Article & photos by Cady Auction

On April 23rd, Cady Auction held their 4th firearms and military themed auction of 2016. Their reputation for selling good quality, authentic items is growing amongst collectors. Their toned process when setting up their auctions includes doing their best to assure all lots are authentic with research and verifying with a list of people who know the different genres they are selling. For example, all firearms descriptions are written by an experienced and well respected gunsmith.

Spring Toy Show Brings Throngs of Buyers & Sellers to Kalamazoo, Michigan May 21st & 22nd

Article & photos by Jack Kelly

"It's a sure sign of spring when the Kalamazoo Antique and Collectible Toy Show comes to town," said one patron as he walked into the Expo Center at the Kalamazoo County fairgrounds for the Antique and Collectible Toy semi-annual event on May 21st and 22nd.

For toy lovers of all ages it was a chance to "ooh, ahh" and maybe even purchase new playthings or replay memories from the past.

And, for some it was a family event. Grandfather Joe Wehman of Hartford, MI, brought along 9 year-old grandson Freddie of St. Joseph, Michigan. Both grandfather and grandson were seen admiring collectable pressed steel construction road graders at many Expo Center booths.

An unusual 6" tall
Buddy L Recording and Savings Bank, complete with key, could gather coins at your home for $160. 269-649-2320.

Advertising collectors checked out the porcelain 1920's Western Union advertising sign tagged $695 and 1920's
Wrigley Gum tin rack priced at $595.
They were shown by Rick & Jay Davis of Grand Rapids, Minnesota. 218-246-2267.

Titled "Spirit of St. Louis"
this spinning 36" rod double airplane windup could spin for you for $1,000. At the same spot, an oddball straw-filled knock-down carnival game was tagged $950. 269-414-6036.

priced at $45.

Out & About

We hope that everyone had a wonderful Father's Day weekend. Hopefully it was antique filled with lots of finds. The weather sure has been nice for those outdoor shows and auctions. I hope that you are remembering those umbrellas and sunblock. Remember to clip and save the auction calendar and to always check the upcoming events page.

The girls attended Country USA this past week-weekend. It was the first time that they went without me, by the last day, they remembered their chairs and sunblock. Tia was by herself one night and got her car stuck in mud and some gentleman stopped and pushed her out, thank you to whom ever you are. The girls definitely learned a lot and had to make some adult decisions. They both had days they had to be up and to work by 6am, they chose not to attend the concert the night before. They learned it is not fun trying to get your vehicle out of a crowded area. It was a challenge as a parent to let them make their own mistakes, but the girls knew we were still there to help. Every day that they attended, they let us know when they arrived, when they were leaving and woke us when they got home.

When Out and About this weekend, be sure to check out:

It only took seven weekends but Todd & I finished our deck, it was more Todd than I. I run to get tools, cut wood, hammer, drill, hold boards & keep the area clean. Either way, we can now enjoy the pool more. We still have more projects but this difficult one is out of the way.

Toy Lovers Flock to Kalamazoo, Michigan for Annual Toy Show

Article & photos by Jack Kelly

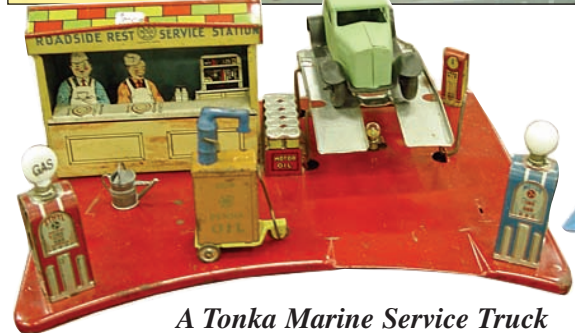

"We've been coming to the show for several years," said Juan Tijerina, gesturing to wife Janice - and smiling as he pointed out his 1916 Structo Yuba tractor #16. The vintage windup pressed steel 18" long toy could be played with at your home for $975. At same spot, a smaller Schuco windup roadster was priced at $135.

It was the second time showing at Kalamazoo for dealer Rich Potocici of Orland Park, IL. He pointed with pride to a 26" long Tonka Marine Service truck, complete with four boats and two motors, for $525. Gas station collectors checked out his 1930s tin Marx service station, with car, nick-named the "Laurel & Hardy Station" because of screen printed attendants, priced at $375.

Another second-timer was Larry Kavlock of nearby Vickburg, MI, stating, "I've got too much stuff. Time to get rid of some of it." Many associate the name Buddy L with tin and pressed steel toy vehicles, but the company also offered at least one coin bank. The 6" tall Buddy L Recording and Savings Bank, complete with key was offered by Kavlock for $160.

Looking for a 22" long 1920s Keystone Toy Packard Army truck with original canvas top? You could find it at the booth of Dave Samm of Archibald, Ohio, for $900. The 8-year show veteran said he traveled over two hours to Kalamazoo, adding, "This is all I do for a living."

Two big oddball items brought foot traffic to a halt at the booth of Jim Meltinos of Edwardsburg, Mich. A 1920s wind-up tin "Spirit of St. Louis" pair of airplanes, one at each end of a 36-inch rod, with the rods center attached to a lighthouse-type structure could twirl at your house for $1,000. Others eye balled his 6-foot-tall wood stand with carnival sideshow straw-filled carnival knock-down cat-shaped figure titled Big Tom. Designed to test baseball pitching skills, the oddball piece could test your hand and eye for $950.

A Tonka Marine Service Truck with four boats and two motors was tagged $525 by Rich Potocici of Orland Park, IL. The dealer also offered a 1930s tin Marx service station priced at $375.

A complete with original canvas top 22"

long 1920s Keystone Toy Packard Army truck was tagged $900 by Dave Samm of Archibald, Ohio. At the same spot, a 1930s Wyandotte electric headlight truck was priced at $185 and a Neff Moon pressed steel auto with two bodies tagged $400. 419-966-8205.

Former Circus Maximus Toy Show promoters Bruce and Dee Beimers of Grand Rapids returned to show off a 1935 replica pedal car with travel trailer that you could show off for $6,500. A 1950s tin table top service station was priced at $169. 616-581-8855.

Terry Harder of Grand Rapids stacks up some of over 100 items, all priced at $10 each, at the Kalamazoo show. thardyhardy@yahoo.com.

"I've been in the toy business since 1988, but this is my last hurrah," said Barb Fritz of Brighton, MI, who offered a several hundred items priced from $1 to $70. Lone Ranger collectors checked out several carnival chalk figures at her booth, including one dated 1935 and priced at $45.

Board game collectors hovered over the booth of Jeffery Dick, The Game Shelf, South Haven, MI, for several dozen examples dated from the late 1800s to 1970s. The dealer said most were priced from $2 to $50 with the "Game of Nations" the most expensive at $50.

Train collectors were drawn to the booth of Lost in Toyz, Chicago where a 4' tall stack of several dozen train cars, parts and accessories were priced "all over the place." Featured in the center of the booth was a bizarre 2' tall resin construction figure said to have been used in the movie "Gremlins." The scary movie prop carried a serious price tag of $1,000.

Not all toys offered were old. Bruce and Dee Beimers of Grand Rapids, MI, displayed a mint replica 1935 Auburn pedal car, complete with travel trailer for $6,500. The couple, who originated the Circus Maximus Toy Show in Kalamazoo many years ago, are now "dealers and collectors only," as they put it.

Toy collectors and dealers must wait until November for the next semi-annual Circus Maximus Kalamazoo Show. The fall show is always the Friday and Saturday after Thanksgiving, and the spring show is always on the third Friday and Saturday in May.

The History of the JW McCoy & Brush-McCoy Potteries

In 1848, J.W. McCoy was born and raised in Putnam, which is now part of Zanesville, Ohio. He was married in 1870, and the next year he and Sarah (Sade) Elizabeth Brown his wife, moved to Uniontown in Newton Township, Muskingum County. There J.W. operated a dry good store.

In 1871, the McCoy's moved to the community of Roseville, Ohio. There he entered into about a five-year partnership with his father-in-law, James E. Brown in a general merchandise business, which was called "Brown & McCoy".

Then in 1876, J.W. opened a General Merchandise store on his own. In 1886, he entered into a partnership and established the "Williams and McCoy Pottery Co.". After about four years of operation a new partner was taken in and the pottery was renamed the "Kildow, Williams and McCoy Pottery Co.". According to, "The Business Review of Muskingum County", "This plant was one of the most extensive in the valley and produced all kinds of common stoneware and a variety of culinary utensils."

Then in 1890, after about two more years of operation, the KW&M pottery was renamed again, and was called the Midland Pottery Co. By 1892, J.W. was not only involved in pottery manufacturing, and retail pottery sales, but he had become a pottery jobber, selling bulk wares to wholesale dealers.

After about two years of operation, the KW&M pottery was renamed again, and was then called the "Midland Pottery Co.". By 1892, J.W. was not only involved in pottery manufacturing, and retail pottery sales, but he had become a pottery jobber, selling bulk wares to wholesale dealers.

In 1898, following about six years of operation under the name the Midland Pottery Co., the pottery was sold to the "Roseville Pottery Co.". This ended the partnerships J.W. had in the pottery business. Since very few pieces from these early potteries that J.W. was affiliated with have been found, it is most likely that most of them were unmarked.

As discussed in, "The History of the W. Nelson McCoy's Blue Bird Pottery", (seen elsewhere on this Web site), Wilber F., the cousin of J.W., was a partner in the "Zanesville Hardware Company". The date that Wilber's part-ownership in the store was established remains uncertain, but it was probably between 1870 and 1875.

Cady Auction is always accepting whole collections or individual quality items to auction. Some examples of past auctions are vehicles, firearms, fine antiques, military, sports, advertising, pocket watches, coins and currency, knives and sharp edges, including complete estates. Go to their website www.cadyauction.com or call 319-364-4143 to talk with Mike or Deb Cady. Cady Auction is a Federal Firearms License holder, and is bonded and insured.

In 1899, J.W. along with several investors, formed a pottery solely under his name, the J.W. McCoy Pottery Co. He must have devoted much of his time to his new pottery, for in 1901, he turned the management of his general store over to his son Arthur.

For several years, the "J.W. McCoy Pottery Co." concentrated on the production of the simpler, utilitarian stoneware pieces. However, around late 1902 the pottery branched out and began to include the production of art pottery. The art pottery production consisted of elaborately designed, decorative items such as jardinières and pedestals, various other flower containers, umbrella stands, and sand jars. The production of these attractively glazed pieces proved to be a very successful undertaking.

In 1909, George Brush joined the "J.W. McCoy Pottery Co.". Prior to that time he had established a pottery under his own name. However, the pottery only operated about one year before a fire destroyed the entire plant. The "Brush Pottery" was not rebuilt, but he retained the remaining assets of the Brush Pottery. Later in the year after his pottery burned, George Brush became the Manager of the "Globe Stoneware Company", and the "Crooksville Clay Products Company".

After joining the "J.W. McCoy Pottery", within two years George Brush had become the General Manager of the pottery. In October of that year, the directors of the McCoy pottery decided to expand the pottery by the purchase of the "Globe Stoneware Co." (1901-1911).

During August of 1911, George Brush, acting on behalf of the Brush Pottery interests, purchased the old "J.B. Owens Pottery", Plant Number One in Zanesville (1883-1909), along with the equipment and molds. Late in 1911, the officers of the "J.W. McCoy Pottery", at the suggestion of George Brush, agreed to combine the assets of the company with those of the "Brush Pottery". Consequently, George Brush obtained the controlling interest in the "J.W. McCoy pottery", and the name of the pottery was changed to the "Brush - McCoy Pottery".

In 1912, the "Brush-McCoy Pottery" purchased the equipment and molds from the "A. Radford Pottery", which was located in Clarksville, West Virginia.

In 1918, the McCoy family sold their interest in the Brush - McCoy Pottery; however, it was not until late 1925 that the directors of the pottery dropped the McCoy name. The new name of the pottery was the Brush Pottery Co., and it operated under that name until it closed in 1982.

Antique Vintage Handkerchiefs Fun To Collect And Use

By Shelby Weister, Four Seasons Antique Mall

Handkerchiefs have been around for centuries, but in the 1920's, Kleenex tissues began to take their place. A hanky became an inexpensive accessory for an outfit and the perfect "Christmas gift for a friend or relative because you didn't need to know the size to purchase. Also they were a special gift easy to enclose in a card and mail.

Today, many ladies carry or tie them on their purses or put them in the cuff of a blouse so they are handy when needed. The distinguishing features of handkerchiefs are patterns and designs. They come in many styles, colors and shapes. Many animals, such as dogs, appear o handkerchiefs, while floral ones are plentiful.

Children's hankies depict cartoon characters or nursery rhymes. In the 1930's, many children went to school with a handkerchief pinned to their clothing.

There are designer handkerchiefs, and some are signed like works of art. Though they were mass produced, you'll be able to recognize the style of a particular artist even if the handkerchief isn't signed.

History and patriotism is a way of learning of a handkerchief's age or time span. the red, white and blue hankies represent the armed forces and instill patriotism in the wearer. Many military personnel purchased hankies as gifts for loved ones. "Remember Pearl Harbor" is one of the most poignant of all the hankies. After World War II, gas rationing stopped and many people took to the road for vacations. No item was a better souvenir than a handkerchief - inexpensive and small.

Most handkerchiefs are cotton or linen and most have hand-rolled edges. There are also some that are silk.

To bring your handkerchiefs back to a nice condition, try to remove stains by soaking them in Oxy Clean or use cold water with hand soap. Always rinse thoroughly and never squeeze or wring it dry. Lay the handkerchief flat on a towel to dry and then iron it and store with acid free paper between each handkerchief.

Lace, crocheted and tatted handkerchiefs are very nice for special events, such as confirmation or first communion. For a wedding, a handkerchief can meet the need for something borrowed, blue, old or new.

The American Society of Military Insignia Collectors

The American Society of Military Insignia Collectors, commonly known as ASMIC, is one of the oldest and largest organizations of military insignia collectors in the world. Founded in 1937 by a small group of enthusiastic collectors, it is chartered under Ohio law and recognized as non-profit 501 (c) (3) organization. The Society is "home" today to 2,000 dedicated collectors in the United States and foreign nations. Whether an individual is an experienced or beginning collector shoulder sleeve and distinctive unit insignia (patches and DIs), rank insignia, wings, decorations and awards (medals), elite forces emblems, cap badges, specialty markings, or of simply information on heraldry and the symbolism of heraldic devices, membership in ASMIC has many advantages.

ASMIC publishes a quarterly journal entitled The Trading Post and a Newsletter. The Trading Post contains a wealth of information on all aspects of U. S. and foreign military insignia. It includes articles from members, illustrations of old and new emblems as well as an occasional color section depicting American or foreign insignia. Unidentified Insignia are covered in a separate column in The Trading Post

The Newsletter brings word of insignia and dress items for trade or sale via classified and display ads. Society members rely on the Newsletter to advertise for insignia they wish to include in their collections and for announcements of regional and national insignia and militaria shows.

The ASMIC Reference Library contains almost 1000 items available for loan to members. These publications range from back issues of The Trading Post to major reference works published by our members and other militaria experts. The Library also includes many journals from other militaria societies for use by our members

Over the years, ASMIC has produced more than 20,000 black and white line drawings of military insignia, along with detailed descriptions of the insignia and known variations. Most of these drawings are available in our Distinctive Insignia or Cloth Patch catalogs, available to the general public and, at a discounted price, to ASMIC members.

To join ASMIC, visit their website: www.asmic.org

This book is a concise history of German stoneware, illustrated with 200 vivid photos, spanning from c.1300 to 1700 AD. German stoneware, high fired, nearly waterproof before light salt glazing, and extremely durable, has been described as "the most important and specific contribution that Germany made to the medieval European ceramic arts." This book interprets archeological remains in a bid to explore the spread of German stoneware to Britain, Continental Europe, and Colonial America. German stoneware has a story to tell. In 1300, the potters of Siegburg succeeded in fusing clay at an extreme high temperature to produce Rheinische Steinzeug, the stoneware of the Rhine, a virtually waterproof material. Rheinische Steinzeug became very popular and is considered to be one of the most important medieval ceramics. From the kitchens of medieval Europe to those of Colonial America, this fascinating story of German stoneware's dissemination and use is perfect for collectors, dealers, historians, archaeologists, museums, and anyone with a passion for the ceramic arts.

The Lighter Side of Collecting

Funny Cartoons for Serious Collectors by New Jersey Cartoonist John Stinger

The Lighter Side of Collecting!

JOHN STINGER

Funny Cartoons for Serious Collectors

John Stinger's cartoons have appeared in many leading publications for years. Now, the artist, collector, and cartoonist has released his new book called The Lighter Side of Collecting! It features 200 cartoons and over 60 pages of quirky humor about collecting.

Stinger said, "The book is designed to appeal to both young and experienced collectors, dealers, auctioneers, appraisers, flea marketers, show promoters and pickers. It's also family-friendly, non-offensive, and promises to entertain anyone who wheels and deals (or trades) in vintage treasures or other magnificent possessions."

Stinger sold his first cartoon about antiques in 1973. In 1992, he published his first book about collecting. His general line of award-winning cartoons is syndicated in the US, Canada and the UK. His monthly political cartoons are distributed nationally by Senior Wire Services.

The Lighter Side of Collecting! is available for $15.95 plus shipping. (Readers of this publication are entitled to a 10% discount off the retail price; be sure to mention us.)

The National Museum of Cambridge Glass

On April 3, 2002, the National Cambridge Collectors, Inc. proudly opened a premier glass museum in downtown Cambridge, Ohio. It houses a superb collection of Cambridge glassware produced by The Cambridge Glass Company from 1902 to 1958.

The museum is located at 136 South Ninth Street, one block south of the main street of Cambridge, and is open April through October with hours of operation shown at the bottom of this page.

At right, you can view an interview conducted with Cindy Arent, one of our NCC Board Members who is the chairperson of the Museum Committee. Click on the arrow to start it. Here is a chance to hear first-hand about our world-class museum. If you'd like to see it a little larger, click on the picture while it is showing and you will be taken to the YouTube page where it is presented in a larger size.

The year 2002 marked the 100th anniversary of the making of the first piece of Cambridge Glass (the Big X pitcher, shown below and to the right). The Museum Grand Opening celebration took during NCC Convention week on June 27, 2002. We're easy to find - here's a map of the Cambridge area.

Museum Contents

Big X Pitcher The museum features over 6,000 pieces of glassware made by the Cambridge Glass Company, with an interpretive area demonstrating how glass was made from gathering, shaping, etching, and engraving.

The Sample Room features the door and shelving from the original factory, and a dining room display features a table setting arranged on period furniture much as it would have appeared in the early 1900s.

Guests can do their own rubbings from original etching plates in the Education Center, and view a movie made in the 1940s by the Cambridge Glass Company.

Pieces of Cambridge Glass and jewelry made from Cambridge Glass are available for sale in the gift shop, along with books and other items throughout the museum.
