Out & About

The weather has been shall I say, disappointing. Nice through the weekdays and rainy through the weekend.

Who can get any outside projects done with that kind of weather.

Then you choose to go run errands in town because of the rain and the rain miraculously stops and the sun comes out. The grass is green and grows like crazy, let's hope the farmers have the same luck.

Our house is busy prepping for Brandon's graduation party. Tia FaceTimes every day. She loves Boston, and is trying to experience everything possible while she is there. She has been to the Museum of Fine Arts, gone to the beach, and has been trying all kinds of food. She plans to visit the Science Museum and observe the whales, she has a list of things to keep her weekends busy. She loves the hustle and bustle of the city life. Her internship is going good, she is meeting colleagues from all over the world and learning different information from all of them. Mekenzy is busy working two jobs and taking summer school online to advance her early graduation in the spring of 2020. We will be venturing to Nebraska and Iowa in a few weeks to visit Grad Schools Programs.

Simmons & Co. Auctioneers Holds Annual The Hardware Companies Kollectors Klub Auction in Richmond, Missouri

Article & Photos by Simmons & Co. Auctioneers

Simmons & Co. specializes in these great old tools and this sale was no exception. There were over 1,000 lots of great Winchester, Keen Kutter, Diamond Edge, Simmons & Shapleigh Hardware, Stanley, Bluegrass/Belknap and OVB. Some of the incredible items that crossed the block included a #6 bear trap, vintage hardware store items, great tool cabinets, sporting goods and Western memorabilia, rare Winchester saddlebags and holster, a rare K11 double door Keen Kutter tool cabinets, guns, shell boxes and cartridges. There were also flashlights, pocket knives, straight razors, fobs, calendars, catalogs, advertising, displays, signs and of course, tools galore!

The mission of THCKK is to educate our members and the general public about the history and functions of the great hardware companies, including Simmons Hardware, Shapleigh Hardware, Belknap Hardware, Witte Hardware, Winchester-Simmons Hardware, and others. We want to improve the ability of our members to add to their collections by meeting on a yearly basis and sharing both their knowledge and their collections.

THCKK is a not-for-profit organization formed in March of 1996. It serves to distribute information and provide an interactive forum about hardware companies such as E.C. Simmons, A.F. Shapleigh, and The Winchester Store (and the popular collectibles bearing their logos and house brands) and other historically interesting hardware companies.

Our members are interested in tools, various types of advertising, catalogs and ephemera, promotional and other related hardware, household and sporting goods that were sold by these hardware companies. Probably the most familiar of these logos and company slogans are Keen Kutter "The Recollection of Quality Remains Long After The Price is Forgotten.", Diamond Edge, "Diamond Edge is The Quality Pledge" and The Winchester Store "... As Good as the Gun". Other tool and hardware company house brands such as Polly Prim, Oak Leaf, Crusader, "Our Very Best" (Hibbard, Spencer, Bartlett & Company), Revonoc, Cruso; Blue Grass (Belknap Hardware) "The Nation's Standard of Quality" & "Tools of Honor", Pine Knot, John Primble, Thoroughbred; Stanley Rule and Level Co, Four Square, etc. will also be included as interest dictates. Witte- IXL Square Brand; Wyeth, Lee, BBB (Bingham's Best Brand), Van Camp, Sargent-Very Best Made, etc. are also of interest to many members. For more information, please visit: www.thckk.org.

Simmons & Co. Auctioneers, Inc. can be reached at 816-776-2936, or by email: rilla@simmonsauktion.com.

Fantastic Dealers and Amazing Treasures at the Two Day DePere Antique Show

Article & Photos by Renee Wiskow

The show was taken over by NorthStar Collective from long time owners A&R Promotions and the show hasn't missed a beat. There are so many treasures for every type of collector, you are sure to go home with something great!

My mom, Sandy, once again accompanied me to the show. We always enjoy covering the shows together, it's such a fun girl's day out.

When we arrived, the line to get in extended way down the hall with eager shoppers waiting to get in. We got there about 20 minutes early, and the line just kept getting longer. It was a beautiful early spring day with lots of sunshine, helping everyone to shed those long winter blues.

The dealers are always so wonderful and they are eager to help you find that treasure that you are looking for. What marvelous items they had! Furniture, primitives, stoneware, architectural pieces, toys, tools, coins, sports memorabilia, art, Indian artifacts, and so much more. There was even a phonograph restorer on site, Audio Antique, LLC. Their booth is always so neat, with music playing to demonstrate the phonographs.

If you've never been to the DePere show, I highly recommend it. Mark your calendars now for next March and watch for their ads in Auction Action Antique News.

Ackerman's July 4th Stars & Stripes Antique Market To Be Held At Johnson County Fairgrounds in Iowa City, Iowa

Article by Bill & Karen Ackerman

MAKE IT A DESTINATION FOR THIS ONCE A YEAR JULY 4TH ANTIQUE MARKET AND BRING YOUR FRIENDS THAT WILL ENJOY IT AS WELL!

For the 5th consecutive year, ACKERMANS JULY 4TH STARS & STRIPES ANTIQUE MARKET will be held at the Johnson County Fairgrounds, located just off the Avenue of the Saints at the southwest edge of Iowa City, at Exit 89

The show traditionally has about 100 dealers who participate from Iowa and other states and set up with wonderful antiques in the three main buildings, as well as being set up outdoors around this campus of buildings. A wide variety of antiques will be featured by these dealers, many of whom pack back their best antiques for this show and bring them out on the Fourth of July. Antique furniture, primitives, cast iron items, antique glassware, antique lighting, Mission oak furniture, old stoneware, pottery, linens, antique quilts and textiles, copper and brass, advertising items, antique signs, galvanized items, farm junk, tools, antique clocks, ephemera, postcards, antique guns, vintage clothing, and so much, much, more.

ACKERMAN'S JULY 4TH STARS & STRIPES ANTIQUE MARKET originated in 2015 as the replacement show for the long running Hanson's Grove Antique Show which ceased operation in 2014 after 34 years. The need was present for a replacement show in the area and by July 4th, 2015, the market was up and running and has always been well attended by customers (dealers and collectors) from near and far and the show with its excellent location is very easy to get to. Dealers enjoy the setting of a show in this location and come back every year to ACKERMAN'S JULY 4TH STARS & STRIPES ANTIQUE MARKET.

This show has become an area destination on the Fourth of July with great attendances arriving each year to shop the grounds. Parking is immediately adjacent to the show and is free. A great lunch stand will be provided and centrally located for convenience.

When arriving, you will be directed to the parking areas as expeditiously as possible and when leaving, please leave by the south exit that will be clearly marked.

THE LUNCH STAND THIS YEAR WILL BE PROVIDED BY JERRY & MARGE SWEETING WHO DO LOTS OF AREA SET-UPS WITH THEIR GRILLING AND TASTY BARBECUE FOOD THAT IS SO GOOD & TASTY. MOUTH WATERING FOOD IS WHAT BEST DESCRIBES IT. THEY WILL BE SET UP IN FRONT OF BUILDING C.

For information on the show or reserve a dealer space, please contact Ackerman's at 319-338-8449 or 319-430-3737 Dealer spaces outside are always available and we welcome your inquiry.

Wisconsin Pottery Association Holds 24th Annual Pottery Show & Sale

Article by Jim Riordan (Wisconsin Pottery Association)

The Wisconsin Pottery Association (WPA) will hold its 24th annual Art Pottery Show and Sale on Saturday August 24th, 2019, from 9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. This interesting and exciting event will be held at the Exhibition Hall, Alliant Energy Center, Madison, Wisconsin. Admission is $5, and parking is free.

All types of antique and collectible pottery, contemporary ceramics, dinnerware, stoneware, tile, figurines, and other types of vintage items and art will be on sale. Fifty of the best Pottery dealers from across the Midwest will participate, as well as noted studio potters. Pottery examples for sale will be Roseville, Van Briggel, Fulper, Rookwood, Weller, McCoy and Red Wing along with many more. The dealers gather some of the best American and European pottery along with other vintage items to bring to this annual sale, and the contemporary potters bring many items right out of the kiln!

Along with all of the pottery for purchase, pottery experts from the WPA and additional volunteers from the Iowa Art Pottery Association (IAPA) and the Minnesota Art Pottery Association (MAPA) will be available to help identify pottery pieces brought in by show attendees. (Maximum of two pottery pieces please). There is no charge for the identification.

The Ceramic Arts Studio Collectors will hold their 24th annual convention that weekend and information can be found at

Roseville Crystalis, 1906, is highly sought after by collectors for its crystalline glazes and creative forms.

Roseville's Rosecraft Hexagon, 1925, was a simply shaped Art Deco line made in either brown or green, and more rarely, a glossy blue.

Roseville Futura, 1928. Futura is an Art Deco line that was made in 78 different shapes and is one of the most popular lines among today's collectors. A green globe, modernistic shape.

Roseville Creamware "Good Night" candle holder. Roseville began making decaled Creamware utility ware by 1910 and continued making it at least through the 1920's if not longer.

Roseville Early Utility pitchers. Introduced around 1900 and popular for decades thereafter, Roseville made dozens of different pitchers. Some Roseville collectors specialize in pitchers alone!

Roseville Carnelian II, 1926. This line followed a line called Carnelian I and was produced in shades of red or green or a mix of red and green.

their web site www.cascollectors.com. They will also have an information booth set up at the Pottery Show. Many dealers at the show will have Ceramic Arts Studio pieces for sale!

The Wisconsin Pottery Association meets the 2nd Tuesday of every month, 9 times per year - February through December at the Goodman Center in Madison Wisconsin. The group gets together at 6 p.m. with a discussion about recent finds and mystery pieces. A presentation about pottery or a related collecting field starts about 6:30 p.m. Please see the WPA web site at www.wisconsinpottery.org for more information on meetings, presentations, and membership.

We hope to see Pottery Lovers and Antique Collectors at the WPA Pottery Show/Sale on Saturday August 24th, 2019! We are proud to present our show and sale for the 24th consecutive year. Our first show occurred in August of 1995 at the Holiday Inn east in Madison Wisconsin. Betty Harrington, the designer of Ceramic Arts Studio Madison was the featured speaker. The WPA art pottery show and sale is a great opportunity to find just the piece you were looking for or to learn more about the many pottery or vintage items offered for sale!

Gazo Foudji was a Japanese-born artist who worked at the Weller Pottery before moving to Roseville (ca. 1905-1906) and creating the Fudji (pictured) and Fujiyama lines.

Roseville Rosecraft, 1921, also known as Florane when it appears in this tan color. The form of this vase foreshadows the art deco telescoping and saucer-like shapes that were perfected in the Futura line seven years later.

A sleek blue Pine Cone "400 series" pitcher from 1953, and the smaller, older model designed in the 1930's.

Roseville Early Velmoss vase, ca. 1916. This line was unidentified as Roseville until collectors found a marked example and identified the shape numbers in a 1916 price guide in the 1990's.

Windsor, introduced by Roseville in 1931. This fern-decorated pattern was made in blue and rusty brown.

Roseville "Vase Assortment" pieces were Roseville's earliest art pottery, beginning around 1896. The vases were sold in bulk to the A&P Grocery chain, where they were given away as premiums to customers.

Roseville Carnelian II, 1926. This line followed a line called Carnelian I and was produced in shades of red or green or a mix of red and green.

The Wisteria line, first produced in 1933, is highly valued among collectors today.

 you can learn to let go, things go wrong so that you appreciate them when they're right, you believe lies so you eventually learn to trust no one but yourself, and sometimes good things fall apart

Buy & Sell at BaBAM Bulldog Antiques expands Outdoor Markets for 2019

Article by Don Rose & Chuck Follett

Following a successful first effort last October, Bulldog Antiques is hosting FIVE Marengo Antique Market events in 2019:

June 22, July 27, August 24, September 28, October 26

Each Big Bulldog Antique Market (BaBAM) event will be held at Bulldog Antiques, located at 505 N. State Street (Route 23) in Marengo, IL and their nearby annex, located on the same block. It doesn't matter if you're into antique Advertising, Americana, Local History, Military, Signs, Tools or Toys, Marengo is the place to be between 9am and 3pm EVERY fourth Saturday, June through October.

At press time, Bulldog's partners, including antique pickers, customers and friends have again committed to displaying a wide variety of antique goods throughout Bulldog's annex parking areas during each BaBAM event. Bulldog will also have their warehouse open for exploration.

Buying vintage items & selling customer treasures on consignment is their common practice. Their shop is open Friday-Sunday 11-5, May-October.

People visit and say shops like Bulldog are hard to find. When partners Chuck Follett and Don Rose opened four years ago, their objective was to help make Marengo a destination. It's beginning to work. Increasing numbers of clients come from throughout the midwest to discover their cool, classy, well-curated vintage inventory, primarily TRUE mid-century & earlier antiques. They don't handle reproductions or other non-authentic 'antiques.'

Their five BaBAM events will hold true to their commitment for selling real antiques and helping focus on Marengo's charm.

Additional details: Don: 815-814-5075 / Chuck: 815-861-1031

Store Hours: May-October - Friday, Saturday, Sunday 11-5

November-April - Call 815/814-5075 for appointment

Focus: 1960s and earlier Advertising, Americana, Collections, Country, Ephemera, Farm, Furniture, Industrial, Kitchen, Local History, Medical, Military, Petroliana, Photographica, Tools, Toys, Signs

A Young Jim Welytok Saw Opportunity

Article & Photos by Eric C. Rodenberg

Seventeen-year-old Jim Welytok was angry. He had asked a local antique show promoter about table space for an upcoming show and was told — in effect — “Listen kid, I don’t need any more vendors. Scram.”

The young Welytok— living in Milwaukee at the time, the capitol of American beer — didn’t have a market for his old brewery pickings. So, he decided to start his own show.

“I joined the National Association of Breweriana and with their membership roster, I wrote letters to 300 collectors from Wisconsin, Illinois, Michigan and Minnesota,” he said. “And I had a mass of flyers, posting them everywhere I could get permission — bars, liquor stores, signposts...just anywhere.”

Six months later, the day of the show, there were 100 tables of vendors, and more than 1,000 people came through the door.

That was nearly 40 years ago, and Welytok hasn’t looked back. Not only was Welytok’s premiere event, The Brew City Advertising Show, the largest specialty show in a great part of the Midwest, but it also helped expand the now burgeoning breweriana marketplace.

“Back then, everyone was interested in cans,” Welytok said. “I was always attracted to the advertising signage. About that time, the beer companies were producing more sophisticated signs — like the Hamms’ animated waterfall signs. That’s what I was after. I bought every sign I could.”

Today, however, Welytok, owner of Unique Events Show, is more focused on managing the 12 antique and collectible shows he hosts throughout the Midwest. “I never thought I’d end up in the show management business, but here I am,” he says. Loving what you do, and being an inveterate collector, helps, he adds.

In Wisconsin, Unique Events hosts the Scale Auto Hobby & Toy Show and The Brew City Advertising and Rec Room Décor Show. In Illinois he sponsors The Countryside Collectors Classic Toy Show and The Tinley Park Annual Holiday Toy Show.

But the biggest of them all is the Kalamazoo Antique and Collectible Toy Show, one of the longest enduring and largest under-roof shows in the state of Michigan. The show, formerly known as Circus Maximus Kalamazoo, had developed a strong presence in the state for 27 years under the management of Bruce and Dee Dee Beimers. Welytok took over operation upon the Beimers’ retirement about 10 years ago.

There were 370 vendor tables set up May 18, 2019 for the Kalamazoo Show, everything from early primitive to new toys for sale.

“You can find toys like your grandfather played with; or toys your kids can play with. You can buy items for $1; you can buy items for $1,000.”

Long-time local vendor Sandy Johnson Barts, who specializes in vintage toys, dolls, Hot Wheels, Legos and other toys, said she always does well at the show.

“I did exceptionally well at this last show (May 18, 2019),” Barts, a retired registered nurse, said. “In the 15 years I’ve been coming here, I think this was my third highest sales volume.”

Vendor Gary Ulm of Kendallville, Ind., also started selling at Kalamazoo about 15 years ago. “I was busy selling the whole show, from beginning to end,” said Ulm. “It’s always been a hobby for me...I started collecting toys about 30 years ago — It’s not a full-time job, but it helps.

“I do about six shows a year, and I don’t do any good if a promoter can’t get the people through the door. But, that’s one thing Jim does: He puts them through the door. That’s why we keep coming back.”

The fall Kalamazoo Antique and Collectible Toy Show is scheduled for November 29-30, 2019. For more information contact: (262)366-1314 www.uniqueeventsshows.com
