Sounds of the Past Come Alive at 41st Annual Phonograph & Music Box Show & Sale

Article & photos by Brian Maloney

Donley's Wild West Town in Union, Illinois once again played host to what has become the world's largest show of its kind - the Forty-First Annual Antique Phonograph & Music Box Show & Sale. From its humble beginnings in the 1970's, when a few collectors spread their wares out on the lawn, the show has certainly grown up. Serious collectors from as far as Europe and Asia now make the trip here each year to visit the very best dealers in this specialized collecting field. From music machines to parts to vintage recordings, this is about the best place anywhere to find what you're looking for.

This Edison
"Opera" cylinder phonograph was a top-of-the-line
machine in its day.
I found this one in Gregg Cline's display
- price tag $5,500.
419-424-1201

At Sights & Sounds of Edison sat this Edison Home Kinetoscope in nice original condition, asking price $1,295. 419-499-3093

Best of the Swiss cylinder
music boxes at Turn of the Century Antiques:
this orchestral model featuring five bells and two drums - $5,800. 616-887-2501

Shoppers found early rarities in Wes Little's impressive display, like this Columbia Model-BS 5-cent cylinder phonograph priced at $3,650. 205-907-6475

From The Victrola
Man, a spectacular restored Capital lamp phonograph could be yours for $2,200.

Out & About

Our weather hasn't been to cooperative the past few days. It definitely is starting to feel like fall weather. It seems like we just opened the pool for the summer and now we have to close it. Make sure to keep checking that auction calendar and upcoming events page. They change weekly and there are many upcoming events to plan for. There is always something almost everyday to keep the antiquer busy treasure hunting. Kenzy starts hockey in a few weeks and is a captain this year. Tia is busy with after school clubs and work. They are both feeling the senior year affects and have applied to all their colleges. Brandon has started drivers training and seems to be enjoying school this year. He is excited about his intro to engineering class. It is nice that he has a direction this year.

When Out and About this weekend, be sure to check out:

41st Annual Antique Phonograph & Music Box Show & Sale - The World's Largest

Article & photos by Brian Maloney

As you drive to Union, Illinois, site of the event, you might wonder how the world's largest antique phonograph & music box show got here. The little town of Union is on Route 20 between Rockford & Chicago, hidden in the fertile cornfields of northern Illinois. Not exactly the first place you'd picture for a world-class specialty antique show!

You may also be a little surprised when you pull up to the show's venue and see the façade of an Old West town looming before you, for you've arrived at Donley's Wild West Town. It's part Wild West Show, part theme park, part exhibition and auction hall, and part museum - including an impressive antique phonograph collection. They've played host to the show from its very beginning, when Wild West Town's founder Larry Donley got a group of fellow antique phonograph collectors together here to buy, sell, and trade their wares two generations ago.

I don't even collect phonographs or music boxes, and this show is still one of my favorite events to cover. Maybe it's a guy thing. Antique phonographs offer the appeal of fine furniture, plus fascinating mechanisms to tinker with. And I can't think of any other antique that more literally brings the past alive than an antique phonograph playing music and voices recorded before the airplane - or even automobile, was invented.

As is true of many specialty antique shows, the dealers at the Antique Phonograph & Music Box Show are just "different" from your typical antiques dealer. I use the term dealer loosely, as most of them are collectors at heart. One long-time exhibitor told me: "For both the dealers and the shoppers, reconnecting with old friends is as an important part of the show as buying and selling. Some of these guys have been coming to Union, Illinois since the very first show, and have been friends for even longer than that." The dealers themselves came from all over the U.S. and Canada. Most have been attending the show for many years - some haven't missed any of the forty-plus annual events.

Of course, nearly every major antique phonograph dealer in the nation was here, with some of the finest and rarest examples you'll find anywhere - plus plenty of modestly-priced machines for us regular folks. Add to them the countless hobby dealers for whom this may be their main show of the year to buy, sell, and trade their favorite machines.

And many of the field's most noted authors and publishers come here each year too, with copies of their latest works. The photographs will give you a little glimpse of everything the show has to offer. Even if you're not an antique phonograph or music box collector, it's still well worth attending - you'll learn a lot, and get to see some of the world's finest examples of these fascinating mechanical wonders of the past.

I couldn't end the story without telling you a little more about the hosts of the show, the Donley family - owners of Wild West Town. Larry Donley, founder of enterprise, had already been collecting antique phonographs for some time when he obtained the lifetime collection of Clarence Ferguson more than forty years ago. Mr. Ferguson, the last Edison dealer in the United States, had also amassed an amazing collection of his own. Soon after the acquisition, Donley opened a small phonograph museum right here outside of Union, Illinois, and it's grown over the years into the twenty-acre complex that it is today.

Donley's Wild West Town is definitely worth the trip - even if you're not attending the Phonograph & Music Box Show. The kids will love Wild West Town itself, where they can be deputized and help round up the desperados. Or learn to rope from a real cowboy - even witness a shootout in the town square. It's geared towards the pre-teen crowd, something founder Larry Donley insists will never change. There's also an outdoor Wild West stage show that'll appeal to wanna-be cowboys of all ages. And the world-class Old West and Antique phonograph museums ensure that the older folks will have a great time too. Be sure to check out their Website www.wildwesttown.com. It'll help you plan an old-fashioned day-trip for the whole family. And as always, keep an eye out for next year's 42nd Annual Phonograph & Music Box Show in the Auction Action Antique News!

You'll find vendors with most anything remotely phonograph-related at the event, from parts and transfer decals to period cylinders and 78s by the thousands!

Among the many early disc phonographs at Treasured Times: this red tin-horn Standard Talking Machine Co. Model-L, price tag $895. 810-659-2106

They're not kidding when they say that this is the biggest show of its kind anywhere: serious collectors from as far away as Europe and Asia told me this is the one phonograph show they'd never miss!

Don Gfell's Sights & Sounds of Edison has been coming to the event for more than three decades, bringing a wonderful array of wooden horns custom-made by Don himself - most in the $600 to $1,000 range. www.edisonman.com 419-499-3093

Turn of the Century Antiques, came with a whole flock singing bird automatons, plus great buys on period music boxes including this 8" Polyphon disc music box priced at $995. 616-887-2501

Texas collector Don Maxwell displayed this unique Victrola Model VV-IX with original dealer-applied Greek Revival decoration, asking price $1,400. 940-767-8702

A great inventory of cylinder phonographs in Don Maxwell's display included this colorful Columbia Graphophone, asking price $1,850. 940-767-8702

Florida's Robert Cole and Richard Brown teamed up with a display where oddities like this solid steel Play-Ola disc phonograph could be bought for only $225. 407-299-2253

Another cool find from Robert Cole: this vintage Spanish "hurdy gurdy" roller organ, made by Antonio Martin & priced at $895. 407-299-2253

Collectors like Texans David & Lerria Rosamund come to the event each year to buy, sell, and most of all to connect with like-minded collectors from throughout North America.

Two cylinder phonograph standouts from David & Lerria Rosamund: the rare Edison Amberola Model-IA priced at $5,500, the Edison "Fireside" with Model-K reproducer & cygnet horn at $1,300. 214-394-9417

My classic disc phonograph pick from Sounds of Old: this Victor Model II with an oak case, price tag $725. 262-679-9475

Gregg Cline offered this Pathe cylinder machine sporting a super-rare Bettini reproducer with case - asking price $9,500. 419-424-1201

Canadian collector Jean-Paul Agnard operates a phonograph museum in Quebec, and came with unusual artifacts like these early French wet cell batteries priced from $250. 418-827-5957

Another cylinder phonograph rarity from Gregg Cline: this twin-horned Polyphone reproducer on an Edison machine, the set priced at $8,500. 419-421-1201

Texas's Honor Rolls is your roller organ headquarters at the show, supplying restored period organs of many makes, plus lots of new custom-made "cobs" (the pinned roller that plays the tune) in tunes new and old - from pop standards to college fight songs. www.honorrolls.net.

You'll find more than just phonographs at the show, like this cool vintage Keeney's Bonus Super Bell five-cent slot machine shown by LeRoy Plyler, asking price only $600. 704-872-6021

This early Autophone tabletop pump organ played punched strips that lasted under thirty seconds per tune. I found it at Honor Rolls, asking price $750. www.honorrolls.net

Collector's World came with the finest in period music boxes, my favorite this Britannia 9" double-comb upright model priced at $2,950. 847-948-1472

Two more disc phonograph highlights from The Victrola Man: the hard-to-find Venus Belle model disguised as a piano priced at $2,100, the Puritan floor model in a rare oak cabinet at $2,650. 630-552-1558

Reginaphone attempted to produce machines able to play both music box discs and 78 rpm phonograph records. I found this excellent example at Collector's World – price tag $4,300. 847-948-1472

California's The Phonograph Company always has a huge display, among the inventory this rare Victor VV-XVI in a Circassian walnut cabinet (here with Cassidy Austin) - $5,250. 818-789-2339

New York's Nancy Fratti Music Boxes brought many period cylinder music boxes, including this nice Sublime Harmony Piccolo eight-tune model - fully restored and priced at $4,200. 315-684-9977

Less than an hour west of Chicago in Union, Illinois lies the unique Wild West Town - a combination Wild West show, theme park, and world-class phonograph museum - and hosts of the 41st Annual Phonograph & Music Box Show & Sale!

Colorado Quilting: From Mountains to Plains
By Mary Ann Schmidt & the Colorado Quilting Council

This book is the culmination of more than 125 years of tradition and countless "Documentation Days," during which quilting council members record the block technique, age, batting, backing, and color of each quilt their fellow quilters trust them to preserve. Thirteen chapters explore important historical quilting moments, traditional and modern quilting themes, and the beginnings of the Rocky Mountain Quilt Museum and the Quilter's Newsletter magazine. Different council members researched, photographed, and recorded the most significant events, memories, quilters, and quilts that have influenced the progress of quilting in Colorado. Early Coloradans picked their own cotton, saved every scrap of used fabric, and made quilts from scratch to support their families and for therapy as they recovered from serious injuries and illnesses. Many of these sacred stitches are still works in progress and continue to illustrate what's important to these dedicated craftspeople.

The Caribbean comes to Toledo, IA on September 24

The late Ken Carson, 1929-2016.

This Caribbean just happens to be a classic 1953 Packard Caribbean Convertible. And with only an estimated 60-80 still in existence, it was the Late Ken Carson's (1929-2016) pride & joy to own one. The Caribbean and the rest of Ken's cars & petroliana collection comes to auction by Rich Penn Auctions of Waterloo, IA. The Auction, at 1100 S. Elm St., starts at 10:00 am with the cars selling at noon. Penn commented, "Ken's collection is modest in size, but his cars are in excellent condition. Ken loved them and and loved working on them. So there will be a lot of related parts and memorabilia as well. It should be a fun auction!"

Ken had a passion for collecting and was especially drawn to mechanical things....like classic cars and especially those Packards. Growing up on a farm in Iowa, during the Great Depression, you had to learn how to fix things. Ken spent his childhood on the farm in the Henry, Tama and Marshall county areas of Iowa. And he learned well. In 1940, when just 11 years old, the family bought a farm just North of Toledo, IA. Toledo is where Ken called home for the remainder of his life.

His interest in mechanical clearly started early in his life. He worked with maintaining and tearing down farm machinery. That interest stuck with him through high school, graduating from Toledo High in 1947 and through college at Iowa State University. He married his wife Nancy right out of college in 1953 and headed for the military. His military time was spent drawing on the skills he grew up with. He served two years as a Lieutenant Battalion Motor Officer. He tore down and maintained heavy equipment and many types of military tanks.

After service, Ken & Nancy came home to Toledo, where he began working for Farm Bureau as an Insurance Agent. He started an independent insurance agency, known as Twin Cities Insurance, with partner Marvin Helgren. In 1962, they added the real estate business to their agencies. In 1963 Ken bought Marvin's half. A few years later Paul Hunter joined the firm and became his partner for twenty years.

Ken carried that interest in mechanical things through his professional life and became interested in collecting classic cars and car memorabilia. He became active in the Marshalltown Area Restorer's Club, the Hawkeye Packard Club and Shrine Vintage Auto Unit. Along with that interest he sold collector car insurance and did car appraisals.

He was well known in car collecting circles and was often seen at auctions and car shows across the Midwest. You can see from his collection, he had a fondness for the classics built in the 1950's, the waning years of the Packard's legendary product lines. It's only appropriate that those things that Ken loved so much will be passed on in the same way he came to own many of them: at auction. On Saturday, September 24, those cars, their related parts and memorabilia will all be sent to new collector homes where new collectors will surely love and care for them as much as Ken did. For additional information contact Rich Penn Auctions at 319-291-6688 between 9 AM & 5 PM CST, M-F.

Family-Safe Antiques; No "Off-Gassing" Here! 65TH Fall WADA Antiques Show October 7 & 8, 2016

Article & Photos by Debbie McArdle

"Off-gassing". No, this is not an out-of-bounds subject. Rather, it is something about which every family should be aware, especially those with young children.

Check the internet and you will find many technical explanations of "off-gassing". Plain and simple, chemicals - and especially the MIXTURE of chemicals - can kill us. Harmful off-gassing chemicals are found in mass-produced household goods sold to unknowing consumers. The EPA has identified hundreds of individual chemical components as harmful carcinogens, but they are yet unable to analyze the compounded negative impact on our bodies by infinite quantities of mixed chemicals. When chemical components are mingled, what is the long-term affect of the "chemical cocktail" on the air we breathe and, ultimately, our health? This is the scary unknown.

During a recent trip to a resale shop, I encountered a piece of particle-board furniture with a warning label stapled to the back stating: "This product contains a chemical known to the State of California to cause cancer, birth defects, or other reproductive harm." What does California know that other states, on our behalf, have NOT acknowledged?

"Consumer Reports", March 2013, states the warning has been seen "on products as varied as a flashlight, an eyeglass repair kit, a beach ball, a garden hose, a fishing rod, and-more troubling-on a coffee cup, a water bottle, a steering wheel cover, and an ointment to treat diaper rash. In California the warning is even placed on some buildings. Although the warning is required only on products sold in California, companies may use it on all of their products to avoid creating different packaging for sales in that state."

Family-safe and budget-friendly antiques, tried and true, are the answer to a healthy home environment. Savvy buyers set aside the first Friday and Saturday of each October to attend the Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association Show in Waukesha. Why? Because they know the professional exhibitors at each WADA show save their best inventory, at affordable prices, for the event. In fact, it's tradition! And tradition is important to WADA exhibitors. After all, they have been producing THE premier Wisconsin antiques events since 1948 where affordability, authenticity, condition and rarity have been the guidelines for merchandise for nearly 70 years!

55 carefully-chosen antiques professionals, some traveling great distances from 6 states to participate, will bring their fresh-to-market wares to the Milwaukee suburb of Waukesha. Wander the three large rooms at the Waukesha County Expo Center's Forum Building, 1000 Northview Road, Waukesha, WI 53188, home of this semi-annual event. Show hours are Friday, October 7, 10-8 and Saturday, October 8, 10-5. In addition to the good food customers have come to expect, a traditional Wisconsin Fish Fry will be served late Friday afternoon and evening so bring your appetite!

The Friends of the Wisconsin Historical Society will again have a booth at the show, provided at no charge by WADA members, to collect any donations from the public of vintage (50-99 years) and antique (100 years or older) items for their next fund-raising auction. Tax deductible receipts will be provided.

The Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association is a not-for-profit organization. Your admission of $7.00 funds scholarships for high school students as well as grants to Wisconsin historic and heritage groups. A $1.00 discount coupon for admission to the Antiques Show is available at: www.WisconsinAntiquesDealers.com/ Free parking. ATM on premises.

"Wisconsin Sports"

A Free Exhibit at the 65th Fall WADA Antiques Show October 7 & 8, 2016 Waukesha (Milwaukee) Wisconsin

Article & Photos by Debbie McArdle

Over a period of 35-40 years, Ron and Chris Maki (a father and son team) have amassed an amazing collection of Wisconsin sports memorabilia from the earliest possible dates up to the 1960s. They will be exhibiting their rare and varied collection at the upcoming 65th Fall Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association Show and Sale at the Waukesha County Expo Center, Friday and Saturday, October 7 & 8, 2016. The Makis will be on hand to answer any questions and to share their Wisconsin sports knowledge with other enthusiasts. But they also hope a show attendee will bring a "special something" to sell to them that they don't already own!

1901 Wisconsin vs Minnesota game program w real badger.

Come see the collection!

When Chris Maki is asked to list their most unusual items, a November 1901 football program comes to mind, the cover photo featuring a LIVE badger (named Billee, by the way) on a leash led by "Babe" Spencer, both of them UW mascots. Other favorites?

- Press badges and pins from the 1957 Milwaukee Braves / Yankees World Series and 1955 All Star Game held in Milwaukee.
- A Milwaukee Braves "real face" paper mache nodder.
- Old noddors from Milwaukee Braves and Wisconsin Badgers

Chris added, "Everyone loved the Braves, they were immediately successful and Wisconsin - especially Milwaukee - was crazy for them. Attendance records were set. It's not often that a new team comes along and is so immediately embraced. The Milwaukee Braves represent a time gone by because the Braves left Milwaukee after the 1965 season."

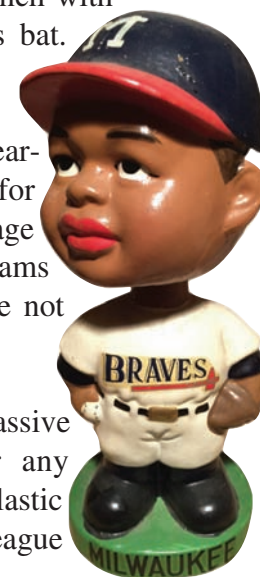

One wonders how Chris and Ron have managed to find so many rare items in great condition. Chris explained that when you go to a rummage sale in Milwaukee, you never know when you will find a box of programs or pennants from the 1940s or earlier. "We don't find these things on eBay," says Chris. "We have to hit the pavement. The fun of it is finding these things at a reasonable price - not paying top price at auction." So they participate in the perpetual "hunt" the good old-fashioned way!

One time Chris bought some bats at a sale near the county stadium. The name on one of the bats was Bob Botz. A search in the white pages (before the internet) turned up a Mrs. Botz who, it was soon discovered, was the mother of the former pitcher for the Milwaukee Braves. Long story short, the chance purchase evolved into lunch with Bob Botz at which time Ron returned Bob's 1950s bat. Good karma.

Chris likes the official game programs and year-books because they were printed in limited numbers for specific games and have nice artwork along with vintage images of players. He is also fond of Packer programs from the 1920s with mention of some teams that are not even in the NFL anymore!

What do Ron and Chris need to enhance their massive collection? They are always on the prowl for any Milwaukee Braves noddors / bobble heads, Hartland plastic figures, and early game programs, including minor league Brewers, 1952 and earlier. If you have any for sale, bring them to Waukesha October 7 or 8!

Wander the Show!

From vintage Christmas to antique cupboards, wander the three large rooms at the show featuring the Midwest's top dealers from 6 states, each offering a choice variety of authentic & affordable antiques. The Waukesha County Expo Center's Forum Building, 1000 Northview Road, Waukesha, WI 53188, is the home of this semi-annual event. Show hours are Friday, 10-8 and Saturday, 10-5. In addition to the good food customers have come to expect, a traditional Wisconsin Fish Fry will be served late Friday afternoon and evening so bring your appetite!

Also at the show, antiques (more than 100 years old) and vintage (50-99 years old) items will be collected by the Friends of the Wisconsin Historical Society for their biennial "30th Star Benefit Antiques Auction". Tax deductible receipts will be provided to all donors. The Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association is proud to serve as the founding & continuing sponsor of this event and has donated the booth for collection of objects for the fund-raising auction.

The Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association, founded in 1948, is a not-for-profit organization that produces two antiques shows annually. Your admission of $7.00 funds college scholarships as well as grants to Wisconsin historic and heritage groups. A $1.00 discount coupon for admission to the Antiques Show is available at
