Beating the Winter Blahs at AR Promotions Wausau Show

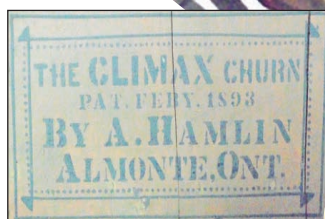

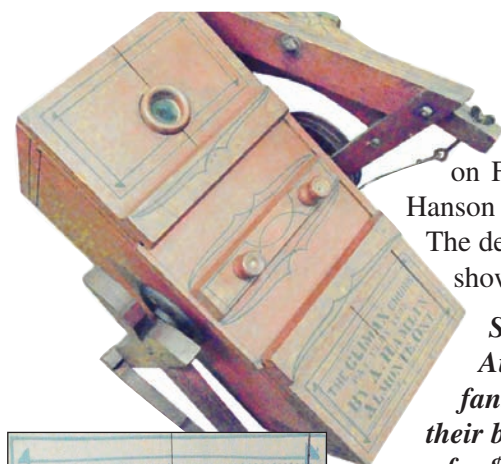

Article & photos by Renee Wiskow

Let's face it, Winter in Wisconsin can be a real downer. The gloomy days bring on cabin fever. The best cure, an antique show! AR Promotions Wausau Antique Show was held on February 11th & 12th at DC Everest Sr. High School in Weston, Wisconsin. Audre & Ray Hanson have over 30 years of experience as show promoters & they put together exceptional shows. The dealers have the most wonderful treasures for you to take home to add to your collection! It is a show you do not want to miss.

Show promoters Ray & Audre Hanson had this fantastic butter churn in their booth. It could be your for $595. 715-355-5144

Out & About

Make sure to always be checking the upcoming events page, as there are many new events added weekly.

Clip and save that auction calendar. Spring is around the corner and the weather makes us feel like it has already started. It is just right for a weekend stroll through an antique shop or show. Be sure to mention where you saw their ads. Tia and I go on Thursday to register for college scholarships. Two weeks from now, Todd, Mekenzy and I go to Minnesota for 5 days to get her registered for classes at Bemidji State University. We are also getting her familiar with the town. Checking out the local Ford dealership in case she needs repairs and stopping by the ice rink where she will be working.

When Out and About this weekend, be sure to check out:

East State Antique Mall is part of the Shop Hop Stop on Friday, March 3rd & Saturday, March 4th. They are also having their Mall Wide Sales Now thru Sunday, March 5th.

Located at 5411 East State Street, Rockford, Illinois.
See their ad in this weeks issue of Auction Action Antique News.

Antique Center of La Crosse is having a Red-Tag Sale now thru Tuesday, February 28th. Located at 110 S. 3rd. St., La Crosse, Wisconsin.
See their ad in last weeks issue of Auction Action Antique News.

Iowa City Kiwanis Antique Show on Friday, February 24th & Saturday, February 25th. Located at Johnson County Fairgrounds Building C in Iowa City, Iowa. See upcoming events for more information.

Lots of Collectors, Smiles and Sold Signs at Wausau Antique Show in February

Article & photos by Renee Wiskow

I brought my mom along with me to the show, for a girl's day out & did we ever have a fun day! We arrived just before 9 a.m. at the high school & immediately noticed the parking lot was quickly filling up with eager antiquers. You know it's a good show when you see cars from out of state, and we were parked next to someone all the way from Florida! We made our way inside and took our place in the very long line to get into the gym. Audre & friend Sandy Kennedy had the line moving very quickly, so everyone could get in & start buying!

The gym was set up very nicely with the 50 dealers, there were nice wide aisles & bright lights to see the treasures. There was never an empty booth as shoppers perused for that perfect peice. It didn't take long before we started seeing lots of sold tags on items. People were constantly taking purchases out to their cars before heading back in to pick up a new treasure.

The dealers at this show are just the best. They are very friendly and knowledgeable and they help you find what you are looking for. Looking for stoneware or furniture?

No problem! Looking for something more unusual? You'll find that too! You can tell that these dealers have a love for what they do, and they share that love with everyone who visits their booths.

With so much to do in the Wausau area, why not make a weekend of it! There's plenty of winter activities on Rib Mountain for the outdoor enthusiasts! If you're more the indoor type, there is plenty for you to do as well. There's the Woodson Art Museum, The Grand Theatre, The Andrew Warren Historic District and the Cyrus Yawkey House. The Wasaua area also has three breweries for you to try out, plus hundreds of restaurants for you foodies. With so much to do and see, it's a nice little weekend get-away!

Since 1985, collectors have been flocking to this fantastic show. For just a $5 admission fee, you get to have hours & hours of fun! It's such a great time, you definitely do not want to miss it next year! For info you can reach Audre or Ray at 715-355-5144 and be sure to watch Auction Action Antique News for upcoming AR Promotions events!

Iowa City, Iowa Kiwanis Club To Have 31st Antique Show

Article by Bill & Karen Ackerman

The Iowa City Noon Kiwanis Club will be holding its 31st Antique Show at the Johnson County Fairgrounds on Friday February 24th from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. and on Saturday February 25th from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

About 30 quality antique dealers from a multi-state area will be displaying and selling from all categories of antiques including much nice antique furniture, primitives, stoneware and pottery, advertising items, tools, cast iron, kitchen collectibles, brass and copper, ephemera, postcards and paper goods, antique clocks, farm and country antiques, glassware and jewelry, stained glass windows, antique lighting and lamps, and so much more varying selections of antique items.

The Kiwanis Antique Show is in its 32nd year, (31st show, we forgot to do it one year!) and the show is set up in Building C at the Johnson County Fairgrounds at the south edge of Iowa City, Iowa. Easy access is to arrive off of the Avenue of the Saints (locally 27/218) and get off at Exit 89. The fairgrounds is just 1/2 mile to the north. If one is coming from Iowa City, the fairgrounds is just a 1/2 mile south of the Iowa City airport.

Admission is just $3 and good for both days. The antique show is the largest fundraiser for the Kiwanis Club which aids and assists local civic causes. Parking is close and readily available adjacent to Building C. The show is sold out regarding dealer spaces.

For information about the show, please contact Bill Ackerman at 319-430-3737

Collectors Trade Show - Serving Clubs and Collectors

The "Collectors Trade Show" on the Collectors.Org website is designed to serve the needs of both collecting clubs and collectors, offering aisles of vendors featuring products and services of interest to collectors and to the leadership of collecting clubs.

Collectors.Org is the official website of both the National Association of Collectors(NAC) and the Association of Collecting Clubs(ACC). ACC works with over 2400 collecting clubs on six continents. NAC is for individual collectors, identifying and addressing those needs and concerns that are common to all collectors.

The Collectors Trade Show can be reached directly at: <http://tradeshow.collectors.org>

Collectors will find vendors offering everything from shipping supplies to display cases...alarm systems to price guides...collector software to training courses...appraisal or restoration services and much more.

The leadership of collecting clubs will find vendors with customized logo merchandise, membership incentives and club management tools, event planning, convention sites or meeting facilities, printing options and internet services.

Other aisles feature auction houses, antique malls and galleries, collectibles shows, flea markets, and specialty aisles for specific types of collecting.

The Collectors Trade Show is always open...7 days a week...24 hours a day. Many vendors offer collectors special discounts if they are a member of an ACC member club or an NAC member.

A potential vendor wishing to have a display booth in the Collectors Trade Show can get information by contacting ACC/NAC at: info@collectors.org or 301.926.8663. A display booth can feature your full line of products or services with direct links to your own website. A booth costs $100/year and includes development of the booth based on your own website or materials provided - at no additional cost.

Unique Events acquires Milwaukee Miniature Motors

Article & Photos by Jim Welytok (Unique Events)

Unique Events Specialty Shows is pleased to announce it has purchased the Milwaukee Miniature Motors Show this past January. Owner of the event Michelle Dunn-King said she was very happy the event her father started so many years ago, will continue on with Unique Events Specialty Shows.

For nearly four and a half decades Mike & Joan Dunn produced the Milwaukee Miniature Motors show at various venues. Most of the events over the recent years were held at the Waukesha Expo Center Forum Building, 1000 Northview Road Waukesha WI. Mike and Joan Dunn were enthusiastic race fans and could be found any given Saturday night at one of the areas local tracks, cheering on their favorite drivers.

After Mike passed in 2001, Joan loyally continued running the shows until she fell ill and passed in 2014. When Michelle Dunn-King inherited the event from her parents she along with show manager Dale Jones, continued to organize the shows. Dales Jones retired at the end of 2016.

"We are honored to continue the tradition of the Milwaukee Miniature Motors Show." Jim Welytok of Unique Events said. "This show and its vendors are already involved in many of our events in Michigan, Illinois, and Wisconsin, so it's a natural fit to include these shows on our yearly schedule".

"We are also actively seeking race car drivers from the past & present to come visit and talk to their fans. Tables will be available at no charge to drivers who would like to share their racing stories with their fans. All we ask is that you call in advance to reserve your space" Welytok said.

Milwaukee Miniature Motors is held twice a year. The spring date is on the second Sunday in April, and the fall date is held on the second Sunday of October. The event features an array of plastic model kits, pressed steel and diecast cars, dealer promotional models, new and vintage toys, and all types of racing memorabilia from the past. The next scheduled show is April 9th 2017. For more information call Jim Welytok at: (262)-366-1314 or visit: www.uniqueeventsshows.com

Dentzel Rabbit Carousel Figure Brings $18,000 at Donley Auctions Fall Classic

Article & photos by Donley Auctions

Thursday's auction featured petroliana and automobiles. From classic Fords to gas pumps and signs, it was a great day! Condition on these items was impeccable, and the prices reflected the great condition. Car collector's were in 7th heaven!

Friday's sale featured coin op, saloon, as well as architectural pieces. Again, condition was supreme. Slot machines, phonographs, a huge back bar/arch and so much more!

Saturday's auction featured the Barn of Barrington antique collection and carousel figures. The carousel figures were breath taking, and there were so many to choose from!

Donley Auctions has 40+ years experience buying and selling antiques, located in Union, Illinois. We specialize in high-end antiques, coin-op, architecture, military and firearms. "We don't just sell antiques, we build relationships."

We understand that parting with sentimental possessions, selling a lifelong collection or turning a treasure into quick cash can be a daunting task or a nerve-racking idea. Donley Auctions is committed to providing a straightforward and trustworthy process. With honest hard work and true commitment to our clients' needs, we strive to simplify the process for first time consignors and experienced sellers.

Gone Wild for Manatee Gift Adoptions!

Adopting real Florida manatees for family and friends this Holiday season is nature-inspired, thoughtful gift-giving that helps Save the Manatee Club increase conservation and education efforts for the endangered marine mammals and their aquatic habitat. It also helps holiday shoppers stretch those often limited budgets.

Last year, Lisa Cartossa from Holt, Missouri, decided that since her two young nieces, Lily and Rose from North Carolina, were fortunate enough to have most everything they needed, she would adopt manatees as Christmas presents for them. Lisa chose adoptees "Paddy Doyle" and "Flash," who regularly winter at Blue Spring State Park, from Save the Manatee Club's Adopt-A-Manatee program. All of the manatees available for adoption can be viewed on the Club's website at <http://www.savethemanatee.org/adoptees.htm>. Two new manatees recently added to the list of adoptees are from Alabama, "Zewie" and "Bama."

An annual manatee adoption costs $25, which is just a little over $2 a month, and includes a color photo of a real manatee, an adoption certificate, biography, membership handbook, and subscriptions to the Club's newsletters which feature updated reports on the manatees in the adoption program. Shipping is free within the United States. Gift adoptions are sent with a personalized holiday message. Or for a $35 tax-deductible donation, each new member will also receive Save the Manatee Club's 2012 wall calendar, featuring spectacular manatee photos to enjoy all year and well past.

"When my nieces received their adoption packets for Christmas, I was told you could not have heard two children screaming with excitement louder than they were," said Lisa. "Immediately, the manatees' pictures went on their walls. They knew about manatees, but Save the Manatee Club's adoption program created this passion and enthusiasm in them that's very wonderful for me as an adult to be part of. I can't tell you how thrilled my nieces are to get the newsletter addressed personally to them. They read every word front to back. Who knows, the Club may have just created the next generation of marine life specialists dedicated to the conservation of these wonderful creatures."

Save the Manatee Club, a national nonprofit organization, was co-founded thirty years ago by singer/songwriter Jimmy Buffett. Funds from the Holiday gift adoptions help with manatee rescue, rehabilitation, and release efforts; research; education and public awareness projects; conservation work to protect manatees and their habitat; and for programs in the United States, Central and South America, the Wider Caribbean, and West Africa. Manatees are listed as endangered at the state, federal, and international levels.

Patrick Rose, aquatic biologist and Executive Director of the Club, points out that manatees face tremendous challenges to their survival from human activities. "In Florida alone, since record-keeping began in 1974, more than 38% of manatee deaths where cause of death is known were human-related. So it is imperative that we continue to educate the public about the presence of manatees in our waters. Adopting a manatee is a great way to learn more about this beloved species and how to help make a difference in their lives."

Find out more information about manatees and Holiday gift adoptions by contacting Save the Manatee Club at 500 N. Maitland Ave., Maitland, FL 32751, or calling 1-800-432-JOIN (5646), or visiting their web site at www.savethemanatee.org, where you can also sign up for the Club's free E-Newsletter. Also, discover a variety of manatee items in the Club's gift catalog at <http://www.savethemanatee.org/shop/>.

We're Stacked & We've Got Great Legs! 60 Years & Still Setting the Standard at the Fox Valley Antiques Show & Sale St. Charles, Illinois ~ March 11 & 12, 2017

(By Debbie McArdle, CSADA)

It was Spring, 1957, when 4 dozen dedicated antiques dealers formed the Chicago Suburban Antiques Dealers Association and produced their first Spring Fox Valley Antiques Show & Sale. Unbelievably, 60 years later they're still stacked and have great legs. Of course we're talking about their merchandise! From stacks of colorful pantry boxes to early tables with shapely legs, a great variety of 18th, 19th and early-20th century antiques will be available at the March 11 & 12, 2017 60th Spring Fox Valley Antiques Show and Sale in St. Charles, Illinois.

Claim your one-of-a-kind treasure before Pottery Barn replicates it! Good design never ages - that's why antiques are always in style and everything old is new once again.

55 experienced antiques dealers traveling from 18 states + Canada will offer furnishings from our past, helping you create exciting and refreshing settings to compliment any decorating scheme. See the list of dealers at www.CSADA.com.

A new twist; visit "Booth 60" created to celebrate, with the public, CSADA's 60th anniversary, featuring affordable, carefully-curated antiques priced at under $200. There's even an anniversary gift for those who make a purchase in BOOTH 60; free admission to the Fall, 2017 Fox Valley Antiques Show!

Held indoors at the bright and spacious Kane County Fairgrounds' Prairie Events Center, dealers sell from their walled and papered booths, their offerings arranged in room settings, many with an emphasis on decorative and graphic design. A "juried" show assures authenticity, allowing customers to buy with confidence.

Catered lunch with comfortable seating is available and there is plenty of free parking. Show hours are Saturday, March 11, 10 - 5, and Sunday, March 12, 10 - 4, at the Kane County Fairgrounds, 525 South Randall Road, St. Charles, Illinois 60174 (enter on Randall Road between Routes 38 and 64).

Produced by the Chicago Suburban Antiques Dealers Association, a not-for-profit organization, admission of $10 benefits local historical preservation and educational endeavors. (A discount of $2 off one or two admissions will be allowed with this press release.) ATM on premises. For more information visit www.csada.com

Antique advertising will be the focus at Iron Horse Antiques, Booth #39. Here a 33" hand-carved salmon advertises "Fresh Fish" on both sides. A 30" x 46" 2 sided jeweler's trade sign is designed to be displayed on a post, but can also be hung from the crown. (Soup can lends scale.)
