

DISARM OBAMA'S SECURITY!

by CAIDEN COWGER January 13, 2013

The screenshot shows the White House Petition website interface. At the top is the White House logo and navigation links like 'BLOG', 'PHOTOS & VIDEO', 'BRIEFING ROOM', 'ISSUES', 'the ADMINISTRATION', 'the WHITE HOUSE', and 'our GOVERNMENT'. Below this is a green banner with the text 'WE the PEOPLE YOUR VOICE IN OUR GOVERNMENT'. The main content area displays the petition 'Disarm Obama's Security to prove that guns are "bad."' with a description: 'Prove that guns are "bad," as the liberal anti-gun advocates have been saying, by disarming Obama's Security. If the Obama administration and the liberal representatives in congress are going to call for the disarmament of the American people, then they should be the first ones to follow their agenda.' It shows the petition was created on Jan 09, 2013, under the issue of Firearms. A progress bar indicates 24,991 signatures, with a goal of 25,000 by February 08, 2013. A sidebar on the right contains 'Helpful Hints', 'Recent Petitions', 'Recent Responses', and 'History of Petitions'. At the bottom, there are social media links for Twitter and Facebook, and a 'Report this Petition as inappropriate' link.

I am petitioning the Obama Administration to disarm Obama's Security. I the liberal left and the President are sincere when they say that guns are bad, they do not provide protection, and that they cannot be used for anything good, then they need to comply with their own beliefs by disarming the President and his Secret Service. If the President truly believes his statements, then why is he relying on ARMED SECURITY for his protection? It is hypocrisy!

I do not expect that if this petition reached the required amount of signatures that the President would comply to it. That is exactly why I created it. I created it to expose President Obama hypocrisy. Why is it that he cares more about his protection than the protection is more important than the protection of the American people? You can say that it is because he is the President and he is more important, which I also find hypocritical due to the liberals always accusing conservatives of having an arrogant attitude, but why did he just sign a paper giving himself protection even after he leaves the office? Also, I thought that because the government is supposed to be "by the people and for the people," the people are more important. I thought that the job of the President is to do what is best for the people, not for himself.

The reason why we have the second amendment is to protect ourselves from a tyrannical government. It appears to me that the liberal members of our government could care less about the safety of the American people, but are using the victims of these mass shootings to promote their political agendas and implement their big government ideology into our system.

Please share this petition and article with your friends, family, and co-workers. We need to expose the President and the liberals' hypocrisy and their plan to turn our current governmental system into a tyrannical big government.
