Butch Cassidy .44-40 Winchester Model 1892 Carbine Brings $46,000 at James Peterson Co. Auction

Article & photos by James Peterson

The history of the western United States during the mid to late 1800's is filled with stories about outlaws and their exploits. Some became legends in their own time like Wyatt Earp and his brothers, Doc Holiday, the Clantons and McLaurys. The story of their shootout at the O.K. Corral in Tombstone, Arizona, has been the subject of many books and movies. Only one other group of outlaws known as "The Wild Bunch", the "Hole in the Wall Gang", or the "Train Robbers Syndicate" has been the subject of as many books or movies! Butch Cassidy (Robert Leroy Parker) and the Sundance Kid (Harry Longbaugh) were part of the gang which specialized in robbing banks and holding up trains.

This was a collector's dream auction, a once in a lifetime event! There were some extraordinary pieces in this auction, which drew collector's from all around. The significance of these historical artifacts are not something you come across everyday!

The auction was held at the Knights Event Center in Shakopee, Minnesota. Auctioneer James Peterson said, "In my 47 year career, I can honestly say that I have never had the opportunity to sell such important historical pieces! And with such impeccable documentation!!"

The auction also consisted of many other historical pieces including Civil War, WWI & WWII items, 19th century Indian pieces, gold & silver coins, vintage currency and much more.

A New and Unique Perfume Bottle Book

Holding a floral bouquet urn, this lovely lady is modeled in a classic reclining nude pose. Rare and unusual in size, she is 6" long.

Although perfume bottles have been a hot collectible for some time, not much information was previously available about German porcelain figurine bottles from the early 20th century that are favored by many collectors.

The Crown Top Book – German Porcelain Perfume Bottles, 1920-1939 by Pauline E. Turco is now in print and skillfully and cleverly covers this subject.

The Crown Top Book represents over fifteen years of research and is the first book devoted solely to collecting German porcelain perfume bottles of the Golden Era. In addition to bottles with traditional "crown-top" stoppers that have given the genre its name, this comprehensive work includes bottles with stoppers made of cork, porcelain, and mercury glass, and also atomizers.

A journey to the Golden Era sets the scene for their time in history, while a guided tour of the production process gives the collector a new appreciation for the time, talent and skills involved in the making of these delightful figural perfume bottles. The reader is also introduced to the manufacturers of Crown Tops and can view photographs of vintage catalog pages.

An entire chapter is devoted to Crown Top reissues, reproductions, fantasies and imposters with detailed information and comparative photos to assist in distinguishing the old from the new and the authentic from the shams. Finally, The Picture Gallery is a virtual museum of over 1200 German porcelain perfume bottles conveniently organized into ten categories, each displayed as a separate gallery. All of the bottles in the galleries are assigned a value level in the Value Guide that collectors and dealers will find helpful.

From the unique capsules of information that accompany selected bottles in the Picture Gallery to the author's colorful category designations of "Kinder Kids", "Heinz Brothers", "Mirror Ladies" and more, Ms Turco has presented a highly informative and lighthearted approach to the subject of Crown Top bottle collecting with a well-organized format and easy-to-

Flask heads, among the most desirable of German porcelain bottles, came with metal crown stoppers and mercury glass stoppers. Quite the "cat's meow", this flapper has a large spit curl and stylish hair bob.

An exceptional and rare music box/perfume bottle combination from the William Goebel Company. The beautiful Pierrot figure music box plays 2 melodies and is 10.5" tall.

Pauline Turco is well known to perfume bottle enthusiasts for her knowledge on this subject. She has given numerous talks to perfume bottle collectors and to other organizations in search of interesting programs.

Adorable 3.5" bottle of a young child, expressing her amazement at the little ladybug inching up her chest.

The book may be purchased from the author for $68.00 plus $4.00 media-mail shipping in the U.S. by check or money order to: Pauline E. Turco, 1002 Vanguard St, Lakeway, TX 78734-5131; or by PayPal to pollyperf39@yahoo.com. Shipping outside the U.S. must be calculated by country.

Doll Lovers and Collectors!

Mark your Calendars for March 18, 2017 to attend the 46th Annual Madison Area Doll Club Show and Sale “Dolls from the Attic”

Article by Vicki Kutz
(The Madison Area Doll Club of Wisconsin)

For the past 45 years, the Madison Area Doll Club has put on one of the premiere doll shows in the Midwest. Held in Madison, Wisconsin it is easily accessed by many of Midwest doll enthusiasts. The show features over 40 of the best doll vendors from the Midwest in over 20,000 square feet of well-lit display space! Dolls of all eras and types are represented, including antique, vintage, modern, and artist dolls. Also included are doll clothing, accessories, doll house miniatures, furniture and anything doll-related!

You will find among the treasures anything from Barbie Dolls to French Jumeau's. Antique German and French dolls are well-represented as well as vintage 1950s dolls, including Vogue Ginny, Madame Alexander, Ideal and others. Cloth and Felt dolls will include makers such as Lenci, Poir, Kathe Kruse and more! Modern dolls such as American Girl and others will provide you with many choices. Artist dolls include reborn doll artists as well as well-known national doll artist dolls. A doll shopper's paradise for either the beginning collector or seasoned veteran!

Our vendors include well-known local, regional and national doll sellers, including Fritzi's Antique Dolls, Victoria's Doll House, Ducks and Dolls, Linda's Doll House, Edelweiss Dolls and many more. We will also have some new vendors joining us this year. We are still accepting vendors for this show. Please see contact information below.

In addition to the opportunity to view and purchase merchandise at sales tables, free doll appraisals are offered and repair consultations will be available. New this year will be our silent auction with items that you can bid on. That will add to the fun! As always, we will have a free grand prize drawing that some lucky attendee will win. We also feature our club members' doll display. The display will be based on our show theme “Dolls from the Attic” where many different types of dolls will be represented in various scenes.

A food court area will be present in the exhibition hall and offers delicious salads, sandwiches, coffee and beverages. There is also an area with chairs so you can sit down and take a break, as well as chat with other doll lovers about your purchases or things you have seen at the show.

The Madison Area Doll Club of Wisconsin, an affiliate of United Federation of Doll Clubs (UFDC), is a non-profit organization. Profits from the event support other local and national non-profit organizations.

Mark the date: Saturday, March 18th from 9:00 AM to 3:00 PM at the Alliant Energy Center Exhibition Hall, 1919 Alliant Energy Way, Madison WI 53713. Admission is $5.00 per person with children under 18 years of age free. There is a $7.00 per vehicle parking fee at Alliant.

For additional information or dealer inquiries, please contact Vicki Kutz at 608-279-5298 or via email: dollcoll@charter.net

Ackerman's Iowa City, Iowa Antique Shows For 2017

Article by Bill & Karen Ackerman

ALL AT THE JOHNSON COUNTY FAIRGROUNDS IOWA CITY, IOWA

Just off of the Avenue of the Saints at Exit 89 at the South edge of Iowa City, Iowa then North 1/2 mile to fairgrounds.

The first of the antique shows to be held at the Johnson County Fairgrounds will be the IOWA CITY KIWANIS CLUB ANTIQUE SHOW, now in its 31st year of management by the Ackerman's. This show is on Friday February 24th from 5 to 8 p.m. and Saturday February 25th from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Admission is just $3

This show features about 30 or so quality antique dealers and the show is in Building C at the Johnson County Fairgrounds. Admission is just $3 and the show is the major fundraiser for the Iowa City Kiwanis Club that aids in area civic causes. The show is currently sold out on dealer space.

The second antique event at the Johnson County Fairgrounds is ACKERMAN'S IOWA CITY FLEA-TIQUE MARKET to be held on Sunday, May 21st. from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. ACKERMAN'S IOWA CITY FLEA-TIQUE MARKET is in its 4th year having the first show in 2014 and experienced a steady growth in attendance with the 2016 show featuring about 85 dealers and attendance of just under 1800 customers. Admission is just $3 and there is plenty of free close by parking.

Dealer space is always available and the dealers set up both inside and outside.

The 3rd Annual ACKERMAN'S FOURTH OF JULY STARS & STRIPES ANTIQUE MARKET takes place ON JULY 4TH from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. Lots of free parking is available in the large grassy parking lot to the south of the fairgrounds.

ACKERMAN'S FOURTH OF JULY STARS & STRIPES ANTIQUE MARKET has taken off "like a polka fest with free beer" and featured about 120 dealers last year with attendance of about 2800 eager buyers and collectors.

ACKERMAN'S FOURTH OF JULY STARS & STRIPES ANTIQUE MARKET originated in 2015 after the closing of the long running Hanson's Grove Antique Show at Solon which ceased in 2014.

A replacement show was needed and the Johnson County Fairgrounds was chosen as the new location. The Fourth of July is the number one day that people in this area go antiquing and a replacement show was needed.

Dealer space is available, for both inside and outside dealers.

The last show of the season will be Annual Ralston Creek (Now Creekless) Labor Day Antique Flea Market held on Labor Day from 8 to 3. This flea market will be in its 17th year. Details about this coming out mid-summer

We look forward to seeing all of you at one or all of these shows at the Johnson County Fairgrounds located just off the Avenue of the Saints at Exit 89 at the south edge of Iowa City.

For information on the above shows, please call Bill or Karen Ackerman at 319-338-8449 or 319-430-3737

West Bend Antique Show Under New Ownership in 2017

Article & Photos by Larry Kaczmarek
(Village Blacksmith Antiques)

Veteran antiques dealer and show promoter Larry Kaczmarek of Village Blacksmith Antiques is now at the helm of the 2017 West Bend Antique & Fine Art Show slated for Saturday, January 21st from 9:00 am-5:00 pm and Sunday, January 22nd. from 9:00 am-3:00 pm.

The West Bend show and sale is a two-day event held at the beautiful Washington County Fair Complex. Admission is $5 good for both days of the sale. Children under 16 are free and parents are encouraged to bring their family along. Strollers and wheelchairs are welcome. The building is handicap accessible. Parking is free. Food and beverage will be available from Bryan's Catering.

This popular and well-run show was previously under the management of Skip and Nona Knapp of N.L.Promotions, LLC for the past 16 years. They are also the promoters of the highly successful Elkhorn Antiques Flea Market held in May, June, August and September each year at the Walworth County Fairgrounds in Wisconsin since 1982.

The Knapps approached Kaczmarek about taking over the West Bend Show in early 2016 because of his 6 years of experience successfully promoting the Madison Antique Show and his 20 years of experience as a dealer who sells exclusively at monthly antique shows and sales throughout the State of Wisconsin.

"I've known Larry for a number of years and saw that he is well-respected in the business," stated Nona Knapp. "In addition, dealer confidence in his skills as a promoter and implementer of innovative ideas assured me he was the right pick to continue on with the success of the show."

One of his ideas, for example, is to incorporate a Scavenger Hunt into the show. Special antiques from his personal stock are hidden in plain sight in each booth. Every hour a photo of an item is revealed. Whoever finds the item gets to keep it, and wins a small prize. Not only is it a fun way to engage children, it also gets the adults to visit every booth at the show.

One thing that won't change with the new ownership is the outstanding quality and variety of dealers who sell at the West Bend Show. The event features knowledgeable and friendly dealers showcasing antiques and collectibles from Mid-Century Modern to Art Deco and Mission; from Country Primitives to Art Nouveau and Victorian. The array of merchandise for sale includes furniture, clocks, home decor, garden, decorative art, glassware, hand woven carpets & rugs, Native American, maps, linens & quilts, toys, sporting goods, advertising, fine art and jewelry displayed in 55 attractively designed booths.

"The West Bend Antique Show is a family-oriented event that encourages adults and youth to explore, discover, learn about and even own a piece of the past. These items were used and cherished by our ancestors," says Kaczmarek. "We can teach our children to appreciate old things by showing them that an antique show is more of a treasure hunt, if you will. The workmanship and beauty of some of these items make them real treasures."

"For example, just give a child a marble and a flashlight and show him how to use the flashlight to see the beauty glowing inside a tiny little marble and watch his face light up,"

So, if you're looking for something to do this winter that's sure to warm your heart, take your family to the West Bend Antique & Fine Art Show on January 20 & 21, 2017 at the Washington County Fair Park, Hwy 45 & PV (Pleasant Valley Rd.), West Bend, WI. For more information, visit The 2017 WestBendAntiqueShow.com.

One of Larry's favorite sayings is "Find a way to get there" because it's an event you and your family won't want to miss!

Front & back view of a Hamilton printers cabinet, 105 drawers, 6' long, will be on display in Dale Anderson's booth.

Two early 1900's oil paintings & a Conan Doyle's stories for boys from 1938 with original dust jacket; three beaded purses and an ivory match safe with inlaid flowers and insects. Will be displayed in Laura's Collectibles booth.

Tom Pearson of Pearmont Antiques will be bringing this Cased Colt 1851 Navy w/accessories; 1953 #98 Racer by Yonezawa; 1929 VINDEX John Deere tractor; 42" Porcelain Buick sign-circa 1920-30's; 1939 COCA COLA Salesman Sample Cooler.

No Egrets will be bringing this walnut hall tree and mirror & this salesman's sample of a Mueller Convector Furnace, Approx. 12" high. Doors open.

Many nice wood furniture pieces including this sled, will be in Kenneth Schneider's booth.

Paul Peshorn from It's About Time will be bringing this Spool cabinet, logos front and back, $645; Workbench/kitchen island $445; Dye cabinet, excellent condition, $545; Table/desk with inkstand, $125. He will also be bringing over 100 clocks and pocket watches.

43rd Winter Antiques Show In Waukesha

February 3 & 4, 2017

Article & photos by Debbie McArdle

You Helped! Grants & Scholarships Awarded!

THANK YOU to those who attended WADA's 2016 shows! Founded in 1948, the Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association is a non-profit, charitable organization dedicated to preservation & education. Their next show is at the Waukesha Expo Center in Waukesha (a Milwaukee suburb), February 3 & 4, where, once again, your paid admission will fund scholarships and grants awarded annually.

Autumn 2016 was a great season for Waukesha County high school seniors who submitted outstanding entries, competing for the Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association's annual scholarships. Winners for the 2016-2017 school year will receive their awards at the 43rd Winter WADA Show.

HINT #1: Follow WADA's website to learn about requirements for next Fall's scholarships!

True to tradition, WADA awarded two grants in 2016. The Menomonee Falls Historical Society was awarded a grant to assist with the cost of a new roof and chinking of their 1842 Brogan Cabin at Old Falls Village. Secondly, the New Holstein Historical Society's General Store will receive a grant to fund interior paneling, trim and wainscoting.

HINT #2: See WADA's website to apply for a grant by May 15.

Grants must be used for a specific public-use-area project to help preserve buildings or objects of historical significance.

In addition a 2017 grant has already been approved for the Friends of the Wisconsin Historical Society, WADA acting as the founding & continuing sponsor of the fifth "30th Star Benefit Antiques Auction" to be held in April 2018.

The biennial auction's proceeds provide important funding for Wisconsin Historical Society's sites throughout the State.

To encourage donations from the general public for the 2018 benefit, the Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association is again providing a free booth to the Friends of the Wisconsin Historical Society. Attendees to the February show are invited to bring their donations (more than 50 years old) to the show where they will receive a tax deductible receipt. If the items are too large, other arrangements can be made. Call Riene Wells at 262/363-4700 or Debbie McArdle at 815/575-1272 for more information.

Show your support and help promote history by attending the 43rd Winter WADA Antiques Show Friday, February 3, 10 am - 8 pm, and Saturday, February 4, 10 am - 5 pm at the Waukesha County Expo Center, 1000 Northview Road, Waukesha, Wisconsin 53188. A free special exhibit, "Valentines & Easters Past", hosted by David Eppelheimer of Grand Rapids, Michigan and Scott Tagliapietra of Whitefish Bay, Wisconsin will be available to all attendees. A traditional Wisconsin Fish Fry (baked fish also available) will be served Friday, late afternoon and evening. As always, there will be five drawings for $50 gift certificates. There's plenty of free parking and an ATM is on the premises. Questions? (414) 510-4441 or visit www.WisconsinAntiquesDealers.com.

Why not make it a weekend getaway? See special hotel rates on the WADA website!
