One Day, Five Hundred Choice Antiques, at January 23rd W. Yoder Auction in Deforest, Wisconsin

Article & photos by Brian Maloney

Antiques enthusiasts gathered in Deforest, Wisconsin on January 23rd for a fantastic W. Yoder Auction Service event. Hundreds of cast iron toys crossed the block, along with choice collections of both country stoneware and period advertising. You probably know W. Yoder Auction Service for the big antique consignment auctions they've become famous for, but they also conduct specialty auctions of everything from period firearms to occupational shaving mugs. There were countless highlights at the event - the winner pricewise a rare Vindex John Deere Hay Loader toy that soared to $4,200!

There was no doubt as to the cast iron toy winner of the sale: this rare Vindex John Deere Hay Loader that soared to $4,200!

This self-framed Grape-Nuts litho-tin sign was in nice condition, and sold for a solid $1,400.

This Vindex John Deere Threshing Machine was in great shape, and sold for $1,600.

This circa 1880's York, Pennsylvania & Ohio Railroads jug with incised decoration fetched $1,400.

Auctioneer Wayne Yoder with the day's stoneware winner: a floral-decorated five-gallon jug that later sold for a surprising $2,000.

Three Auctions in One at January 23rd Yoder Toy, Stoneware, and Advertising Auction

Article & photos by Brian Maloney

It seems like just yesterday that they held their very first auction, but W. Yoder Auction has now been serving Wisconsin's and the Midwest's auction needs for more than a dozen years. They hold regular sales at the Yoder Auction Center just outside the central Wisconsin town of Wautoma - and many more, including this January 23rd event, at the conveniently-located Comfort Inn Convention Center in Deforest, Wisconsin.

Cast iron toys dominated the Saturday sale. A hundred-plus choices were on display, most from the iconic makers such as Arcade, Vindex, and Hubley. And it was the Vindex examples that proved particularly popular with the bidders. The Vindex Toy Company wasn't actually a company at all, but a division of Belvidere, Illinois' National Sewing Machine Company.

The division had an interesting start. Farm Mechanics Magazine was looking to boost readership, and contracted the National Sewing Machine Company to make toys as incentives for children to sell magazine subscriptions. The toys sold well, especially the farm-related models, and were made until the factory was converted to military production during World War II.

The top-lot at this auction was one of those Vindex agricultural toys: a John Deere Hay Loader in nice original paint that fetched $4,200. Other Vindex highlights included a classic John Deere Threshing Machine that made $1,600, and Case and John Deere three-bottom plows that brought $1,075 and $950.

Of course, Vindex had to compete with the king of cast iron toys: Arcade Manufacturing, based in nearby Freeport, Illinois. Incorporated in 1885, the company grew and prospered, becoming well-known for producing high-quality cast iron coffee mills, spring hinges, cork extractors and the like. Toys were added to their line-up by the early 20th century. They produced everything from doll houses and furniture to cars, trucks, buses, planes, and farm vehicles until their demise in the 1950s. You can see many of them at the Stephenson County Historical Society's display, the largest of its kind in North America.

There were lots of great Arcade toy examples here at the auction too. A 1923 horse-drawn Dray Wagon was the winner price-wise among them, selling for $550. A 1929 Arcade Chevrolet Coupe and a 1920s Red Top Taxi each brought $450 - with a 1929 Arcade #242 Mack Fire Truck not far behind at $325.

Toys not your thing? Stoneware collectors had much to peruse, the top-lot a floral-decorated five-gallon salt glazed jug that sold for $2,000. An 1880s New York, Pennsylvania, & Ohio Railroad jug with incised lettering found a buyer at $1,400. And the choice period advertising saw just as much interest - leading the way a self-framed tin Grape Nuts sign in nice condition that sold for $1,400.

Some other Prices:

- Vindex cast iron Farm Team toy - $700
- 24" x 48" steel Greyhound Bus sign, two-sided - $425
- 1920s Hubley Grocery Wagon cast iron toy - $375
- 1920s Hubley Eagle Milk & Cream Wagon toy - $350
- Large Palomine lithograph coffee tin - $325

Auctioneer for the day was Wayne Yoder. W. Yoder Auction Service has been serving Wisconsin's auction needs since 2003, conducting antique and specialty consignment auctions at their 8,000 square-foot facility in Wautoma, as well as numerous on-site estate, real estate, and farm auctions throughout the year. W. Yoder Auction Service can be reached at 920-787-5549, or through their website www.wyoderauction.com. And as always, keep an eye out for all of their upcoming auction listings in the Auction Action Antique News!

A $500 bid won this 1850s J. B. & A. Maxfield (Milwaukee) three-gallon jug.

Red Wing salt-glazed eight-gallon water cooler - $550.

A $250 bid took this 1925 Arcade cast iron Mack Gasoline Truck.

It took a $900 bid to take home this 23" National Cigar Stand hanging light fixture.

Only one occupational shaving mug crossed the block at this January 23rd sale: this Indian Motorcycle rider example that made $1,000.

22" Beacon Java Coffee store display tin - $325.

1933 Marx Tidy Tim Street Sweeper windup toy, nice condition - $250.

1928 Andy Gump cast iron bank, good original paint - $275.

Double-sided Bell System Telephone Office porcelain sign - $350.

24" porcelain-on-steel barber pole sign, William Marvy Company - $350.

Two very different wheeled toys: the German sheep and the 1910 Kenton Happy Hooligan nodder each sold for $275.

1920s Hubley Monkey Bank, all original with key - $400.

This little 8 1/2" Landers, Frary, & Clark coffee mill was in great original condition, and sold for $875.

This Dixie Kid Cut Plug Tobacco and Milk Pail Roasted Coffee tins each brought the same $250 hammer price.

Two more period cast iron banks: the J & E Stevens Clown-on-Globe example made $925, the 1920s Hubley Trick Dog bank $250.

1925 Arcade Chevrolet Utility Express Truck, 9" - $425.

This 1929 Arcade Ford Weaver Wrecker toy made $275, this 1930 Champion Police Motorcycle with sidecar $225.

Two cast iron horse-drawn wagon toys: the 1919 Hubley Dray barrel wagon made $450, the rare 1923 Arcade Dray wagon $550.

A 1939 Arcade #3180 Double Decker Bus toy made $250, a 1930 Hubley Indian Traffic Car Motorcycle toy $350.

A tale of two (cast iron) tractors: the Vindex J. I. Case example bringing $775, the Vindex John Deere version $825.

Two more Vindex cast iron farm toys: the Case three-bottom plow sold for a surprising $1,075, the John Deere version right behind at $950.

Two more Arcade cast iron vehicles: the 1929 Mack Fire Truck made $325, the 1927 Model T stake truck $375.

1930s Hubley Indian Police Motorcycle & sidecar, replacement riders - $275.

Circa 1927 Arcade Model T Weaver wrecker toy - $250.

1930s Hubley Police Motorcycle, reproduction rider - $425.

Peanuts anyone? A whole tableful of Planters Peanuts jars crossed the block, the best for up to $250 apiece.

Chas. Parker & Co. Coffee Mill, 17" wheels - $325.

It took a $1,250 bid to win this 19th century horse & cart pull-toy.

Antiques Abbreviations

by Mike Paul

A while ago a reader asked about explaining some of the abbreviations they encounter in auction ads. This got me thinking about the abbreviations auctioneers use and why we use them. After a phone call to Gloria I offered to put together a listing.

By definition, an abbreviation is a shortened form of a word or phrase used for brevity. Within context and reason it identifies certain aspects of a piece to the buyer without needlessly going into detail. A lamp buyer will know what a "bracket lamp" is. It's unnecessary to say, "Victorian cast iron wall bracket with mercury glass reflector, chimney & drop in finger font". Most auctioneers use abbreviations in order to keep the size of the ad affordable. However it can be too much of a good thing and some of the more arcane descriptions can confuse or mislead the reader. To a person who collects a particular category most abbreviations in that category are readily recognized. To anybody else they are probably gibberish. Even a novice farm toy buyer won't need a three day weekend to decipher IH, McD & JD. WWI & WWII are obvious but would most folks recognize CW (Civil War) out of context? Coins, firearms, Hummels (152/A TMK3 UB K255 HB, anyone?) and other categories all have their own abbreviations that often are exclusive to that field. But if you are a glassware buyer does it really matter if you can't translate a 28g, o/u, d-bbl, ss w/syn stock and vt?

Some descriptions, while not technically correct, get the point across. For example "Jewel T", (which is short for Jewel Tea, a grocery chain) takes up less space than "Autumn Leaf", (a pattern name for china offered as a premium by Jewel Tea). This may seem like a trivial difference but similar descriptions over several publications begin to add up.

A listing that encompassed all of the collecting fields would be more of a project than I can take on but the following abbreviations should get you through most ads for antique auctions. If you have others you'd like to add to the list or that you've wondered about, please email them to me at mike@paulauction.com.

A&C - Arts & Crafts. Refers to the style of furniture usually associated with early 1900s Stickley. Often but erroneously referred to as Mission or Prairie.

ABC - American Brilliant Cut. Refers to the "Brilliant" period of late 19th/early 20th century American cut glass

B&H - Bradley & Hubbard. A manufacturer of quality lighting and decorative accessories.

B&W - Blue & White. The glaze colors used on utilitarian stoneware that was often found in the kitchen.

CI - Cast Iron.

COP - Century Of Progress. Typically refers to souvenirs hauled back from the Chicago World's Fair of 1933/34. Even in the middle of the Great Depression, a lot of Wisconsinites made the trip to see the COP.

CRS - Somebody explained this to me once, but I can't seem to remember what they said.

Dmg - Damage.

gl - Gallon. Typically used when advertising stoneware capacity

For Rest - For Restoration. Don't go to the auction expecting a cream puff.

GBCF - Glass Ball Claw Foot. Describes the foot usually found on late Victorian parlor and lamp tables.

GWTW - Gone With The Wind. A style of lamp with a matching font and top globe. Correctly referred to as a parlor lamp but popularly known as a Gone With The Wind, after the movie of the same name.

LRRH- Little Red Riding Hood. Typically refers to the Regal China products that feature her.

MIB - Mint In Box. Any item, but often a toy, that is in the same condition as new and in the original box.

MOP - Mother of Pearl. Polished nacre usually derived from mollusk shells. Typically found in jewelry, ladies dresser articles, buttons and in the windows of RPOG art.

NIB - New In Box. Similar to above but often assumed to be of modern production

NOS - New Old Stock. Old merchandise, often with original manufacturer's tags and merchant's price tags, that has never been sold or used.

NWOT - New With Original Tags, but sometimes used as New With Out Tags. eBay sellers are usually guilty of using this both ways. If buying online, clarify before bidding.

o/b - Outboard. An outboard motor.

OOB - Oil on Board. Art work done on a board, usually Masonite.

OOB - Oil on Canvas. Art work done on canvas.

Pre Pro - Pre Prohibition, prior to 1920. Refers specifically to alcohol related advertising.

Post Pro - Post Prohibition, after 1933. Refers specifically to alcohol related advertising.

QA - Queen Anne. Generally refers to a 1920's or 30's revival style exemplified by a cabriole leg.

Repro - Reproduction. A good definition would require a separate article but you get the idea. Occasionally people will use the slang "Repop" for repro or "Repo" which is inaccurate and what happens to your car when Vinnie pulls up in a tow truck.
