New Record Price for German MP40 Highlights Kramer

Winter Firearm Auction

Article & photos by Kramer Auction Service

Intense bidding on a Matching WWII German MP40 Sub Machine Gun highlighted the Kramer Auction Service Winter Firearms Auction on January 12th. The MP 40 was developed in Nazi Germany and used extensively during the Second World War. While a common gun for German infantrymen, only a relatively small number of civilian-transferable MP40's are in circulation. This fully automatic sub machine gun went for a final, likely record, price of $40,250 to an online bidder.

Greener 310 Cadet shot to $11,000.

Hollis 12 Bore Double Rifle with luggage case marked Nile Douglas, who was the Duke of Hamilton sold for $7,975.

Holland and Holland Royal Double brought a high bid of $11,000.

German MP40 Sub Machine Gun sold for $40,250.

Kimball Arms 30 Cal. Carbine Pistol made $4,100.

55 Dealers from 15 States Share Their Treasures at the 44th Annual Fall Fox Valley Antiques Show

Article & photos by Michelle Goltz

Kane County Fairgrounds held the 44th Annual Fall Fox Valley Antiques Show on October 20th & 21st, 2018. This Antique show is presented by the Chicago Suburban Antiques Dealers Association and is known for contributing to a variety of historic restoration efforts and educational programs. They are also known for bringing in some of the best dealers in the United States. At this fine show you will see approximately 15 states showing their unique historic treasures. The booths are so well displayed it is hard to focus on buying one item, you see how great the pieces are shown and it makes you want to purchase several items just so it looks that way once you take it home.

Out & About

The shows have us busy, there are many to choose from and even more on their way. It lets us know spring is just around the corner. Remember to check the upcoming events page weekly, as shows are constantly added. With so many to choose from, it keeps us from getting cabin fever. Be sure to check out those shops and malls for their spring specials like Dealer Dicker Days, Mall Wide Sales or their Customer Appreciation Days. Make sure to clip and save that auction calendar. Then, you can plan your weekends accordingly. Advertisers, our subscribers tell us they like to plan ahead, so if possible get those ads in to us early. Please be sure to let our advertisers know their advertising dollar is working and let them know where you saw their ad. Advertisers, if you are working with a budget, let us know, so we can better serve you, our customer. We at Auction Action Antique News want all of you to know that we do not sell any information of any kind to anyone ever. We are a family run business that works on the honor system of keeping information private. If we ask you for your phone number, it stays with us. This just helps us if there is a need to get in contact with you, even if it is just an email address. So, when renewing please update your information with us, we would appreciate it very much.

CSADA Fall Fox Valley Antiques Show Held at Kane Co. Fairgrounds in October

Article & Photos by Michelle Goltz

Travel back to the 18th, 19th & early 20th centuries to find affordable, yet authentic, home décor. Evolving endlessly through time, antiques harmonize with modern or period settings whether rustic or refined, decorating a single room or furnishing an entire home. This semi-annual show & sale is a treat for the imagination. Explore the offerings of 55 carefully-chosen, invitation-only dealers from 15 states and Canada. Dealers' booths are displayed in exciting room settings with an emphasis on decorative and graphic design, illustrating how antiques compliment any type of architecture and decorating scheme. A "screened" show assures merchandise authenticity allowing customers to buy with confidence.

As the year comes to an end I must tell the readers and the dealers how amazing it is to meet such a passionate group of people and how fantastic it is to attend the shows. Whether you are a regular or a first time reader to the newspaper, make sure it isn't your last. We cover as many shows as possible so that we can continue to share it with those that are looking to attend an upcoming show or for those that may have missed a show and still looking for that must have piece to add to their collection. Just remember these shows are not only for the seasoned collectors it is also for the new collectors, there is so much to see and learn from the dealers so mark your calendars so we see you in 2019! The dealers work hard to not only find great historic pieces they work on knowing the stories/history behind them as well. The only way to preserve history is to show and share the experience! The next Fox Valley Spring Show will be held on March 9 & 10th, 2019 www.facebook.com/fox-valleyantiqueshow or you can call Debbie McArdle at 815-575-1272.

This painting on a wooden panel is titled the Haywain (Hay wagon). This is an old copy of the center panel of a three part triptych. The original was painted by the famous Northern Renaissance painter Hieronymous Bosch who lived in the Dutch lowlands. It was completed in 1516. You see people grabbing hay behind the wagon are kings, bishops & other royalty. Many of the people are committing sins, gluttony, folly, lechery, avarice & deceit. Bosch is trying to show the pursuit of material possessions & physical pleasures lead to eternal damnation. The original triptych hangs in the Prado Museum, Madrid Spain, $575. FAN-tastic in Boston, Massachusetts

Article & Photos by Kathryn Hanna (FANA)

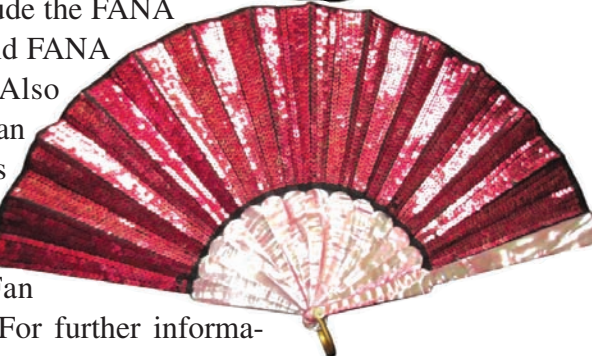

Are you interested in hand fans? If so, you should check out this year's Fan Association of North America (FANA) 37th annual meeting in Boston, MA, on April 10-14, 2019. FANA members will gather to view and learn about historic, unique, and stylish hand fans.

Meeting chair Shelly Gonçalves says, "Our educational agenda will delight FANA members and guests with numerous fan-viewing opportunities." Fan enthusiasts, who are members, will participate in several guided field trips including a visit to the Boston Museum of Fine Arts, (MFA), the Braintree Historical Society, and the McMullen Museum of Art at Boston College. The tours will include information and close-up views of the magnificent Ester Oldham collection at the MFA and the Hicks Collection at the McMullen Museum of Art that includes beautiful 18th and 19th century mother-of-pearl fans. Another tour will be to the Braintree Historical Society which has many examples of fans made in the late 1800s by the Braintree fan manufacturer, Hunt and Allen. These field trips are especially exciting because museum fans are rarely on public display due to their fragility.

The agenda also includes a talk on Japanese fan screens, a discussion by students from Lasell College about their fan collection, and a display of members' scrapbook-type fans (popular in the early 1900s). A meeting highlight is the members' fan sale that offers extraordinary antique fans along with other fans in all price ranges, followed by a fun charity fan auction to benefit FANA's educational outreach efforts. "FANA members who attend this conference are always delighted to find that 'special fan' (or two or three) that they have always wanted to add to their collection," said former FANA president, Katherine Lukas. The meeting will culminate with a banquet where members are encouraged to bring their favorite sparkly fan to brighten the evening.

FANA welcomes new members who may join by visiting FANA's website, fanassociation.org. In addition to the annual meeting, member benefits include the FANA newsletter and FANA Journal. Also check out fan discussions on Facebook at "Hand Fan Collectors." For further information contact Kathryn Hanna at westonkafan@gmail.com or call 952-200-9727.

Kramer Auction Service Holds Exciting Winter Firearms Auction in January

Article & Photos by Kramer Auction Service

The recent auction at Kramer's Auction Gallery in Prairie du Chien, Wisconsin featured over 700 firearms. A record high number of registered bidders for a Kramer's firearms auction added to the excitement.

Two double-barrel rifles surpassed the $10,000 mark in the auction. A Holland & Holland Royal 360 Nitro Express and a rare Greener 310 Cadet each sold for a final total price of $11,000 to bidders at the Kramer Auction Gallery.

Less than 250 Kimball Arms 30 Caliber Carbine Pistols were ever produced during production in the mid-1950's. An online bidder purchased one of them (with original box and manual) for a final total price of $4,100.

Several Colt revolvers were part of this sale. The top selling model was a Cattle Brand Engraved Single Action engraved & signed by David Wade Harris. Another Colt, a 1967 production nickel finish Python Revolver, was a top seller as well. The former went for $6,325. The latter for $4,945.

Another great firearms auction at Kramer Auction is scheduled for Saturday, March 23rd at 9:00am. More details can be found at kramersales.com.

Colt 1878 45 cal., $2,645

Colt Single Action Army 45 cal with Bunhouse Art on Grip, $2,875.

Early Percussion Belt Pistol, $632.

WW2 German Eagle L Police P38, $2,420.

DPMS Model A-15, $880.

Fulton Armory M1 Paratrooper Carbine, $747.

Stevens Model 56 Lady's Model Rifle, $3,450.

Gold Washed and Engraved Smith & Wesson antique revolver circa 1865, $1,294.

Colt Golden Spike Commemorative Frontier Scout Revolver, $747.

Winchester 1894 Semi Deluxe Take Down Rifle - manufactured in 1899, $3,080.

62nd Spring Fox Valley Antiques Show & Sale

St. Charles, Illinois March 9 & 10, 2019

Variety • Authenticity • Value

Article & Photos by Debbie McArdle, CSADA with Stephen Score & Scott Tagliapietra

Thankfully, spring weather allows antiques dealers to travel to the Chicago area from afar. On March 9 & 10, 2019 the 62nd Spring Fox Valley Antiques Show will take place, dealers traveling from 15 states to gather at the Kane County Fairgrounds in St. Charles. I jumped at the chance to interview two of the visiting dealers; Stephen Score from Boston, Massachusetts and Scott Tagliapietra from Whitefish Bay, Wisconsin.

If you can't get to Stephen Score's shop at Beacon Hill in Boston, find him at the Fox Valley Antiques Show March 9 & 10 in St. Charles, Illinois. "Specializing in 18th- through early 20th-century American Folk Art, Stephen Score, Inc. offers paintings, furniture, sculpture, and textiles that speak to the art and passion of their makers and to the joy, timeless truths, and surprisingly contemporary originality to be found in them today."

full-time antiques shop in Essex, Massachusetts. In those days, antiques often came directly out of big houses, or farms, right from the families in which they had descended. There were auctions, but no phone bids or live bidding via the internet or cell phones. It was a time of more intimate, immediate, personal discovery. You got to pick up and touch, examine and smell everything as it came out of the house. It was easy to read the name on a signed work; but, what about anonymous Folk Art? You had to learn to separate the good from the bad, be able to pick out the telling characteristics of a work, compare it with others and, in so doing, learn about the work of an artist. Gosh, it was exciting!

“O f course, Essex wasn't really the beginning. For many years before that, I had been a pri-

STEPHEN SCORE, INC., BOSTON, MASS.

Most of us in the Midwest only know of Stephen Score from reading Maine Antique Digest. He's either seen at an important auction or selling at a world-class antiques show. Stephen maintains a shop on Chestnut Street in the historic Beacon Hill section of Boston. To have him exhibit with us at the Fox Valley Antiques Show is exciting.

Stephen shared a bit about his start in the antiques business: "In 1978, Eleanor and I opened our first, vate dealer from our home on Marlborough Street in Boston's Back Bay. Then, as now, scattered through those rooms were great pieces of American Folk Art: painted furniture, weathervanes, primitive paintings, hooked rugs. And lovely American Impressionist paintings.

"What is it, now, that pulls me across an aisle, a room, a country? What triggers those tell-tale visceral feelings in my gut? The vibrations of passion I sometimes fear will set off the alarm system at the Met? The truth is I only buy objects I would want to live with. I buy as if I were the collector. Color is a primary determinant. I love color and am not afraid of it. Line - especially sinuous lines that move in lyrical ways, defining a cabriole leg, the body of a bird in a sculpture or the separation between fields of different color. Surface Quality - preferably, untouched surfaces with lovely, old patina, the crackling and crazing and impressionistic build-up of paint layers and wear that give us clues to the experience of the object, itself, over time.

Stephen continues, "Sometimes you come across objects made long ago that are almost modern in their streamlined shape or in the way they are decorated. There may be a startling simplicity and graphic economy of design, insouciant daubs of paint - elements that seem almost to anticipate contemporary art. These objects seem far ahead of their time and yet, of course, are a product of everything that has come before, with an added twist that delights the eye and heart and challenges our conception of what is modern, what is art."

SCOTT'S ANTIQUES, WHITEFISH BAY, WIS.

You may recognize Scott Tagliapietra from an East Coast antiques show or, perhaps, from the Antiques Roadshow where he has been an appraiser since 2015. The Fox Valley Antiques Show is delighted to have Scott on board for their Spring show. Previously Scott has only exhibited at the Fox in Fall.

From the finest in Tiffany to the most rare clock-work Santa, Scott Tagliapietra has dealt in it all. At age 14 he was already trading in antiques. Working at a grocery store in his hometown, Clintonville, Wisconsin, he'd help customers with their bags and would ask, "Do you have any old Christmas ornaments you'd like to sell?" And they did. And so a career was born. Quickly it expanded to include all holiday antiques, not just Christmas; Easter, Halloween and patriotic. Adding to his interests and knowledge through the years, he also deals in Tiffany Studios, early toys, and always carries a general line of unusual smalls. Leaving the Clintonville grocer behind roughly 4 decades ago, he treks to Europe several times a year to buy from connections there. Of course he prefers to buy from private collectors here in the U.S. whenever possible.

AMERICANA & COUNTRY PRIMITIVES to TIFFANY STUDIOS

Variety. Authenticity. Value. Find it all at the 62nd Spring Fox Valley Antiques Show & Sale. Held indoors at the bright and spacious Kane County Fairgrounds' Prairie Events Center, dealers exhibit in walled and papered booths, their offerings arranged in room settings, many with an emphasis on decorative and graphic design. A "screened" show assures authenticity, allowing customers to buy with confidence.

TICKETS ONLINE OR AT DOOR!

Catered lunch with comfortable seating is available and there is plenty of free parking. Show hours are Saturday, March 9, 10 - 5, and Sunday, March 10, 10 - 4, at the Kane County Fairgrounds, 525 South Randall Road, St. Charles, Illinois 60174 (enter on Randall Road between Routes 38 and 64).

An added bonus for young collectors, those 25 years or younger (or with a student ID) are invited to attend the show at NO CHARGE!

Produced by the Chicago Suburban Antiques Dealers Association, a non-profit organization, admission of $10 benefits local historic preservation and education endeavors. (A discount of $1 off one or two admissions will be allowed with this press release or any Fox Valley Antiques Show ad.)

Bloomington, Illinois Original Antique Show

Article by Priscilla Lindstrom
(Central Illinois Antique Dealers Association)

The CIADA Board and Show Promoters, Richard & Priscilla Lindstrom, are excited about the upcoming 2019 Fall Central Illinois Antique Dealers Association (CIADA) Show & Sale. Show Dealers, many of whom do not participate in other antiques & vintage shows in Central Illinois, will provide a wide variety of quality merchandise.

Held in the Interstate Center, Mini Expo Building, 1106 Interstate Drive in Bloomington, Illinois the show will open at 10 a.m. both days and close at 5 p.m. on Saturday and 4 p.m. on Sunday. Admission is $6.00 which is good for both days. See the CIADA ad in Auction Action Antique News and bring a copy of the ad with you to the show for $1.00 off (up to two admissions). NOTE: In appreciation of our Veterans and their service to our Country, during the fall CIADA shows, Veterans are admitted free with proof of service.

Dealers are invited to bring a wide variety of merchandise to sell, which may include: Advertising, Americana, Art, Books, Civil War Artifacts, Country, Ephemera, Folk Art, Furniture, Glass, Jewelry, Porcelain, Post Cards, Pottery, Primitives, Silver and Stoneware. Additionally, some Dealers have expanded their inventory to include categories such as Mid-Century Modern, Danish Modern and repurposed items.

If you are looking for someone to restore a family heirloom, returning to CIADA's fall 2018 show, are the following dealers who provide restorations:

- Chuck & Rhonda Kern of C-R Antiques. C-R Antiques specializes in furniture repair, restoration and repurposing. Additionally, C-R Antiques provide vignettes at the CIADA shows, giving patrons ideas on how to use antiques and vintage items in their home.
- Rick & Rita Robben of Robben Antiques & Silversmith. Rita specializes in metal restoration, polishing and plating.

Stop by and talk with these dealers about your restoration & repair needs... or bring your piece or pieces with you for these dealers to see first-hand your specific needs. They will be glad to assist you.

The CIADA show is one of the longest running Antiques & Vintage shows in Illinois and is BLOOMINGTON'S ORIGINAL ANTIQUE SHOW.

Known for its quality... which continues today, you won't want to miss this semi-annual event.

Antique Spectacular Vintage Market March 1-3 Quad Cities

Article by Kim Schilling (Melting Pot Productions)

The annual Spring Antique Spectacular Vintage Market March 1st-3rd at the QCCA Expo Center in Rock Island, Illinois. This anticipated bi-annual event, features 70 vintage vendors with antiques & vintage items galore at Antique Spectacular. The show, now in its 25th year, is located at the QCCA Expo Center, 2621 4th Avenue in Rock Island, Illinois! It is overflowing with a wonderful variety of fine antiques and vintage collectibles for sale. Featured will be select antique dealers with unique merchandise from around the world. Hunters of vintage will have an opportunity, all weekend, to shop the wide range of quality antiques.

With the Antique Spectacular, there is always something to interest every collector, whether they have a new interest in vintage & repurposed for decorating their home or have been collecting antiques for years. This includes great furniture, art pottery, country, stoneware, books, prints, primitives, jewelry, silver, antique glassware, American Indian items, china, postcards, coins, quilts, dolls, toys, advertising, marbles, rugs, vintage textiles and period pieces. The list of amazing vintage items is endless and all under one roof for the convenience to shop all weekend, for a timeless vintage treasure, that is new to you.

March 1st-3rd, the Antique Spectacular show hours are Friday, 4 p.m. to 9 p.m.; Saturday, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.; and Sunday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Parking is always Free and patrons can check out and register on the website: www.antiquespectacular.com to print a $1 off coupon.
