

In Loving Memory

November Month of All Souls...

During the month of November, we are called to pray in a particular way for those who have died. There will be a special Memorial Prayer Box placed in the Sanctuary during this month. The names of the deceased may be written on the envelopes provided and placed in the Memorial Prayer Box. The deceased will be remembered in all the Masses celebrated during November.

Christmas Concert at Our Lady of the Airways Sunday, December 2nd at 4:30pm

Our Lady of the Airways Legion of Mary

Invite Our Lady of Fatima into your home this year!

The Legion of Mary is a lay apostolic association of Catholics who serve the Church and their neighbour on a voluntary basis in about 170 countries. The objective of the Legion of Mary is to glorify God through the holiness of its members developed by prayer and active co-operation in Mary's and the Church's work.

We hold weekly meetings on Saturday mornings at 9:00am in the chapel, where prayer is intermingled with reports and discussion. We invite you to consider joining our association.

Please consider inviting the statue of Our Lady of Fatima into your home this year. Let her presence bring blessings and graces to your family as you celebrate birthdays, anniversaries, milestones or special events.

For information please contact the Legion of Mary:

New Beginnings is a ministry dedicated to assisting those who have suffered a loss through separation, divorce or the death of a loved one.

I have been spending time with people who know the law enough to know that they have broken it. From the beginning of time, they have been told by those around them that they are damaged goods, not worthy of care and attention. Some of them have been shamed in the core of their being and their law-abiding communities have attempted to straighten them out even if it kills them.

The "damaged goods" people cope with the bad news of not being good enough by using drugs or other ways of numbing their pain; then they sell their bodies to use more drugs; some get pregnant and end their pregnancy; and to survive the shame and the guilt that is choking them they then use even more drugs.

If Christ came today, he would come again for such as these. He would spend time with them and love them in their "as is" state. When the law-abiding neighbours would approach him with their mistrust and disapproval, he would remind them of the good news that the Law is Love. If they loved God full-time and cared for their neighbor for the rest of the time, the reign of God would be theirs here and now.

(Mária Karajovanova, Living with Christ)

Bisogna considerare lo scriba del passo del Vangelo di Marco con grande benevolenza. Spesso Gesù accusa gli scribi di interessarsi più ai giochi di parole che non ai veri mali dei loro fratelli. Ma nulla di tutto ciò in questo brano. Ecco un uomo che cerca di conoscere. È un uomo alla ricerca di Dio, un uomo che vuole sapere come potere raggiungere Dio con sicurezza. Questo significa la sua domanda su quale sia il comandamento più importante. Gesù gli risponde in modo relativamente prevedibile, ma che va all'essenziale. Da tutta la Legge, ricava il solo comandamento che dà lo spirito della Legge stessa. Questo comandamento è divenuto una preghiera (Dt 6,4-5) che bisogna avere sempre nel proprio cuore, nella propria mente, nelle proprie mani e nella propria casa. Gesù vi aggiunge la necessità di metterlo in pratica, mediante quell'amore per il prossimo che permette a ciascuno di verificare se ama davvero Dio (1Gv 4,20). Lo scriba allora, felice di essere riconfortato nella propria fede, si felicita con Gesù. Ecco l'uomo che si complimenta con Dio, l'uomo che è contento di ritrovarsi in accordo con Dio. Non è commovente questo vecchio saggio che si complimenta con il giovane Rabbi, senza nemmeno sospettare che è con Dio stesso che si complimenta? Gesù ne è commosso. Accoglie con gioia l'osservazione di quest'uomo che è un vero credente, senza risparmio (Gv 1,47). Allora, gli apre il regno. Gesù risponde alle sue lodi con un'osservazione che ciascuno di noi vorrebbe sentirsi fare. Conferma lo scriba nella sua fede e, dandogli una garanzia come non ce ne sono altre, lo rassicura che non si sta sbagliando.

Vocations Corner...

"To love Him with all the heart and with all the understanding, and with all the strength" and "to love one's neighbour as oneself" are the greatest commandments.
