Brinkman Auctions Cruises To Victory On Their Large Two Day Lifetime Collections

Article & photos by Brinkman Auctions

Brinkman Auctions auctioned off two large lifetime collections with approximately 1,000 items crossing the block and selling at No Reserve! On Friday May 24th we auctioned Fred's Toy Collection consisting of over 400 plus items representing 30 years of collecting. Everything from turn of the century toys thru modern die-cast was represented in the offering. Our Saturday May 25th auction consisted of the Central Tire Archive collection. One of the largest collections ever devoted to garage items with over 1,000 items selling at No Reserve.

Out & About

The weather has been slightly unpredictable lately. For every sunny hot day there is a day of storms. It makes it hard to get your outdoor projects done that require a few days. There are lots of events going on in the next few weeks. Be sure to keep checking the auction calendar and the upcoming events page. There will definitely be some tough decisions on which ones to attend. As we all know, there is only so many days in a week and so many hours in a day. Just remember to always pack yourself a hat, sunblock, chair, sunglasses, umbrella and lots of water. Have tons of fun and enjoy yourselves, happy hunting.

OWN A PIECE OF HISTORY

Like Art?? Like History??

Article & Photos by Fran Brown & Jim Martinsen

This is the Auction for you!

Now's your chance to own a Piece of History.

Antigo Visual Arts of Antigo, Wisconsin is sponsoring a benefit Art Auction to benefit the Langlade County Historical Museum building fund and the Museums AVA Art Gallery. This Art Auction is a first for Antigo.

Auctioneer Jerry Chuilli with ringman John Carbonari will be auctioning the art of Nationally known local artists Frank Vavruska 1917-1976, A Guggenheim Fellowship recipient who is known for his abstract mid century art and artist George Falkenhagen 1890-1958, known for his lake and landscape art.

Frank Vavruska, a world traveler was born in Antigo, Wisconsin studied Art in The University of Wisconsin and the Art Institute of Chicago where he was awarded the Reyeron Traveling Fellowship which enabled him to paint and travel throughout Mexico. While Hospitalized in England in the US Army during WW II Frank produced many paintings for which he was awarded the Guggenheim Fellowship. Vavruska started out in expressionist and cubist art moved

Who was Frank Vavruska?

In 1961, with the cooperation of the Archeological Museum of Campeche, Mexico, he began making a series of rubbings from the Mayan carved stone reliefs. In the process, he developed an original and personal rubbing technique.

The work of four years at the museums of Campeche, Merida, and archeological sites of Dzibilchaltum, Chichen Itza, Bonampak and Palenque resulted in a collection of 86 rubbings which form a unique record of historical importance.

In the late 60's, inspired by rubbings he had made of landmark archeological sites in Mexico, Vavruska began to make paintings based on rubbings of Chicago manhole covers, which the press dubbed "sewer-realism." Much too young, Vavruska died in 1974 at age 56.

Frank Vavruska was born in 1917 in Antigo, Wisconsin. He studied art at The University of Wisconsin and the Art Institute of Chicago, where he was awarded the Ryerson Traveling Fellowship, which enabled him to paint and travel in Mexico.

While hospitalized in England in the US Army during WWII, Vavruska produced many paintings which were the basis for a Guggenheim Fellowship.

Primarily based in Chicago, Vavruska was a nomad at heart. He worked for two years in the Yucatan Peninsula, was commissioned to make a mural for the Archeological Museum in Campeche, and developed an avid interest in the archeological richness of the region. Vavruska lived in Europe for six years, mainly in Southern France, and he traveled in North Africa, Italy, Paris, and spent a year in London.

In the late 40's, his work began to shift from its expressionist and cubist figurative basis towards a purer form of abstractionism. Another point of reference during this period, Vavruska temporarily relocated from Chicago to New York where his beautiful, rough abstract paintings were included in exhibitions at the Metropolitan, Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, Madison Square Garden, and elsewhere.

A short list of Frank Vavruska's many solo and group exhibitions

- Maurice Batan, Paris, France 1951
- Art Institute of Detroit, Michigan 1949
- John Nelson Bergstrom Museum, Milwaukee, Wisconsin 1970
- The Milwaukee Art Institute, Milwaukee, Wisconsin 1947
- The Walker Art Center, Minneapolis, Minnesota 1947-1948
- Neirendorf Art Gallery, New York City 1944
- Neirendorf Art Gallery, Los Angeles, California 1944
- 53rd Annual American Exhibition, Art Institute of Chicago 1942 toward the abstract in the 1940's.

George Falkenhagen, a self taught artist moved to Antigo from Chicago at 17 in 1907. After school George worked for local sign shops. After serving in the Army in WWI he returned to Antigo and set off in a quest to paint north woods' lakes and scenery. He said the most beautiful place in the world is the lake regions of the Midwest especially Minnesota and Wisconsin.

The Vavruska Family made a gift of Frank Vavruska art, his Mayan rubbings and antiquities to the Antigo Visual Arts.

Now it's time for this gift of art to be shared and appreciated for a worthy cause. In addition to the work of Vavruska and Falkenhagen this Auction also features the Art from our very own award winning members of Antigo Visual Arts. There's original pottery, wood turnings, watercolors, paintings, photography, metal work and other original artwork to be auctioned.

So mark your calendars for Friday, August 16th at the North Star Banquet Center, 400 Prosser Place, Antigo, Wisconsin. Viewing Starts at 5pm with the auction beginning at 6pm.

For more information contact Fran Brown 715-627-0729.

The August 16th auction will be the first art auction AVA has sponsored. Proceeds will not only benefit AVA. Some will go to the Langlade County Historical Society's building renovation project which includes improvements to the AVA Gallery located in the museum. As well as being AVA's vice president, Hermolin is also president of the Langlade County Historical Society.

Wisconsin Pottery Association Holds 24th Annual Pottery Show & Sale

Article by Jim Riordan (Wisconsin Pottery Association)

The Wisconsin Pottery Association (WPA) will hold its 24th annual Art Pottery Show and Sale on Saturday August 24th, 2019, from 9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. This interesting and exciting event will be held at the Exhibition Hall, Alliant Energy Center, Madison, Wisconsin. Admission is $5, and parking is free.

All types of antique and collectible pottery, contemporary ceramics, dinnerware, stoneware, tile, figurines, and other types of vintage items and art will be on sale. Fifty of the best Pottery dealers from across the Midwest will participate, as well as noted studio potters. Pottery examples for sale will be Roseville, Van Briggel, Fulper, Rookwood, Weller, McCoy and Red Wing along with many more. The dealers gather some of the best American and European pottery along with other vintage items to bring to this annual sale, and the contemporary potters bring many items right out of the kiln!

Along with all of the pottery for purchase, pottery experts from the WPA and additional volunteers from the Iowa Art Pottery Association (IAPA) and the Minnesota Art Pottery Association (MAPA) will be available to help identify pottery pieces brought in by show attendees. (Maximum of two pottery pieces please). There is no charge for the identification.

The Ceramic Arts Studio Collectors will hold their 24th annual convention that weekend and information can be found at

Roseville Crystalis, 1906, is highly sought after by collectors for its crystalline glazes and creative forms.

Roseville's Rosecraft Hexagon, 1925, was a simply shaped Art Deco line made in either brown or green, and more rarely, a glossy blue.

Roseville Futura, 1928. Futura is an Art Deco line that was made in 78 different shapes and is one of the most popular lines among today's collectors. A green globe, modernistic shape.

Roseville Creamware "Good Night" candle holder. Roseville began making decaled Creamware utility ware by 1910 and continued making it at least through the 1920's if not longer.

Roseville Early Utility pitchers. Introduced around 1900 and popular for decades thereafter, Roseville made dozens of different pitchers. Some Roseville collectors specialize in pitchers alone!

Roseville Carnelian II, 1926. This line followed a line called Carnelian I and was produced in shades of red or green or a mix of red and green.

Roseville Crocus planter, ca. 1904.

A sleek blue Pine Cone "400 series" pitcher from 1953, and the smaller, older model designed in the 1930's.

Roseville "Vase Assortment" pieces were Roseville's earliest art pottery, beginning around 1896. The vases were sold in bulk to the A&P Grocery chain, where they were given away as premiums to customers.

Roseville Carnelian II, 1926. This line followed a line called Carnelian I and was produced in shades of red or green or a mix of red and green.

Windsor, introduced by Roseville in 1931. This fern-decorated pattern was made in blue and rusty brown.

their web site www.cascollectors.com. They will also have an information booth set up at the Pottery Show. Many dealers at the show will have Ceramic Arts Studio pieces for sale!

The Wisconsin Pottery Association meets the 2nd Tuesday of every month, 9 times per year - February through December at the Goodman Center in Madison Wisconsin. The group gets together at 6 p.m. with a discussion about recent finds and mystery pieces. A presentation about pottery or a related collecting field starts about 6:30 p.m. Please see the WPA web site at www.wisconsinpottery.org for more information on meetings, presentations, and membership.

We hope to see Pottery Lovers and Antique Collectors at the WPA Pottery Show/Sale on Saturday August 24th, 2019! We are proud to present our show and sale for the 24th consecutive year. Our first show occurred in August of 1995 at the Holiday Inn east in Madison Wisconsin. Betty Harrington, the designer of Ceramic Arts Studio Madison was the featured speaker. The WPA art pottery show and sale is a great opportunity to find just the piece you were looking for or to learn more about the many pottery or vintage items offered for sale!

Roseville Rosecraft, 1921, also known as Florane when it appears in this tan color. The form of this vase foreshadows the art deco telescoping and saucer-like shapes that were perfected in the Futura line seven years later.

Brinkman Auctions Takes The Checkered Flag

Article & Photos by Brinkman Auctions

100's of tin and porcelain automotive related signs, garage displays and posters. Many never displayed. Nice service station air meter collection, gas pumps, promotional items including ashtrays, thermometers, clocks and more. Also included soda pieces and other collectibles.

The auction took place at Freije Auction Center in Clayton, Indiana. Located 20 minutes west of the Indianapolis Airport on Hwy 40.

Brinkman Auctions is a nationally recognized leader selling in the field of Automobilia and Petrolina. Founded by Rory Brinkman, a second generation collector who at the age of 12 began his own collection and was tutored on the benefits of buying condition and rarity. Rory applied his collector principles to the auction field seeking out the scarce and unusual. He conducted his first Soda and Petrolina auction in May of 1990 and since then he and his lovely wife Cindy have successfully managed over 150 automobilia auctions all with the philosophy of selling at "No Reserve".

If you have a single piece or entire collection you would like to consider selling via auction, please give Rory a call...he would love to hear from you.
