Humanitarian Relief - Indonesia & Philippines

On September 15, Typhoon Mangkhut struck the Philippines and killed 80 people as a result of the storm and related landslides, flash flood and destruction of homes, infrastructure and crops. Days later, on September 28, an earthquake off the coast of Sulawesi island, Indonesia, caused a tsunami with waves six meters high.

To date, more than 1700 people have been confirmed dead and more than 5000 people remain missing. In an effort to support the survivors of these two significant disasters, the Archdiocese of Toronto is accepting funds that will be sent through Caritas Internationalis, the official relief network of the Vatican. In both countries, Caritas agencies have deployed workers to provide food, drinking water, temporary shelter and medical support.

World Mission Sunday Special Collection - October 21st

There will be a second collection today for the Evangelization of the Nations, otherwise known as World Mission Sunday. This is a worldwide collection for the missionary church and it is our opportunity to assist at-need Catholic communities globally.

Offerings are combined with donations from other Catholics around the world and distributed to missions and dioceses. We are called to share from our abundance with those less fortunate who lack the basic essentials to know, love and praise our God. Thank you for your support of this important work.

PAG is also used in other parishes, and we want to offer PAG to those who would like to use it. If you are ready to join the program, please bring a void cheque with you.

Thank You For Your Generosity

"Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you." We can often identify with both James and John from today's Gospel when we directly ask God for what we want. Or perhaps we do it indirectly. We attend Mass regularly, act more obediently, and secretly hope that God is noticing and will make our requests come to fruition.

I think of how often I have treated Jesus like that one friend who people call only when they need something. Imagine if your phone rang only when people needed something from you. It would become pretty tiresome. However, Jesus does not scold his disciples, or us, for these requests. Jesus makes reference to his ultimate sacrifice. He tries to tell them that he has come to die on the cross, to pay for the sins of the world, so that we may have a loving relationship with God.

God hears all of our requests. He knows exactly what we need and when we need it. I, myself, have made some pretty steep requests, and while God might not seem to answer when I want him to, he answers when I need it. God gives me so much more than what I asked for. He gave the ultimate sacrifice of his only Son.

(Jacki Lavigne, Living with Christ)

Gesù reagisce vivamente di fronte alla minaccia che pesa ancora una volta sulla sua comunità a causa dell'ambizione sfrenata di avere i primi posti, di conquistare il potere. La sua lezione è molto severa, quasi solenne. Egli propone in compenso una nuova economia sociale: quella di una comunità senza potere la cui sola regola è servire, fino a offrire la propria vita per i fratelli, bevendo il calice fino all'ultima goccia. E per tutti i suoi membri, perché tutti sono fratelli.

All'immagine del capo che comanda si oppone quella del capo che serve. Ed ecco che i capi avranno paradossalmente un solo compito: servire. Il suo prototipo è il Messia, diventato piuttosto il Figlio dell'uomo, schiavo di tutti gli schiavi, per il riscatto dei quali egli offre quello che possiede e quello che è: tutto. Egli ha appena formulato il suo progetto di comunità, la sua carta "costituzionale", alla quale tutti i partecipanti devono aderire: ognuno è servitore di tutti.
