The "Each One Reach One" is a campaign designed to reach girls and women who are not involved in Politics. We need to seek out those who want to be part of the next generation of Republican Women. The Republican Women of Trussville Club is actively reaching out to all girls and women who are interested in playing an active role in their local, state and federal governments. Our focus will be reaching those girls and women who are in our social circles and Churches.

Each RWOT member is asked to invite girls and women to visit our Club and see if it is a fit for them. Our overall goal is to create a Club that is open to all ages of girls and women, that will be active in the political process in all areas of government and that ensures our Country continues in the Conservative values of our Founders.

SPOTLIGHT!

The Trump Inauguration

Activists Want To Turn Inauguration Into One Of The Biggest Riots In US History

From Prophecy News Watch (January 12, 2017)

Radical leftists are planning to make January 20th the most chaotic Inauguration Day in American history. Their stated goal is to "disrupt" the Inauguration festivities as much as possible, and they are planning a wide range of "actions" to achieve that stated goal.

Some of the more moderate groups are using terms such as "civil resistance" and "civil disobedience", but others are openly talking about "blockades", jumping barricades, throwing projectiles and "citywide paralysis".

My hope is that all of their efforts will turn out to be a big flop, but it is important to understand that these groups are well funded, highly organized and extremely motivated.

The election of Donald Trump has been perhaps the single most galvanizing moment for the radical left in modern American history, and they are working very hard to turn January 20th into a major political statement.

In fact, just recently one activist group took out a full page ad in the New York Times...

Thousands of activists, journalists, scientists, entertainers, and other prominent voices took out a full-page call to action in the New York Times on Wednesday making clear their rejection of President-elect Donald Trump and Vice President-elect Mike Pence with the simple message: "No!"

"Stop the Trump/Pence regime before it starts! In the name of humanity we refuse to accept a fascist America!" the ad states, followed by a list of signatories that includes scholar Cornel West; author Alice Walker; Chase Iron Eyes of the Standing Rock Sioux; educator Bill Ayers; poet Saul Williams; CNN's Marc Lamont Hill; Carl Dix of the Communist Party USA; and numerous others.

The ad pointed people to refusefascism.org, and it asserted that Trump must be stopped whether he was legitimately elected or not...

Trump promises to inflict repression and suffering on people in this country, to deport millions, to increase violence up to the use of nuclear weapons on people across the globe, and to inflict catastrophes upon the planet itself.

He has assembled a cabinet of Christian fundamentalist fanatics, war mongers, racists, science deniers. NO! His regime must not be allowed to consolidate. We REFUSE to accept a Fascist America!

If you go to refusefascism.org, you will discover that the protests that they are organizing in Washington D.C. will begin on January 14th. They say that they want to "stop the Trump-Pence regime before it starts", and they hope to have protests going "every day and every night" without interruption through at least January 20th.

Another group that plans to kick things off on January 14th is DisruptJ20. Of course that is short for "Disrupt January 20th". If you go to their official website, you will find a long slate of events that have already been scheduled.

According to Legba Carrefour, a spokesperson for DisruptJ20, one of the goals of the group is to block major transportation routes into and throughout our nation's capital. And he is not shy about the fact that they literally want to "shut down the Inauguration"...

"We are planning to shut down the inauguration, that's the short of it," he says. "We're pretty literal about that, we are trying to create citywide paralysis on a level that I don't think has been seen in D.C. before. We're trying to shut down pretty much every ingress into the city as well as every checkpoint around the actual inauguration parade route."

If Carrefour and his fellow conspirators are able to actually accomplish that, it truly would be unprecedented.

And while DisruptJ20 is not publicly advocating violence, they are not exactly discouraging it either...

Carrefour says DisruptJ20 has no publicly announced plans to jump barricades along the inauguration parade route or throw projectiles at the new president, but that autonomous direct actions are encouraged.

"I can't comment on specific stuff we're doing like that, mostly because that would be illegal. But, yeah, it will get pretty crazy, I expect," he says. "Have fun! I say."

After the rioting that we have seen in Baltimore, Ferguson, Charlotte and many other communities around the nation in recent years, I hope that authorities are taking these threats quite seriously.

Once Donald Trump won the election, many conservatives seemed to think that the war was won. But the truth of the matter is that many on the left were completely blindsided by Trump's surprise victory, and now that they are fully awake they are gearing up for battle like never before.

And these protests are not going to end on January 20th. In fact, abortion advocates are hoping to get close to a million women into Washington D.C. on the day following the Inauguration to protest for abortion rights.

Filmmaker Michael Moore is hoping that this march will be the beginning of "100 days of resistance" against Trump's presidency...

Filmmaker and liberal icon Michael Moore has announced his plans to attend the Women's March on Washington to protest Donald Trump's inauguration later this month and has called for sore loser liberals to go further -- by staging protests acts of resistance through the first 100 days of Trump's presidency.

In an appearance, this weekend on MSNBC's The Last Word, the 62-year-old Trumpland and Fahrenheit 9/11 director made a "call to arms" to those opposed to Trump's presidency to join the Women's March on Washington scheduled for January 21, the day after the presidential inauguration.

"It's important that everybody go there," Moore told MSNBC's Ari Melber.

Of course it is easy to imagine how all of this could spiral wildly out of control. If Trump cracks down on these protests really hard in an attempt to restore law and order, that could end up sparking a dramatic backlash against his "police state tactics".

And if the protests become even bigger and more violent, Trump could respond by cracking down even more harshly.

Let us hope for some really cold weather in D.C. at the end of January so that as many troublemakers as possible get discouraged and stay home.

Violent protests, blockades and riots aren't going to solve anything, and they could easily open fresh wounds in a nation that is becoming more divided with each passing day.

to me

1/18/2017

There's a new name for those bearing hostility toward President-elect Trump's victory and their obstructionism: Trump Derangement Syndrome (TDS)!

Let's rally to stop those radicals who desire to create as many obstacles as possible to the president-elect! Friends of Liberty Counsel Action, rise up and tell our United States Senators what we think of President Trump's nominations. You can access LCA's Cabinet Poll by going here: here. http://www.lcaction.cc/201749/survey.asp?Ref\_ID=38951&CID=201749&RID=46940535

There is more information on the Democrats' blockade efforts below – Mat.

Former White House Press Secretary Ari Fleischer told a WABC radio audience that he has never before witnessed such hostility toward an incoming President.

"But I've never seen the left go so nuts, so early, so hard... Donald Trump will go into office on Day One with a Trump Derangement Syndrome..."

Los Angeles Times guest columnist Justin Raimondo wrote about TDS in a recent column:

"The country is in the throes of a major epidemic, with no known cure and some pretty scary symptoms. It's called Trump Derangement Syndrome, or TDS, and it's rapidly spreading from the point of origin – the political class – to the population at large. In the first stage of the disease, victims lose all sense of proportion. The president-elect's every tweet provokes a firestorm, as if 140 characters were all it took to change the world..."

In the advanced stages of the disease, the afflicted lose touch with reality. Opinion is unmoored from fact... As TDS progresses, the afflicted lose the ability to distinguish fantasy from reality."

It was psychiatrist and commentator Charles Krauthammer who first declared a new psychiatric syndrome back in 2003: "Bush Derangement Syndrome." What was true then is even more so today!

President's Commentary

Dear RWOT Members and Friends,

Well, I guess you can see our job is not over. We need to show people our way is better.

The nation is in turmoil and it does not look like it is going to change for awhile. As long as we have people like Bill Ayers, Michael Moore, DisruptJ20, Black Lives Matter and other groups determined to cause chaos and destroy our Republic, we must be vigilant and prayerful.

Pray for President Elect Donald Trump and his cabinet. Pray for them to have wisdom from above. Pray for peace. Pray for integrity.

Our Governor needs guidance to choose a new Jefferson County District Attorney and someone to take Senator Sessions seat.

Legislative Days is right around the corner. Please consider going. There is much to learn.

Tell your friends and neighbors the fight is not over and to come join us.

And as always, continue to pray for our country and Israel. God bless America!
