Festive Mood at 60th Annual Green Bay and De Pere Antiquarian Society's Holiday Antique Show

Article & photos by Brian Maloney

Most visitors to the 60th Annual Green Bay and De Pere Antiquarian Society Holiday Antique Show, held on November 17th, 18th, and 19th at Green Bay's Rock Garden Conference Center, probably came just to shop among the quality antiques dealers the show has become known for. What they may not realize is that the show serves a higher purpose too: helping fund the preservation of the area's cultural heritage. The Society has raised more than a million dollars over the years to purchase, restore, and preserve artifacts of local historical significance.

The Green Bay and De Pere Antiquarian Society: Celebrating Ninety-Plus Years of Preserving Wisconsin's Cultural Heritage

Article & photos by Brian Maloney

The Green Bay and De Pere Antiquarian Society Holiday Antiques Show is one of the Badger State's oldest antiques events, started way back in 1957. The society itself is far older though, founded ninety-two years ago by local businesswoman Jesse Buchanan. She had an ambitious goal: to make Green Bay an American center of history and culture. Buchanan was tireless in advocating historical preservation in the area and did much to preserve its treasures. She, along with a group of like-minded area women, founded the Green Bay and De Pere Antiquarian Society in the 1920s.

Distressed upon seeing early Green Bay artifacts being sold to distant collectors, Buchanan began a systematic search for historically accurate artifacts for the area's historic landmarks. That effort, often supplemented with loans or donations from her own collections and coffers, also helped refurbish many area museums. She was also instrumental in initiating a campaign to restore several historic buildings located at nearby Heritage Hill State Historical Park. Today's members continue the pursuit and restoration of original or period authentic furnishings for area museums.

More recent Antiquarian Society acquisitions include what has become known as The Heritage Collection, an important and wide-ranging group of artifacts consisting of everything from a Matthew Brady photo of Abraham Lincoln signed by the President himself to a large collection of original Howard Pyle Paintings. Known as "The Father of American Illustration," Pyle's books, magazine illustrations, and paintings were well known both here and abroad. In fact, Vincent van Gogh once commented in a letter to his brother that Pyle's work "struck me dumb with admiration."

And the Green Bay and De Pere Antiquarian Society's Annual Holiday Antique Show has been an important piece of their fund-raising pie for all of those years. Quality dealers from Wisconsin and the surrounding states journeyed to the Rock Garden Convention Center for this 60th edition of the event with a wide variety of quality antiques and artifacts.

Furniture purveyor Haven Hill was among them, their booth filled with period furniture from fine to funky. Period jewelry more your thing? There was something for every taste here at the show, ranging from vintage Bakelite at Barbary Stoy Antiques to En Vogue's huge array of high-end fashion jewelry. In fact, no matter your collecting interests there was probably something here for you - from authentic Native American artifacts and trade goods at Welsch's Antiques to vintage toys, fine art, and much more.

You can find additional information about both the society and the show (and make a donation if you like) at the Green Bay and De Pere Antiquarian Society's website - www.antiquariansocietygbdp.org. And as always, keep an eye out for next year's 61st Annual Green Bay and De Pere Antiquarian Society Holiday Antique Show & Sale in the Auction Action Antique News!

A Major Step In Fighting Fraud In The Antiques Business

History has been made! The Federal Trade Commission and the Professional Show Managers Association (PSMA) have jointly taken a giant step in educating the public about fraud in the world of antiques and collectibles and the Wisconsin Antique Dealers Association, dedicated to honesty and authenticity in the trade of antiques, has joined the effort!

A yearlong crusade, led by Nancy Johnson and Dordy Fontinel, board members of the Professional Show Managers Association, has resulted in the printing and mass distribution of hundreds of thousands of colorful informative bookmarks. Titled "Antiques, How to Shop Wisely", the educational pieces give bullet points of information to be considered when shopping for antiques.

"When shopping for antiques and collectibles, ask the dealer. How long have you been in business? How do you know any item is genuine, not a fake or reproduction? What are your criteria for identifying the item? Will you give me a written guarantee that the item is authentic? What is your return policy?"

In addition, Johnson and Fontinel were successful in their request that Consumer Information on Safely Shopping for Antiques and Collectibles be added to the FTC website. The two women spent nearly six months working with the FTC on the specific information that is now available. The recently posted article may be accessed by visiting the FTC.gov website or simply googling FTC antiques.

When PSMA President Nancy Johnson wrote an article in the Association's Winter 2007 newsletter entitled "When Did It Become OK To Cheat Someone?", a commentary on our world's complacency about being defrauded, show promoter Dordy Fontinel responded and began a dialogue with Johnson about the problem of fakes and fraud in the world of antiques and collectibles. This dialogue resulted in Fontinel speaking with Sen. John Warner, subsequent meetings with his staff and the Federal Trade Commission.

Last June, Fontinel and Johnson met with Jeanne Bumpus, Director of Congressional Affairs at the FTC, and members of the planning and information division of the FTC. Their goal was to have Antiques & Collectibles recognized as "consumer items" and to encourage the FTC to take note of the rampant fraud, which is taking place under the guise of "Antiques". The FTC agreed and the process began. Knowingly selling a fake is criminal fraud in most states.

PSMA also feels that the bookmarks will provide a convenient opportunity for anyone interested in educating the buying public and fighting the cause. PSMA encourages show promoters, dealers, shop and mall managers, club members, and auctioneers to get involved, therefore PSMA is offering the bookmarks at their cost.

The battle has just begun! Now that the FTC has issued an Alert that selling an antique or collectible item that is not authentic is Fraud, Fontinel and Johnson feel more consumer protection will occur on the state and local level. Such fraud can be reported directly on the Federal Trade Commission site at: <http://www.ftc.gov/bcp/index.shtml>. Choose the tab "File A Complaint."

These informative bookmarks are given to attendees of the Wisconsin Antique Dealers Association shows held in Waukesha each October & February.

(See www.wisconsinantiquedealers.com)

Or, to order bookmarks in quantity, send a check made payable to PSMA to the PSMA Offices, Attn: FTC Project, P.O. Box 30, Bloomfield CT 06002. The cost of the bookmarks, including Priority Mail, is $25 per 1000 or a single package of 200 for $10. (PSMA is a non-profit trade association of consumer show managers, with the majority of its members in the Antiques & Collectible fields.)

40th Year for Janesville Mid-Winter Antique Show

Article by Steve Bina

The Janesville Mid-Winter antique show reaches a milestone this year as it celebrates 40 years of providing Southern Wisconsin a quality antique and vintage show to open the New Year. The show will once again be held at Janesville's Pontiac Conference Center at 2809 North Pontiac Drive. The show opens on Saturday January 7 at 9:00 AM closing at 5:00 PM, and continues on Sunday, January 8th from 10:00 AM to 3:30 PM.

Many of the show's dealers return year after year, but each year we have the opportunity to welcome one or two new dealers to the mix. This year we have a dealer coming from the Minneapolis area that specializes in antique maps, etchings, prints, postcards, and fine art. As always we will have dealers exhibiting room-ready furniture, mid-century and retro, primitives, linens, advertising, sporting items, coins, vintage clothing, repurposed items, toys, stoneware, and much more. You will certainly be able to find that special item to add to the décor of your home or workplace.

Returning once again to the show will be Mary Lou Gates and her husband Bob who are experts at repairing and re-assembling crystal and china and can do so while you shop or you can drop off your pieces and return later for pickup. Their service is recommended by Angies List, listed in Kovel's Antiques Price Guide and have worked with the Illinois Governor's Mansion, the National Archives Museum in Washington D.C. and extensively in the Chicago metro area.

Show manager Steve Bina commented "We're really excited to have their service at the show. Dealers save their damaged pieces for months waiting for an opportunity to bring them to the Gate's for repair. Anyone who has damaged heirlooms and glass should take advantage of this opportunity."

Also returning are Aluminum Display Case specialists, who will have every item you need to protect and exhibit your family heirlooms.

If you're curious about the show, visit our new Facebook page : "Janesville Mid-Winter Antique Show", which has many pictures of last year's show, additional information, and pictures of new items coming to this year's show. Feel free to post a comment.

Admission to the show is $5.00. If you clip AAN display ad, bring it along to save an extra 50¢. As always Best Events catering will provide excellent food throughout the event, so come for the show and stay for lunch. For additional information about the show, feel free to contact show Manager Steve Bina at (608)-385-3598.

This auction consisted of two lifetime collections, filled with high quality items, including a nice collection of artwork. Oil paintings by Bruawn, Harvey, Steinberg, Alexander and others. Collector's took home some very fine pieces to display in their homes.

Other items crossing the block that day included lamps, glassware, Native American items, toys and furniture. There was also an impressive collection of 1929-1983 University of Iowa Hawkeye Homecoming and Bowl game buttons. What a neat piece of history for a Hawkeye fan!!

a game for 2-4 players
 Need: counters, dice

Each player puts a counter on START. Take turns to roll the dice. Move the number of spaces on the dice, read the word and give a word that rhymes, e.g. land on wish and you could say dish.

If you can't give a rhyming word, go back to the last space you were on. Land on an elf - go back to the start. First to the FINISH is the winner.

AUCTION ACTION ANTIQUE NEWS WE'RE EVERYWHERE!

Doll Lovers and Collectors!

Mark your Calendars for March 18, 2017 to attend the 46th Annual Madison Area Doll Club Show and Sale “Dolls from the Attic”

Article by Vicki Kutz
(The Madison Area Doll Club of Wisconsin)

For the past 45 years, the Madison Area Doll Club has put on one of the premiere doll shows in the Midwest. Held in Madison, Wisconsin it is easily accessed by many of Midwest doll enthusiasts. The show features over 40 of the best doll vendors from the Midwest in over 20,000 square feet of well-lit display space! Dolls of all eras and types are represented, including antique, vintage, modern, and artist dolls. Also included are doll clothing, accessories, doll house miniatures, furniture and anything doll-related!

You will find among the treasures anything from Barbie Dolls to French Jumeau's. Antique German and French dolls are well-represented as well as vintage 1950s dolls, including Vogue Ginny, Madame Alexander, Ideal and others. Cloth and Felt dolls will include makers such as Lenci, Poir, Kathe Kruse and more! Modern dolls such as American Girl and others will provide you with many choices. Artist dolls include reborn doll artists as well as well-known national doll artist dolls. A doll shopper's paradise for either the beginning collector or seasoned veteran!

Our vendors include well-known local, regional and national doll sellers, including Fritzi's Antique Dolls, Victoria's Doll House, Ducks and Dolls, Linda's Doll House, Edelweiss Dolls and many more. We will also have some new vendors joining us this year. We are still accepting vendors for this show. Please see contact information below.

In addition to the opportunity to view and purchase merchandise at sales tables, free doll appraisals are offered and repair consultations will be available. New this year will be our silent auction with items that you can bid on. That will add to the fun! As always, we will have a free grand prize drawing that some lucky attendee will win. We also feature our club members' doll display. The display will be based on our show theme “Dolls from the Attic” where many different types of dolls are represented in various scenes.

A food court area will be present in the exhibition hall and offers delicious salads, sandwiches, coffee and beverages. There is also an area with chairs so you can sit down and take a break, as well as chat with other doll lovers about your purchases or things you have seen at the show.

The Madison Area Doll Club of Wisconsin, an affiliate of United Federation of Doll Clubs (UFDC), is a non-profit organization. Profits from the event support other local and national non-profit organizations.

Mark the date: Saturday, March 18th from 9:00 AM to 3:00 PM at the Alliant Energy Center Exhibition Hall, 1919 Alliant Energy Way, Madison WI 53713. Admission is $5.00 per person with children under 18 years of age free. There is a $7.00 per vehicle parking fee at Alliant.

For additional information or dealer inquiries, please contact Vicki Kutz at 608-279-5298 or via email: dollcoll@charter.net

15th Annual Antique Sporting & Advertising Show Set For February 3rd & 4th

Article by Nona Amour Wilson (Northstar Collective)

This coming February 3rd and 4th marks the 15th Annual Antique Sporting and Advertising Show held in Oshkosh, Wisconsin at the Sunnyview Expo Center. The event is conveniently located just off Hwy 41 in the Heart of the Fox Valley, an easy drive from Milwaukee, Chicago, Madison, and Green Bay.

This past year's gathering did not disappoint show goers, due to the great and diverse inventory dealers had on display to choose from. Last year's participants, along with many new dealers committing early promises to make for an even a greater show experience than before.

Dealers will be selling, buying and trading a large variety of hunting, fishing, trapping and Indian Artifacts, sure to please the discerning collector. There are also many top dealers from across the country who specialize in old signs, toys and general store advertising. In addition, sports memorabilia has always been a main stay of the show, along with the booths offering an abundance of great pieces that can be used to decorate your home, cabin or special man cave.

Pearmont Antiques will be bringing this Pan-Am 42" DSP sign, excellent condition, $2,250. Auction Action Antique News writer and photographer, Brian Maloney, said "Whether you are looking for a $10 fishing lure, a $100 decoy, or a $1000.00 porcelain sign, it's a good bet you'll find it here. Even if you are not a collector, the Oshkosh Antique Sporting and Advertising Show is still one of the most interesting shows you could attend".

This event reflects America's past. It's like taking a walk down the main street of good ol' USA. Promoters, Northstar Collective, hope to engage the entire family to come and enjoy this rare opportunity to view such a great part of history.

The show doors opens to the public on Friday, February 3rd at 10 am sharp and close at 6 pm. Saturday, February 4th the doors will open at 9 am and the show closes at 3 pm. Adult ticket prices at the door will be $6.00 per person. Children under 15 will be freely admitted. There will be a food concession on site.
