

In Loving Memory

November Month of All Souls...

During the month of November, we are called to pray in a particular way for those who have died. There will be a special Memorial Prayer Box placed in the Sanctuary during this month. The names of the deceased may be written on the envelopes provided and placed in the Memorial Prayer Box. The deceased will be remembered in all the Masses celebrated during November.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

St. Augustine's Seminary Lay Formation Program:
Light in the Darkness: Debunking Black Legends of the Catholic Church in History

Saturday, November 9th - 9:30am to 3:00pm

Join Fr. Séamus Hogan, Professor of Church History, as he confronts false versions of Catholic history which portray the church as a violent, ignorant, worldly and bigoted institution. Fr. Séamus reveals the true facts around historical events such as the Crusades, the Inquisition and many others. Spend the day debunking myths in order to discover the real truth of the church's history. Holy Mass at St. Augustine's venerable chapel is included with registration. Feel free to invite friends and family to join us on this day!

Cost: $50 (includes lunch) Contact: St. Augustine's Seminary

In Jesus' day, tax collectors were not popular people. They were collaborators with the Romans and were despised by many Jewish people. The tax system allowed them to charge more than what was required so that they could make a profit for themselves. Thus, they were considered sinners by their countrymen. Observers in the crowd that day grumble because Jesus dines with a sinner.

Throughout Scripture, Jesus' choice of dinner companions set him apart from other observant Jews of his time. In first century Jewish culture, to dine together was to show a bond of fellowship and peace among those at the table. Observant Jews did not generally dine with foreigners and sinners. Yet, Jesus chooses to honor the tax collector, Zacchaeus, by staying at his house.

Even before Jesus comes to his home, Zacchaeus shows himself to be someone in search of salvation. Zacchaeus, described as short in stature, climbs a tree in order to see Jesus. We know from Luke's description that Zacchaeus was no ordinary tax collector; he was, in fact, the chief tax collector and a person of some wealth. In his search for salvation, he humbled himself by making a spectacle of himself by climbing a tree.

Jesus recognizes the faith of this tax collector exhibited in his search for salvation and calls him down from the tree. In the hospitality he extends to Jesus and in his conversion of heart, Zacchaeus is raised up by Jesus as a model of salvation. (loyolapress.com)

A Gerico si trovava un posto di controllo doganale dell'amministrazione romana. Zaccheo era il capo dei controllori.

Egli aveva sulla coscienza non solo le estorsioni e le malversazioni finanziarie abituali fra i "doganieri" dell'epoca, ma era considerato anche traditore politico e religioso, perché collaborava con i detestati oppressori della Palestina e, anzi, li sosteneva. Non sappiamo quali motivazioni spingessero Zaccheo nel desiderio di vedere Gesù. Nessuno tra la folla degli Ebrei pii gli fa posto in prima fila, né gli permette di salire sul suo tetto e perciò Zaccheo deve salire su un albero. Vedendolo, Gesù, di sua iniziativa, si invita a casa sua. Non solo Zaccheo è pieno di gioia, ma Gesù stesso è felice di poter perdonare il peccatore pentito e di accoglierlo come un figlio prodigo. Gesù esprime la sua gioia con queste parole: "Oggi la salvezza è entrata in questa casa, perché anch'egli è figlio di Abramo". Gesù esprime così il suo amore e il suo completo dedicarsi ai peccatori: sono essi che si sono allontanati, eppure è lui che è venuto a cercarli.
