Humanitarian Relief - Indonesia & Philippines

On September 15, Typhoon Mangkhut struck the Philippines and killed 80 people as a result of the storm and related landslides, flash flood and destruction of homes, infrastructure and crops. Days later, on September 28, an earthquake off the coast of Sulawesi island, Indonesia, caused a tsunami with waves six meters high.

To date, more than 1700 people have been confirmed dead and more than 5000 people remain missing. In an effort to support the survivors of these two significant disasters, the Archdiocese of Toronto is accepting funds that will be sent through Caritas Internationalis, the official relief network of the Vatican. In both countries, Caritas agencies have deployed workers to provide food, drinking water, temporary shelter and medical support.

Those wishing to help may do so in the following ways:

- Online through the Archdiocese of Toronto website: www.archtoronto.org
- By phone through the Development Office at 416-934-3411
 - Through the parish, making cheques payable to:
Our Lady of the Airways - 2018 Philippines - Disaster Relief
OR Our Lady of the Airways - 2018 Indonesia - Disaster Relief

Vocations Corner...

If we really believe in something, it does not seem to be a sacrifice to give up everything else to pursue that new dream. Jesus asks the same as any great leader... total dedication; but He promises rewards no else can promise.

"You will have treasure in Heaven, then come, follow Me."

Come, follow the call of Christ as a priest, sister, brother or deacon. If you think God is calling you to one of these, call Fr. Chris Lemieux, Vocation Director, Archdiocese of Toronto 416-968-0997.

God ALL
WITH things are Possible

"What must I do?" asked the rich man. Jesus' answer is a challenge. It is not just one more thing the man must add to his 'to do' list, but the essential thing. Jesus asks him to give up everything and follow him. It is not a simple answer. The rich man had accomplished much and was ready to do more. But Jesus' reply knocks the wind out of his sails. Jesus is calling the man, and us, to trust more deeply - to sacrifice and be transformed.

It is easy to get caught up in depending upon ourselves, but our relationship with Jesus calls us to a radical trust. Give up our plans, our back-up plans, our safety nets and our stockpiles. Put Jesus first and let everything else go. Until we lay down our lives, we are still serving only in part.

Jesus' answer, said with love, convicts the man of holding back. His words shock the man out of his illusion that he is on his way to eternal life, for "the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword" - he must accept the challenge to go deeper. It is no easy thing - he must sacrifice everything to follow Jesus. What happened to the man? Did he accept the challenge? Do we? For with God, "all things are possible."

(Kelly Bourke, Living with Christ)

Quest'uomo sembrava avere tutto. Egli era ricco e, in più, obbediva ai comandamenti divini. Si è rivolto a Gesù perché voleva anche la vita eterna, che desiderava fosse come una assicurazione a lunga scadenza, come quella che si ottiene da una grande ricchezza. Gesù aveva già annunciato che per salvare la propria vita bisognava essere disposti a perderla, cioè che per seguirlo occorreva rinnegare se stessi e portare la propria croce (Mc 8,34-35). L'uomo era sincero e si guadagnò uno sguardo pieno d'amore da parte di Gesù: "Una sola cosa ti manca, decisiva per te. Rinuncia a possedere, investi nel tesoro del cielo, e il tuo cuore sarà libero e potrà seguirmi". Ma né lo sguardo né le parole di Gesù ebbero effetto. Quest'uomo, rattristato, certo, ha tuttavia preferito ritornare alla sicurezza che gli procurava la propria ricchezza. Non ha potuto o voluto capire che gli veniva offerto un bene incomparabilmente più prezioso e duraturo: l'amore di Cristo che comunica la pienezza di Dio (Ef 3,18-19). Paolo lo aveva capito bene quando scrisse: "Tutto ormai io reputo spazzatura, al fine di guadagnare Cristo... si tratta di conoscerlo e di provare la potenza della sua risurrezione..." (Fil 3,8-10).
