soon,
Vicki Goode

Parliamentary Points

(We welcome this ongoing column on Parliamentary Procedure written by DCCRW Parliamentarian, Shirley Selman!)

Rights, Responsibilities and Language!

There are certain rights with being a member of any organization. You have the right to pay your dues and be a member in good standing... and as long as you stay a member in good standing you have more rights!!!

There are three universal rights due to every member:

- Right to bring business to the floor (make a motion)
- Right to debate (give your opinion)
- Right to vote (let your voice count)

Many members are NOT AWARE of all of these rights

You have certain responsibilities as a member:

- Stay informed of issues
- Be respectful
- Be knowledgeable
- Offer your comments
- Vote your choices
- Your responsibility to Know the language
- Know the RULES strategy, to accomplish goals
- Know the language
- Be Responsible to attend, to be aware and to vote!

Any game has its language:

Baseball: strike; pitch, ball; Home run; walk

Football: Punt; kick; huddle; defense; penalty; goal

Parliamentary language

Debate: discussion on 'pro' and 'con' of a motion

Question: Ready for the question? = motion

(Are you ready to vote on the motion?)

Germane: Wording relating to same issue

Division: Means to re-take vote; by standing is one way.

It is imperative that the presiding officer (sometimes referred to as the chair) to be neutral in opinion and govern according to the rules. The bylaws of the organization supersede the authority of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised.

It is most necessary for all members, especially the officers, to have a working knowledge of the Bylaws and any 'Standing Rules' of the organization.

Remember that all remarks by members must be addressed through the Chair. Avoid using another member's name. They are referred to as 'the member'.

Remember: Respect Courtesy Order in all meetings.

Volunteer

Volunteers are needed at the Dallas County Republican Party Office. Shifts are from 9 am to 1 pm and 1 pm to 5 pm, one day a week, Monday through Friday. There are permanent openings on Mondays and Wednesdays now.

Subs are also needed to fill in at short notice when a volunteer can't be there.

The duties include answering phones and assisting Staff Members with other projects such as data entry, office organization, mailings, etc. Office experience is helpful.

If you can help or if you have questions, contact Nelva Vandeventer at nelva37@sbcglobal.net.

Training sessions will be held for all who volunteer.

The DCRP has announced the Race to Red Challenge.

Volunteer at the Victory Center and log your hours for your Republican Club or Republican Women's Club. Organize your club to volunteer as a group. The Club with the most hours will win a prize!

Volunteer opportunities will be available at the DCRP's Victory Center throughout the summer at various time of the day. Go by when you can! Remember: Log in your hours!

Phone Banking has started on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings!

Sign up for "This Week at the Vic," a weekly email of the activities, at victory@dallasgop.org

Super Saturday Block Walks also will be scheduled this summer. Information will be sent by the DCRP ahead of the walks.

News from TFRW

From TFRW President, Jodie Rushton,

As we are all aware, our southern border is currently in crisis due to the overwhelming number of migrants, both children and young adults, now crossing into our state. Speaker Joe Straus was on the border earlier this week meeting with Border Patrol agents, DPS Commanders and local law enforcement. He has released the following information concerning a comprehensive Texas response to this crisis in order to inform our members and keep us current on what is being done.

We thank Speaker Straus for sharing this information with TFRW and for his leadership. We pray for a resolution to this crisis which protects the citizens of Texas as well as these young adults and children.

NFRW's May Edition of the Round Table Newsletter

The May edition of "The NFRW Round Table," a monthly newsletter for Federation leaders, including club and state presidents, is available.

NFRW's goal is to foster a closer relationship with Federation leaders and to provide them with information, materials and tools to help build stronger state federations and clubs and to increase membership. While the newsletter is geared toward Federation leaders, all members are invited to access and read it.
