Beatitudes for Modern Christians ~ Pope Francis

"Blessed are those who remain faithful while enduring evils inflicted on them by others and forgive them from their heart.

Blessed are those who look into the eyes of the abandoned and marginalized and show them their closeness.

Blessed are those who see God in every person and strive to make others also discover him.

Blessed are those who protect and care for our common home.

Blessed are those who renounce their own comfort in order to help others."

Thank You For Your Generosity

The world and all its pleasures are temporary. As tempting as these worldly realities are, we are called to conform ourselves to Christ's vision of the good life. In today's Gospel Jesus gives us a glimpse of heaven, and it is a vision which brings both consolation and warning.

In Luke's account of the Beatitudes, we witness how Jesus heals all those gathered in body and soul wile he teaches the multitudes what it means to live in friendship with God.

Jesus tells of the blessing we can expect, but he doesn't stop there. For those who remain attached to wealth, physical comforts and the good opinion of others, Jesus reminds us these things will not satisfy the deepest desires of the human heart. Our continued attachment to these thighs will cause us misery in this life and the next.

In that light, it is worth considering the words of the prophet Jeremiah from today's first reading. Where do we put our faith? Is our trust in the Lord, or elsewhere? Who (or what) commands our loyalty?

Let us give thanks to God for the wisdom and transformative power of Christ. Through God's grace may we persevere in following Jesus' example, focused on a vision of what truly counts.

(Cheridan Sanders, Living with Christ)

Nel Vangelo di Luca, le beatitudini si rivolgono a coloro che hanno già scelto il Signore, ai discepoli. Seguirlo significa abbandonare tutto (Lc 9,23), rinunciare agli agi (Lc 9,58), essere detestati (cf. Gv 17,14), allontanati dalle cerchie del potere, dai soldi e dall'onore (cf. Gv 16.2).

Il credente che riesce dappertutto, che riceve dal mondo ossequi e considerazione, si metta a tremare, si inquieti perché sarà inghiottito e digerito dal mondo che ama possedere (cf. Gv 15,19).

Non si tratta di demagogia né di paura della vita. Gesù non è un dotto professore di etica, né un sistematico autore di trattati di morale. La sua predicazione è una denuncia profetica: frasi corte e forti contrasti.

Le sue parole rimandano a situazioni correnti: l'abbondanza dei beni, la ricerca insaziabile del piacere, il desiderio del successo e dell'applauso,... tutte queste pretese producono la vanità (danno una falsa sicurezza), rendono orgogliosi (ci fanno credere che siamo più importanti degli altri), divinizzano (molte persone adorano coloro che posseggono e si prostrano davanti a loro), induriscono (rendono incomprensivi e privi di solidarietà), corrompono (finiscono per opprimere, credendo di farlo anche con la benedizione di Dio).

Le beatitudini ci avvertono seriamente: stabiliamoci nella verità di Gesù e cerchiamo di non sbagliarci nel momento decisivo.
