Prehistoric and Historic Indian Artifact Specialty Auction Held at A+ Auctions in March

Article & Photos by Valerie Heth*

It was still a chilly day outdoors but there was an air of excitement warming the attendees of this sale. About 80 bid cards had been issued but the buyers bid lively on a number of the items offered. A 5000 AD copper spud w/ribbon and original published Badger State archeological magazine that had been pictured in a previous Auction Action News made $1,100. The Set of 31 graded Indian game balls w/ wooden display sold for $500. A large frame of 169 arrowheads under glass went for $650. The large bronze "The Cheyenne" brought $850. A fine sugar quartz 4" spear point sold for $790. An axe made from a mastodon rib sold for $760, this had originally been part of the "Phillip Schupp collection". There was a number of beaded items both modern tourist items and authentic wear. There was a sweet pair of beaded baby moccasins that sold for $67.50, a wall basket hangar of black velvet with beading that was an early 1800's whimsy that sold for $240, a well-worn pair of moccasins with wool inserts and beading that sold for $105 and many other pin-cushion and other shaped whimsies that sold for bargains in the ten to twenty dollar range.

There were between fifty and sixty box lots of field grade and better arrowheads and other points that sold between $12.50 and $80 per lot which contained a dozen to 15 points per lot.

An outstanding quill covered birch bark basket sold for $100. A ceremonial mask brought $185.

Numerous ax heads were offered for sale. These ran the gambit from bargain prices for a lot of three at $12.50 up to a high of a large one going for $290.

A lot of five prayer sticks brought $205. A Very old hide and beaded doll made $155. A banded slate bird stone sold for $300.

There were a number of Eskimo items that sold including an old seal skin Eskimo doll for $40.00 and an old hide miniature kayak for $525.

It was very refreshing to see such a nice offering available only to those people who attended with no outside competition from phone or online bidders and selling with no reserves to highest bidder. Everyone had an equal opportunity to take home a special new addition to their collection.

Free Appraisals Offer “Antiques Roadshow” Appeal to 54th North American Vintage Decoy and Sporting Collectibles Show at Pheasant Run Resort, St. Charles, IL

Article & photos by Jeff Seregny
(Midwest Decoy Collectors Association)

Each year, at the North American Vintage Decoy & Sporting Collectibles Show, free identification and appraisals are offered for any item that is brought to the show. This effort is designed to help discover those old artifacts that are hiding around the country and recapture our rich hunting and fishing history. A wide range of items including artwork, duck, goose, shorebird, and fish decoys, wildfowl calls, shotgun shell boxes, fishing items and various outdoor collectibles show up each year for review by the experts in attendance at the show. Several years ago brought in a wonderful old hand carved duck call that was a gift to Joseph Nathaniel Whitley, a former top game warden and official in Arkansas over 100 hundred years ago. It was easy to see that this item was special as it was uniquely carved on all sides and had the image of a rattlesnake integrated into the mouthpiece. The call, carved by James Beckhart around 1890, subsequently sold at auction for a record $103,650. The diverse number of unique items that are brought in to the show each year has been growing steadily and attendees are always excited to discover that grandpa's old “stuff” can be so important and command such strong interest.

Free appraisals are available at our public tabled sales event in the resort's MegaCenter on Friday, April 26, from 2pm to 7pm, and on Saturday, April 27 from 9am to 2pm.

The Midwest Decoy Collectors Association is a non-profit organization whose purpose is to collect and preserve the history of the decoy as original American folk art. As the largest gathering of its kind, the North American Vintage Decoy and Sporting Collectibles Show is the premier opportunity for the novice, antique dealer or experienced collector to network and learn more about the decoy as functional folk art or to add to their collections. Why Join a Collecting Club?

If you pick up membership promotion brochures from clubs, or visit collecting club websites, you are confronted with all kinds of statements about why collectors should join this club or that one.

"A serious collector is an educated collector and you can become an educated collector by joining our club." "A great way to become 'connected' for buying, selling or trading." "To meet other collectors and develop friendships which can last a lifetime." "To gain knowledge on values, reproductions and how to care for my collection."

These are all very valid reasons to join a collecting club... and, there are dozens more, we're sure. Some clubs do a tremendous job with membership services, offering newsletters and publications, mentoring programs, an educational website, annual convention, shows and auctions, price guides and research projects, resource libraries and archives, collector insurance programs, reproduction alerts, ethics guidelines for both collectors and dealers, member supply stores, annual membership collectors items and much more.

In reviewing what clubs offer and their various membership dues structures, it seems to us that membership in most clubs is a real bargain - a year's worth of service often for about the same price you would pay to go to a movie (with popcorn and drink), or a sports event or concert (and often a lot less).

Another factor to consider is that for most clubs we are talking about a one year commitment. Membership dues is usually for 12 months. At that time you can either renew for another year or decide not to.

Even for a person who is just beginning and maybe only mildly interested in a collecting area, what better way to determine if you want to become more serious in that collecting area than having a year's worth of member services from the club supporting that collecting area to help you "weigh your decision"?

For the collector who may possibly be interested in four or five different collecting areas, we would strongly suggest consider joining the clubs which support each of these four or five collecting areas. OK, so maybe you're not that much of a joiner. It still is the most practical way of letting the collecting club sell you on which area to eventually collect more seriously through the simple technique of comparison shopping. Let the clubs sell you on collecting in their area.

Another option, without the obligation of actively paying membership dues, is to simply ask a collecting club you may be interested in to send you some information on their club and the collecting area they support.

This is the main thrust of the Association of Collecting Clubs' Join A Club program - promoting the ACC Club Directory and the listings of over 6,000 collecting groups... probably some you've never heard of before, and how to contact them.

Now, getting back to the original question, "Why join a collecting club?" Probably the best answer is because YOU want to. It has to be your decision. Like your collection, itself, it's a personal thing. You decide what to collect... what to buy... how to display it... and everything else connected with your collecting. Joining, or not joining, a collecting club is a part of this. Most collecting clubs exist to support and help collectors, and perform a good service for their collecting area. But they also have the obligation of convincing you that you should join their group as a member.

Fridgid Temps Don't Slow Down Shoppers at 34th Annual Wausau Antique Show

Article & Photos by Renee Wiskow*

As always, my Mom Sandy attended the show with me. We've been covering this show the last few years and we always look forward to it. It's a great mother-daughter bonding time doing something we both enjoy. And after a January that seemed to last forever, it was nice to get out and be able to do something fun.

Audre & Ray are the nicest people, and they find equally wonderful dealers for their shows. We love seeing the dealers and hearing the stories about their latest finds. At this show, Mom & I saw some things that neither of us had ever seen before and it was so exciting! Like the Depression era glass bunnies shown by John & Kathy Oppelt, they were so pretty! My mom loves Depression glass so she really enjoyed those.

Out on the Farm is always one of my favorite booths and they had some really cool toys at the show. Like a Buddy L airplane hanger that shoots the planes, I've never seen one before but would love to play with it! They also displayed a very cool Smith Miller dump truck with hydraulic dump, it was one of the coolest toys I've ever seen! I always was kind of a tom boy growing up, I had Barbie dolls, but I also had Hot Wheels and most of the time the cars got played with a lot more than the dolls.

This show is a great way to spend some time with your spouse, bestie, parent or child, searching for that unique treasure that you just have to have. You'll find yourself reminiscing about childhood toys, or those dishes that Grandma had. That is the beauty of attending a show, no matter what your taste, or what you collect, you are sure to find that special piece. No matter if you are looking for pottery, Folk Art, stoneware, decoys, sporting, Breweriana, advertising, Military, tools, farm items, weather-vanes, shabby chic, postcards or early country, there is a booth for you to enjoy.

For more information, you can contact AR Promotions at 715-355-5144, visit their Facebook page: Facebook/Wausau Atnique Show or www.antiqueshowsinwis.com.

Spring Rich Penn Auction: Cure for Cabin Fever

With a brutal winter behind us, it's now time to look toward the things that warm our hearts and get the adrenalin running. And there's nothing like a great auction to make that happen! So mark your calendars for the Spring Rich Penn Auctions event. No need for a doctor's prescription...this is a guaranteed cure for Cabin Fever. Really cool things, with a great variety for just about every collector.

Held at the Five Sullivan Brothers Convention Center in Waterloo, IA, this April 26-28 auction will feature superb and varied items from collections across the country. As always, all lots sell to the highest bidder without reserve! Preview will be on the 26th starting at 1:00 PM. Auction starts at 10:00 AM on Saturday & Sunday.

The convoy of fantastic Buddy "L" toys from Penn's November Auction continues with more classic Buddy "L" pressed steel toys. Among them are both original early locomotives, trains, trucks and classic T-Reproductions, including the "Trench Digger" and "Concrete Mixer." The train "Rolling Stock" even includes an original Cor-Cor train in great condition.

Other toys are both cast iron and tin windups. An excellent original Creedmore mechanical bank will attract interest because of the great paint. The Marx Merry Makers "Mouse Band" is always a favorite, full of action! Softer toys would be a Steiff Elephant and a Steiff Donkey. Both are in good condition and neither will profess a political affiliation!

For those who like Salesman Samples and toy stoves, you'll have over 3 dozen to choose from. Some of the more interesting are the Quick Meal, Karr, Majestic and many others.

Great advertising comes to this auction as well. There are very rare pieces across a variety of collector categories, including several very early cardboard litho advertising fans. Amongst the rare category would be the very early c.1880s Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association fan. This fan promotes H. P. Metz, Kansas City, MO as the Agent. H. P. Metz was likely associated with Metz Brewery in Omaha. This fan surely was targeted for use by the lady of the house. The graphic features a young baby sucking its thumb!

Other striking breweriana pieces include the Schmidt's Beer light-up bullet sign. For City Club Beer, this St. Paul Minnesota curved glass sign is in excellent original condition. It is beautiful when the light shines through the "Amber beer" and will surely add a warm glow to any Minnesota Beer collection!

Another great example of early c.1880s paper lithography is a litho for the John Deere C.H.D. horse-drawn 4-bottom walk-behind plow. The John Deere legacy began with their innovations in plows. Professionally conserved, this litho is from the Porter Ptg. Co. in Moline, one of Deere's first commercial printers.

Another great early Deere piece, while not paper and in a much heavier medium is the John Deere cast iron letter holder. Beautifully cast, these rare pieces are always attractive to John Deere and Ag collectors alike.

Back amongst the other paper items are many movie posters, including early examples from the 1930s & '40s. Posters are as diverse as Hopalong Cassidy up through the '60's & '70s with Brigitte Bardot. You'll have nearly 100 to recall your days of Saturday morning TV and Drive-in Movies!

Great advertising comes in metal as well. From Petroliana to breakfast food to Coca-Cola, there's something for every taste. Everyone loves the bright smile of the Sunbeam Bread Girl. This self-framed "Come In" sign is a great example why. She offers a Burger and a Hot Dog. Irresistible! The self framed Grape-Nuts "To School Well Fed" is an equally appealing collector favorite. The child with St. Bernard dog is also an image very easy to recall! Squeeze soda bottle toppers are soda collector favorites as well as is the Coca-Cola string holder. All will sell here.

Petroliana collectors should be pumped for a couple very nice visible gas pumps with older restorations. The two pumps, an Eric Motor Systems clockface and the American Oil Pump & Tank Co., 10 gal visible are ready to install in your man cave. Several globes will be offered as well, including: Richfield Hi Octane, high profile metal body w/original glass lenses, Pure Oil Company, high profile metal body, w/orig lenses and the Standard Gold Crown with excellent original paint. A Standard Red Crown bulk tank with excellent graphics intact will also be offered. The most unusual offering in the Petroliana category is the Standard Oil working model of an oil rig. Built as an educational device for Standard Oil Company, Des Moines, IA, it is certainly a one-of-a-kind display piece, showing how the oil industry began.

Coin-operated machine collectors will have several rare machines to add to their advanced collections. The Adams Tutti-Frutti gum wooden tall case 4-column vendor, in original condition, would be a top choice. It has a companion piece...a counter display cabinet. It comes with a reverse etched glass front and tip-up top. This piece is extremely rare. Another top choice would be a Caille upright floor scale. This c.1910 restored balance scale will give you an honest weight for just one penny! Two other desirable pieces would be the Jennings slot machines. In rare coinage, the counter model Standard Chief is in 50 cent play. A dollar play Club Chief comes in floor cabinet. Both are light-up versions and play well. Another rare machine is a Watling 25 cent Cherry Front with Twin and Diamond jackpot front. This machine is in beautiful restored condition. Another striking gambling piece is the Evans counter model upright "Domino Wheel." This device is in great original condition and displays well. Trade stimulators include a Chicago Club-House in seldom found NOS condition. It has the original award card, transfers and lock.

All Rich Penn Auctions always include a nice variety of Country Store and Soda Fountain items. This auction will offer the same. You can add to your in-home Country Store displays. Spool Cabinets, Ribbon Cabinets, Drug Store Label Cabinets and various display cases and counters will all be offered. Several counter coffee grinders as well as wall grinders will also be sold. With original paint, this c.1898 Enterprise No. 8, will dress up any country store counter top.

Soda Fountain collectors will be offered Wards Orange-Crush, Wards Lemon-Crush, Triple XXX Root Beer and other dispensers. Along with those popular items are a Chico's Display Jar, Planter's Peanut jars, Coca-Cola Franklin-Caro gum jar and others.

Penn added, "The Five Sullivan Brothers Convention Center is just a half block from our office. It's a great facility and adjoins a hotel and parking ramp. Both are connected by an enclosed skywalk. Plus, it's within walking distance to great restaurants. The hotel gave our guests a special $79 room rate. We think our guests will enjoy this fun auction!" The site is conveniently located in downtown Waterloo, just one block off the freeway.

For those who can't make it, Penn offers multiple bidding options, including absentee, telephone and live bidding online through LiveAuctioneers. Find the links to the online catalog on Penn's website. Full color catalogs will be available for $40. Prices realized will be posted online. Just contact Rich Penn Auctions at 319-291-6688 to order yours. Go to www.RichPennAuctions.com to register or to preview the auction. Absentee and phone bidding are always welcome.
