Out & About

The weather lately sure has put a damper on some outdoor activities. Brandon had his golf practices cancelled a couple of times, and Mekenzy, her Lacrosse practices. For the shows and antique shops it has been perfect. They are reporting record sales and foot traffic. Auctioneers are telling us the same and that there are still many more good buys to come.

The weather is definitely looking brighter for this weekend. I hope to get some of my outdoor chores started. This will be the first weekend in a long time that we have had off from sports, so I hope that we will be able to get a lot accomplished.

Hopefully I can get the rest of the family on the same page for the few hours I have them in between their jobs.

Free Appraisals Offer "Antiques Roadshow" Appeal to 51st North American Vintage Decoy and Sporting Collectibles Show at Pheasant Run Resort, St. Charles, IL

Article & photos by Jeff Seregny
(Midwest Decoy Collectors Association)

Each year, at the North American Vintage Decoy & Sporting Collectibles Show, free identification and appraisals are offered for any item that is brought to the show. This effort is designed to help discover those old artifacts that are hiding around the country and recapture our rich hunting and fishing history. A wide range of items including artwork, duck, goose, shore-bird, and fish decoys, wildfowl calls, shotgun shell boxes, fishing items and various outdoor collectibles show up each year for review by the experts in attendance at the show. Several years ago brought in a wonderful old hand carved duck call that was a gift to Joseph Nathaniel Whitley, a former top game warden and official in Arkansas over 100 hundred years ago. It was easy to see that this item was special as it was uniquely carved on all sides and had the image of a rattlesnake integrated into the mouthpiece. The call, carved by James Beckhart around 1890, subsequently sold at auction for a record $103,650. The diverse number of unique items that are brought in to the show each year has been growing steadily and attendees are always excited to discover that grandpa's old "stuff" can be so important and command such strong interest.

Free appraisals are available at our tabled event in the resort's MegaCenter on Friday, April 22, from 2pm to 7pm, and on Saturday, April 23 from 9am to 2pm.

The Midwest Decoy Collectors Association is a non-profit organization whose purpose is to collect and preserve the history of the decoy as original American folk art. As the largest gathering of its kind, the North American Vintage Decoy and Sporting Collectibles Show is the premier opportunity for the novice, antique dealer or experienced collector to network and learn more about the decoy as functional folk art or to add to their collections. # Shotgun Shell Boxes and Animal Trap Displays to Debut at the 51st Annual North American Vintage Decoy & Sporting Collectibles Show in St. Charles, Illinois Pheasant Run Resort

(Midwest Decoy Collectors Association)

For the first time ever, the 51st annual North American Vintage Decoy & Sporting Collectibles Show, sponsored by the Midwest Decoy Collectors Association (MDCA), will feature displays of vintage Shotgun Shell Boxes and early Animal Traps. The Shell Box display will include nearly 40 early examples from the major ammunition companies of the late through the 20th century such as Peters, Remington, Winchester, Austin and more, all with stunning graphics of dogs, ducks and other game birds. The animal trap display will include rarely seen examples from the collection of Iowa's Sam and Margaret Delavan. The craftsmanship and ingenuity exhibited in these tools of the fur trade should not be missed as the Delavan's exhibit a group of traps that are as varied as the prey they were meant to capture. # Hearthstone Historic House Museum New Organizer of 19th Annual Appleton Antique Show & Sale, April 16-17

(Friends of Hearthstone)

One of Wisconsin's premier antique events has started a new era with a brand new organizer at the helm-- The Friends of Hearthstone. Hearthstone Historic House Museum is the world's first home lighted with hydro-electricity using a Thomas Edison system. The Friends of Hearthstone support the preservation of this historically significant home and provide tours, exhibits and special events to share its unique history with the public.

This year's 19th Annual Appleton Antique Show & Sale will be held Saturday, April 16th from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Sunday, April 17th from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Admission is $6 and good both days of the event. Children under 16 are free. The event will be held at the newly remodeled Tri-County Ice Arena, 700 E. Shady Lane, Neenah, WI just off of the Prospect Street Exit on Hwy 41. Parking is free.

More than 35 of the Midwest's best dealers will be setting up at the show to sell high-quality antiques displayed beautifully in booths throughout the Ice Arena. Attendees will be able to walk the floor and purchase from an excellent selection of furniture, decor and country primitive antiques for home and garden; fine antique and vintage jewelry; sterling, crystal, porcelain and china including Flow Blue; art, pottery, quilts, textiles, vintage clothing, maps and prints, advertising, folk art, holiday, dolls, toys, sports memorabilia, clocks, tools, books, postcards, sheet music and more.

A wide variety of eras and styles will be represented including Civil War, country primitives, Victorian, Edwardian (think Downton Abbey), art nouveau, art deco, mission and mid-century modern. As always, there will be something for every taste and budget.

The Friends of Hearthstone hope to continue the legacy started by long-time show manager Marilyn Scheinan who raised tens of thousands of dollars for charity during the seventeen years that she managed this high caliber and well-attended show.

"Hearthstone's mission is to 'illuminate' history, culture and innovation in a beautiful 1880's era Victorian mansion built by Henry Rogers, one of Wisconsin's early entrepreneurs," stated Cheryl Kaczmarek, president of the Hearthstone board of directors. "When we heard that Marilyn had retired, we reached out to her to suggest that the Friends of Hearthstone could continue to put on this wonderful and worthwhile Fox Cities event and use the proceeds to provide much needed funds for operation of the museum. It seemed like a good fit for us and our mission."

Hearthstone, a beautiful Victorian house, has a unique spot in history, being the first residence in the world to have electricity from a central hydro-electric source using an Edison system. The electric lights were turned on in September 1882, shortly after the house was built, and the original light fixtures, Thomas Edison switches and wiring are still in the house. In addition to electricity, the house boasted other innovations like central heat, indoor plumbing and a call annunciator system.

In addition to the professional antique dealers exhibiting at the show, visitors will be able to learn about the history of the house from costumed Victorian characters Mrs. Cremora Rogers and her head Housekeeper Mrs. Bryan.

"We're excited about this new endeavor," said Cheryl Kaczmarek, president of the board of directors of Friends of Hearthstone, Inc. "The show dovetails nicely with the emphasis Hearthstone and its volunteers place on preserving the past and appreciating history." Individuals and organizations providing valuable support for the show include The Marq, Janet Scholl, The Scene, Fox Cities Magazine and Lakeside Printing. Additional sponsors are welcome to contact Show Manager, Steve Jahnke at 920.277.1675.

Hearthstone is a non-profit organization operated entirely by volunteers, who assume responsibility for everything from renovations to program planning, historical research to fundraising. Proceeds from the antique show will help Hearthstone Historic House Museum continue its educational tours and programming, its restoration and maintenance efforts, and help ensure that this important piece of Wisconsin history has a strong, relevant future.

Hearthstone is open for tours from Thursday to Sunday, including the weekend of the antique show. See the website for hours at HearthstoneMuseum.org. Volunteers have researched and worked diligently to restore the grand Victorian residence to its 1880s appearance, complete with period furnishings.

A special exhibit this year features seventy-five Victorian and Edwardian bisque and china dolls from three private collectors beautifully dressed and staged throughout the house. The story of the Thomas Edison Talking Doll is also told in the house's HydroElectric Adventure Center, where guests can learn about the history of electricity. Hearthstone is one of Thomas Edison's great legacies. This special exhibit is provided by Robin and Joan Rolfs, Edison experts and long-time Hearthstone supporters.

For more details, a complete list of the dealers who will be participating in the show and to learn more about Hearthstone Historic House Museum, visit www.HearthstoneMuseum.org.
