A Message for the World Day of Migrants and Refugees

"Migrants and refugees are not pawns on the chessboard of humanity. They are children, women and men who leave or who are forced to leave their homes for various reasons, who share a legitimate desire for knowing and having, but above all for being more."

"The superabundance of Cana is therefore a sign that God's feast with humanity, his self-giving for men, has begun. The hour of God's marriage feast with his people has begun in the coming of Jesus. The promise of the last days enters into the Now."
 - Pope Benedict XVI

Thank You For Your Generosity

What a fizzle the wedding feast might have been had Jesus not intervened! In today's Gospel, we see Jesus saving the couple's dignity by providing wine when they had run out. Jesus overcomes his reluctance to reveal himself at that moment, and he is exceedingly generous with the quality and quantity of the wine he contributes.

Indeed, Jesus is concerned for the dignity of every person. As I write this, I have come from a Sunday mass where a newly arrived refugee family was welcomed—a father, mother and three young girls. Each of the five said a simple "thank you" to the congregation which has given generously to help them through their first year in Canada.

They were migrants first, fleeing their home in desperation. I tried to imagine what they must have gone through and left behind, the patience and hope they surely needed during their long wait in a camp, and now the courage they will need to settle in a new country and learn a new language.

St. Paul reminds us that we are given the gifts of the Spirit to use for the common good. Today, as we remember migrants and refugees, let us resolve to use our gifts to give others their dignity.

(Beth Porter, Living with Christ)

Non è venuta la mia ora, dice Gesù alla Madre che, a tutta prima, sembra essere stata importuna dicendo: "Non hanno più vino". Cos'è l'"ora"?

Per Giovanni è il momento cruciale, del Calvario anzitutto; la cruna dell'ago attraverso cui deve passare per essere rivoltata tutta quanta la storia, di tutti gli uomini e di tutti i tempi; ma l'ora è anche il tempo della missione pubblica che la prepara: quello è il tempo dei segni, dei miracoli!

Anche Gesù obbedisce ad un tempo che non è il suo, che il Padre gli ha assegnato, di cui egli non è più in un certo senso padrone perché, pur essendo Dio, ha lasciato la sua forma divina presso il Padre e non vuole disporne come uomo.

L'umanissimo miracolo di Cana è un miracolo della fede di Maria. Come sarà per la cananea, come avverrà per il centurione, la fede di Maria ottiene dal Padre che Gesù anticipi l'ora. E si vede allora la forza della "donna" che apre qui al banchetto di Cana e chiude sotto la croce gli estremi dell'"ora".

La forza della fede brilla pure nella gioia del maestro di tavola mentre gusta il buon vino: la compagnia di Dio all'uomo è umanissima ed integrale. "Non di solo pane", dirà Gesù, ma intanto fornisce ai commensali, che allietano gli sposi, dell'ottimo vino.
