The Travelling Vocations Chalice Family Prayer for Vocations

We are looking for more families who are interested in bringing the Travelling Chalice home for the week. The Chalice is offered to you as a reminder of your obligation to pray for vocations. It is a prayer tool intended to encourage within the family, prayers of thanksgiving to God for all our Priests and Religious, and to continue to beseech God to expand the hearts and minds of the many men and women whom Jesus continues to call with the words, "Come, follow me."

How does the program work?

- Please provide family name, address, contact information and the weekend mass which you usually attend.
- The designated family will receive the chalice after Communion during the weekend Mass which they attend.
- The family will keep the chalice, with the prayer booklets, for seven days.
 - The family will return the chalice to Father (in the Sacristy) before the 5pm Saturday Vigil Mass.

Families who are interested in bringing the chalice home are asked to contact the office.

Thank You For Your Generosity

Today's reading are about faith and hope, virtues that are much needed in a world where people suffer the "demons" of poverty, racial inequality, fear of strangers, or fear of anyone who is different from what is accepted as "normal". When our safety and security are threatened, we try to hold on desperately to what we have and what we know.

Jesus gave freedom to those oppressed by demons because he was rooted in the love of God. The Pharisees, being rooted in the letter of the law, were not able to bring freedom to those who were suffering. They sought safety in the law: it was familiar and tried. Jesus stepped outside those boundaries and turned to the indulgent love of God to free the suffering.

We like the Pharisees, are sometimes trapped by our fears and, not being rooted in the love of God, cannot think and act as Jesus did. In order to ask critical questions about why injustice exists, or to step outside of our comfort zone to try something different to alleviate suffering, we must be rooted in God.

In today's Eucharist, let us pray for grace to be rooted in God so that we, like Jesus, can confront evil and bring freedom to those who suffer.

(Anthony Chezzi, Living with Christ)

Gli scribi, accecati nella loro opposizione al Signore, diffondono la voce che Gesù ha potere sui demoni perché egli è sottomesso a Beelzebul. Davanti a tali dicerie, il Signore vuole insegnare ai suoi discepoli l'importanza della comunione: il regno che è venuto a stabilire sulla terra non vacillerà e non perderà la sua virtù, se essi rimarranno uniti. Approfittiamo di questo insegnamento per esaminare il nostro atteggiamento di fronte alle azioni del prossimo, e in particolare se si tratta di membri della Chiesa. Pensiamo per esempio che i giudizi inutili - e talvolta temerari -, i dubbi senza motivo o i commenti negativi sulle intenzioni degli altri infrangono l'unità e la comunione della Chiesa. Noi dobbiamo avere, al contrario, un grande amore per l'unità, nella diversità legittima che si riscontra nel popolo di Dio. Anche se siamo tutti molto diversi, il nostro amore per la Chiesa saprà passare sopra questa diversità. Se ci orientiamo veramente verso la santità, lottando nel cammino che Dio stabilisce per ognuno di noi, perché non dovremmo essere uniti? E, se vediamo dei difetti negli altri, il nostro atteggiamento sarà di comprensione piena di misericordia, cercando di aiutarli a superarli. Abbiamo quindi bisogno di una grande rettitudine e umiltà, per evitare la posizione di coloro che - come quelli che accusano il Signore di essere posseduto da uno spirito immondo - interpretano male l'opera degli altri e rifiutano per principio di riconoscere l'azione di Dio nelle iniziative altrui.
