MONTH OF ALL SOULS REMEMBERING THE DEAD

During the month of November, we are called to pray in a particular way for those who have died. We begin the month with the celebration of All Saints Day, November 1st, seeking the intercession of all the Saints who have provided us with such a great witness of faith. On All Souls' Day, November 2nd, we pray for all who have died, that they may be granted the gift of eternal life.

There will be a special Memorial Prayer Box placed in the Sanctuary during the month of November. The names of the deceased may be written on the envelopes provided and placed in the Memorial Prayer Box.

The deceased will be remembered in all the Masses celebrated during November.

Vocations Corner...

The blind beggar Bartimaeus would not listen to the many people scolding him to be quiet, but shouted all the louder in prayer "Son of David, have mercy on me!" Only then did Jesus call him over and answered his need. Bartimaeus becomes a powerful example of how persistent we must be in prayer when we are asking God to show us His Will for our lives. And then, ask Him for the grace to accept it.

JOURNEY OF Faith

Do you know what you want? Really want? Sometimes we act like we want things that we do not need, which might be harmful for us. Or are we blind because we have not thought it through, are being impulsive, or have not dug deep enough into our heart and soul to see what we want?

Try keeping it simple - an act that requires confidence and humility.

Bartimaeus follows this principle. He know what he wants - his sight. Furthermore, he has faith that he will get his sight even before he asks for the miracle from Jesus. He casts aside his cloak—hardly an act of a blind person who could not find anything within reach. Jesus uses the same economy; he cures Bartimaeus and reveals the key to the cure.

How many of us cling to things that interfere with getting closer to God.? Often, we wear them like a cloak - envy, gluttony, greed or avarice, lust, pride, sloth and wrath. These sins are often confused with what we need and want, and we sometimes try to justify hanging onto them, But in the end, we find that they distance us from God.

The miraculous key that Jesus identified is faith. Do we have the courage to fling off the cloak? It is that simple - faith can help us find the way when we are blinded by confusion over what is important. Faith will save us.

(Patrick Doyle, Living with Christ)

L'evangelista Marco che ascoltiamo quest'anno ci presenta le azioni e le parole di Gesù durante il suo viaggio a Gerusalemme. Viaggio sicuramente topografico, ma anche e soprattutto simbolico. Questa strada che Gesù percorre con entusiasmo - "Gesù li precedeva" - e dove i discepoli lo seguono con diffidenza o inquietudine - "essi erano spaventati, e coloro che seguivano erano anche timorosi" (Mc 10,32) - qui arriva al termine. Ecco il contest della lettura sulla quale meditiamo oggi.

Al termine del cammino, oggi incontriamo un cieco. Un cieco, che, in più, è un mendicante. In lui c'è oscurità, tenebre, e assenza. E attorno a lui c'è soltanto il rigetto: "Molti lo sgridavano per farlo tacere". Gesù chiama il cieco, ascolta la sua preghiera, e la esaudisce. Anche oggi, qui, tra coloro che il Signore ha riunito, "ci sono il cieco e lo zoppo" (prima lettura) - quello che noi siamo - ed è per questo che le azioni di Gesù, che ci vengono raccontate, devono renderci più pieni di speranza.

È nel momento in cui termina il viaggio di Gesù a Gerusalemme (e dove termina il ciclo liturgico), che un mendicante cieco celebra Gesù e lo riconosce come "Figlio di Davide", o Messia; e questo mendicante riacquista la vista e "segue Gesù per la strada". È un simbolo, un invito. Chiediamo al Signore che ci accordi la luce della fede e ci dia vigore, affinché lo seguiamo come il cieco di Gerico, fino a che non avremo raggiunto la Gerusalemme definitiva.
