Out & About

The farmers were out late over the weekend getting their fields tilled and planted. Father's Day is this Sunday. Take your father to an auction or antique show or shop. I'm sure just spending a day antiques with him will put a smile on his face.

We were busy this past weekend cleaning and preparing for Brandon's Graduation Party at the end of June. Brandon was helping clean the garage and get the back yard ready. Then, we had to figure out how many tables and chairs to order, what food he wants to serve and make the grocery list and a to-do list. Todd made me promise this time around I would take it easy on myself and not cook as much, so I can spend time having fun with the families. It just seems like time is going by so fast this summer, not sure if it is because the kids are all busy. It definitely already feels different around the house, don't have words for it yet.

When Out and About this weekend, be sure to check out:

East State Antique Mall is having their Mall Wide Sales Now through Sunday, July 14th. Located at East State Antique Mall, 5411 East State Street, in Rockford, Illinois. See their ad in this week's issue of Auction Action Antique News.

The History of the JW McCoy & Brush-McCoy Potteries

In 1848, J.W. McCoy was born and raised in Putnam, which is now part of Zanesville, Ohio. He was married in 1870, and the next year he and Sarah (Sade) Elizabeth Brown his wife, moved to Uniontown in Newton Township, Muskingum County. There J.W. operated a dry good store.

In 1871, the McCoy's moved to the community of Roseville, Ohio. There he entered into about a five-year partnership with his father-in-law, James E. Brown in a general merchandise business, which was called "Brown & McCoy".

Then in 1876, J.W. opened a General Merchandise store on his own. In 1886, he entered into a partnership and established the "Williams and McCoy Pottery Co.". After about four years of operation a new partner was taken in and the pottery was renamed the "Kildow, Williams and McCoy Pottery Co.". According to, "The Business Review of Muskingum County", "This plant was one of the most extensive in the valley and produced all kinds of common stoneware and a variety of culinary utensils."

Then in 1890, after about two more years of operation, the KW&M pottery was renamed again, and was called the Midland Pottery Co. By 1892, J.W. was not only involved in pottery manufacturing, and retail pottery sales, but he had become a pottery jobber, selling bulk wares to wholesale dealers.

After about two years of operation, the KW&M pottery was renamed again, and was then called the "Midland Pottery Co.". By 1892, J.W. was not only involved in pottery manufacturing, and retail pottery sales, but he had become a pottery jobber, selling bulk wares to wholesale dealers.

In 1898, following about six years of operation under the name the Midland Pottery Co., the pottery was sold to the "Roseville Pottery Co.". This ended the partnerships J.W. had in the pottery business. Since very few pieces from these early potteries that J.W. was affiliated with have been found, it is most likely that most of them were unmarked.

As discussed in, "The History of the W. Nelson McCoy's Blue Bird Pottery", (seen elsewhere on this Web site), Wilber F., the cousin of J.W., was a partner in the "Zanesville Hardware Company". The date that Wilber's part-ownership in the store was established remains uncertain, but it was probably between 1870 and 1875.

In 1899, J.W. along with several investors, formed a pottery solely under his name, the J.W. McCoy Pottery Co. He must have devoted much of his time to his new pottery, for in 1901, he turned the management of his general store over to his son Arthur.

For several years, the "J.W. McCoy Pottery Co." concentrated on the production of the simpler, utilitarian stoneware pieces. However, around late 1902 the pottery branched out and began to include the production of art pottery. The art pottery production consisted of elaborately designed, decorative items such as jardinières and pedestals, various other flower containers, umbrella stands, and sand jars. The production of these attractively glazed pieces proved to be a very successful undertaking.

In 1909, George Brush joined the "J.W. McCoy Pottery Co.". Prior to that time he had established a pottery under his own name. However, the pottery only operated about one year before a fire destroyed the entire plant. The "Brush Pottery" was not rebuilt, but he retained the remaining assets of the Brush Pottery. Later in the year after his pottery burned, George Brush became the Manager of the "Globe Stoneware Company", and the "Crooksville Clay Products Company".

After joining the "J.W. McCoy Pottery", within two years George Brush had become the General Manager of the pottery. In October of that year, the directors of the McCoy pottery decided to expand the pottery by the purchase of the "Globe Stoneware Co." (1901-1911).

During August of 1911, George Brush, acting on behalf of the Brush Pottery interests, purchased the old "J.B. Owens Pottery", Plant Number One in Zanesville (1883-1909), along with the equipment and molds. Late in 1911, the officers of the "J.W. McCoy Pottery", at the suggestion of George Brush, agreed to combine the assets of the company with those of the "Brush Pottery". Consequently, George Brush obtained the controlling interest in the "J.W. McCoy pottery", and the name of the pottery was changed to the "Brush - McCoy Pottery".

In 1912, the "Brush-McCoy Pottery" purchased the equipment and molds from the "A. Radford Pottery", which was located in Clarksville, West Virginia.

In 1918, the McCoy family sold their interest in the Brush - McCoy Pottery; however, it was not until late 1925 that the directors of the pottery dropped the McCoy name. The new name of the pottery was the Brush Pottery Co., and it operated under that name until it closed in 1982.

1899 Mills Duplex Upright Slot Machine Brings an Incredible $75,000 at Kraft Auction Service

Article & Photos by Kraft Auction Service

Jonathan Kraft started the anniversary sale in 2006, to celebrate his father Conrad's 30 years in the auction business. The sale was a huge success, with Kraft Auctions selling its most expensive antique collectible at the time in a pair of white opalescent sandwich celery glass vases for $18K. After that Jonathan and Conrad decided to conduct a premier Anniversary Auction every year.

The third auction delivered some truly big ticket items. Highlights included over 40 collector cars, motorcycles, gas pumps, outstanding vintage advertising, more than 20 fantastic slot machines, 25 plus hit-n-miss engines, coin-op, and pedal cars. There was also 1,000 lots of antique & collectible toys such as pressed steel, windup, cast iron, banks and farm toys.

The highlight of Saturday's sale was an 1899 Mills Duplex 5¢ upright slot machine that went home to a happy buyer for an astonishing $75,000. Winner amongst the collector cars was a beautiful 1966 Ford Fairlane 500 that cruised away for $42,500.

Kraft Auction Service is a professional auction service based in Valparaiso, IN. We have been servicing buyers and sellers from around the world since 1976. The company was founded by Conrad Kraft, who is still active in the business today. Conrad built the business on honesty and integrity, forming a strong base for Jonathan to take over in 2005.

Today, Kraft Auction Service conducts the largest auctions in Northwest Indiana and is the only auction company in the area with fully computerized clerking and cashier services. Kraft Auctions has the capability to host auctions across the country and have recently conducted sales throughout Indiana, Michigan, Illinois, Missouri and Ohio. Consignments and Buyers come from all over the United States and the world.

Wisconsin Pottery Association Holds 24th Annual Pottery Show & Sale

Article by Jim Riordan (Wisconsin Pottery Association)

The Wisconsin Pottery Association (WPA) will hold its 24th annual Art Pottery Show and Sale on Saturday August 24th, 2019, from 9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. This interesting and exciting event will be held at the Exhibition Hall, Alliant Energy Center, Madison, Wisconsin. Admission is $5, and parking is free.

All types of antique and collectible pottery, contemporary ceramics, dinnerware, stoneware, tile, figurines, and other types of vintage items and art will be on sale. Fifty of the best Pottery dealers from across the Midwest will participate, as well as noted studio potters. Pottery examples for sale will be Roseville, Van Briggle, Fulper, Rookwood, Weller, McCoy and Red Wing along with many more. The dealers gather some of the best American and European pottery along with other vintage items to bring to this annual sale, and the contemporary potters bring many items right out of the kiln!

Along with all of the pottery for purchase, pottery experts from the WPA and additional volunteers from the Iowa Art Pottery Association (IAPA) and the Minnesota Art Pottery Association (MAPA) will be available to help identify pottery pieces brought in by show attendees. (Maximum of two pottery pieces please). There is no charge for the identification.

Gazo Foudji was a Japanese-born artist who worked at the Weller Pottery before moving to Roseville (ca. 1905-1906) and creating the Fudji (pictured) and Fujiyama lines.

Roseville Crystalis, 1906, is highly sought after by collectors for its crystalline glazes and creative forms.

Roseville Futura, 1928. Futura is an Art Deco line that was made in 78 different shapes and is one of the most popular lines among today's collectors. A green globe, modernistic shape.

Roseville Azurean vase, ca. 1902. This is blue version of Roseville's Rozane line, with hand painted decoration.

Roseville Egypto, 1905, in the form of an ancient Roman oil lamp.

Roseville Creamware "Good Night" candle holder. Roseville began making decaled Creamware utility ware by 1910 and continued making it at least through the 1920's if not longer.

Roseville Early Utility pitchers. Introduced around 1900 and popular for decades thereafter, Roseville made dozens of different pitchers. Some Roseville collectors specialize in pitchers alone!

The Coffeepot from the Mock Orange line, first produced in 1950, typical of Roseville's late production style.

Roseville Carnelian II, 1926. This line followed a line called Carnelian I and was produced in shades of red or green or a mix of red and green.

Roseville Crocus planter, ca. 1904.

Ceramic Arts Studio Collectors will hold their 24th annual convention that weekend and information can be found at their web site www.cascollectors.com. They will also have an information booth set up at the Pottery Show. Many dealers at the show will have Ceramic Arts Studio pieces for sale!

The Wisconsin Pottery Association meets the 2nd Tuesday of every month, 9 times per year - February through December at the Goodman Center in Madison Wisconsin.

Gazo Foudji was a Japanese-born artist who worked at the Weller Pottery before moving to Roseville (ca. 1905-1906) and creating the Fudji (pictured) and Fujiyama lines.

The group gets together at 6 p.m. with a discussion about recent finds and mystery pieces. A presentation about pottery or a related collecting field starts about 6:30 p.m. Please see the WPA web site at www.wisconsinpottery.org for more information on meetings, presentations, and membership.

We hope to see Pottery Lovers and Antique Collectors at the WPA Pottery Show/Sale on Saturday August 24th, 2019! We are proud to present our show and sale for the 24th consecutive year. Our first show occurred in August of 1995 at the Holiday Inn east in Madison Wisconsin. Betty Harrington, the designer of Ceramic Arts Studio Madison was the featured speaker. The WPA art pottery show and sale is a great opportunity to find just the piece you were looking for or to learn more about the many pottery or vintage items offered for sale!

A sleek blue Pine Cone "400 series" pitcher from 1953, and the smaller, older model designed in the 1930's.

Roseville Early Velmoss vase, ca. 1916. This line was unidentified as Roseville until collectors found a marked example and identified the shape numbers in a 1916 price guide in the 1990's.

Roseville "Vase Assortment" pieces were Roseville's earliest art pottery, beginning around 1896. The vases were sold in bulk to the A&P Grocery chain, where they were given away as premiums to customers.

Windsor, introduced by Roseville in 1931. This fern-decorated pattern was made in blue and rusty brown.

Roseville Carnelian II, 1926. This line followed a line called Carnelian I and was produced in shades of red or green or a mix of red and green.

Roseville Carnelian II, 1926. This line followed a line called Carnelian I and was produced in shades of red or green or a mix of red and green.

The Wisteria line, first produced in 1933, is highly valued among collectors today.

Roseville Rosecraft, 1921, also known as Florane when it appears in this tan color. The form of this vase foreshadows the art deco telescoping and saucer-like shapes that were perfected in the Futura line seven years later.

Homer Laughlin China Collectors Association

HLCCA is a non-profit organization comprised of collectors, antiques dealers, historians, etc., who share an interest in the dinnerware and other pottery products that were, and are, produced by the Homer Laughlin China Co. (1873-). HLCCA offers a wide range of services, events, and other benefits for people whose interest levels vary from mild curiosity to sophisticated collecting.

Our quarterly magazine, The Dish produced in full color throughout since v. 2 no. 2 (Winter 1999-2000), is the premier communication tool for, and among, the HLC collecting community. Each 24-page issue contains 5-7 feature articles whose topics range from individual collector's stories to in-depth discussions of particular lines or decorative schemes, and from biographical essays on noted artists or artisans involved with the creation of HLC products to reviews of new books on collecting HLC wares. The Dish also includes regular reports on numerous Association Activities. The HLCCA also has a book on Fiesta, Harlequin, and Kitchen Kraft.

HLCCA holds an annual 2 1/2-day Conference during the summer. The Conference offerings include seminars, workshops, and multi-media presentations, auction, collectors' exhibits, a dealers' show-and-sale, and most importantly, an opportunity for HLC collectors to meet, greet, and network with other collectors who share similar interests.

We also operate an online store which offers many HLC-related books for collectors, and HLC pottery items that are not readily available from retail stores. Since 1999, HLCCA has commissioned limited edition juice pitchers, each of which commemorates a notable event from a particular year in the 1930s. These pitchers are available only to members of HLCCA.

Please browse around our website, <http://www.hlcca.org>, to learn, in greater detail, the benefits of HLCCA membership. At any point, if you have a question, please go to the About Us page where you will find an email address for our officers or volunteers, all of whom are pleased to address your questions about the Homer Laughlin China Collectors Association.

Small Town - Big Event

The Marbold Antique Show & Farm Fest

Article & Photos by Charlotte Wohler

The small town of Greenview, IL will host a big event on June 22 and 23, 2019, The Marbold Farmstead Antique Show and Farm Fest. The Marbold Farmstead sits just south of Greenview, alongside Route 29, 20 miles north of Springfield. The income from the fundraising event will provide funds for the 2019 Capital Campaign, "The Next Chapter," to help with restoration of the house. Restoration efforts are currently underway and feature repair/replacement of windows and doors, dormer work, chimney caps, tuck-pointing, electricity, plumbing and HVAC systems, at an approximate cost of $250,000.

The Marbold Farmstead was established by German immigrant, John H. Marbold in 1850. He grew his farm from 200 acres to over 4,000 with the help of his son, H. H. Marbold. Through their farming years, the farm went from horse and plow to steam engines and finally gas engines. The Marbold family utilized the latest technology of the industrial revolution. Using a boiler system, forced hot water heat was sent into the home through underground clay tiles. Electricity was installed in the home and throughout the property. An indoor bathroom was built to provide better sanitary conditions and a conservatory was added to provide plants and mood-altering stained-glass windows, a Victorian-age concept. The farm was self-sufficient, growing most all their food for themselves and their hired help. It was a farm revered by the community and county in central Illinois.

This is the seventh year for the antique show at the Marbold Farmstead. The farm fest was added two years ago, creating the Marbold Farmstead Antique Show & Farm Fest. With the addition of farm equipment and demonstrations guests get to see farm equipment and farming techniques from the past. A shingle maker, baler, gas engines and more give guests a look at how a farmer worked.

A variety of craftsmen, demonstrators, flea market merchants, antique dealers, historic programs, tours of the house and grounds, a trolley tour of the community, music, food and more will round out the fourth weekend in June event. Gates open at 9:00 a.m. on Saturday and close at 5:00 p.m. and on Sunday, the gate opens at 9:00 a.m. and closes at 3:00 p.m. Admission fee is $5.00 for this rain or shine event.

Don't miss this 'big little show' in the heart of central Illinois, Route 29, 20 miles north of Springfield, in Greenview, Illinois. Programs are subject to change, so please check the website, www.historic-marbold-farmstead.org, and Facebook for updates. Contact Charlotte with questions, 217-341-8293.
