Sure Cure for Cabin Fever at 40th Annual Janesville Mid-Winter Antiques Show

Article & photos by Brian Maloney

The beautiful Pontiac Convention Center in Janesville, Wisconsin once again played host to one of the Badger State's longest-running antiques events: The Janesville Mid-Winter Antiques Show. More than three-dozen quality dealers filled the hall with an interesting mix of everything from antique toys to vintage sporting collectibles, and everything in between. Veteran show promoters Steve & Thelma Bina run the event, and the show is in good hands with the pair, as they've been organizing successful Midwest antiques events for many years. Big crowds were the rule on both days of this venerable two-day show.

Out & About

Lots to choose from in the next few weeks to keep every antiquer busy. From a German battle flag that measures 6.56 feet by 11 feet to a No More Winding With Elgin Watches display.

I did not see too many shacks on my travels to and from work for Sturgeon fishing. It seems that the fish are elusive on Lake Winnebago this year.

Some of the other areas are having better luck than my local lake.

Brandon will be going to state and Mekenzy has to play one more game to determine placement. The next few weekends will be spent traveling to tournaments. We always look forward to the end of the hockey season, even though the kids continue to play on fun leagues.

Pontiac Convention Center Hosts Long-Running Janesville Mid-Winter Antiques Show

Well, it doesn't seem to matter what the weather's like, or what the economy's like either. Good, bad, up, or down, there always seems to be big crowds for the Badger State's first antiques event of the year – the Janesville Mid-Winter Antiques Show. And sure enough, I found dozens of antiquers lined up on Saturday morning at the entrance to the Pontiac Convention Center, host of the show.

An hour later, the hall was packed with shoppers. For its first three decades, the Janesville Antiques show was your traditional shopping mall antiques show. It had long been held at the Janesville Mall, just a stone's throw away from its current location. But times change; and for the past several years the show has made its home at this new 10,000 square-foot facility. Extensive regional advertising, including a large direct-mail campaign, have insured the show's continued success.

And inside the show itself, you'll find dealers coming from near & far with quality pieces in pretty near every category of collecting. Period furniture hunters found gems all over the hall, from a rustic hanging cupboard sporting its original red wash at Tanda's Antiques to an exceptional Eastlake oak buffet next door at Old Glory Antiques.

Want some country accessories to match? Brown's Antiques had lots to see, from early area advertising to primitive kitchenware and more. And shoppers found country stoneware to spare at both Indian Creek Antiques and Out on the Farm Antiques. Also at Out on the Farm Antiques: some great vintage toys, including everything from cast iron and pressed steel cars and trucks to a choice Easter-themed Occupied Japan wind-up.

Sporting collectibles more your thing? Kitchen Antiques almost surely had something to fill-the-bill, from felt pennants galore to posters and programs from both college and professional teams. And 29 Palms always has one of the largest displays at the event, their display filled with furnishings and accessories from the 1920s through the 1950s.

In fact, no matter what your interests, there was probably a dealer at the Janesville Mid-Winter Antiques Show to suit. Like the great selection of country store tins and milk bottles at Our Piece of the Past Antiques, or the large inventories of American art pottery at Boone's Antiques, or Blackwolf Antiques' array of antique and vintage fine jewelry. I hope the photos give you a small idea of what the show had to offer!

Thanks again to Steve & Thelma Bina, promoters of the Janesville Mid-Winter Antique Show, for inviting me out to the event. For more information about the show just give the Binns a call at 608-385-3598. And as always, keep an eye out for next year's 41st Annual Janesville Mid-winter Antiques Show in the Auction Action Antique News!

Janesville, Wisconsin's Pontiac Convention Center hosts the January Show, conveniently located just off the Interstate Highway about halfway between Madison and Rockford.

Artifacts at Brown's Antiques ranged from an Indiana real estate agent's painted wood "For Sale" sign ($795) to an all-original wooden-wheel Coaster Wagon priced at $385. 608-756-2152

Exhibitor John Fruth of Old Glory Antiques came with this exceptional Eastlake oak buffet with applied carvings and fancy upper gallery, asking price $2,800. 608-481-3131

My country furniture pick from Brown's Antiques: this primitive pine dry sink, asking price $435. 608-756-2152

You never know quite what you'll find at Dale Peterson's Spring Valley Antiques – from this restored country pine cupboard ($785) to a 1959 Waterville, Wisconsin movie theatre lobby card priced at $30. 608-879-2094

The Linen Lady came with that and much more, including this dated 1917 Hardanger embroidery panel priced at $75. 608-754-0447

Two painted country furniture finds from Tanda's Antiques: the 30" x 33" hanging cupboard sporting its original red finish priced at $325, the 36" gray pine chest at $195. 608-754-5414

Period Art Pottery was the focus at Boone's Antiques, where sat this elegant pair of Rookwood St Francis of Assisi bookends, made in 1947 and priced at $350. 815-623-6031

Another exceptional period pocket watch from Blackwolf Antiques: this circa-1820 English key-wind example in 18k gold, inscribed George Clerke London and priced at $900. 920-688-5090

Two early 1900s finds from Icon Woodworks: the Viking step-back sectional bookcase priced at $469, the Sessions Arts & Crafts wall clock at only $95. www.iconwoodworks.com

Shoppers found fine jewelry from all eras at Blackwolf Antiques, among the inventory this 1880s Elgin National pocket watch in a 14k gold box case priced at $2,600. 920-688-5090

Sports collectors can always get their fix at Kitchen Antiques, where I found great felt pennants like these 1950s Milwaukee Braves examples priced at $115 each. 608-752-1279

A wonderland of country store advertising awaited at Our Piece of the Past Antiques, from a colorful Blue Star Potato Chips tin ($28) to a Bowey's Hot Chocolate display jar ($175) and 1930s Johnston's Peanut Flake crate priced at $75. 608-455-3112

Two fabulous 1930s Sunbeam percolator sets from 29 Palms, The Collectors Oasis: the 1931 cylindrical version priced at $75, the 1939 'World's Fair' example at $125. 815-968-0229

Two more sports oddities from Kitchen Antiques: the hand-made 1920s Ivy League-themed seat cushion and the pristine 1982 'Welcome to the Metrodome' program each priced at $115. 608-752-1279

Shoppers found rare Parker Pens at Victorian House Antiques, from an early Lucky Curve model with Sterling silver overlay ($745) to a mint-in-box 1988 Premier Desk Set priced at $895. 608-879-2567

Another super-rare vintage Parker Pen from Victorian House Antiques: this boxed commemorative pen that flew aboard the Space Shuttle Discovery in 1984, one of only sixty-four in existence and priced at $225. 608-879-2567

At 29 Palms, The Collectors Oasis sat this great Art Deco Juice King JK-40 juicer - in wonderful condition & priced at $95. 815-968-0229

Three 19th century "go to bed" match safes were among the tiny treasures at Victorian House Antiques: the carved Black Forest example priced at $195, the brass bear and owl versions at $495 and $395. 608-879-2567

Pottery "Hatching Chicks" covered dish & under plate priced at $895, the Scandinavian brass snuff box with leather strap at $185. 262-375-0641

Two very-different European artifacts from Weather

Vane Antiques: the circa-1820s Dedham

Two interesting figural nude lamps from GT Antiques: the brass & marble example with twin chenille shades priced at $195, the pottery and satin glass version at $85. 563-332-7008

Antiques, plus restored period furniture including this three-drawer, 32"-wide walnut chest with oak-leaf pulls - $525. 262-363-7338

A wide array of antique and vintage tools awaited at Indian Creek

From Timber Peg Antiques, a matched pair of hard-to-find 1933 Brush Pottery Rock Craft planters were priced at $140 each. 608-879-9936

Staffordshire Figures

1780 to 1840

Family, Friendship, Play, & Classical Subjects

Volume 4

Myrna Schkolne

Schiffer

In Volume 4 of this all-encompassing, multi-volume set, which catalogs the vast range of enamel-painted figures produced mostly in the Staffordshire Potteries between 1780 and 1840, figures portraying family, children at play, the Temperance Movement, classical subjects, busts, and much more are covered. The text discusses distinguishing real works from reproductions and evaluating their quality. It includes over 1100 brilliant color photographs, as well as information about the potters and design sources, along with a values guide. Among the figures are contemporary portrayals of weddings, christenings, and other family scenes, forms emblematic of the seasons, elements, and continents, and a multitude of characters portraying classical subjects. Many of these pieces are hauntingly beautiful and have long been hidden from the public eye. These impressive portrayals give us rare glimpses of a world that has vanished long ago.

Book Description

Come join an in depth exploration of a unique segment of the Victorian decorative arts. In 650 beautiful images and fascinating text, many glass domes and the objects displayed under them are revealed and discussed in detail. Items from glorious taxidermy presentations of nature, seashell works, wax flowers and fruit, and even art formed of human hair are studied carefully. Additional chapters include examples of skeleton leaves and phantom bouquets; wool work; glass whimsies; seed, paper, muslin, and silk work; automata—mechanical, musical masterworks— and much more. Social commentary of the times enriches the exploration of these beautiful art objects. Experience the lightheartedness and whimsy to be found in the decorative arts created from 1837 to 1901 and preserved under these domes.
