The Northern Illinois Antiques Dealers Association Show: Celebrating Fifty-Six Years of Quality Antiques Shows

Article & photos by Brian Maloney

The Northern Illinois Antiques Dealers Association presented their 56th Annual Antiques Show on February 20th & 21st at the Forest Hills Lodge in Rockford, Illinois. It may not be one of the largest antique shows around, but it's certainly one of the best – and busiest. An eclectic mix of around forty dealers displayed everything from period fine art to vintage sporting collectibles, with an emphasis on country Americana. It's the diverse mix of quality dealers that sets this show apart. The NIADA folks certainly know how to run an antiques show - this one's now been a Midwest mainstay for more than half a century!

Out & About

Remember Earth Day on Friday, April 22nd.

Urge to your children and grandchildren that there are many wonderful antique kitchen table sets that are priced just the same as buying a new one at the furniture store.

You get one that is better that comes with value and continues to grow in value with age. For those grandchildren, especially the girls, there are many beautiful Victorian and other bedroom sets that would make any girl jealous. I came across a bedroom set for my son that I bought that was handmade for a gentleman by his father. When he finally married in his mid forties, he no longer needed the bed, but wanted someone who would appreciate its value. I too have a bedroom set that was handmade by my in-laws. My children have already made claim to both of these family heirlooms. I was even warned that I could not alter these pieces in any way. I have a few more family heirloom pieces I would like to inherit and that would be a bean pot, Griswold fry pan and a large crock that my grandpa uses to make his homemade baked beans, fry his delicious chicken and make his homemade sauerkraut. He also had this wonderful wool hunting suit that included pants, jacket and a hat. I would enjoy that as well, seeing as I got into hunting because of my grandpa. He took me hunting when ever I was visiting, it was always so peaceful in the hunting shack. He even took me to the pit to practice shooting at cans. Times I cherish dearly.

For the girls birthday, we bought them tickets to the Marvel Universe Live Show which was at the Resch Center in Green Bay, Wisconsin. Mekenzy has always been into Spiderman since she was 2 years old. I even painted a life size Spiderman on her bedroom wall when she was little. Tia enjoys the history part of the Marvel characters, how long they been around & how their characters are merging with others. They both had a blast, they were four rows from the front & had almost all the action happen right in front of them. They got lots of nice pictures & videos.

Forest Hills Lodge Hosts 56th Annual Northern Illinois Antique Dealers Association Antiques Show

The NIADA Antiques Show was the very first show I covered for this newspaper - way back in 2003. It's still one of my favorites, with a flavor different from any other show I've attended. Perhaps the more intimate scale of the show has something to do with it. Or maybe it's the unique mix of dealers, many of who are longtime NIADA members.

Forest Hills Lodge hosted this fifty-sixth edition of the NIADA show, as they have for more than twenty years. You couldn't ask for a better venue for the show. It's just off of I-90, on Route 173 at the northern edge of Rockford. Parking is free, and it's only a modest $6.00 donation for show entry. Proceeds from the show, as always, are donated to several local non-profit historical associations.

I always find lots of outstanding 19th century American country furniture and accessories at the NIADA Show, and this year was no exception. Pipsqueak & Me Antiques is always a good place to start looking. A great mix of period pieces awaited there, my pick an elegant 18th century country Chippendale high chest priced at only $1,095. More fine country and primitive furnishings were to be found all over the show, from Prairie Dock Antiques' classic Pennsylvania blanket in a faux-grain mustard finish to Gwen LeFevre's display of antique Scandinavian decoratives.

Want something a little funkier? Look no further than Little Bohemia Antiques, where a pretty-cool stenciled country store tin peanut warmer sat along Mid Century fine art. And a dated-1944 quilt from Old Smith Company drew lots of lookers too - made from more than one-thousand Pabst Beer advertising ribbons in honor of their Peoria Plant's 100th anniversary.

It's great pieces like that that have kept folks coming back to this show year after year. I hope the photos give you a taste of what the NIADA Antiques Show has to offer. Be sure to pencil in February of 2017 and come out for the 57th edition of the Show! If you would like more information about the event, or the dealers exhibiting in it, you can contact show manager Bob Campbell at 815-761-1444, or just go to their website www.niadaantiques.com. While you're there, be sure to sign up for their email list and print out a coupon for reduced admission to next year's show. And as always, keep an eye out for next year's NIADA Antiques Show in the Auction Action Antique News!

Funky finds at Little Bohemia Antiques ranged from an early stenciled tin & glass Uncle Sam Peanut Warmer ($825) to vintage jointed-wood dolls starting at only $35. 630-513-8670

Mid-century style was alive and well at Little Bohemia Antiques, with choices like this Ernest John Creations Dice Ice Bucket ($145) and New York harborscape painted by George Schwacha, measuring 26" x 36" and priced at $575. 630-513-8670

Classic country is all you'll find at Country Peddler Antiques, like this bold 23" game board in blue & cream paint ($575), and early punched tin lantern sporting its original mustard & red paint - $595. 920-564-6386

Pipsqueak & me Antiques is best known for quality period American furnishings, but also brought this unusual 24" vintage folk art carving, asking price $145. 608-295-7240

At Pipsqueak & Me Antiques, this mid-19th century Norwegian cupboard (30" x 36") was priced at $695, this rare Norse Pottery (Edgerton, WI) 11" vessel at $635. 608-295-7240

Nice lines to this 18th century New England tall-chest displayed by Pipsqueak & Me Antiques, measuring 36" x 44" and priced at $1,095. 608-295-7240

A wonderland of period Scandinavian artifacts awaited at Gwen LeFevre Antiques, including these charming 19th century wrought iron & wood ice skates priced at $175. 715-495-3284

I found this huge 40" x 58" folk art painted window shade at Prairie Dock Antiques, originally from a circa 1900 Illinois Fraternal Lodge & priced at $250. 815-645-8140

From Old Glory Antiques, a 19th century wax & wicker floral arrangement was in fabulous condition, the original glass dome measuring 16" high & wide and priced at $465. 608-481-3131

Two great 19th century American painted furniture finds from Prairie Dock Antiques: the Pennsylvania blanket chest in mustard faux-grain finish priced at $575, the diminutive Ohio lift-top desk (32" in width) in an old red wash at $925. 815-645-8140

Jim & Maureen Little of Pigeon Hollow Antiques came with wonderful country furniture including this rustic counter that'd make a great kitchen island - $495. 815-784-5983

At Prairie Dock Antiques hung this appealing pastel still-life of a vegetable harvest, in its period gilt frame & priced at $385. 815-645-8140

Filling a corner at Pigeon Hollow Antiques: this imposing two-piece corner cupboard in a scraped-down blue finish, measuring 48" x 84" and priced at $2,800. 815-784-5983 was shown by Old Smith Company: a spectacular 1944 example commemorating the Peoria Pabst Brewery's centennial, made by Della Barkey using 1,344 Pabst "Highest Quality" silk advertising ribbons! The lettered circles within each square combine to spell out "What'll You Have? Pabst Blue Ribbon Peoria, Ill. 1944". 309-453-5565

Hidden in the eclectic inventory of Iowa's Main St. Antiques & Art: this intricately-carved 19th century Belgian hinged cookie mold, measuring 9" across and priced at $280. 319-643-2065

My vintage quilt

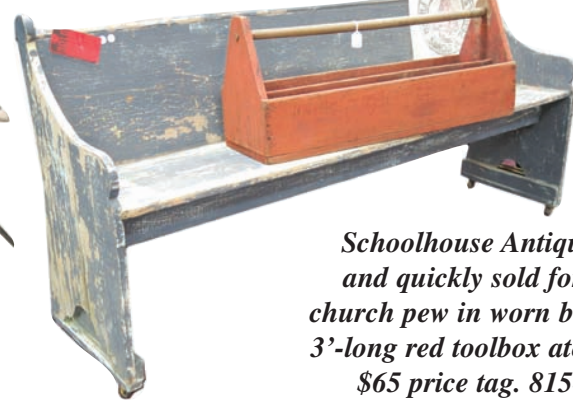

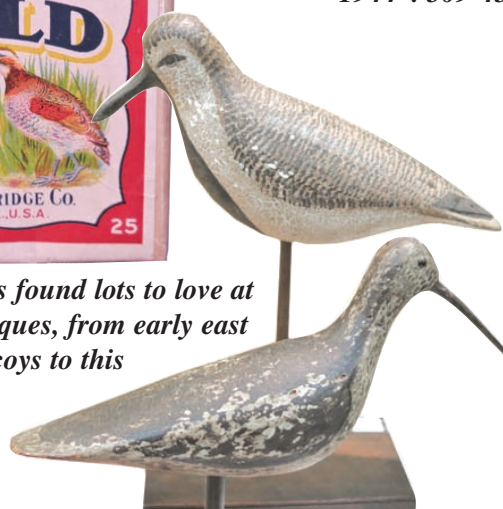

Now here's something you don't often see: from Daryl D. Alpers Antiques, an adorable child-size workbench only 38" in length - asking price $425. 319-360-4301

Two rustic pine gems from Homestead Antiques: the hooded dry sink priced at $695, the early home-made apple peeler at $165. 309-698-8765

Sporting collectors found lots to love at Brandon Smith Antiques, from early east coast shorebird decoys to this pristine Western Cartridge Co. box priced at $365.

Schoolhouse Antiques brought, and quickly sold for $135, this church pew in worn blue paint. The 3'-long red toolbox atop it carried a $65 price tag. 815-393-4551

At Daryl D. Alpers Antiques, this rustic open cupboard (32" x 62") was priced at $395, the hobby horse atop it at $529. 319-360-4301

Two 19th century furniture buys from Beneath the Dust Antiques: the 32" diameter walnut tilt-top table with pie crust rim priced at $495, the Federal Period gilt frame mirror with reverse-painted hunting scene at $225. 920-229-8298

There was something for everyone at Richard Larson Antiques, from kitchen & farm artifacts to this canine-themed 19th century hooked rug priced at only $195. 763-479-2033

Acquired Taste Antiques came with a most impressive display of American country furniture and more, like this 24" tall galvanized steel "Potable Water" cooler, price tag $165. 815-355-1746

Oscar Peterson plaque

Beckhart duck call

2012 Gave us a wonderful opportunity to see some gresh new items that captured the attention of all collectors. First, one of our collectors found the Oscar Peterson plaque on the left on the left on eBay. No one could have understood its character until you saw it in person. It drew a lot of attention at the preview & even more attention when it finally hit the auction block. I found myself looking at it & then walking away & going back to absorb more of its character. Sold for $123,000 it commanded a value that reflected just how special it is. I'm sure that as the information gets out about this wonderful item we will see more of these special efforts surface. Oscar Peterson did a wide range of items & this plaque is certainly special.

I can easily see Marty, Cameron or another carver doing this type of item for their residences, shops or hunt spaces. I have been in several hunt clubs that could sponsor such work. On the right is the Beckhart duck call that came to the show for appraisal. It is definitely a wow. Carved on all sides with amazing detail it is definitely a sight to behold. It went to auction this summer & sommanded a record bringing $103,500 in spirited bidding. Both of these items are great examples of the terrific American Folk Art that is still being discovered across the country. I hope that the call will inspire some of the call makers & call collectors to new levels of energy in their efforts.

The American Society of Military Insignia Collectors

The American Society of Military Insignia Collectors, commonly known as ASMIC, is one of the oldest and largest organizations of military insignia collectors in the world. Founded in 1937 by a small group of enthusiastic collectors, it is chartered under Ohio law and recognized as non-profit 501 (c) (3) organization. The Society is "home" today to 2,000 dedicated collectors in the United States and foreign nations. Whether an individual is an experienced or beginning collector shoulder sleeve and distinctive unit insignia (patches and DIs), rank insignia, wings, decorations and awards (medals), elite forces emblems, cap badges, specialty markings, or of simply information on heraldry and the symbolism of heraldic devices, membership in ASMIC has many advantages.

ASMIC publishes a quarterly journal entitled The Trading Post and a Newsletter. The Trading Post contains a wealth of information on all aspects of U. S. and foreign military insignia. It includes articles from members, illustrations of old and new emblems as well as an occasional color section depicting American or foreign insignia. Unidentified Insignia are covered in a separate column in The Trading Post

The Newsletter brings word of insignia and dress items for trade or sale via classified and display ads. Society members rely on the Newsletter to advertise for insignia they wish to include in their collections and for announcements of regional and national insignia and militaria shows.

The ASMIC Reference Library contains almost 1000 items available for loan to members. These publications range from back issues of The Trading Post to major reference works published by our members and other militaria experts. The Library also includes many journals from other militaria societies for use by our members

Over the years, ASMIC has produced more than 20,000 black and white line drawings of military insignia, along with detailed descriptions of the insignia and known variations. Most of these drawings are available in our Distinctive Insignia or Cloth Patch catalogs, available to the general public and, at a discounted price, to ASMIC members.

To join ASMIC, visit their website: www.asmic.org

All auction proceeds benefit Wisconsin Historical Society state sites. In particular, this auction will include funding of restorations at the H. H. Bennett Studio, the oldest operating business in the Wisconsin Dells, and possibly the oldest operating photography studio in the United States!

Bennett is considered one of the best landscape photographers of the 19th century. Nearly all of his landscape photography was devoted to creating "eye-popping" 3D stereoscope views of the Dells, Devil's Lake and the rock formations in Adams and Juneau Counties where he captured the spirit of late 19th-century Wisconsin. "30th Star" Benefit Antiques Auction

Produced by the Friends of the Wisconsin Historical Society

Proceeds from this auction will benefit restorations at the H. H. Bennett Studio, the oldest operating business in the Wisconsin Dells, and possibly the oldest operating photography studio in the United States!

Saturday, April 23, 2016 at 10 A.M. ~ Viewing 9A.M.

Held inside Old World Wisconsin's Clausing Barn

W372 S9727 Hwy. 67, Eagle, WI 53119

There is no charge for admittance to the Saturday, April 26th auction, free parking.

Contributions of antiques (more than 99 years old) and vintage items (50-99 years old) were gathered from all across mid-America. Large or small, cupboards to candlesticks, vintage fashion to vintage kitchenware, the no-reserve auction with 300+ lots should prove to be a worthwhile destination for any antiques enthusiast. All items have been donated specifically for the auction.

None of the objects to be auctioned are from the collections of the Wisconsin Historical Society.

For questions about the 2016 "30th Star Benefit Antiques Auction" please contact:

Riene Wells at 262.363.4700, info@eagle-house.com or
Debbie McArdle at 815.575.1272, jjmcard@comcast.net

300+ Lots sold with no reserve. No online or phone bidding. Cash, credit cards and checks with proper ID will be accepted. A 3% convenience fee will be added to all credit card sales. A 10% buyer's premium will additionally benefit the Wisconsin Historical Society Foundation. All items must be removed by end of auction. Good food available on premises.

Auction Preview Party will be Friday, April 22, 2016 ~ 4:30 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

Held inside Old World Wisconsin's Clausing Barn,
W372 S9727 Hwy. 67, Eagle, WI 53119

Ticket price of $40 per person includes Wisconsin fish fry dinner (baked & gluten free also available), raffles for gift baskets, free antiques appraisals, opportunities to leave silent auction and absentee bids, plus an entertaining program presented by Susan Caya Slusser of Villa Louis (one of Wisconsin's State Historic Sites). Limited reservations available.

Spend The Day Exploring Thousands Of Native American Artifacts And Learning About Our Archaeological History

Article & photos by Scott Carruthers
(Starved Rock Relics)

The 13th Annual Starved Rock Artifact Show on Sunday, April 24th is quickly approaching. The event is held at Celebrations 150, 740 E. U.S. Hwy 6, Utica, IL. 61373.

As the weather breaks in North Central Illinois, everyone heads outdoors to take advantage of warmer temperatures. Make a day of exploring the show and seeing thousands of authentic Native American Artifacts. Exhibitors from throughout the Midwest will display their finds and collections. Several displays will have authentic artifacts for sale, dating back 10,000 years.

The event is sponsored by two nonprofit organizations, The Illinois State Archaeological Society and the Genuine Indian Relic Society, Inc. On hand, two archaeologists from the Illinois State Archaeological Survey will be documenting and identifying artifacts.

The artifact show is only one mile from downtown Utica and its quaint shops and great restaurants. Only two short miles from the show is Starved Rock State Park, which in 2015 had 2.5 million visitors. The park boasts 13 miles of hiking trails, fishing, a beautiful lodge, restaurant, hotel, visitor center and is rich in Native American history.

For more information about the show, call Scott Carruthers at 1-815-252-1322. Admission is $2 for adults and children 13 and under are free. Hope to see you on April 24th.

Rare Minnesota Decoys to be featured in Member Display and Seminar during the 51st Annual North American Vintage Decoy & Sporting Collectibles Show in St. Charles, Illinois

Article & photos by Jeff Seregny
(Midwest Decoy Collectors Association)

Minnesota, the "Land of 10,000 Lakes," has a rich waterfowl hunting and fishing tradition and the Midwest Decoy Collectors Association is pleased to share some of the region's great work at this year's show at Pheasant Run Resort. Two displays will feature rarely seen examples of the area's finest waterfowl and spearing fish decoys from the country's top private collections. The waterfowl decoy display will include choice pieces made by a variety of well-known makers such as John Tax, Alfred Moes, Ole Gunderson and Joe Marr, as well as factory production by Herter's, Inc. and Tuveson Manufacturing Co. Minnesota decoy collector and historian Doug Lodermeier will conduct a seminar on the state's decoys and the carvers who made them. The vintage spearing fish decoy display will feature Minnesota's unique and colorful examples crafted by a variety of makers including Leroy Howell, Frank Mizera, and Fred Lexow. These displays and seminar are just part of a nearly week long event that includes over 30,000 sporting collectible items available for viewing, buying, and trading.

ALL EVENTS OPEN TO PUBLIC

April 19-21: Room-to-Room Trading (All Day)

April 21: 11:00am and April 22 at 10am:

Guyette and Deeter Decoy Auction

April 21-22: National Call Makers and Collectors Competition and Display

April 22-23: Table Event: Friday, 2-7pm & Saturday 9am-2pm;

Pheasant Run Resort MegaCenter

--Display of Antique Minnesota Waterfowl and Spearing Fish Decoys

- Display of Vintage Animal Traps
- Display of Vintage Shot Shell Boxes
- Display of Vintage Shooting Boxes
- Ben Heinemann Decoy & Folk Art Exhibit
- Contemporary Decoy Carver Displays & Demonstrations
- Hourly, no reserve silent auction
- Free identification and appraisal service

The Midwest Decoy Collectors Association is a non-profit organization whose purpose is to collect and preserve the history of the decoy as original American folk art. As the largest gathering of its kind, the North American Vintage Decoy and Sporting Collectibles Show is the premier opportunity for the novice, antique dealer or experienced collector to network and learn more about the decoy as functional folk art or to add to their collections. April 23 Antiques & Vintage Auction to Benefit Wisconsin State Historic Sites

Article & photos by Debbie McArdle
(FRIENDS of the Wisconsin Historical Society)

The "30th Star Benefit Antiques Auction", benefiting Wisconsin State Historic Sites is just around the corner! There is NO CHARGE to attend this every-other-year auction. A Preview Party will kick off the event. Volunteers of the FRIENDS of the Wisconsin Historical Society, veterans of the enormously successful 2010, 2012 and 2014 Antiques and Vintage Auctions, are the producers of the event and are making final preparations.

About the Saturday, April 23rd Auction . . .

- WHEN: Saturday, April 23, 2016.
Viewing begins at 9 a.m. Auction begins at 10 a.m.
- WHERE: Old World Wisconsin's Clausing Barn
(W372 S9727 Hwy 67), Eagle, WI 53119
- COST: No charge for admittance. No reservations required.
- CONTACT: Riene Wells, 262.363.4700, info@eagle-house.com or
Debbie McArdle, 815.575.1272, jjmcard@comcast.net

Proceeds from this auction will benefit restorations at the H. H. Bennett Studio, the oldest operating business in the Wisconsin Dells, and possibly the oldest operating photography studio in the United States! Bennett is considered one of the best landscape photographers of the 19th century. Nearly all of his landscape photography was devoted to creating "eye-popping" 3D stereoscope views of the Dells, Devil's Lake and the rock formations in Adams and Juneau Counties where he captured the spirit of late 19th-century Wisconsin.

Antique and vintage items have been donated from folks throughout the Midwest and will be sold without reserve. Well-known Oconomowoc auctioneer, Carol Miller of Bailey's Honor Auction Service, has once again volunteered to call the auction. She boasts an impressive resume that speaks of decades of experience and is a leader in Wisconsin's auction market.

Contributions of antiques (more than 99 years old) and vintage items (50-99 years old) were gathered from all across mid-America. Large or small, cupboards to candlesticks, vintage fashion to vintage kitchenware, the no-reserve auction with 350+ lots should prove to be a worthwhile destination for any antiques enthusiast. The long-awaited "Asparagus Man" paintings will be among the offerings. All items have been donated specifically for the auction. None of the objects to be auctioned are from the collections of the Wisconsin Historical Society. For a photo review of 75% of the auction's offerings, go to www.AuctionZip.com and enter auctioneer Bailey's Honor Auction Service / Carol Miller, ID #8277 OR go to Bailey's Honor Auctions website at <http://baileyshonor.com/>

Terms: No online or phone bidding. Cash, credit cards and checks (with proper ID) accepted. A 3% convenience fee will be added to all credit card sales. A 10% buyer's premium will additionally benefit the Wisconsin Historical Society Foundation. All items must be removed by end of auction.

About the Friday, April 22nd Preview Party . . .

- WHEN: Friday, April 22, 2016,
4:30 p.m. to ~9:00 p.m.
- WHERE: Old World Wisconsin's
Clausing Barn (W372 S9727 Hwy 67),
Eagle, WI 53119

Limited reservations available.
- CONTACT: Riene Wells, 262.363.4700 or info@eagle-house.com for reservations

The auction takes place inside historic Clausing Barn at Old World Wisconsin in Eagle.

The evening will include a Wisconsin fish fry (baked & gluten free also available), raffles for gift baskets, free antiques appraisals, opportunities to leave silent auction and absentee bids, plus an entertaining program presented by Susan Caya Slusser of Villa Louis (one of Wisconsin's State Historic Sites).

With gratitude to our partners . . .

Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association: A grant from WADA continues their commitment as the auction's founding sponsor. The admissions charged at WADA's October and February antiques shows in Waukesha fund their grant and scholarship programs. See www.WisconsinAntiquesDealers.com for upcoming show dates.

Bailey's Honor Auction Service, Oconomowoc, Carol Miller: Her many volunteer efforts to support fund-raising endeavors is endless. Her energy is never ending. Her friendly "can-do" spirit inspires others. Her knowledge-base is boundless. Please support Carol by attending her many other auctions, taking place year around. Visit <http://baileyshonor.com/>
