

Ted Galantowicz Scholarship Fund

In honor of our founding member, the St. Louis Trade Compliance Practitioners Roundtable (STLTCPR) created a scholarship for St. Louis Community College (STLCC) students interested in international business.

Scholarship amount: $500.00

Awarded each Fall and Spring semester

How to qualify

- Students must complete the on-line scholarship application and other materials as required by STLCC at: stlcc.edu/Foundation/Scholarships.
- Enrolled in “Intro to Business” or “International Business” with a minimum 2.0 cumulative GPA. (GPA requirement waived for first semester freshmen)
- Full time student with at least 12 credit hours per semester
- Answer essay question (500 word maximum)
  - “Pick an experience from your life and explain how it has influenced your development and interest in international topics.”

Scoring Process

- Essays will be reviewed by a committee from the STLTCPR and a successful candidate will be announced each semester.

Questions: Please send questions to stltcpr@gmail.com and a board member will return your request as soon as possible. www.stltcpr.org
