Join Our Family At Auction Action News

We are proud to announce that two baby girls "Tia Marie" and "Mekenzy Kathleen" were born to our daughter Michelle and husband Todd on Friday, March 5th. They both have dark hair like their dad, and will probably be super organized like their mother. We couldn't be happier for Todd and Michelle who eagerly awaited the arrival of these precious little girls. The big smile on their dads face as he was getting suited up to go into the delivery room with Michelle says it all!

Antiques & Appraising School Releases Data On Top Selling Items

The latest results from the Ashford Institute Of Antiques survey of buying trends within the antiques and collectibles community were recently published online this past week by the school's Research & Polling Department.

After conducting similar surveys over the past five years, the internationally recognized home-study school on antiques, collectibles and appraising, released its latest trending data from the antiques marketplace for the 2016 year. The survey, which concentrated on compiling and grouping information related to customers buying habits over a twelve month period, was brought back this year after a strong response on the school's website from readers requesting updates from previous surveys, said current Director of the Institute, Charles Green. He went on to note that there were some interesting differences between the results from this poll, and those from previous years. "We've made our questionnaire sharper, and more specific, as well as bringing the participant base up to over 1,200 respondents, but the questions are still essentially the same," said Green, "even though the answers are quite different."

Carlee Jackson, the school's public relations director agreed with Mr. Green's assessment, and stated that the main goal of this year's survey was to once again measure the interest in current trends of antiques and collectibles, based on actual sales results and requests for specific items.

She noted that while the survey was informal in nature, and not predicated on scientific formulas, the results were still quite compelling when viewed in their entirety. "What we're seeing is a strong change in direction when it comes to certain areas of the decorative arts..." said Jackson, "It's not just Mid-century modern that's moving, but a number of other areas that are also making up ground." Jackson went on to note that interest in 1960's and 70's collectibles, particularly space and Star Wars related items, had also risen sharply as well. "There's no doubt in my mind that these are the new younger collectors that we're seeing today," said Carlee. "They're the one's who are really beginning to drive the industry forward."

Aside from the popularity of Mid-century modern furniture, many of the younger dealers from the survey also noted that literally anything twentieth-century, from brutalist metal sculptures to lesser known painters had also become increasingly sought after by both dealers and collectors. "We're in a virtual bidding war every time something from this era comes up," said Shannon Smith, a young east coast dealer. "Honestly, sometimes I wonder if it's worth all the fuss!"

Older dealers seemed to echo a similar sentiment, but indicated that there were other areas of the market that were beginning to show signs of renewed interest, particularly in the area of Greek and Egyptian revival styles - especially when done in stone and marble. Claude Paquin, a longtime dealer from Quebec, said some of his Victorian marble-top side tables, which hadn't moved in years, were suddenly flying out the door. "Who knows," said Paquin, "...maybe it's the beginning of something old!"

For readers wanting to view the full results of the Institute's survey, you can find them online at the school's Student News page at: <http://www.ashford.com/2016-survey-results.html>

Appleton United Girls hosted Central Wisconsin Storm for their Teacher Appreciation game. Although they lost 9-0, it was a very exciting game. Mekenzy invited her math teacher Mr. Pritzl as her teacher to honor. Mr. Pritzl had never been to a hockey game before. He sat by Todd, Tia & I, he asked all the right questions. Each teacher received a puck that was signed by their student with appreciation & were individually called out onto the ice & then there was skating with the team after the game, it was a fun filled game.

American Cut Glass Association

The American Cut Glass Association is devoted to the study and research of American Brilliant Cut Glass. The Brilliant Period lasted from approximately 1876 to around 1914. The Association offers a number of member benefits including a newsletter published 10 times a year, an annual convention, regional chapters, and Brilliant Weekends - special events held by ACGA chapters.

The ACGA's website homepage consists of some cut glass illustrations, a welcoming statement, bulletin board and navigation menu. This menu, serving as a site map, does an excellent job of directing first time visitors to the various sections on the website.

Divided into five columns, there is a column of features on the American Cut Glass Association, itself, including their history, organization, code of ethics, endowment fund and gifts & Acquisitions fund. another column offers segments on member benefits while a third column features information and photos of examples of Brilliant Cut Glass. The fourth and fifth column comprise information on the ACGA Store and contact information.

This is a very functional club website and serves the ACGA well.

American Breweriana Association

The American Breweriana Association was incorporated in 1980 as a non-profit historical and educational association organized to advance the public knowledge of brewing and brewery history, to serve collectors and historians, and dedicated to the preservation of the memories and artifacts of America's brewing industry. The ABA reached a major goal earlier this year with the dedication of National Brewery Museum in Potosi, Wisconsin in conjunction with their national convention in nearby Dubuque, Iowa.

The ABA website - www.americanbreweriana.org - presents a magazine approach to the look of the site. The homepage gives a center "pitch" on "Why Join ABA?" along with blocks on their American Breweriana Journal, the new National Brewery Museum and upcoming events.

Drop downs from the masthead provide important links to contact information, how to join, ABA chapters, ABA officers and board, Code of Ethics and events.

The ABA site appears to be equally informative for both their 3,000 members and other site visitors... including some who may well decide to become members. And, areas on the site seem to indicate there is much more to come regarding new site features.

We hope you enjoyed the holidays and are now looking forward to this year's show. Theresa and I have teamed with Dennis Baker "Baker Airguns" to co-host the show this year. After hosting the show for the last 14 years we have decided to make the 25th Annual our last show as hosts. Dennis will be solely in charge of the 26th Annual Kalamazoo Airgun Show. Theresa and I will be in charge of table reservations and Dennis will be sending out any show up dates. We hope that everyone will give Dennis the help and support that we have enjoyed. We will still be attending the show as always. It is that time again this year to mark your calendar and start making plans to attend the Kalamazoo Airgun Show. This year's date is August 20, 2017. The show is held in Kalamazoo, Michigan at the Kalamazoo County Expo Center at the County Fairgrounds. Hours for the public are 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

We are responding to the demands of today's competitive market by re-inventing our facilities to illustrate that the combination of our six buildings makes the enormous Chicago Toy Show the largest and most interesting of all events. There is no toy show anywhere in the country with the quality and range in merchandise that we feature throughout our exhibit halls.

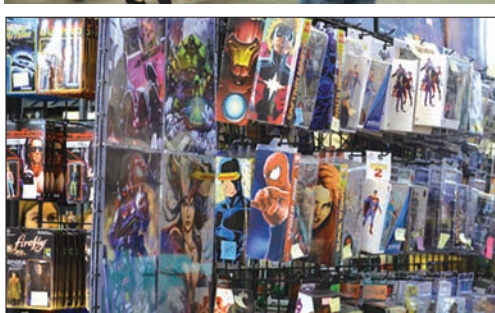

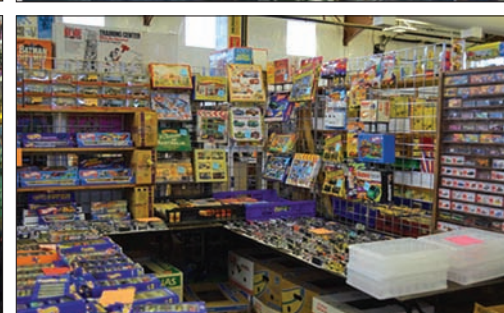

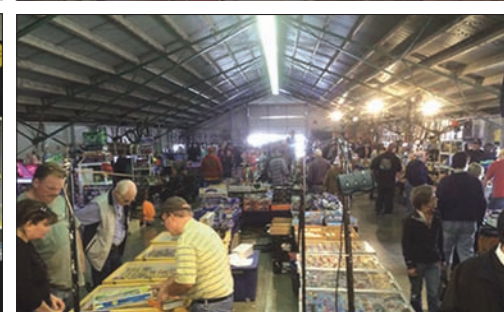

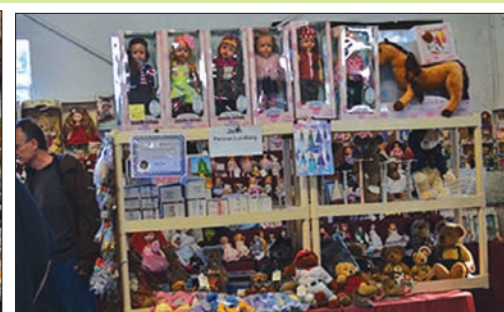

After long and careful consideration, and to better serve registration needs, we are making changes in the content of our buildings. The Chicago Toy Show will now feature three enormous high-ceiling exhibit halls full of TOYS (East, West, and Exhibit A) backed by three more exhibit halls featuring TOYS (Trades North, Trades South, and Rabbit), with two buildings full of DOLLS (Robinson Kitchen and the Atrium). We will become a Mega Show like no other, and we will do it with reasonable booth prices, reasonable admission fees, reasonable food, and free parking. Just wait until you see us in April !

We are responding to today's market by reinventing our facilities. Toy exhibitors that have displayed in Trades North and Trades South will re-locate to Exhibit A (formerly Robinson Hall), the doll exhibitors in Robinson Hall will re-locate to Robinson Kitchen and the Atrium, and Rabbit toy exhibitors will re-locate to Trades North and Trades South. Toy exhibitors in East and West will display in their prior locations.

You are invited to the Chicago Toy Show on Sunday, April 23, from 8:00am to 3:00pm at the Kane County Fairgrounds, 525 South River Rd in St Charles IL. Contact <www.chicagotoyshow.com> for information on floor rights, tables and room trading. FREE parking, adult admission is $10.00, and children are FREE. SPECIAL ATTRACTION: The Midwest Garrison of the 501st Legion, Star Wars costuming organization is coming again to pose with you for your family/group photos. The 501st Legion is a worldwide Star Wars costuming organization comprised of and operated by Star Wars fans, Lucas film's preferred Imperial Costuming Group.

will be visiting with you

Doll Lovers and Collectors!

Mark your Calendars for March 18, 2017 to attend the 46th Annual Madison Area Doll Club Show and Sale “Dolls from the Attic”

Article by Vicki Kutz
(The Madison Area Doll Club of Wisconsin)

For the past 45 years, the Madison Area Doll Club has put on one of the premiere doll shows in the Midwest. Held in Madison, Wisconsin it is easily accessed by many of Midwest doll enthusiasts. The show features over 40 of the best doll vendors from the Midwest in over 20,000 square feet of well-lit display space! Dolls of all eras and types are represented, including antique, vintage, modern, and artist dolls. Also included are doll clothing, accessories, doll house miniatures, furniture and anything doll-related!

You will find among the treasures anything from Barbie Dolls to French Jumeau's. Antique German and French dolls are well-represented as well as vintage 1950s dolls, including Vogue Ginny, Madame Alexander, Ideal and others. Cloth and Felt dolls will include makers such as Lenci, Poir, Kathe Kruse and more! Modern dolls such as American Girl and others will provide you with many choices. Artist dolls include reborn doll artists as well as well-known national doll artist dolls. A doll shopper's paradise for either the beginning collector or seasoned veteran!

Our vendors include well-known local, regional and national doll sellers, including Fritzi's Antique Dolls, Victoria's Doll House, Ducks and Dolls, Linda's Doll House, Edelweiss Dolls and many more. We will also have some new vendors joining us this year. We are still accepting vendors for this show. Please see contact information below.

In addition to the opportunity to view and purchase merchandise at sales tables, free doll appraisals are offered and repair consultations will be available. New this year will be our silent auction with items that you can bid on. That will add to the fun! As always, we will have a free grand prize drawing that some lucky attendee will win. We also feature our club members' doll display. The display will be based on our show theme “Dolls from the Attic” where many different types of dolls are represented in various scenes.

A food court area will be present in the exhibition hall and offers delicious salads, sandwiches, coffee and beverages. There is also an area with chairs so you can sit down and take a break, as well as chat with other doll lovers about your purchases or things you have seen at the show.

The Madison Area Doll Club of Wisconsin, an affiliate of United Federation of Doll Clubs (UFDC), is a non-profit organization. Profits from the event support other local and national non-profit organizations.

Mark the date: Saturday, March 18th from 9:00 AM to 3:00 PM at the Alliant Energy Center Exhibition Hall, 1919 Alliant Energy Way, Madison WI 53713. Admission is $5.00 per person with children under 18 years of age free. There is a $7.00 per vehicle parking fee at Alliant.

For additional information or dealer inquiries, please contact Vicki Kutz at 608-279-5298 or via email: dollcoll@charter.net
