

WHAT REALLY HAPPENED IN LIBYA?

by PARKERWARD November 25, 2012

I was listening to Sean Hannity on my way home from work, like always. I heard some comments that were made about UN Ambassador, Susan Rice (perspective candidate for Secretary of State) on conservatives calling her “incompetent.” Liberals say that is a racist word. This really struck me as odd. I live in the south where racism is still alive among many southerners. I have heard every racist name you can think of, incompetent is not one of them.

First, Rice is very incompetent. She went out on the Sunday talk shows citing the YouTube video as the cause of the Ambassador and four American’s killed. We know this was an act of terrorism. In my opinion Susan Rice is nothing but a puppet. She was doing the bidding of President Obama helping cover up the truth. This is a cover up. Obama lied and is guilty of the death of many American’s at the Consulate. Ambassador Stevens is dead because of Obama. He could have beefed up security but he refused. They gave the order to tell the Seals working for the Consulate to stand down. The 6 disobeyed orders in order to save lives. Rice knew all of this. She knew all of this was happening. They saw this in real time. This brings up so many questions and we, as Americas, deserve answers. I am tired of the lies from this Administration. The first four years of Obama’s term has been built on the foundation of deceit and lies. We had a chance to change this, however, the American citizens voted for a Santa Clause figure over real substance.
