

HECKLERS DISRUPT NRA CONFERENCE COWGER NATION

by CAIDEN COWGER COWGER NATION December 22, 2012

At the Nation Rifle Association's Press Conference on December 21, 2012, hecklers broke out in the crowd blaming the NRA for the deaths that took place at Sandy Hook Elementary School. One sign read, "NRA Killing Our Kids," and the second sign read, "NRA Blood on Your Hands," with red hand prints (made to look like blood covered hand prints) "staining" the sign.

The liberal left is once again trying to use a tragedy to push their radical agenda. Instead of banning guns, why do we not increase the penalty with the capital punishment for mass murders, rather than allowing them to get off with "insanity." Why do we not have armed guards at schools rather than cooks armed with spatulas. At my school, we have an armed Sheriff Deputy 24/7. Why is that so hard to have in all schools? In banks, they have armed guards, hired to guard valuables. Does the left not look at children as valuables? If we must make this a political issue of which side causes these incidents, the blood is on the hands of liberals that want to disarm America's law abiding citizens and that refuse to support the solution of having an armed guard protecting the priceless lives of children throughout the United States.

This woman that was holding the sign, "NRA Blood on Your Hands," was interviewed by none other, than the "bloody" British liberal Pierce Morgan. This woman is being recognized as a hero for her rudeness and disrespectfulness at the NRA conference. But at a Bill Clinton for President rally, President Clinton started giving a heckler a lecture on respect. Why is it different if it is a liberal?
