Prayer of Confession (Psalm 102)

Hear my prayer, O Lord! Let my cry for help come to You. You will arise and have compassion on Zion; for it is time to be gracious to her, for the appointed time has come. He has regarded the prayer of the destitute and has not despised their prayer. For He looked down from His holy height; from heaven, the Lord gazed upon earth, to hear the groaning of the prisoner, to set free those who were doomed to death. In Jesus' name I pray, Amen.

Q57: What comfort does "the resurrection of the body" afford you?

A57: That not only my soul after this life shall be immediately taken up to Christ its head; but also, that this my body, being raised by the power of Christ, shall be reunited with my soul, and made like unto the glorious body of Christ.

Q58: What comfort do you take from the article of "life everlasting?"

A58: That since I now feel in my heart the beginning of eternal joy, after this life, I shall inherit perfect salvation, which "eye has not seen, nor ear heard, neither has it entered into the heart of man" to conceive, and that to praise God therein forever.
