Sure Cure for the Winter Blues at 41st Annual Janesville Mid-Winter Antiques Show

Article & photos by Brian Maloney

The beautiful Pontiac Convention Center in Janesville, Wisconsin once again played host to one of the Badger State's longest-running antiques events: The Janesville Mid-Winter Antiques Show. More than three-dozen quality dealers filled the hall with an interesting mix of everything from antique toys to vintage sporting collectibles, and everything in between. Veteran show promoters Steve & Thelma Bina run the event, and the show is in good hands with the pair, as they've been organizing successful Midwest antiques events for many years. Big crowds were the rule on both days of this venerable two-day show.

Pontiac Convention Center Hosts Long-Running Janesville Mid-Winter Antiques Show

Well, it doesn't seem to matter what the weather's like, or what the economy's like either. Good, bad, up, or down, there always seems to be big crowds for the Badger State's first antiques event of the year – the Janesville Mid-Winter Antiques Show. And sure enough, I found dozens of antiquers lined up on Saturday morning at the entrance to the Pontiac Convention Center, host of the show.

An hour later, the hall was packed with shoppers. For its first three decades, the Janesville Antiques show was your traditional shopping mall antiques show. It had long been held at the Janesville Mall, just a stone's throw away from its current location. But times change; and for the past several years the show has made its home at this new 10,000 square-foot facility. Extensive regional advertising, including a large direct-mail campaign, have insured the show's continued success.

And inside the show itself, you'll find dealers coming from near & far with quality pieces in pretty near every category of collecting. Country furniture hunters found much to like both at Timber Peg Antiques and Tanda's Antiques - and 29 Palms, The Collector's Oasis brought their usual wide array of 20th century furnishings and accessories from Art Deco to Mid-Century Modern.

American stoneware more your thing? Out on the Farm Antiques had plenty to choose from, as well as a large inventory of vintage toys from cast iron to litho-tin. And at the eclectic Kitchen Antiques, shoppers could peruse everything from 1960s political memorabilia to sporting and military finds both old and new.

In fact, no matter what your collecting or decorating interests, there was probably a dealer at the Janesville Mid-Winter Antiques Show to suit. Like the great selection of country store tins and milk bottles at Our Piece of the Past Antiques, or the large inventory of American art pottery at Boone's Antiques, or Blackwolf Antiques' array of antique and vintage fine jewelry. I hope the photos give you a small idea of what the show had to offer!

Thanks again to Steve & Thelma Bina, promoters of the Janesville Mid-Winter Antique Show, for inviting me out to the event. For more information about the show just give the Binas a call at 608-385-3598. And as always, keep an eye out for next year's 42nd Annual Janesville Mid-winter Antiques Show in the Auction Action Antique News!

Great country furnishings awaited at Tanda's Antiques, including this 30" x 48" cream-painted work table ($575) and 36" wide country secretary/desk priced at $425. 608-754-5414

From Old Glory Antiques, a Wells Fargo Express stationary cabinet, measuring 25" x 28" and priced at $450. 608-481-3131

My pen shows the size of this dated-1902 cast iron doll bed at Spring Valley Antiques, asking price $125. 608-879-2094

Another primitive find from Tanda's Antiques: this Savage Mineral poultry grit dispenser – asking price $95. 608-754-5414

My pick of the country stoneware at Spring Valley Antiques: this cobalt-decorated five-gallon crock priced at $125. 608-879-2094

More vintage tin from Our Piece of the Past Antiques, with the two-pound Sturgis Pretzels example priced at $38. 608-455-3112

Relive the political past with these period Nixon & JFK bobble-head banks from Kitchen Antiques – asking price $115 for the set. 608-752-1279

The Linen Lady came with a huge array of silver plate cutlery sets, plus great vintage textiles like this double-size chenille bedspread priced at only $75. 608-754-0447

Two Mid-Century pottery examples from Christine Boone Antiques' large selection: the 8" West German textured vase priced at $38.50, the Royal Haeger "Earth Wrap" candleholder at $15. 815-623-6031

Best of the vintage spice tins at Our Piece of the Past Antiques: this Native American-themed Wigwam Turmeric tin priced at $40. 608-455-3112

Church Bell Antiques came with the weathervanes & parts they're best known for, plus sporting finds like this "Camp Minnow" glass minnow trap priced at $179.

Another cool vintage political bobble-head from Kitchen Antiques, this a Nixon-as-elephant example priced at $85. 608-752-1279

29 Palms The Collectors Oasis filled their huge display with decoratives from Art Deco to Mid Century Modern, plus vintage lighting, fashion, and more. 815-968-0229

Another cool sporting find from Kitchen Antiques: these 1933 child's boxing gloves in mint condition - $95 for the set. 608-752-1279

You never know what oddities you'll find at Kitchen Antiques: from a Korean War-era silk parachute ($135) to a 4' tall Easter Bunny used in the Dayton Department Store in the 1950s - $275. 608-752-1279

I found this tiny & rare Austrian 2mm pin-fire miniature rifle at Victorian House Antiques, asking price $125. 608-879-2567

Time's Treasures came with some nice vintage Budweiser advertising, including this Budweiser light-up clock priced at only $115. 608-617-7066

Shoppers could choose from four period art glass toilet water bottles at Victorian House Antiques, with prices from $165 to $225. 608-879-2567

Local advertising at Victorian House Antiques included this stoneware beater jar kit promoting a Fort Atkinson, Wisconsin grocery. 608-879-2567

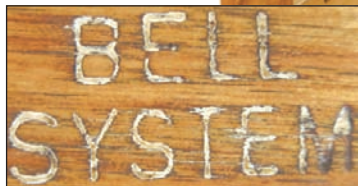

A classic Roland Reed western photogravure from The Missing Link: a 1918 "The Pottery Maker" priced at $595. 763-257-7073

A trio of just-acquired Musky Sucker Bait Company lures from Out on the Farm Antiques: the 10 1/2" Flexi priced at $225, the 7 1/2" and 4 1/2" examples at $175 and $110. 920-294-3068

I found this Bell System wooden footstool at Indian Creek Antiques, price tag $40. 262-363-7338

Days Gone By Antiques brought an impressive display of Art Glass, among the inventory this Bryde Crystal cake stand priced at $145.

Country furniture was the focus at Timber Peg Antiques, where I found this feed mill slant-top desk in old white paint - $225. 608-879-9936

Czech Collectors Association

The origins of CCA stretch back to 1995 when the Czechoslovakian Collector's Guild International (CCGI) was founded. The club was reorganized in 2001 and renamed the Czechoslovakian Collector's Association (CCA). This new name, however, only partially captures our interests as the organization also encompasses a wide range of Austrian, Bohemian, and Czechoslovakian Decorative Arts, what many members refer to as the ABCs of collecting.

Our mission is to foster the collection and appreciation of the art glass, ceramics, and other decorative arts of Austria, Bohemia, and Czechoslovakia from the years 1850 to 1940. CCA's mission is accomplished through: research, education, the publication of a Newsletter twice a year, the sponsorship of an annual Convention, and a comprehensive Web site which features articles and columns devoted to deepening our understanding of the history and production of these beautiful objects of art.

The current board members of CCA were elected at the 2010 and 2011 Annual Conventions and will serve two year, staggered terms. They are David Phelps (President, elected 2011), Rosie Bodien (Director of Publicity, elected 2011), David Fein (Director of Membership, elected 2010), Aggie Elwell (Treasurer, elected 2009), Bob Collier (Secretary, appointed 2011)

Our general membership includes both beginning and advanced collectors, researchers, educators, appraisers, and dealers. Most of the members have been collecting or dealing in the Czech decorative arts for many years. Collectively, the expertise of the members of CCA is unrivaled and our annual conventions also feature seminars from leading researchers in the field. Members can also tap into this expertise through one of our new on-line services, a regular column entitled "Ask the Experts." We also remain committed to an ongoing program of research and publication. In addition to the newsletter, CCA has published three volumes of the Journal of Czech Decorative Arts. Back issues are available through this Web site. Forthcoming articles will be appearing in an on-line version of the journal.

In addition to our commitment to providing club members with the latest research in the field of Austrian, Bohemian, and Czech Decorative Arts, we also realize that many members are active collectors and, as a club, we try to facilitate avenues for club members to purchase those elusive, beautiful, whimsical, and sought after pieces. The annual show, which is held in conjunction with our yearly convention, has always served as a major venue for collectors to view and purchase a wide range of glass, pottery, jewelry, and perfumes and it will continue to serve this function. In addition, we are now offering new services on this Web site, a "where the dealers are" page, a "for sale by members" page, a "Flea Market Finds" page, a "Collection of the Month" page.

The "where the dealers are" page will help members locate dealers who specialize in Austrian, Bohemian, and Czech decorative arts by providing information on the dealers, their locations and their upcoming shows. The "for sale by members" page will allow members of CCA to buy and sell pieces from their individual collections on the CCA website free of charge.

History of Haviland China

In 1840, David Haviland, who had a china shop in New York City, made his first trip to France to establish an alliance with a manufacturer who could create pieces of porcelain for the American trade. He eventually settled in Limoges, France to oversee production. This was near the source of the abundant kaolin mines, the special white clay unique to Limoges porcelain. He established his own company in 1853 to produce china specifically for the American market.

There were numerous china manufacturers in Limoges, but the Haviland Company was the first to have artists on site to do the decorating. After the Civil War, David sent his son, Théodore, to the U.S. to handle distribution and marketing. Production dramatically increased and another son, Charles Edward Haviland, took over management of the firm from his father. Many talented artists were engaged and soon the lithograph or transfer technique of decoration was developed. White House china sets were designed for Presidents Lincoln, Grant, Hayes and Harrison. But the Victorian housewife was the primary customer with a wide variety of patterns to choose.

Théodore Haviland left the company to start his own in 1893 and was a very innovative marketer. Many prizes were won at exhibitions by both Haviland companies. "A set in every home" became Théodore's goal, and full services of china for $29.95 are found in the Sears catalogs of the 1920s. Several patterns from both firms were used as premiums by the Jewel Tea Company. It is estimated that there are over 30,000 patterns and variations.

Charles Haviland's company went out of business in 1931. Because of the approaching hostilities in Europe, Théodore moved his company to the United States in 1936, where it operated until 1957. The patterns of both companies were gathered and bought in 1941 by William Haviland who retired in 1972. Although the name Haviland remains today, the firm has gone through several changes in ownership.

Charles Field Haviland

Charles Field Haviland, the nephew of David Haviland, married into another porcelain family in 1859. When he retired in 1881 the name was "bought", and has been passed down through several firms until the present day.

Johann Haviland

Johann Haviland, the grandson of David Haviland, started his own company in Bavaria, Germany, in 1907, and went out of business by 1924. An Italian firm bought the company and in 1933 sold it to the Rosenthal conglomerate. Quantities of this inexpensive china were sold at PXs in Germany after WW 2. Several patterns were used as grocery store premiums. The company has no connection with the French or American china.

45th Annual Antique American Glass and Pottery Show and Sale

(20-30-40 Glass Society of Illinois)

The Antique American Glass sale will be held on Saturday, March 11, and Sunday, March 12, 2017 at the Concord Plaza Midwest Conference Center 401 West Lake Street Northlake, Illinois. This will be our 44th year!

The sale is sponsored by the 20-30-40 Glass Society of Illinois. The Society members are collectors of American made depression era glass, handmade glass, pottery, and related material. Proceeds from the show are donated to glass museums that help to preserve the American made glass story.

Nationally known dealers

There will be over 25 dealers from around the country. The glass and pottery that will be for sale is all American made. We will have early American pattern glass, elegant or handmade glassware, depression glassware, kitchen glassware, Pyrex, Fire King, and Fenton. There will be something for everyone. Our show dealers will also have available for sale, items to help set the table, such as linens, silverware, etc.

Door Prize Drawings

Each attendee may fill out an entry for our Door Prize drawings, which are held hourly. Entries for the regular door prizes are free.

In addition, the Society sponsors a Raffle ($1/ticket) during the Show. The 2017 Raffle prize (Iris & Herringbone luncheon set) is shown at left. The Raffle winner need not be present to win. Proceeds from the raffle are donated to Glass Museums that help to preserve the American made glass story.

Glass Identification and Glass Repair

All weekend there will be a glass identification table. Bring in that piece of glass to be identified. Our members will use the clubs extensive reference library to help in the identification. In addition, there will be a professional crystal repair service all weekend, so bring in any pieces that have a small "ding" and see if they can be restored to near original condition.

Show Hours

The public is invited during the hours of 10:00am to 5:00pm on Saturday March 11, 2017 and 11:00am to 4:00pm on Sunday March 12, 2017. Admission is $8.00 per person, good for both days.

A Message from Stanton's Auctioneers...

As another year nears an end, we would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone for working with us during 2016. Throughout the year, Stanton's found themselves working with collections in over 30 states, Canada, and internationally. During the course of the year our firm was contacted by museums, collectors, estates, trust departments, attorneys and legal representatives. Our services were used to liquidate entire collections, deaccession the holdings in museums, sell machines for collectors, permitting them to upgrade their collections, and assisting the legal institutions in settling the trusts, and living estates that they had been appointed to disperse.

Also, we found ourselves attending various conventions, rallies, and private showings, as well as promoting our auctions and the hobby constantly throughout the year in the industry's specialized publications. Using these publications, as well as tens of thousands of mailers sent each year, and the use of internet and social media, coupled with our experience in this field since 1954, we feel that we can supply you the best service possible when you are ready to liquidate an entire collection or individual machine.

We, at Stanton's Auctioneers & Realtors, are excited about the upcoming year. We have already begun meeting with collectors and listing their machines for our upcoming events. Some of the items pictured in this ad are already scheduled to be sold at our spring auction that will be held in Charlotte, Michigan in May of 2017. It will be a high-grade offering of quality machines from a collection that was assembled with a "keen eye" for quality and condition.

Throughout the year, Stanton's also was repeatedly called to do appraisal work to establish values for collectors and clients for the purpose of insurance on their collections, replacement value due to loss, and estate value assessments.

Introducing The 20-30-40 Glass Society

Article & Photos by Jane Schleinzer (20-30-40 Glass Society of Illinois)

The Society is a non profit [501(c)(7)] social organization located in the Chicago suburb of LaGrange, Illinois. The Society's purpose is to gain more knowledge of American made glassware of the 1920's, 1930's and 1940's and to further its preservation. We gain our knowledge through the study of American glassware manufacturers and the glass making process. Our members all share a common bond; a love of the beauty of glass and to indulge in the pleasure of collecting. Hobnail display

Officers and Committee

Chairpersons

Here is a listing of the 2017 Board and Committee Members. As this list changes from year to year, we present it in PDF® format. You will need the Adobe Reader to view the document.

Meetings

Club Meetings are held six (6) times per year, usually at the American Legion Hall in LaGrange, IL. On occasion, meetings may be held in alternate locations. A typical meeting consists of a lunch followed by a short presentation by one of our members on a topic related to glass collecting, a specific pattern or company, or a glassmaking process.

Newsletter

The Society publishes a bi-monthly newsletter, the Society Page, to keep members up to date on events related to the Society. The newsletter also contains articles related to American-made glassware and pottery. Each issue is liberally sprinkled with photographs. Upcoming events are highlighted as well.

Outings

From time to time, one or more members of the Society arranges bus trips or caravans for the members to get together and visit a museum, antique mall, glass factory or other activity. Hosted by a member(s), these bus trips are planned and designed for fellowship and to have fun, to enhance your appreciation and knowledge of the art and history of glass making and to increase your knowledge of glassware made in America during the depression era.

Membership in the Society

Membership is open to everyone, not just those who live in the Chicago metro area. Dues are $30/year for a single person and $45/year for a household membership that includes all persons in the household. Dues are payable by December 1 for the following full year. Be sure to print on the Membership Application, as someone else has to read and record the information. Please join us for fun, fellowship and GLASS.

Research Library

The Society maintains a very impressive research library consisting of many reference books on glass and related topics. These publications are available to members during and after regular meetings. If you are interested in researching a particular company or pattern, you will almost surely find useful material in the library "corridors." A listing of the publications is located at: www.librarything.com/catalog/20s30s40s.

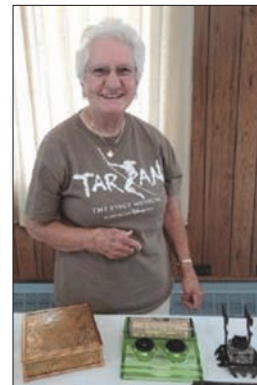

History of the Society

For those who may be interested, here is a History of the Society from its founding in 1972 until the present day. The 20-30-40 Glass Society was, and is, one of the most active and enduring collecting clubs in the country.

A Blast From The Past at the February 11th & 12th Wausau Antique Show

Article by Audre & Ray Hanson (AR Promotions)

Wisconsin's favorite Antique Show since 1985 is the Wausau Antique Show, with a reputation of selling diverse & impressive Antiques, Vintage Finds & Eclectic Designs from 1870 to Mid Century for collectors, decorators, & hobbyists.

The sale is February 11th & 12th at D.C. Everest High School, 2305 Jelinek Ave., Weston, Wisconsin (5 miles South of Wausau) Saturday 9-5 & Sunday 10-4.
