Small Town - Big Event

The Marbold Antique Show & Farm Fest

Article & Photos by Charlotte Wohler

The small town of Greenview, IL will host a big event on June 22 and 23, 2019, The Marbold Farmstead Antique Show and Farm Fest. The Marbold Farmstead sits just south of Greenview, alongside Route 29, 20 miles north of Springfield. The income from the fundraising event will provide funds for the 2019 Capital Campaign, "The Next Chapter," to help with restoration of the house. Restoration efforts are currently underway and feature repair/replacement of windows and doors, dormer work, chimney caps, tuck-pointing, electricity, plumbing and HVAC systems, at an approximate cost of $250,000.

The Marbold Farmstead was established by German immigrant, John H. Marbold in 1850. He grew his farm from 200 acres to over 4,000 with the help of his son, H. H. Marbold. Through their farming years, the farm went from horse and plow to steam engines and finally gas engines. The Marbold family utilized the latest technology of the industrial revolution. Using a boiler system, forced hot water heat was sent into the home through underground clay tiles. Electricity was installed in the home and throughout the property. An indoor bathroom was built to provide better sanitary conditions and a conservatory was added to provide plants and mood-altering stained-glass windows, a Victorian-age concept. The farm was self-sufficient, growing most all their food for themselves and their hired help. It was a farm revered by the community and county in central Illinois.

This is the seventh year for the antique show at the Marbold Farmstead. The farm fest was added two years ago, creating the Marbold Farmstead Antique Show & Farm Fest. With the addition of farm equipment and demonstrations guests get to see farm equipment and farming techniques from the past. A shingle maker, baler, gas engines and more give guests a look at how a farmer worked.

A variety of craftsmen, demonstrators, flea market merchants, antique dealers, historic programs, tours of the house and grounds, a trolley tour of the community, music, food and more will round out the fourth weekend in June event. Gates open at 9:00 a.m. on Saturday and close at 5:00 p.m. and on Sunday, the gate opens at 9:00 a.m. and closes at 3:00 p.m. Admission fee is $5.00 for this rain or shine event.

Don't miss this 'big little show' in the heart of central Illinois, Route 29, 20 miles north of Springfield, in Greenview, Illinois. Programs are subject to change, so please check the website, www.historic-marbold-farmstead.org, and Facebook for updates. Contact Charlotte with questions, 217-341-8293.

Out & About

Mother's Day is fast approaching. I'm sure that spending a day antiques with Mom would definitely put a smile on her face, especially if she was able to find that special item she had been looking for. It would have so much more meaning finding it with that someone special.

Afterwards, take her out to dinner, or cook out on the grill. We always appreciate a day off when we don't have to cook. Mine figure if they do everything on my to-do list that day, I will cook them a nice meal, and I do. For those antiquers who have cabin fever, the outdoor shows and auctions are starting. So, be sure to pack those vehicles with your folding chairs, sunblock, hat and plenty of water.

African Black Rhino Shoulder Mount with History Sells for $50,000 at Kraft Auction Service

Article & Photos by Kraft Auction Service

Jonathan started the anniversary sale in 2006, to celebrate his father Conrad's 30 years in the auction business. The sale was a huge success, with Kraft Auctions selling its most expensive antique collectible at the time in a pair of white opalescent sandwich celery glass vases for $18K. After that Jonathan and Conrad decided to conduct a premier Anniversary Auction every year.

In 2010, Jonathan moved the sale to January to capitalize on the post holiday lull in auctions and the sale got even bigger. He set his sites on conducting Northwest Indiana's first antique auction that would exceed $1 million dollars in sales. In 2016, he achieved that goal. Over the years the sale has grown from a one day event to a three day sale with 7 rings in total and 4000+ lots. The auction attracts in person bidders from all over the country and online bidders from all over the world.

The January 11-13 auction featured more than 600 obsolete Police badges, more than 850 firearms, ammunition, 300+ taxidermy mounts, outdoor collectibles, and outstanding Military collectibles. Prices were strong throughout the weekend, with these fantastic collections going to new homes.

At Kraft Auction Services, our staff has over 200 years of auction experience. Composed of family and close friends, they are friendly, knowledgeable and approachable. Our goal is that buyers and sellers feel like a part of our extended auction family whether you participate in 1 or 100 auctions. We can be reached at 219-973-9240, email us at: info@kraftauctions.com and visit our website at: kraftauctions.com.

Antique Vintage Handkerchiefs Fun To Collect And Use

By Shelby Weister

Handkerchiefs have been around for centuries, but in the 1920's, Kleenex tissues began to take their place. A hanky became an inexpensive accessory for an outfit and the perfect "Christmas gift for a friend or relative because you didn't need to know the size to purchase. Also they were a special gift easy to enclose in a card and mail.

Today, many ladies carry or tie them on their purses or put them in the cuff of a blouse so they are handy when needed. The distinguishing features of handkerchiefs are patterns and designs. They come in many styles, colors and shapes. Many animals, such as dogs, appear on handkerchiefs, while floral ones are plentiful.

Children's hankies depict cartoon characters or nursery rhymes. In the 1930's, many children went to school with a handkerchief pinned to their clothing.

There are designer handkerchiefs, and some are signed like works of art. Though they were mass produced, you'll be able to recognize the style of a particular artist even if the handkerchief isn't signed.

History and patriotism is a way of learning of a handkerchief's age or time span. The red, white and blue hankies represent the armed forces and instill patriotism in the wearer. Many military personnel purchased hankies as gifts for loved ones. "Remember Pearl Harbor" is one of the most poignant of all the hankies. After World War II, gas rationing stopped and many people took to the road for vacations. No item was a better souvenir than a handkerchief - inexpensive and small.

Most handkerchiefs are cotton or linen and most have hand-rolled edges. There are also some that are silk.

To bring your handkerchiefs back to a nice condition, try to remove stains by soaking them in Oxy Clean or use cold water with hand soap. Always rinse thoroughly and never squeeze or wring it dry. Lay the handkerchief flat on a towel to dry and then iron it and store with acid free paper between each handkerchief.

Lace, crocheted and tatted handkerchiefs are very nice for special events, such as confirmation or first communion. For a wedding, a handkerchief can meet the need for something borrowed, blue, old or new.

Huge Collections of Decoys & Crocks Plus Lots of Other Great Items Sell at W. Yoder Auction

Article & Photos by W. Yoder Auction

There was a great selection of duck decoys including Joe Geigl, Clifford Schmidt as well as Mason and carved birds. There were crocks galore including jugs and butter churns. There were cardboard and wooden shell boxes and crates, arrowheads, wooden bowls, Wattware, woodend gun powder barrels, a brass signal cannon and hunting diaramas.

Winchester items are always popular and this sale featured calendars, posters and a commemorative rifle display. There were game bird and animal calls, traps and tags, a trapper's basket, binoculars, signs, oil cans railroad lamp, Alumacraft oars, sturgeon spears, an unusual minnow bucket, a National cash register and a country store counter top display.

Also crossing the block were powder flasks, rifle pin & patch displays, an Elto outboard motor, knives, fishing lures & reels, trapper pin and patch display, hunting & fishing magazines, a golf ball collection, Disney items, pedal cars, curio cabinets, drop front secretary and bookcase and a Victorian style sofa.

W Yoder Auction was founded by Wayne Yoder Jr. in 1999, and has been a member of the National Auctioneers Association since 2002. When asked why he became an auctioneer, he will tell you it is because he enjoys the many different types of people he meets across the country that come to the auctions and the action each auction provides. In 2008, Wayne became the Wisconsin Auctioneer State Champion when he participated in the competition held every year at the Wisconsin State Fair located in Milwaukee, WI. "It was a wonderful experience that I will never forget." He had participated in the competition 3 times prior to winning and each year learned from his mistakes and bettered himself. His hard work shows through in every auction that he has.

Since opening, W Yoder Auctions has been dedicated to staying on top of the most technologically advanced system to provide their customers with a smooth auction experience. We want everyone who comes to our auctions to have the most positive experience possible, and that is why we believe in having fun at our auctions. We look forward to seeing you at our next auction, and hope you walk away having a smile on your face with that winning item in your hands.

W. Yoder Auction, LLC is located at N2475 13th Gateway in Wautoma, WI. We can be reached at 920-787-5549, by email: info@wyoderauction.com and be sure to check out our website: www.wyoderauction.com.

The American Bell Association International, Inc (ABA)

Carnival glass bell made by Fenton Art Glass Company

The American Bell Association International, Inc. (ABA) is organized for educational and scientific purposes related to the collection, study, preservation, restoration, and research of all kinds of bells.

Carnival glass bell made by Fenton Art Glass Company

We were formed in 1940 by a group of people who enjoyed collecting and learning about bells. They were intrigued by the various characteristics of bells including appearance, sound, shape, use, and history. This enthusiasm continues today! Bell collections vary depending on member interest, i.e., bells made of brass, bronze, ceramic, glass, crystal, porcelain, wood, and less traditional materials.

We're not just for bell collectors, however. Our 'Bell Talk' Forum provides a place to share knowledge and ask questions on topics such as Big Bells; Small Bells; Foundries, Manufacturers and Artisans; Repair, Restoration, Parts and Cleaning; Bells in Museums and Public Places. The Forum even has a place where people can list a bell or two (not a collection, please) for sale or ask for a bell that you want to buy. Free registration is required if you want to post on the forum and is open to ABA members as well as non-ABA members. ABA Membership Chairman, 26 Hunting Lodge Drive, Miami Springs FL 33166-5100 or visit: americanbell.org

American Breweriana Association

The American Breweriana Association was incorporated in 1980 as a non-profit historical and educational association organized to advance the public knowledge of brewing and brewery history, to serve collectors and historians, and dedicated to the preservation of the memories and artifacts of America's brewing industry. The ABA reached a major goal earlier this year with the dedication of National Brewery Museum in Potosi, Wisconsin in conjunction with their national convention in nearby Dubuque, Iowa.

The ABA website - www.americanbreweriana.org - presents a magazine approach to the look of the site. The homepage gives a center "pitch" on "Why Join ABA?" along with blocks on their American Breweriana Journal, the new National Brewery Museum and upcoming events.

Drop downs from the masthead provide important links to contact information, how to join, ABA chapters, ABA officers and board, Code of Ethics and events.

The ABA site appears to be equally informative for both their 3,000 members and other site visitors... including some who may well decide to become members. And, areas on the site seem to indicate there is much more to come regarding new site features.

Fan Enthusiasts Convened in Boston, Massachusetts

Article & Photos by Kathryn Hanna (FANA)

The Fan Association of North America (FANA), which includes hand fan enthusiasts from across the country, recently convened in Boston, MA for their 37th annual meeting on April 10-14, 2019 to view fans at three area museums and from private collections. Meeting organizer Shelly Gonçalves stated, “museum-quality fans are rarely exhibited due to their fragile construction, so it was a particular treat for FANA members to view fans 'behind-the-scenes' at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts and the McMullen Museum of Art at Boston College (Chestnut Hill).” Former FANA member Ester Oldham's collection at the MFA includes gems such as a rare 1590 découpé fan¹ imitating lace, an Italian ca. 1820 souvenir fan illustrating Vesuvius erupting, and a 1740s mask fan. The McMullen's Hicks Collection has many fans with mother-of-pearl making up the monture (sticks and guards) of the fan. FANA members were delighted to see an 18th century painted fan of the Four Seasons.

In the late 1800's the largest concentration of American hand fan manufacturers were located in and around Braintree, Massachusetts. FANA members visited the Braintree Historical Society where members viewed the current fan exhibit (on view until May 31) and met with curator Mary Fraiser to learn more about the fan manufacturing companies: Hunt, Allen, White Brothers, and Strauss. FANA members brought their own fans for Ms. Fraiser's determination of whether or not they were “Braintree” fans.

Members also welcomed student interns from Lasell College

German-brisé, ivory fan given to Bertha Ziel in 1876.

(Newton, MA) to the meeting, who presented their research cataloguing fans from the Lasell Fashion Collection. For the FANA members' fan showcase, scrap fans were the theme. Scrap fans were very popular in the late 1800s when the owner would take a plain fan and glue logos of hotels, colleges, businesses, fraternal organizations, etc. clipped from stationary or envelopes to make their own personalized souvenir fan. FANA members were able to buy vintage, antique, and new fans at the members' annual fan sale. In addition, the organization raised over $4,000 for its grant program through a charity fan auction. The highlight was a German-brisé, ivory fan⁸ given to Bertha Ziel in 1876 prior to her marriage to Wellesley Moore, the English Consul in San Francisco in the late 1800s. The funds raised are used for grants such as the one received in 2018 by the

San Diego History Center to aid the museum in conserving and digitizing their fan collection

The next annual FANA meeting will be in Seattle, WA, on May 27-31, 2020. FANA welcomes new members who may join by visiting FANA's website, www.fanassociation.org. In addition to the annual meeting, FANA member benefits include the FANA newsletter, Journal, and regular email updates. Also check out fan discussions on Facebook at “Hand Fan Collectors.” For further information contact Kathryn Hanna at westonkafan@gmail.com or call 952-200-9727.
