

Accelerating Team Performance

Beyond Team Building → Team Boosting

In the new era of virtual teams, cross-organizational collaboration, and freelance workforces mere teambuilding is not enough. You must quickly assess, address and accelerate team performance in order to yield meaningful and measurable results. That is our expertise. Make it yours.

Accelerating Team Performance

Strengths PRO

What's that buzzing sound? It's the new buzz word, Collaboration and it is your turn to collaborate! You know that teamwork is important and it shouldn't be that hard, but somehow it always is. There are power plays, weak links and miscommunication. At best it is not an engaging work environment, at worst the results suffer. You're looking for more than just general strategies, you want an innovative approach customized to you and the needs of your team.

With StrengthsPRO's Accelerating Team Performance program you'll learn:

- What it takes to start up, sustain and separate a team
- More than just your role, your contribution to the team
- How to collaborate with others with dissimilar or even opposite styles to your own
- The critical partnerships necessary for team success and how best to leverage them
- Conflict prevention and resolution strategies
- Much, much more!
