Cady Auction - Iowa's Premier Firearms and Militaria Auction House

Article & photos by Cady Auction

Marlin Model 1894 Cowboy
Carbine .41 Rifle, Sold $1,300.

Cady Auction in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, opened the new year, 2019, with a fantastic two day 300 Firearms and Militaria Auction, January 19th and 20th. The weather had been incredibly nice for Iowa this winter until January 19th when a snow storm hit. Auction goers are a sturdy bunch, if there is an auction they want to attend, they will drive to it even in a snow storm, which proved true for this weekend's auction also. Cady Auction split the 2 day auction up with sporting and civilian firearms and related sold on Saturday, and military firearms and militaria sold on Sunday.

Cady Auction Kicked off 2019 with Fantastic 2 Days of Firearms & Militaria

Article & Photos by Cady Auction*

Prices were very strong for both days. A record number of Internet bidders proved to be a challenge for in-house bidders, with an average of 71.5% selling to online buyers. "We are increasing not only our online out-of-state and international bidders, but also local bidders that will stay at home, bid online and pick up the following week. This was especially true with the inclement weather", stated co-owner Deb Cady.

Saturday's top selling firearm was Miroku Winchester model 1873 rifle selling for $4000, a Marlin model 1894 cowboy carbine selling for $1300 and a Winchester 94 Saskatchewan rifle selling for $1200. The top seller in the related items was a Unertl scope selling for $625.00. (See photos for more results)

On Sunday close to 100 military firearms from WWI & WWII and from many different countries, were sold. These included a Fabrique Nationale rifle selling for $1050, a Canadian Ross rifle selling for $950, a Swiss rifle selling for $1050 and a Norwegian rifle selling for $850. Other top selling military firearms were a Springfield Training rifle $1250, an English Enfield cutaway training aid selling for $1100 and a 1980's Colt SPI selling for $1600. Military and firearms related high sellers were 3 German military machine gun magazines selling for $550, World War II German Panzer Tank bayonet selling for $750 and a German Helmet selling for $750. (See photos for more results)

Cady Auction has become Iowa's premier firearms & militaria auction house. They have set themselves apart by offering their customers services they do not get other places like targeted marketing, knowledge of the industry such as firearm descriptions written by a qualified gunsmith and the latest technology. All these give sellers and buyers "The Cady Advantage". Contact Mike or Deb Cady at 319-364-4143 to discuss marketing your property, a full collection or one time.

Out & About

Have a wonderful Easter Weekend

Sounds like rain and clouds for our Easter weekend. Celebrate Easter weekend with an auction or browse the aisles of an antique shop or take in the wonderful atmosphere of a show. Make sure to always be checking the upcoming events page, as there are new events added weekly. Clip and save that auction calendar. Be sure to mention where you saw their ads.

The girls will be home on Thursday night. It will be nice having everyone home for Easter this year. We will be making our traditional Scotch eggs, so there will be lots of eggs to color this year. Of course, we will be hiding the baskets. If the weather is nice enough, maybe I can get the kids to help get the patio furniture out. Now I understand why there was always a to do list when we visit our parents...because they needed the extra help. I think that will be one of the adjustments to becoming empty nesters when Brandon leaves. It was nice always having someone there to help or shop with. We are starting to get adjusted to doing projects together, that normally we would do alone or with the kids.

When Out and About this weekend, be sure to check out:

Free Appraisals Offer “Antiques Roadshow” Appeal to 54th North American Vintage Decoy and Sporting Collectibles Show at Pheasant Run Resort, St. Charles, IL

Article & photos by Jeff Seregny
(Midwest Decoy Collectors Association)

Each year, at the North American Vintage Decoy & Sporting Collectibles Show, free identification and appraisals are offered for any item that is brought to the show. This effort is designed to help discover those old artifacts that are hiding around the country and recapture our rich hunting and fishing history. A wide range of items including artwork, duck, goose, shorebird, and fish decoys, wildfowl calls, shotgun shell boxes, fishing items and various outdoor collectibles show up each year for review by the experts in attendance at the show. Several years ago brought in a wonderful old hand carved duck call that was a gift to Joseph Nathaniel Whitley, a former top game warden and official in Arkansas over 100 hundred years ago. It was easy to see that this item was special as it was uniquely carved on all sides and had the image of a rattlesnake integrated into the mouthpiece. The call, carved by James Beckhart around 1890, subsequently sold at auction for a record $103,650. The diverse number of unique items that are brought in to the show each year has been growing steadily and attendees are always excited to discover that grandpa's old “stuff” can be so important and command such strong interest.

Free appraisals are available at our public tabled sales event in the resort's MegaCenter on Friday, April 26, from 2pm to 7pm, and on Saturday, April 27 from 9am to 2pm.

The Midwest Decoy Collectors Association is a non-profit organization whose purpose is to collect and preserve the history of the decoy as original American folk art. As the largest gathering of its kind, the North American Vintage Decoy and Sporting Collectibles Show is the premier opportunity for the novice, antique dealer or experienced collector to network and learn more about the decoy as functional folk art or to add to their collections.
