Fantastic Architectural Items Draw Bidders to Hueckman's Auction

Article & photos by Scott Hueckman

Bidding action was strong for our Butternut Estate auction on Saturday, May 7th. This auction truly was untouched for almost 3 decades. In this large seventeen room Arts & Crafts home (now beyond repair) built toward the end of the lumber boom in Butternut Wisconsin was a treasure of vintage and antique items. The story of the house really made the auction. The previous owner, Mrs. Wanda, passed away in the late 1980's and the house was padlocked. She owned a lake resort in the 1960's-70's.

Eagle's Old World Wisconsin Historic Site Hosts 30th Star Benefit Antiques Auction

Article & photos by Brian Maloney

April 23rd was the date, and Eagle, Wisconsin's Old World Wisconsin Historic Site the place, of a great antiques auction held to benefit the Wisconsin Historical Society. Organized by dedicated volunteers from the Friends of the Wisconsin Historical Society, the biennial 30th Star Benefit Antiques Auction sells antique and vintage donations to help fund the society's many historic site restoration efforts. Offerings ranged from 19th century furnishings to horse-drawn vehicles – plus a treasure trove of Adam Berg "outsider art" pieces that saw prices soar to as much as $6,500!

Top-lot of the April 23rd auction: this monumental 60" x 48" Adam Berg oil painting titled "Heaven on Earth" that sold for $6,500. An untrained artist, Berg completed the heavily-layered piece in 1963 after five years of painstaking work.

This 1969 Adam Berg oil painting "Last Supper" featured the Kennedy family depicted as angels, and sold for $5,750.

A few close-ups of Adam Berg's work reveal his technique of building up images with dozens of thick layers of paint applied over several years.

Two more unusual Adam Berg "Asparagus Man" paintings: the 1968 "Watermelon" made $600, the 1974 "Ducks in Pond" $1,000.

It took a $1,300 bid to win this 1969 Adam Berg "Ship in Stormy Seas" oil painting.

Out & About

The weather sure has been erratic lately. In one of the small towns I drive through to get to work, there was a barn missing half its roof and it had a bunch of huge branches down in the driveway. On the way home, the man was out there with the chain saw and he seemed frustrated not knowing where to start cleaning. The weather for the rest of the week and weekend are forecasted to be partly cloudy but warm. Perfect for those outdoor auctions and markets. Remember your sunblock. Brandon helped us with the deck and managed a sunburn that itched terribly, he reverted to an old remedy of a vinegar bath to help relieve the itch. Now, he always has the sunblock. Remember your chairs and lots of water and your Auction Action Antique News.

Outsider Art creates a Stir at the Friends of the Wisconsin Historical Society Benefit Auction

Article & photos by Brian Maloney

Never made a visit to the Old World Wisconsin Historic Site? You're missing out on a lot more than you know! Founded in the town of Eagle in 1976 as a living museum, experts gleaned the Badger State and selected buildings that represented Wisconsin's unique history, painstaking moving them brick-by-brick and board-by-board to Eagle.

The site now consists of more than sixty historic structures ranging from ethnic farmsteads to an 1880s Village complete with its traditional small-town institutions. In fact, Old World Wisconsin's historic farm and village buildings comprise the world's largest museum dedicated to the history of rural life. It's not just a museum, though, but a living museum, where costumed volunteers are plowing the fields and spinning wool just as they would have in the 19th century.

And it was one of those buildings that hosted the April 23rd auction: the historic Clausing Barn - an imposing 1897 octagonal barn built by noted Ozaukee County barn-builder Ernst Clausing. A standing-room-only crowd turned out for the Saturday sale, hoping to snag a bargain or two while helping the Society's restoration efforts.

Bidders had a wide range of items large-and-small to choose from, all donated by folks from Wisconsin and several surrounding states. Of the furniture, a country pine corner cupboard dating from the 1850s was the winner, selling for a solid $550. A three-shelf sectional oak bookcase made $250, as did an ornate English oak display cabinet.

But there was never any doubt as to the stars of the sale: that large group of Adam Berg "outsider art" paintings. Berg retired in the 1960s to Wild Rose, Wisconsin after life as a Chicago cab driver, and began producing the astonishing works he called "oil carvings." Living in a modest cottage with his wife, he became known as the "asparagus man" from the large patch they used to supplement their income.

He spent years on some of his paintings, adding dozens of thick layers of paint to build up the figures into three dimensions. Some of his smaller works were simple still lifes, many were religious in nature, and some, including a flag-waving Emmett Kelly, were a little harder to explain.

Most of the bidder interest was concentrated towards two monumental Berg works, each measuring 48" x 60". The first, his 1969 Last Supper, featuring the traditional Jesus and Disciples scene in which the Kennedy family were depicted as the angels floating above. It sold for $5,750. The other example, his self-described "masterpiece of his life's works," was titled Heaven on Earth. It ended up as the top-lot of the auction, selling to an Illinois collector for $6,500.

The best part, of course, was that all proceeds from the auction went for a good cause: the Wisconsin Historical Society's funding of restoration of the H. H. Bennett Studio in the Wisconsin Dells. Considered one of the 19th century's best landscape photographers, Bennett's studio is still open - and is likely the oldest operating photography studio on the United States!

Thanks to Old World Wisconsin for hosting the event. And a special thanks to Friends of the Wisconsin Historical Society volunteers Debbie McArdle and Riene Wells for their tireless efforts in organizing the auction, and to auctioneer Carol Miller of Bailey's Honor Auctions for volunteering her considerable skills as the day's auctioneer. Old World Wisconsin is now open for the 2016 season seven days a week. And besides the re-creation of early Wisconsin life you'll experience here, there's a lot more on the Old World Calendar. How about a traditional Independence Day Celebration held on July 2nd through the 4th. Or watch one of the 1870s Historic Baseball games played on the Old World Wisconsin grounds by their very own Eagle Diamonds home team.

And there are workshops by the dozen, from adult blacksmithing and rug-braiding to kid's only Adventure Camps exploring everything from The Civil War to Getting Close to Farm Animals. Just visit www.wisconsinhistory.org to get the lowdown on Old World Wisconsin and all of the Society's other Historical Sites. Or join the Friends of the Wisconsin Historical Society at www.friendswisconsinhistory.org. And as always, keep an eye out for the 2018 30th Star Benefit Antiques Auction in the Auction Action Antique News!

Nice buys in 19th century ceramics included a Bavarian floral vase that made $85 and a Johnson Brothers washstand suite that sold for a bargain $65.

It was a full-house crowd indeed for the 4th Biennial 30th Star Benefit Antiques Auction benefitting the Wisconsin Historical Society, held inside Old World Wisconsin's historic Clausing Barn.

Another unusual Adam Berg work: this 1974 "Kennedy with Birds" example that sold for $900.

Adam Berg's paintings ranged from religious to just plain curious, like this patriotic depiction of clown Emmett Kelly that sold for $600.

A diminutive child's chaise in velvet upholstery sold for $100.

Green marble fluted pedestal - $150.

Angle Lamp Company double hanging oil lamp - $125.

Dedicated Friends of the Wisconsin Historical Society volunteers Riene Wells (left) and Debbie McArde spent countless hours organizing the biennial auction. They're shown here with one of the period furniture donations to the sale: a 19th century pine corner cupboard that later sold for $550.

This 1969 Adam Berg oil painting "Ship in Cloudy Skies" brought $1,500, this Adam Berg "Pheasant Hunter" $900.

Some nice furniture crossed the block, including this ornate English oak cupboard ($170) and three-shelf sectional oak bookcase that made $250.

A variety of period shelf clocks sold, most for under $100.

Several 19th and early 20th century baby buggies sold, the best an ornate Heywood Wakefield rattan example complete with parasol that sold for $60.

A huge 50 lb. vintage coffee tin sold for $55, a 1940s Nova Scotia duck decoy for $105.

Bidders found plenty of country and primitive pieces at the sale, like this red wooden butter churn that made $70, and this early wood-seat child's tricycle that sold for $40.

A box of mixed stereo-viewer cards drew considerable interest – and sold for $250.

A $100 bid took this twist-wire ice cream set.

More country accessories: the hickory splint pack basket made $55, the glass churn $70, and the 36" tool chest $75.

A $500 bid took this circa 1890 Howshield nanny cart, a $350 bid this faded green & red goat cart.

Award-winning auctioneer Carol Miller of Bailey's Honor Auctions graciously volunteered her services for the April 23rd benefit auction. Here's Carol in action selling a vintage Wadhams Motor Oil canister for $85.

Two 1970s Adam Berg "Prodigy of Christ in the Garden of Gethsemane" oil paintings: each example sold for the same $500.

A few choice tin toys crossed the block as well, including this Unique Art Sky Rangers windup in nice condition that sold for $130.

Debbie McArdle looks on as an unusual 1871 raised-letter bible crosses the block at $120.

Antiques Abbreviations

by Mike Paul

A while ago a reader asked about explaining some of the abbreviations they encounter in auction ads. This got me thinking about the abbreviations auctioneers use and why we use them. After a phone call to Gloria I offered to put together a listing.

By definition, an abbreviation is a shortened form of a word or phrase used for brevity. Within context and reason it identifies certain aspects of a piece to the buyer without needlessly going into detail. A lamp buyer will know what a "bracket lamp" is. It's unnecessary to say, "Victorian cast iron wall bracket with mercury glass reflector, chimney & drop in finger font". Most auctioneers use abbreviations in order to keep the size of the ad affordable. However it can be too much of a good thing and some of the more arcane descriptions can confuse or mislead the reader. To a person who collects a particular category most abbreviations in that category are readily recognized. To anybody else they are probably gibberish. Even a novice farm toy buyer won't need a three day weekend to decipher IH, McD & JD. WWI & WWII are obvious but would most folks recognize CW (Civil War) out of context? Coins, firearms, Hummels (152/A TMK3 UB K255 HB, anyone?) and other categories all have their own abbreviations that often are exclusive to that field. But if you are a glassware buyer does it really matter if you can't translate a 28g, o/u, d-bbl, ss w/syn stock and vt?

Some descriptions, while not technically correct, get the point across. For example "Jewel T", (which is short for Jewel Tea, a grocery chain) takes up less space than "Autumn Leaf", (a pattern name for china offered as a premium by Jewel Tea). This may seem like a trivial difference but similar descriptions over several publications begin to add up.

A listing that encompassed all of the collecting fields would be more of a project than I can take on but the following abbreviations should get you through most ads for antique auctions. If you have others you'd like to add to the list or that you've wondered about, please email them to me at mike@paulauction.com.

A&C - Arts & Crafts. Refers to the style of furniture usually associated with early 1900s Stickley. Often but erroneously referred to as Mission or Prairie.

ABC - American Brilliant Cut. Refers to the "Brilliant" period of late 19th/early 20th century American cut glass

B&H - Bradley & Hubbard. A manufacturer of quality lighting and decorative accessories.

B&W - Blue & White. The glaze colors used on utilitarian stoneware that was often found in the kitchen.

CI - Cast Iron.

COP - Century Of Progress. Typically refers to souvenirs hauled back from the Chicago World's Fair of 1933/34. Even in the middle of the Great Depression, a lot of Wisconsinites made the trip to see the COP.

CRS - Somebody explained this to me once, but I can't seem to remember what they said.

Dmg - Damage.

gl - Gallon. Typically used when advertising stoneware capacity

For Rest - For Restoration. Don't go to the auction expecting a cream puff.

GBCF - Glass Ball Claw Foot. Describes the foot usually found on late Victorian parlor and lamp tables.

GWTW - Gone With The Wind. A style of lamp with a matching font and top globe. Correctly referred to as a parlor lamp but popularly known as a Gone With The Wind, after the movie of the same name.

LRRH- Little Red Riding Hood. Typically refers to the Regal China products that feature her.

MIB - Mint In Box. Any item, but often a toy, that is in the same condition as new and in the original box.

MOP - Mother of Pearl. Polished nacre usually derived from mollusk shells. Typically found in jewelry, ladies dresser articles, buttons and in the windows of RPOG art.

NIB - New In Box. Similar to above but often assumed to be of modern production

NOS - New Old Stock. Old merchandise, often with original manufacturer's tags and merchant's price tags, that has never been sold or used.

NWOT - New With Original Tags, but sometimes used as New With Out Tags. eBay sellers are usually guilty of using this both ways. If buying online, clarify before bidding.

o/b - Outboard. An outboard motor.

OOB - Oil on Board. Art work done on a board, usually Masonite.

OOB - Oil on Canvas. Art work done on canvas.

Pre Pro - Pre Prohibition, prior to 1920. Refers specifically to alcohol related advertising.

Post Pro - Post Prohibition, after 1933. Refers specifically to alcohol related advertising.

QA - Queen Anne. Generally refers to a 1920's or 30's revival style exemplified by a cabriole leg.

Repro - Reproduction. A good definition would require a separate article but you get the idea. Occasionally people will use the slang "Repop" for repro or "Repo" which is inaccurate and what happens to your car when Vinnie pulls up in a tow truck.

RPOG - Reverse Painted on Glass. Less common as ROG. Any item where the design or artwork has been applied to the obverse side of the glass but typically a lamp shade, decorative framed art or advertising items.

RPPC - Real Photo Post Card. Differentiates a post card that was printed, (developed) off your film from one that was commercially printed. These were so popular that Kodak marketed the 3A folder specifically for the RPPC.

RR - Railroad.

RW - Red Wing. Red Wing, or less often, the several other stoneware companies that called Red Wing, MN their home.

/s/ - Signed.

s/g - Salt Glaze. Refers to the type of glaze used on stoneware and to differentiate it from the later, more common, zinc glaze.

TOC - Tin Over Cardboard. A type of sign made of tin wrapped over a piece of paperboard and hung by a piece of short thread mounted to the back side of the sign. Commonly used in the 1930's and 40's by brewing and other industries.

T&S- Time & Strike. Refers to clock movements. Differentiates between time only and striking movements.

Advertising Openers

The “ultimate guide to bottle openers” will appeal to breweriana enthusiasts and antiques collectors alike. Advertising Openers: A Guide to Beer Openers & More is authored by Just For Openers society founder Donald A. Bull and lifelong collector John R. Stanley.

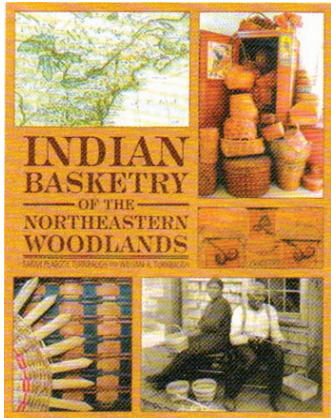

Collectors and military buffs will also be intrigued by The First World War on Cigarette and Trade Cards: An Illustrated and Descriptive History by Cyril Mazansky.

This valuable and expansive guide to advertising openers of all sorts features over 1,500 images picturing more than 2,800 openers and corkscrews. It is the ultimate guide to bottle openers. Whether you are interested in flat figural, key shape, wire formed, souvenir, and multipurpose openers or lifters, piercers, can keys, and smokers tools, you will find them here. Part 1 groups beer advertising openers and corkscrews in an alphanumeric system. Part 2 has special chapters on manufacturers’ openers, beverage openers, can keys, smoker’s tools, souvenir openers, and World’s Fair openers. Patent drawings and details are included with many of the photo captions. Value ranges are shown. A chronological index of American patents and a type index in Part 3 also make this book an invaluable reference. May this publication “open” the minds of new and experienced collectors to the expanse of this unique and fascinating hobby.

Indian Basketry of the Northeastern Woodlands Sarah Peabody Turnbaugh & William A. Turnbaugh

• A comprehensive study of the Native splintwork, sweetgrass, and birchbark traditions in the Northeast Woodlands • Over 500 photographs, lively vignettes, and informed commentary portray centuries-old Native crafts • A wide range of “work” and “fancy” baskets reflects their enduring role in Native life

With hundreds of vivid and detailed color photographs and an easy narrative style enlivened by historical vignettes & images, the authors bring overdue appreciation to a centuries-old Native American basketmaking tradition in the Northeast. Explore the full range of vintage Indian woodsplint & sweetgrass basketry in the Northeastern U.S. and Canada, from practical “work” baskets made for domestic use to whimsical “fancy” wares that appealed to Victorian tourists. Basket collectors may compare four regional styles: Southern New England & Long Island, Northern New England & Canadian Maritimes, Upper New York State, and the Great Lakes. Learn the craft’s key role in supporting many Eastern Algonquian and Iroquoian peoples through generations of turmoil and change. Discover how today’s creative young artisans are building upon their legacy. The book’s “Resources” section guides readers to relevant websites and publications as well as northeastern Indian basketry collections in more than 30 public museums.

Sarah and Bill Turnbaugh are retired from museum and university teaching positions. Their previous books include Indian Baskets, Indian Jewelry of the American Southwest, and American Indian Baskets: Building and Caring for a Collection.

Untouched Estate Brings Strong Prices at Hueckman's May 7th Auction

Article & photos by Scott Hueckman

There were live bidders from five states. The current owners (who have no interest in the house and contents) bought it for an employee, so that he could fix it up. Before he made any progress, he passed away too. The architectural items from the house, such as the light fixtures, built in cabinets, and door casements brought strong prices. The in the rough and primitive furniture, some in pieces, drew surprising interest.

Auctioneer and antique dealer Scott Hueckman stated, "I was very surprised of the selling prices of some of the 1940s-1950s furniture." He added, "there was one item that had been antiqued with the blue-green paint from the late 1970s-80s, a serpentine front secretary. We couldn't get the drawers open because they were so swollen the drawer fronts were removed to take the contents out; the glass was missing too. I put it in the yard hoping for a few dollars, but it brought $160. I have seen several of the same types in much better condition, not painted, and usable sell for less."

"Prices for most everything, including antiques were strong. The crowd was active and stayed for all seven hours---even on the opener of fishing season, a day that is very important to our area." Scott added.

Hueckman Auction & Sales can be reached at 715-499-0713 and be sure to visit their website at www.hueckmanauction.com.

A US Slicing Machine brought $850.

A twin bed with chipping green paint brought $110.

An Art Nouveau Dresser Mirror brought $120.

A 16" Art Deco ceiling fixture and globe brought $250.

A Texas Ware Nesting Bowl (in excellent condition) set of 3 brought $75.

The History of the W. Nelson McCoy's Blue Bird Pottery

By Dewayne Imsand
An Old "Blue Bird" Pot Shop

W. Nelson McCoy was born in 1820 in Harpers Ferry, Virginia, which is located in West Virginia. In January 1848, he and his wife Ester moved to Ohio's, Muskingum County, Springfield Township, in a community called Putnam. At that time, Putnam was a suburb of Zanesville, but in 1872, it became incorporated into Zanesville.

During the same year as W. Nelson and his wife arrived in Putnam, they had a son whose name was James W. Years later J.W. would go on to establish a well-known pottery, the "J.W. McCoy Pottery".

W. Nelson came to Putnam as a farmer. He acquired some land and built a house. In addition to farming, he also built a small, log building to produce stoneware during the warmer months. The pottery was a small, "Blue Bird" type shop, which was like the ones many of the farmers had at the time. It was primitive in its equipment, and the ware it produced was rough and unfinished. Although during that period, most of the home-owned, "Bluebird" shops operated under primitive conditions.

W. Nelson only produced pottery for a few years, not eight as previously believed. In January 1853, a notice was published in the "Zanesville Daily Courier" stating that a partnership that W. Nelson had with Jeremiah Elder was dissolved. The partnership was in a Putnam grocery store, named Elder & McCoy, which had been established at some uncertain prior time.

On the same date that W. Nelson ended his partnership with Elder, a second notice was published reporting that he had taken another partner, Norman Dodge, in the grocery business. Later W. Nelson bought out Elder, and the name of the grocery was changed to "McCoy & Dodge".

35Considering his job at the grocery, and the labor involved in farming, maintaining his household, supplying clay and firewood for his kiln, one would imagine that W. Nelson only had a small amount of time for actual pottery production. Surely, the volume he produced was small, and it was undoubtedly unmarked, since none that is attributable to him has been found.

Prior to 1853 a grocery store in Zanesville was owned by "James Benjamin & Co.". Sometime after 1858 W. Nelson acquired the major share in the "Benjamin & Co.", and the name of the store was then changed to "McCoy - Benjamin & Co.". Hugh McDonald was another owner besides McCoy and Benjamin.

In addition to the operation of the store itself, James Benjamin had other interests; he was a wholesale dealer in stoneware. The newspaper "Zanes Times Signal" carried an article in 1957 by Norris F. Schneider, who, quoting old sources, said that during the 1870's Benjamin was one of the three major stoneware wholesalers in the region. The other major stoneware wholesalers at the time were J.C. Gillespie, and Hudson C. Ward.

The crock shown is an example of Benjamin's wares. The inscription on it is stenciled in blue ink, and reads, "Jas. Benjamin Wholesale Stoneware Depot Zanesville, O".

W. Nelson is not known to have been associated with James Benjamin in the pottery business in Zanesville. However, he and Benjamin were associated in the pottery business located in Cincinnati. (See the article, "The History of the James Benjamin Potteries and his Connection with W. Nelson McCoy", which is contained on this Web site).

W. Nelson as a long-time, Zanesville businessman, became respected and popular. In 1881, he was elected the mayor of Zanesville, and in 1883, he was reelected. W. Nelson continued managing and working in his grocery and dry goods store until the early 1890's. He died in 1894. For more information visit: www.mccoypotterycollectorsociety.org

Come Join Us For The 56th Annual Eagle River Antique Show & Sale

Article by Joan Walter (Eagle River Rotary Club)

Come join us for the 56th annual Eagle River Antique Show and Sale! It will be held at the Eagle River Derby Track Exposition Hall, located on Hwy 45 north of Eagle River Friday, August 5th, 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM and Saturday, August 6th, from 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM.

This antique show is sponsored by the Rotary Club of Eagle River. This show is the longest running antique show in the Northwood's and the ONLY antique show up North entirely benefiting a service club's community projects. All the proceeds from this show, including all the fees collected at the door, are used by the Rotary Club for their special community projects. The Club yearly sponsors two $1000 scholarships for local graduating seniors, sends 2 girls annually to Badger Girls State, supports the local Cranberry Fest, Klondike Days and sponsors a "Warm the Children" winter project. The Rotary also supports an ongoing Youth Exchange Program and holds a wine tasting event as another fund raiser in addition to the Antique Show and Sale.

Exhibitors for the show are professional antiques dealers from the Northern Wisconsin Antique Dealers Association along with select guest dealers. The Rotary Club and NWADA work very hard every year to provide a unique and quality antiques show that has become a successful, anticipated summer event. Top quality antique dealers from Wisconsin will be bringing their best antiques.....including many items they have saved special just for this show.

An excellent selection of antique furniture in a wide variety of woods and styles will be available. You can also expect to find fine antique and vintage costume jewelry; sterling silver flatware and hollowware; brass and copper; ironstone; art pottery; elegant, depression & kitchen glassware; kitchen collectibles; decorative lodge-look items; sports items; decoys; art; children's toys & collectibles; vintage textiles; art glass; Military collectibles; and small primitives and country pieces at this show. There is something for everyone in every price range!

Also we are happy to announce that Mary Lou's Crystal Repair will again be joining us this year! You can bring your damaged crystal, china, porcelain or pottery with you to the show and have it repaired while you shop.

Mark your calendar now! Come out and help us celebrate our 56th year.....the Rotary Club is a wonderful community organization and is deserving of our support and appreciation! A lot of good things happen in Eagle River every year thanks to this fine organization, but none of this can happen without your public support.

The show also has free parking. Food and a full bar will be available for purchase from the Derby. For questions or additional information call (920)533-8731.

You're Invited to Register to Attend Daisy's 130th Anniversary Celebration and Swapmeet!

Article by Joe Murfin (Daisy)

July 1 – 4, 2016, are the dates for the Daisy National BB Gun Championship Match in Rogers Arkansas. In celebration of the company's 130th anniversary, Daisy and the Daisy Museum are also going to host a collectors' swapmeet. To register for this event, contact the Daisy Museum, now!

Friday, July 1st, arrive and attend a social event with the athletes and families Friday evening then "room hop" in the Embassy Suites Hotel.

Saturday, July 2nd, registered attendees can have swap meet tables with "insider trading" from 10:00 until 11:00. We'll open the swap meet to the public from 11:00 to 3:00, judging displays at 2:00. Tear down will be 3:00 to 3:30. Silent auction check-in will be in the same room from 3:00 to 4:00 and the silent auction will take place from 4:00 until 5:00. The Museum has been amassing an assortment of items to put in the silent auction and we assure you there will be something for everyone. Then attend our Daisy Nationals Match Opening Ceremonies shortly after 6:00 (we expect almost 2,000 people).

Sunday afternoon, July 3rd, there will be a Barter Bar event at which the athletes bring items from their hometown to trade with other team members. You might even consider bringing some small items from your home town or home state to trade with them in the Pinnacle Ballroom of the hotel on Sunday.

Registered attendees are welcomed to observe any and all of the events for the Daisy Nationals competitors including the practice session, matches, Opening Ceremonies Saturday evening and Closing Ceremonies on Monday, July 4, followed by a party at our City's Aquatic center. You might event consider bringing some small fun items from your hometown to trade at the teams' tables at Barter Bar

Registration for the Daisy Collector's event is $100 and includes a special 130th anniversary Daisy BB gun with special color walnut stock with inset medalion, a surprise registration item, a box lunch at the swap meet and two swap meet tables. Additional tables may be added at $20 each. We will not have a banquet/program at this event because we believe that you'll rather spend time observing the athletes and the match competition.

We are producing several unique collectibles which will bear the Daisy 130th anniversary logo. Some will be in your registration packet, and others will be available for sale. All proceeds of the swap meet, registration, sales of these products and the silent auction will benefit the non-profit Daisy Museum.

The Embassy Suites hotel and John Q. Hammons convention center is one of our city's finest accommodation. All rooms are two-room suites – some king and some 2-bed and all with a sleeper sofa and desk in the living area. We have negotiated an $89 room rate which includes an outstanding full breakfast for every guest in your room. You may bring your collectibles into your room for room-hopping Friday evening. The swap meet room is located just off the hotel lobby. After February 1, contact the hotel and ask for the Daisy Collectors' rate. <http://embassysuites3.hilton.com/en/hotels/arkansas/embassy-suites-northwest-arkansas-hotel-spa-and-convention-center-XNAESES/index.html> or call 479-254-8400.

Please note that, because Museum staff will be very involved in the swap meet and silent auction on Saturday, and with the teams in town it will be very busy on Saturday 7/2. You might want to consider visiting the Museum on Friday or Monday instead.

We are excited to be hosting our two favorite groups at one time here in Rogers. If you have not attended one of our anniversary events, I think you'll find that we work hard to assure that you are pleased with the value of your registration packet and your experience in Daisy's home town. We look forward to having you be a part of the celebration.
