

GASTROENTEROLOGISTS, P.C.

We are pleased to announce that Nicole Thomas, CRNP, will become part of the dedicated team of providers at Gastroenterologists, P.C.

Nicole received her Bachelor of Science in Nursing from the University of Mobile, and a Master of Science in Nursing from Auburn University. Prior to pursuing her graduate degree, Nicole worked as a registered nurse for 18 years in a variety of hospital settings including the operating room, and cardiac catheterization unit.

Nicole has been working in the gastroenterology field for the past 2 years, and we are pleased she will be working with us to help serve our patients. Her exceptional clinical background and strong academic career make her an outstanding addition to our practice!
