To Whom It May Concern,

It is with great pleasure that I write this letter of recommendation for Dennis Harting. Mr. Harting has been a physical education teacher for my fifth grade students during the 2017 school year here at Sedgwick Elementary. During that time, I was extremely impressed with his communication skills, his ability to be flexible and adjust his lessons to accommodate the needs of the students, and his rapport with the children.

Mr. Harting has proven to be a team player with myself, along with the other upper grade teachers, continually checking in with us and our students and providing feedback about each group, as well as individual students. He is personable and extremely giving to those around him. His dedication is evident in the lessons he does with the students, as he is careful to fully explain rules and safety requirements so that all students can participate fairly and safely in physical education. His classroom management has always been positive, consistent, and most importantly effective, especially when handling up to 65 students at a time. He has developed a keen understanding of individual students and has encouraged positive attitude and cooperation among the students in each class.

Dennis works well with staff and students. He is willing to take and act upon suggestions. Dennis has proven to be flexible and open to adjusting his schedule to accommodate the students, the needs of the class, and staff at Sedgwick Elementary School. He is very thorough in his planning and is always willing to help both students and staff members.

I have found Dennis Harting to be a very capable and flexible individual. He is always dependable, well prepared, and self-motivated. Mr. Harting has shown that he is deserving of every consideration that may be extended to him. I recommend Dennis without reservation and wish him the very best.

Sincerely,
