Beautiful Pieces Cross the Block at Beloit Auction & Realty

Article & photos by Beloit Auction & Realty

On Wednesday, September 28th, Beloit Auction & Realty held a multi-estate auction at their facility in Beloit, Wisconsin. There was an impressive selection of contemporary, vintage and antique furniture that crossed the block that day. Furniture included Mid-Century Modern, Mission, Art Deco, Art Nouveau, Victorian, Empire, Rococo, as well as select 1800's pieces.

Fabulous oak corner curio cabinet with applied carving and curved glass doors sold for $850.

Victorian red satin diamond quilt Gone With The Wind lamp, electrified, sold for $600.

Folk Art oil painting ... "Musician", 31.5 in. x 27.5 in., sold for $600.

This Eastlake Victorian mahogany bookcase brought $750.

A Victorian walnut marble top three drawer chest with candle stands brought $600.

Sunny Skies & Sold Out Crowd of Dealers Make Chicagoland Antique Advertising, Slot Machine & Jukebox Show a Success

Article & photos by Jack Kelly

"I think there are more goodies here than I've seen in years," said one dealer who was setting up at the semi-annual Chicagoland Advertising, Slot Machine and Jukebox Show held Nov. 11-13. The setting was, as usual, at Pheasant Run Resort in St. Charles, Illinois, 35 miles west of Chicago.

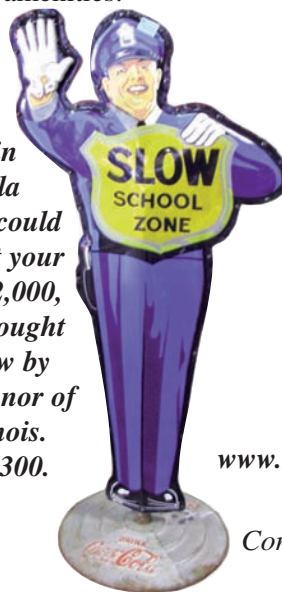

Both the event and the resort hotel advertise as being "family friendly," and from the look of visitors that description was right on target, with moms, dads and kids rubbing elbows with serious collectors as they went shopping, selling and enjoying the resort's amenities.

Soda pop machine collectors hovered around a seldom seen Dr. Pepper Vendo 27 upright vending machine priced at $4,650 by Todd Perkins of St. Joseph, MO. Cigarette machines at the same spot were tagged $1,750 to $4,000 each. 816-261-5239

A life-size tin Coca-Cola policeman could stand tall at your place for $2,000, and was brought to the show by Mike O'Connor of Lisle, Illinois. 630-247-7300.

A 1941 7' tall Rockola Commando jukebox could glow brightly and play 78 rpm records at your place for $20,000. It was shown by John Papa of National Juke Box Exchange, Mayfield, N.Y. www.nationaljukebox.com

Out & About Happy New Year!

We hope everyone had a wonderful Christmas holiday. We definitely got the white Christmas. As I have stated before, my son Brandon loves to use the snowblower. He was even more proud when my husband Todd and I had to go out of state for a few days and left him in charge of taking care of his sisters. He made sure the snow was removed every morning for them from not only their cars, but the driveway as well. He got up at 5am to do this and had their cars warmed and ready for them. They paid their appreciation in pizza. Our Christmas morning was a quiet one, everyone slept in.

We had a relaxing dinner and watched a movie together.

As most of you know, this is our first paper back after our holiday break.

We hope that you took some time to take in an auction, show or visit a antique shop over our break. Please always let our advertisers know where you saw their ad. This helps them know their advertising dollar is working for them, as well as us. There are many upcoming events before Valentines, so keep that sweetheart in mind.

More Dealers - More Great Pieces at the Chicagoland Antique Advertising, Slot Machine & Jukebox Show

Article & photos by Jack Kelly

It was the third time at Chicagoland for David Cogan and 12-year-old son Max who flew in from Scottsdale, Ariz., to shop for "old wood constructed antique coin op gambling machines" for Dad while son Max enjoyed the electronic arcade versions. Teen daughter Farrah, who had attended the show in the past, elected to stay home this time, making the visit a "Dad and Lad event." Father and son agreed they were again "impressed by the fantastic stuff at the show."

It also was the third time at the show for Nathan Lippe to bring along 6-year-old daughter Charlotte from Hanover Park, Ill. Lippe was set up to show and sell vintage advertising signs -and again was assisted in sales by his small fry. The little saleslady popped a vintage cap on her head and wore a big smile as she peeked through a full size 1940s Armstrong Tire with double-sided tin advertising sign priced at $300. Lippe, known for unusual neon signs, pointed to his 30-by 58-inch Marigold Ice Cream light-up sign priced at $2,100.

Still more antique neon signs plus hundreds of unusual pieces were displayed among the 10 booths of Bill Rawski. A bright red 8-foot-long Mercury automobile neon sign could hang in your garage for $9,500. A 30-inch-diameter double-sided two color Used Cars neon could light your night for $12,500. Both were 1950-60s era. The dealer said he has hundreds of other items at his 72,000-square-foot fabrication, sales and prop warehouse, Zap Props, Inc., in Chicago.

One of the tallest and most expensive, juke boxes at the show was the original light-up 7-foot-tall 1941 Rockola Commando that could play twenty 78 rpm records at your place for $20,000. At the same spot, dealer John Papa of National Juke Box Exchange in Mayfield, N.Y., offered a finely crafted reproduction of an 8-foot-tall 1904 Mills Roaring Lion lung tester. The quartersawn white oak device, with giant lion head, could be operated for one penny, and be yours for $15,000. The finely crafted coin op piece was said to be one of two examples constructed by artists "working on and off over a two year period."

Another massive music machine, an original Mills Violano Virtuoso Bowfront standing 6-feet-tall with quartersawn oak construction, was shown by Frank Zygumt Jr. of Westmont, Ill. The historic device could offer both actual piano and violin tunes for a nickel each -- along with a purchase price of $125,000. At the same spot, another quartersawn oak example, a 1910 Mills floor model gambling slot machine with stick gum vendor, was tagged at $40,000.

Are there still rare and unknown coin op machines to be discovered? "Oh yes!" gushed collector Bill Howard of Akron, Ohio, with a broad smile, pointing to an 18-inch-tall aluminum coin operated "Strike Out" trade stimulator baseball machine he had just purchased. Howard shook hands with dealer John Herook of Wynnfield, Mass., after purchasing the pyramid-shaped device, with embossed baseball bats on the front, for $4,500.

Vending machines of all kinds were plentiful at the event but only one dealer showed a 1920s round glass globe Leebolt fancy cast aluminum 18-inch-tall vendor - complete with circular tin top containing small advertising signs. The rare machine was priced at $5,495 and brought to the show by Jack Freund of Springfield, Wis. Still others checked out his restored 3-foot-tall 1920-30s Beechnut coin op machines in four different colors and priced $1,195 to $1,595 each. The veteran dealer said he has been showing on and off at Chicagoland, "since the beginning."

Junior size Mills QT slot machines are popular with collectors, and you could take your choice from four different restored models priced from $1,600 to $3,000 each at the booth of Rick Hector and Claire Chacon of Lakeland, Colo. The pair traveled 1,100 miles to the show, driving "over 15 hours from beginning to end" according to Chacon. A full-size restored Mills Diamond front slot at the same spot was priced at $1,600.

Corn, soybean and wheat farmers Dale and Carol Small Carol drove more than 10 hours from Neodesha, Kan., because as Dale said, "I got the juke box bug again." The pair were shopping and checking out several models early in the show, but had not made a final decision to purchase on the first day. When asked how many music machines he has, Dale thought for a moment, looked into space and said "I think there's nine."

"Ooh, that one is rare!" chirped one shopper pointing to a 1949 Dr Pepper Vendo 27 upright soda pop bottle vendor. Dealer Todd Perkins of St. Joseph, Mo., told the shopper, "You can take it home for $4,650." The dealer also offered a group of fully restored 1930s floor model cigarette machines priced from $1,750 to $4,000 each.

As was the case at the spring Chicagoland Show, some collectors and shoppers with kids in tow took advantage of the Pheasant Run Resort indoor-outdoor swimming pool and specially planned family activities. Once again, the covered walkways between the hotel and Mega Center show location offered easy access over the weekend.

Collectors and shoppers will meet again April 7 - 9, 2017, at Pheasant Run in St. Charles for the semi-annual show.

Dealers can get information from co-promoter Bob Traynoff at 1-847-244-9263. Show information is available from co-promoter Kevin Greco at 1-815-353-1593 and at www.chicagolandshow.com

Collector David Cogan and son Max, 12, once again flew to the Chicagoland show from Scottsdale, Ariz. Max tested his skills on an electronic arcade machine offered by Fat Cat Amusement Ltd., of Round Lake, Ill. Offerings at the booth were priced from $1,000 to $1,900 each. 847-927-6213

This double-sided 30-inch-diameter neon sign could light up your garage for $12,500. An 8-foot-long Mercury neon could do the same for $9,500.

The classic originals were two of hundreds of items spread across 10 booths from the warehouse of Bill Rawski, Zap Props Inc., Chicago.

www.zapprops.com

Buyer Bill Howard, left, shows off a never-before-seen coin operated baseball trade stimulator he purchased for $4,500 from dealer John Herook of Wynnfield, Mass.

John Papa of National Juke Box Exchange, Mayfield, N.Y. and son Michael stopped for a moment while showing off his reproduction 1904 Mills Roaring Lion coin op machine priced at $15,000. www.nationaljukebox.com

Four finely refinished Mills QT slot machines were priced from $1,600 to $3,000 each by Rick Hector and Claire Chacon of Lakeland, Colo. The couple also showed off a full size Mills Diamond Front that could be taken home for $1,600. Rhector10@hotmail.com

Dealer Nathan Lippe returned to the show once again from his home in Hanover Park, Ill., and was again assisted in sales by 6-year-old daughter Charlotte. The small fry gave a sales pitch while peeking through an Armstrong Tire with double-sided tin advertising sign priced at $300. Many stopped to admire their 1940s 58" long ice cream sign priced at $2,100. 630-390-8486.

Vending machine collector foot traffic came to a halt at the booth of Jack Freund, Springfield, Wis. Their object of desire was an 18" tall fancy cast aluminum Leebolt vendor with circular-shaped tin top containing tiny advertising signs and priced at $5,495. Gum collectors admired the set of 15-inch-tall 1920s Beech-Nut vendors priced at $1,195 to $1,595 each. 262-723-7341.

Frank Zygmunt Jr., Westmont, Ill., shows off one of the most expensive items at the show. It's a quartersawn oak 1910 Mills Violano Virtuoso Bowfront that could play piano and violin tunes for a nickel - and a purchase price of $125,000. 630-985-2742

A genuine "barn find" 1929 Elgin bike could be ridden home - or displayed - for $2,600 at the booth of A2 Vintage, Ypsilanti, Mich. Gas station collectors "oohed and ahhed" over their new-old-stock Dixie Gas globe priced at $1,700. a2vintageindustrial@gmail.com.

Carnival collectors checked over the lineup offered by Art and Barb Herzog of Flushing, Mich. The fun pieces could be displayed for $35 to $75 each. 810-732-2448.

Three collector/dealer friends hammed it up with special hats in the parking lot of the show. They are, (from left) George Budzik, Bernie Lasiewicz and George Kesely. "I've got the biggest hat because I've got more brains" chuckled Kesely, who received blank stares from his two friends upon hearing the remark.

Dave Hamilton D-n-D Pinball, Clauson, Mich., stopped to chat with Phil Hubbert, Arcades At Home, Romeoville, Ill. Hubbert said he had 12 machines at the show priced from $2,800 to $9,500 each with an "100 or more at the shop." Hamilton said he was more of a hobby-collector and said with a chuckle "I haven't parked in the garage for 25 years." pinballphil@yahoo.com & dhwings@ameritech.net

"Toy guns are selling for more than real guns" said dealer Keith Miller of Akron, Ohio. Part of his display at Chicagoland included examples from 1934- 1950 priced from $100 - $500 each. 330-958-0207.

Once again Joe and Antonette Rabito from Lake Zurich, Ill., displayed Las Vegas memorabilia at the show, including over 200 poker chips. Two examples included a 1960s and 2010 chip from the Sahara priced at $29 and $15. The couple sell all year long from there website, www.lasvegasgiftstoreonline.com

Many dealer/collectors use vanity license plates and auto/truck advertising efforts as seen on one vehicle at the Chicagoland Show.

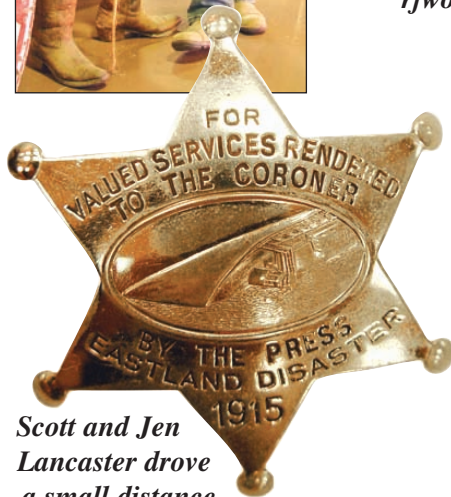

A rarely seen complete display of "Smokers Fun" novelty items, circa 1940s was offered at $250 by dealer Julius Sciarra of Natick, Mass. At the same spot, a 14 x 18" tin ice cream advertising sign could be taken home for $59. sciarra@tiac.net

Dealer Rob Wolfe of LaClaire, Iowa seems to be having a conversation with a life-size fiberglass cowboy with real hat and boots priced at $1,000 at the show. Catching many an eye at the same spot was a 2-foot-wide wood and fiberglass advertising display for Talon Zipper Co., tagged $2,000. rjwolfsales@gmail.com

Kansas farmer, and jukebox collector, Dale Small, confers with wife Carol looking over a vintage jukebox at the booth of Steve Cardon, Salt Lake City Ut. The dealer offered a wide variety of vintage jukes at the November event. 801-631-1488

Scott and Jen Lancaster drove a small distance from their home in St. Charles to offer an original 1915 press badge from the famous Chicago Eastland Ship disaster. The 3" tall nickel over brass piece could be worn home for $2,500. Scott, an avid fire fighter collector said he was also shopping the show to find goodies for his personal collection. 630-651-2396.

Damon Granger of Honor, Mich., showed off a full compliment of coin operated gun games priced from $800-$2,200. Coke collectors checked out his light-up cash register topper tagged $425. 248-910-6765.

Randy Fry traveled to Chicagoland from Elmira, N.Y., bringing along a Superior Toy Co., electric power 30" long Pleasure Craft priced at $1,200. His 16" tall G.E. light advertising display was priced at $150. 607-739-1608.

Tony Konezke of Arlington Heights, Ill., uses a pair of Seeburg jukeboxes as arm rests at the show. The "arm rests" were priced (from left) at $3,000 and $5,200 each. 847-513-1368.

John Turney of Chicago puts a final touch on some of the items found at this booth. Radio collectors checked out his Fada Bullet Caitlin butter-scotch & red color model priced at $750. 773-575-3139.

The place to be Monday January 2nd, 2017!

No Reserve auction of Early American Antiques to begin the New Year in Jefferson Wisconsin!

Gregory Klug Sr. is celebrating the birthday of his father the Late Gene Klug, who founded the family Auction company 57 years ago, with the honor of selling important antiques of 4 private Wisconsin estates and is including them in his Monday, January 2nd, 2017 auction at the Jefferson County Fair Park in Jefferson, Wisconsin. Come and enjoy Gene's favorite past time & passion "Antiques" while enjoying a piece of cake "while it lasts", and a visit with his one true love, Victoria. If you're in search of true American Antiques, and wonderful quality items, this will be a great way to begin a new year! One estate originally came from eastern Ohio and brought along 18th century American furniture including a wonderful New England fall front desk, candle stands, chests of drawers and accessories to match such as clocks, mirrors, Currier & Ives art, original paintings, Staffordshire dogs & more. Also 19th century furniture including an Empire sofa, 2 piece dry sink cupboard, pint top pine table, pine pie safe, early wood barrel with advertising, 1 and 2 drawer stands & much more, such as Enterprise & Clark small size cast iron coffee mills, wood coffee mills. One estate consists of figural clocks by Ansonia and Waterbury, bronzes both antique and contemporary, Jewelry, Tiffany & other art glass, Fenton glass, Hummels, hanging & table lamps, pottery and so much more..., and we can't forget to mention the several early photo albums & daguerreotypes, music boxes, antique & vintage children books, Bibles, & other important books, antique guns including an 1873 Colt revolver gun with mother of pearl grips. One family moved to Wisconsin from Mankato, MN in the early 20th century, so there are important advertising items and a plat book from there as well. There are also Masonic items both Jewelry & paper goods. Can't attend the auction? Absentee & phone bids will be accepted for important items. Watch for the ad in the December issues of the Auction Action News, and visit the website www.WisAuction.com for hundreds of photos.

West Bend Antique Show Under New Ownership in 2017

Article & Photos by Larry Kaczmarek
(Village Blacksmith Antiques)

Veteran antiques dealer and show promoter Larry Kaczmarek of Village Blacksmith Antiques is now at the helm of the 2017 West Bend Antique & Fine Art Show slated for Saturday, January 20th from 9:00 am-5:00 pm and Sunday, January 21st. from 9:00 am-3:00 pm.

The West Bend show and sale is a two-day event held at the beautiful Washington County Fair Complex. Admission is $5 good for both days of the sale. Children under 16 are free and parents are encouraged to bring their family along. Strollers and wheelchairs are welcome. The building is handicap accessible. Parking is free. Food and beverage will be available from Bryan's Catering.

This popular and well-run show was previously under the management of Skip and Nona Knapp of N.L.Promotions, LLC for the past 16 years. They are also the promoters of the highly successful Elkhorn Antiques Flea Market held in May, June, August and September each year at the Walworth County Fairgrounds in Wisconsin since 1982.

The Knapps approached Kaczmarek about taking over the West Bend Show in early 2016 because of his 6 years of experience successfully promoting the Madison Antique Show and his 20 years of experience as a dealer who sells exclusively at monthly antique shows and sales throughout the State of Wisconsin.

"I've known Larry for a number of years and saw that he is well-respected in the business," stated Nona Knapp. "In addition, dealer confidence in his skills as a promoter and implementer of innovative ideas assured me he was the right pick to continue on with the success of the show."

One of his ideas, for example, is to incorporate a Scavenger Hunt into the show. Special antiques from his personal stock are hidden in plain sight in each booth. Every hour a photo of an item is revealed. Whoever finds the item gets to keep it, and wins a small prize. Not only is it a fun way to engage children, it also gets the adults to visit every booth at the show.

One thing that won't change with the new ownership is the outstanding quality and variety of dealers who sell at the West Bend Show. The event features knowledgeable and friendly dealers showcasing antiques and collectibles from Mid-Century Modern to Art Deco and Mission; from Country Primitives to Art Nouveau and Victorian. The array of merchandise for sale includes furniture, clocks, home decor, garden, decorative art, glassware, hand woven carpets & rugs, Native American, maps, linens & quilts, toys, sporting goods, advertising, fine art and jewelry displayed in 55 attractively designed booths.

"The West Bend Antique Show is a family-oriented event that encourages adults and youth to explore, discover, learn about and even own a piece of the past. These items were used and cherished by our ancestors," says Kaczmarek. "We can teach our children to appreciate old things by showing them that an antique show is more of a treasure hunt, if you will. The workmanship and beauty of some of these items make them real treasures."

"For example, just give a child a marble and a flashlight and show him how to use the flashlight to see the beauty glowing inside a tiny little marble and watch his face light up."

So, if you're looking for something to do this winter that's sure to warm your heart, take your family to the West Bend Antique & Fine Art Show on January 20 & 21, 2017 at the Washington County Fair Park, Hwy 45 & PV (Pleasant Valley Rd.), West Bend, WI. For more information, visit The 2017 WestBendAntiqueShow.com.

One of Larry's favorite sayings is "Find a way to get there" because it's an event you and your family won't want to miss!

Many nice wood furniture pieces including this sled, will be in Kenneth Schneider's booth.

Front & back view of a Hamilton printers cabinet, 105 drawers, 6' long, will be on display in Dale Anderson's booth.

Paul Peshorn from It's About Time will be bringing this Spool cabinet, logos front and back, $645;

Workbench/kitchen island $445; Dye cabinet, excellent condition, $545; Table/desk with inkstand, $125. He will also be bringing over 100 clocks and pocket watches.

Two early 1900's oil paintings & a Conan Doyle's stories for boys from 1938 with original dust jacket; three beaded purses and an ivory match safe with inlaid flowers and insects. Will be displayed in Laura's Collectibles booth.

Tom Pearson of Pearmont Antiques will be bringing this Cased Colt 1851 Navy w/accessories; 1953 #98 Racer by Yonezawa; 1929 VINDEX John Deere tractor; 42" Porcelain Buick sign-circa 1920-30's; 1928 Arcade Hathaway Bakery truck; 1939 COCA COLA Salesman Sample Cooler.

A Blast From The Past at the February 11th & 12th Wausau Antique Show

Article by Audre & Ray Hanson (AR Promotions)

Wisconsin's favorite Antique Show since 1985 is the Wausau Antique Show, with a reputation of selling diverse & impressive Antiques, Vintage Finds & Eclectic Designs from 1870 to Mid Century for collectors, decorators, & hobbyists.

The sale is February 11th & 12th at D.C. Everest High School, 2305 Jelinek Ave., Weston, Wisconsin (5 miles South of Wausau) Saturday 9-5 & Sunday 10-4. Admission is $5.00, good for both days & Free Parking! Mary Lou's Crystal & China Repair will be on site to assist you, also there will be a clock repairer on site.

This is your opportunity to spend the day or weekend finding your special treasure. Perhaps an early American made Bookcase of a Vintage watch will catch your eye as you walk the nice wide aisles from booth to booth with over 50 exhibitors who will assist you with your collection, décor, curiosity or just discussing the history of "Look what I Found".

You are able to see & touch Folk Art, Lures, paintings, clocks, wrist watches, coins, furniture, stoneware, toys & dolls, a booth of Rockers, Am. Indian & Sport items, shabby chic, post cards, early metal-ware, Mission, Art Glass, primitives, advertising, textiles, tools, garden, military, Industrial, architectural, fine jewelry, valentines & more!

The show is exceptional & you have only two days to find your Treasure! Enjoy this wonderful Antique-Finding weekend in Central Wisconsin! Directions from the North, South, West: take Hwy 39/51 to exit 185, go North to Jelinek Avenue. From the East: take Hwy 29W to Exit 171, go North to Jelinek Avenue. Golf Collectors Society

The Golf Collectors Society is an international organization dedicated to preserving the treasures and traditions of the game of golf. Founded in 1970 by Robert Kuntz and Joseph S. F. Murdoch, the organization today has over 1400 members from 15 different countries.

The Society's website features a masthead showing a golf memorabilia collection. Three sections underneath give a brief overview of what the group is all about, a center section on recent news and a block for text style ads. This gives the homepage a nice, clean and uncluttered appearance, yet traditional in approach.

Links across the top take site visitors to various segments including a webzine section, resources, events, a forum, membership, faq, links, and how to contact the Society.

We like the well-thoughtout membership page which briefly explains and visualizes some of the member benefits, plus providing contact information and a membership form. The links page includes links to several other golf collecting associations.

The faq section (frequently asked questions) is very simple and yet, very helpful. This is a section that should be considered on every collecting club's website. It simply and briefly answers questions like: Who belongs? How do I determine the value of items? Are there Society shows that are open to the public? How do I determine when an item was made? Where can I get more information? etc.

By spending only a couple of minutes on the site, if a visitor has an interest in collecting or studying golf memorabilia, it would be hard to resist joining!

15th Annual Antique Sporting & Advertising Show Set For February 3rd & 4th

Article by Nona Amour Wilson (Northstar Collective)

This coming February 3rd and 4th marks the 15th Annual Antique Sporting and Advertising Show held in Oshkosh, Wisconsin at the Sunnyview Expo Center. The event is conveniently located just off Hwy 41 in the Heart of the Fox Valley, an easy drive from Milwaukee, Chicago, Madison, and Green Bay.

This past year's gathering did not disappoint show goers, due to the great and diverse inventory dealers had on display to choose from. Last year's participants, along with many new dealers committing early promises to make for an even a greater show experience than before.

Dealers will be selling, buying and trading a large variety of hunting, fishing, trapping and Indian Artifacts, sure to please the discerning collector. There are also many top dealers from across the country who specialize in old signs, toys and general store advertising. In addition, sports memorabilia has always been a main stay of the show, along with the booths offering an abundance of great pieces that can be used to decorate freely admitted. There will be a food concession on site.

Auction Action Antique News writer and photographer, Brian Maloney, said "Whether you are looking for a $10 fishing lure, a $100 decoy, or a $1,000.00 porcelain sign, it's a good bet you'll find it here. Even if you are not a collector, the Oshkosh Antique Sporting and Advertising Show is still one of the most interesting shows you could attend". This event reflects America's past. It's like taking a walk down the main street of good ol' USA. Promoters, Northstar Collective, hope to engage the entire family to come and enjoy this rare opportunity to view such a great part of history.

The show doors opens to the public on Friday, February 3rd at 10 am sharp and close at 6 pm.

Saturday, February 4th the doors will open at 9 am and the show closes at 3 pm.

Adult ticket prices at the door will be $6.00 per person. Children under 15 will be

Antique Motorcycle Club of America

The Antique Motorcycle Club of America was founded in 1954 by a group of antique-bike fans in the New England area (pictured from left are T.A. Hodgdon, Emmett Moore, Henry Wing Sr., and Henry Wing Jr.). AMCA FoundersIn the decades since, the AMCA has grown to become one of the largest organizations of antique-motorcycle enthusiasts in the world, with 11,000 members in the United States and more than a dozen other countries.

From the beginning, the purpose of the club has been the "preservation, restoration and operation of old-time motorcycles." Members of the AMCA own, restore, preserve, study or just admire motorcycles that fall into the antique category, meaning they are at least 35 years old. Although the Club is based in the United States, fans of motorcycles from all countries are welcome, and ownership of an antique motorcycle is not required to become a member.

Through its network of 59 affiliated Chapters in the U.S. and abroad, the AMCA provides a way for antique-bike fans to share their interest with others in their local area. Chapters typically host regular meetings, plus activities like bike shows, swap meets and antique-bike road runs.

At the national and international level, the AMCA maintains a calendar of National Meets and Road Runs that include some of the premier antique-motorcycle gatherings in the world. National Meets typically include a large vendor area, where members can sell everything from antique-bike parts to entire motorcycles that are at least 35 years old. In addition, National Meets offer a full schedule of other activities, ranging from seminars and bike shows to motorcycle field games and antique-bike racing.

All National Meets also feature the AMCA's National Judging Program, in which members' motorcycles can win awards in three categories: Restored, Original Condition or Period Modified. Instead of competing against each other, bikes entered in the AMCA Judging Program are evaluated on a 100-point scale against the standard of the same motorcycle as it would have appeared when it originally left the factory.

National Road Runs provide an opportunity to use these classic machines for their intended purpose—riding on back roads in some of the most scenic parts of the country.

In addition to those events, AMCA members also get access to a number of benefits, including a high-quality magazine six times per year, online forums where they can seek advice from experts, and the AMCA Virtual Motorcycle Library, featuring downloadable copies of hundreds of old and rare sales brochures, parts lists and repair manuals. Plus, AMCA members receive discounts on admission to some of the country's premier motorcycle museums.

Mostly, though, people join the AMCA to meet up with others who share their interest in machines from the classic era of motorcycling. For some, that means the satisfaction that comes from investing thousands of hours in bringing a rusted hulk back to its original perfection. To others, it means preserving artifacts of the past so that they can be appreciated by future generations, or the simple pleasure of enjoying a two-lane road at an unhurried pace—just like motorcyclists generations ago.

Does that sound like you? Why not join with thousands of other like-minded antique-bike fans by becoming a member of the AMCA? Visit www.antiquemotorcycle.org

Multi-Estate Auction at Beloit Auction & Realty in September

Article & photos by Beloit Auction & Realty

Also crossing the block that day was some nice art work, pottery, clocks, coin glass, and sterling silver pieces. This was a great sale for collectors to add to their inventory!

"Our large facility in Beloit houses our stateline real estate offices as well as our auction gallery, where we conduct weekly Wednesday auctions of antiques, collectibles, household goods, tool, equipment, and other personal property. We're open Monday through Saturday or accommodate our clients and hold personal property auction previews on Tuesday and Wednesday each week," Ranft explains. "We also conduct frequent live online auctions, allowing bidders from around the world to find treasures from our sellers."

The real estate branch of the firm handles Wisconsin and Illinois properties with a strong emphasis on the auction method of selling. With real estate offices in Beloit and Palatine, Illinois, the company handles a wide range of properties – residential, commercial, and rural. "We've been selling real estate at auction for years and bring a wealth of experience to our clients," states Ranft. Serving all of Rock County WI including Janesville, Beloit, Clinton, Avalon, Edgerton, Afton and all of Walworth County including Lake Geneva, Fontana, Delavan, Walworth, Williams Bay, Darien all of Winnebago County including Rockford, Rockton, Roscoe, and South Beloit.

There's also a steady flow of personal property appraisal work from attorneys, trust offices, and individuals.

"Our cutting edge use of the internet gives all of our customers many benefits," Ranft notes. "We strive to bring the world to Beloit."

Beloit Auction and Realty can be reached at 877-364-1965 and be sure to visit their website at: www.beloitauction.com.

National Autumn Leaf Collectors Club

We love and collect the famous Autumn Leaf pattern, one of the most-popular vintage china patterns in America. The many and varied dinnerware pieces, produced by the Hall China Company, were sold door-to-door by Jewel Tea Company salesmen for many years. Numerous accessory pieces, including metal, paper, plastic, cloth and glass items were also offered.

These beautiful dishes were often the centerpiece of family dinners and bring back many wonderful memories of our mothers, grandmothers, aunts or neighbors. Special memories of helping Grandma make pudding in the custard cups, setting the table with Mom's "good dishes," or smelling the wonderful aroma of fresh coffee and tea that was delivered directly to our homes continue to remind us of many happy times with our loved ones.

The NALCC offers a full-color newsletter six times per year, special commemorative Autumn Leaf items, many options for adding to your own collection, an Autumn Leaf Price Guide, a popular National Convention with an Autumn Leaf/Jewel Tea Show & Sale, Autumn Leaf Auction and much fun and fellowship with collectors from across the United States. If you haven't already joined us, do it today!

We encourage you to become a member of the National Autumn Leaf Collectors Club®. Additionally, you may know someone who collects Autumn Leaf chinaware and wish to gift a NALCC membership for that person. Our annual membership fee is $30.00. We welcome and introduce our new members through our newsletter. Visit: <http://www.nalcc.org>

40th Year for Janesville Mid-Winter Antique Show

Article by Steve Bina

The Janesville Mid-Winter antique show reaches a milestone this year as it celebrates 40 years of providing Southern Wisconsin a quality antique and vintage show to open the New Year. The show will once again be held at Janesville's Pontiac Conference Center at 2809 North Pontiac Drive. The show opens on Saturday January 7 at 9:00 AM closing at 5:00 PM, and continues on Sunday, January 8th from 10:00 AM to 3:30 PM.

Many of the show's dealers return year after year, but each year we have the opportunity to welcome one or two new dealers to the mix. This year we have a dealer coming from the Minneapolis area that specializes in antique maps, etchings, prints, postcards, and fine art. As always we will have dealers exhibiting room-ready furniture, mid-century and retro, primitives, linens, advertising, sporting items, coins, vintage clothing, repurposed items, toys, stoneware, and much more. You will certainly be able to find that special item to add to the décor of your home or workplace.

Returning once again to the show will be Mary Lou Gates and her husband Bob who are experts at repairing and re-assembling crystal and china and can do so while you shop or you can drop off your pieces and return later for pickup. Their service is recommended by Angies List, listed in Kovel's Antiques Price Guide and have worked with the Illinois Governor's Mansion, the National Archives Museum in Washington D.C. and extensively in the Chicago metro area.

Show manager Steve Bina commented "We're really excited to have their service at the show. Dealers save their damaged pieces for months waiting for an opportunity to bring them to the Gate's for repair. Anyone who has damaged heirlooms and glass should take advantage of this opportunity."

Also returning are Aluminum Display Case specialists, who will have every item you need to protect and exhibit your family heirlooms.

If you're curious about the show, visit our new Facebook page : "Janesville Mid-Winter Antique Show", which has many pictures of last year's show, additional information, and pictures of new items coming to this year's show. Feel free to post a comment.

Admission to the show is $5.00. If you clip AAN display ad, bring it along to save an extra 50¢. As always Best Events catering will provide excellent food throughout the event, so come for the show and stay for lunch. For additional information about the show, feel free to contact show Manager Steve Bina at (608)-385-3598.

Cedarburg Maxwell Street Days Celebrates 50th Year!

Article & photos Cedarburg Maxwell Street

This event has been a Volunteer Fire Department Tradition since 1966 and the major fundraiser for our Department. Currently we have 4 Maxwell Street Days each year and all take place at our Firemen's Park - W65 N796 Washington Avenue, just a few blocks north of Cedarburg's historic district.

We have over 600 spaces available to be filled with antiques, collectibles, attic & basement treasures, crafters, produce, seasonal items, pottery, tools, sports, old toys, rummage, garage finds, family collections, vintage treasures, architectural items, farm items and much more! You will find over 100 volunteer members along with their family and friends helping to serve up food/beverages and assist you throughout the grounds. We try to have all spaces reserved prior to each of our events, but we will always keep a few spaces available prior to event for any new vendors. We are always looking for new quality vendors to join us for any event or for the entire year.

Our event opens to the public at 6am and vendors are asked to stay set-up until 2pm. Admission is FREE. There is adjacent and convenient parking to the north of grounds for $10, which is coordinated by our Cedarburg American Legion Post # 288. Event takes place rain or shine and sorry, no animals, fireworks, pornographic materials, weapons, takeoffs or counterfeit merchandise are permitted on our grounds during any of the events. It is always a great day of "Treasure Hunting" with family and friends of all ages.

The Cedarburg Volunteer Fire Department Members and their Families would like to thank you for supporting our Maxwell Street Day Fundraisers

Antique & Appraisal School Celebrates Half-Century Milestone

Asheford Director, Charles Green Celebrating School's 50th Anniversary

While not quite considered an "antique" just yet, the Asheford Institute of Antiques, a professional-level distance learning program on antiques, collectibles, and appraising, turned fifty this past week, marking a milestone in antiques and appraising education, as the longest running Institute of its kind. Although the school premiered its home-study program to the antique world in late 1965, it didn't officially open its doors to students until 1966.

"We've seen an awful lot of changes since our inception" said Peter Green, the Institute's original founder. Green, who started the school based on the notion that there was a need for antique and appraisal education, said he could hardly believe how the antique and appraisal services market had grown over the past 50 years - "I can remember when antique stores were hard to find... now you can tap your phone and find virtually anything instantly!"

During the 1980's, Green's son, Charles took over the day-to-day operations of Asheford, and is the school's current director. When asked what he thought represented the Institute's high-water mark over the past fifty-years, Green unabashedly responded that the introduction of the school's new online e-Course earlier this year was a game-changer for antique and appraisal education in general. "The e-Course allowed us to bring a half-century worth of teaching expertise to a new and expanded format," said Green. "With the ability to use online interactive multimedia for instruction, we've really been able to raise the bar in antiques and appraising education for our students." Green went on to say that although online instruction had obviously become the new norm, the "text-book" version would still be offered for a number of years to come.

According to a press statement, as part of the school's year-long celebration, staff from the Institute will also participate in a traveling roadshow to commemorate the school's 50th anniversary. Plans reportedly include tours of major antique events and shows throughout North America, and will incorporate free appraisal clinics, business seminars and evaluations to mark the Institute's anniversary. "We really want to give something back to our students and those interested in antiques," said founder Peter Green, "It's been a great privilege to teach so many... it's just our way of saying thanks." Exact dates for upcoming events have yet to be released, but are expected to be announced later this month according to school spokesperson, Pamela Drew.

For readers seeking more information about the schools antiques and appraisal program, they can be contacted at: (877) 444-4508 or visit their web site at; www.asheford.com. You can also write to them at; the Asheford Institute of Antiques 981 Harbor Blvd., Suite 3, Dept. 275FA9 Destin, FL 32541-2525, or at their Canadian office at; 131 Bloor Street West, Suite 200, Dept. 124FA9 Toronto, ON M5S 1R8.
