(ii) in a manner that the person reasonably believed to be in the best interest of the Association; and

(iii) with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct was unlawful.

The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement or conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not of itself create a presumption that such person did not act in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the Association and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, that such person had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct was unlawful.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (a) above, unless a court of competent jurisdiction determines that, in view of all circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to expenses, no indemnification shall be made:

(i) in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the Association, in which such person has been adjudged to be liable to the Association; or

(ii) in connection with any other proceeding charging that such person received an improper personal benefit, whether or not involving action in an official capacity, in which such person has been adjudged liable on the basis such person received an improper personal benefit.

(c) To the extent that such person has been wholly successful on the merits in defense of any action, suit or proceeding as described above, such person shall be indemnified against actual and reasonable expenses (including expert witness fees, attorneys' fees and costs) incurred in connection with the action, suit or proceeding.

Section 12.2 Determination Required.

(a) The Board of Directors shall determine whether the person requesting indemnification has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth above. The determination shall be made by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of those members of the Board of Directors who were not parties to the action suit or proceeding.

(b) If a quorum cannot be obtained as contemplated above or if a quorum has been obtained and the Board so directs, a determination may be made by:

(i) independent legal counsel selected by a majority of the full Board; or

(ii) the voting members, but voting members who are also at the same time seeking indemnification may not vote on the determination.

Section 12.3 Payment in Advance of Final Disposition. The Association shall pay for or reimburse the reasonable expenses as described above in advance of final disposition of the action, suit or proceeding if the person requesting indemnification provides the Board of Directors with:

(a) a written affirmation of such person's good faith belief that he or she has met the standard of conduct described above; and

(b) a written statement that such person shall repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that he or she did not meet the standard of conduct described above.

Section 12.4 No Limitation of Rights. The indemnification provided in this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of nor a limitation upon any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of the Members or disinterested members of the Board of Directors, or otherwise, nor by any rights which are granted pursuant to C.R.S. § 38-33.3-101, et seq., and the Colorado Revised Nonprofit Corporation Act, as those statutes may be amended from time to time.

Section 12.5 Directors and Officers Insurance. The Association may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a member of the Board of Directors or a committee thereof, or anyone acting at the direction of the Board, covering defense and liability expenses arising out of any action, suit or proceeding asserted against such person by virtue of such person's actions on behalf of the Association or at the direction of the Board, whether or not the Association would have the power to indemnify such person against liability under provisions of this Article.
