Smiling Faces Throughout the Northern Illinois Antiques Dealers Association Rockford Show

Article & photos by Michelle Goltz

On February 18th and 19th, 2017 The Northern Illinois Antiques Dealers Association held its 57th Annual Antique Show in Rockford (Loves Park), at the Forest Hill Lodge. What a spectacular day to go antiquing! The weather was sunny, oddly warm for February, so planning a day trip from Milwaukee was perfect. On the way to Northern Illinois it would be sad if you didn't take a drive through Lake Geneva and take in the view and why not stop for breakfast "Egg Harbor Restaurant" was busy, but so worth the short wait.

Campus is literally in the middle of corn fields.

Across the street, all corn field.

Tia will be attending Lakeland University, it is just east of Howards Grove, Wisconsin. Tia & I attended their scholarship day. She had an appointment with the science department. We enjoyed the day together, we casually walked around the campus in the morning & visited the campus store & of course purchased stickers for mine & Todd's cars & also got T-shirt showing Lakeland University (mom/dad). We then attended the honors program seminar, which Tia is in, the professor talked more in depth on how the program worked. Then we got to see motivational speaker "Coach Carter". Wow, I just loved his speech, now I have to watch his movie. Then, we attended an awesome lunch followed by Tia's meeting with one of the science professors for her scholarship. She received her phone call two days later letting her know she received the scholarship & a little extra for attending the day & being able to be there for the interview. We are so very proud of her.

57th Annual Northern Illinois Antiques Dealers Association Show Held in Rockford

Arriving at our destination, not long after feeding our bellies we entered a charming building filled with a wide variety of Antiques. We were welcomed by smiling faces and an eye catching display by Raven's Nest, Cleveland WI showcasing adorable antique teddy bears and beautiful glassware and much, much more. And it didn't stop there, the exhibit hall had a great floor plan of vendors with visual appeal and plenty of room to move throughout the show.

Once again, I was overwhelmed with the kindness, knowledge and willingness to share stories of history. Whether you are looking for something in particular or just shopping for a piece of history that catches your eye, you will not walk away for the show disappointed. There is always so much to take in and you will find yourself talking about the things you saw for days. I have only attended two shows since I began writing about the shows for Auction Action Antique News and I feel so blessed and welcomed by the vendors and so will you! With that being said, plan a day with a friend, significant other or a children or even a grandchild like my parents do. There is so much to enjoy and appreciate why not share and keep our history alive. Until next time, history is in the heart of those who share!

Colorado Quilting: From Mountains to Plains
By Mary Ann Schmidt & the Colorado Quilting Council

This book is the culmination of more than 125 years of tradition and countless "Documentation Days," during which quilting council members record the block technique, age, batting, backing, and color of each quilt their fellow quilters trust them to preserve. Thirteen chapters explore important historical quilting moments, traditional and modern quilting themes, and the beginnings of the Rocky Mountain Quilt Museum and the Quilter's Newsletter magazine. Different council members researched, photographed, and recorded the most significant events, memories, quilters, and quilts that have influenced the progress of quilting in Colorado. Early Coloradans picked their own cotton, saved every scrap of used fabric, and made quilts from scratch to support their families and for therapy as they recovered from serious injuries and illnesses. Many of these sacred stitches are still works in progress and continue to illustrate what's important to these dedicated craftspeople.

Quality Firearms Auction January 15th at Cady Auction

Article & photos by Cady Auction

"We were not sure how the election would affect firearm sales, but we were pleased to see that they are still selling extremely strong," said Mike Cady. Colts are always a favorite, in-house bidders battled for a Colt Ananconda revolver which eventually hammered at $2950 (all prices before buyer's premium). Examples of other firearms that brought strong prices were a Ruger Mini 14 SS rifle selling for $2100, Thompson Auto Ordnance rifle ending at $1250, Steyr SSG 69 rifle selling for $1400, Springfield M1A rifle $1225 and a Ruger Mod #1 going to a new owner for $850.

A large collection of firearm parts, mostly new-old stock and many that are hard to find, and ammunition, had a strong showings with the online bidders. For an example, a lot of 60+ poly-chokes sold to an Internet bidder for $1350 and 500 rounds of Remington 22 short sold for $160. Since this was only part of the collection from a Illinois gunsmith, Cady Auction will be selling more over the next couple of months.

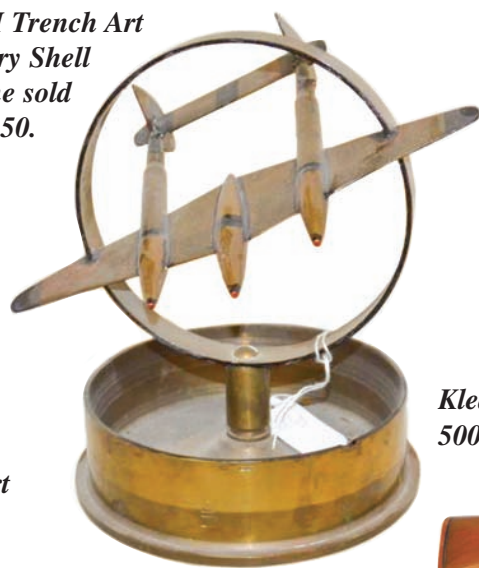

One of the more interesting items in the militaria was an original 1862 Civil War Wisconsin Soldiers Memorial lythograph. Soldier's memorial lythographs can be found in antique stores, militray shows or even at auction however this one was unique, instead of copies of the photos, the original tintypes were attached to the back. It was determined that this was the original that copies were taken of and sent to families after contacting a Wisconsin Historical Society. The lythograph sold for $725. Of course Trench art is always popular, a WWII P38 airplane trench art piece sold for $350 and WWI decorated shell sold for $180.

Cady Auction has become Iowa's premier firearms & militaria auction house. Gone Wild for Manatee Gift Adoptions!

Adopting real Florida manatees for family and friends this Holiday season is nature-inspired, thoughtful gift-giving that helps Save the Manatee Club increase conservation and education efforts for the endangered marine mammals and their aquatic habitat. It also helps holiday shoppers stretch those often limited budgets.

Last year, Lisa Cartossa from Holt, Missouri, decided that since her two young nieces, Lily and Rose from North Carolina, were fortunate enough to have most everything they needed, she would adopt manatees as Christmas presents for them. Lisa chose adoptees "Paddy Doyle" and "Flash," who regularly winter at Blue Spring State Park, from Save the Manatee Club's Adopt-A-Manatee program. All of the manatees available for adoption can be viewed on the Club's website at <http://www.savethemanatee.org/adoptees.htm>. Two new manatees recently added to the list of adoptees are from Alabama, "Zewie" and "Bama."

An annual manatee adoption costs $25, which is just a little over $2 a month, and includes a color photo of a real manatee, an adoption certificate, biography, membership handbook, and subscriptions to the Club's newsletters which feature updated reports on the manatees in the adoption program. Shipping is free within the United States. Gift adoptions are sent with a personalized holiday message. Or for a $35 tax-deductible donation, each new member will also receive Save the Manatee Club's 2012 wall calendar, featuring spectacular manatee photos to enjoy all year and well past.

"When my nieces received their adoption packets for Christmas, I was told you could not have heard two children screaming with excitement louder than they were," said Lisa. "Immediately, the manatees' pictures went on their walls. They knew about manatees, but Save the Manatee Club's adoption program created this passion and enthusiasm in them that's very wonderful for me as an adult to be part of. I can't tell you how thrilled my nieces are to get the newsletter addressed personally to them. They read every word front to back. Who knows, the Club may have just created the next generation of marine life specialists dedicated to the conservation of these wonderful creatures."

Save the Manatee Club, a national nonprofit organization, was co-founded thirty years ago by singer/songwriter Jimmy Buffett. Funds from the Holiday gift adoptions help with manatee rescue, rehabilitation, and release efforts; research; education and public awareness projects; conservation work to protect manatees and their habitat; and for programs in the United States, Central and South America, the Wider Caribbean, and West Africa. Manatees are listed as endangered at the state, federal, and international levels.

Patrick Rose, aquatic biologist and Executive Director of the Club, points out that manatees face tremendous challenges to their survival from human activities. "In Florida alone, since record-keeping began in 1974, more than 38% of manatee deaths where cause of death is known were human-related. So it is imperative that we continue to educate the public about the presence of manatees in our waters. Adopting a manatee is a great way to learn more about this beloved species and how to help make a difference in their lives."

Find out more information about manatees and Holiday gift adoptions by contacting Save the Manatee Club at 500 N. Maitland Ave., Maitland, FL 32751, or calling 1-800-432-JOIN (5646), or visiting their web site at www.savethemanatee.org, where you can also sign up for the Club's free E-Newsletter. Also, discover a variety of manatee items in the Club's gift catalog at <http://www.savethemanatee.org/shop/>.

These mechanisms, and the patents behind them, demonstrate their makers' unique creativity and ingenuity that all attendees are sure to find truly remarkable. Blauser will be on hand to explain how the ingenious characteristics of these now outlawed devices worked to capture their prey. Northstar Collective Acquires Indy Ad Show

Article by Northstar Collective

Northstar Collective is pleased to announce the recent purchase of the Indianapolis Antique Advertising Show. The Indy Ad Show, as it is referred to by dealers and participants alike, is one of the longest running shows, of its kind, in the country. Entering its 45th year, this event has always been famously known where the best of the best could be found in all types of early advertising. Dealers from all over the country have gathered twice a year in Indianapolis to show off a broad base of items for sale to appeal to the beginning collector as well as the very advanced.

Previous owners Bruce and Donna Wier of, B&D Promotions, have owned and operated the show since 2010, and will operate the March show as they have in the past. The Fall Indy show will be held on September 23rd and 24th of this year under it's new ownership and will be moved 20 miles northwest of Indianapolis to the Boone County Fairgrounds located in Lebanon Indiana. The Lebanon location provides a beautiful rural setting with great potential to appeal to a large customer base. Northstar believes this new acquisition will complement the other two shows, the Boone County Gas & Oil and the Boone County Vintage Market that Northstar will be running simultaneously at the fairgrounds.

Northstar also acquired the Gateway Gas & Ad Show from B & D Promotions which runs once a year in February in the St Louis metro area. Combining these newly acquired shows with the Antique Sporting and Advertising Show Oshkosh, WI and the Minocqua Antique Show in Minocqua WI, Northstar's Portfolio will include 6 shows a year that they produce.

Any questions, or dealer inquiries about any of the shows we promote can be directed to Nona Amour Wilson. Email: info@boonecountytreasurehunt.com or call 906-250-1618 or visit our website at www.boonecountytreasurehunt.com

History - Brown & McCoy Pottery

By Dewayne Imsand

Paul Moody of Richmond, VA made a remarkable discovery of a previously unknown salt glazed crock, labeled, BROWN & McCOY WHOLESALE DEALERS IN STONEWARE ROSEVILLE, O. Just how this piece fit into the known history of the McCoy potteries was intriguing, so an investigation was begun. At first it was thought that the crock was made by a Brown & McCoy Company where the McCoy was unrelated to the McCoy family known to us, but subsequently the following was found.

The Brown in the inscription was James E. Brown who was born in 1820. His father, Joseph Brown who was from Delaware, moved his family in 1837 to McLuney, Ohio. McLuney is located in Perry County in Harrison Township about 11/2miles south of Crooksville.

James E. Brown had married Lucy Ann Sowers before 1850, and moved to Roseville. Throughout their marriage they had seven children, one of which was Sarah E. Brown. There is more about Sarah below. James E. Brown became a well-known merchant, and both he, and later his son George Washington Brown, was quite influential in the Roseville area. Among James business ventures was a general merchandising store. In the Federal censuses of the late 1800 s, James listed his occupation as a merchant rather than a potter, indicating that he was not involved in making pottery, but rather a wholesale seller of it in his store. It is known from a history of the Brown family, that James employed his son G. W. Brown, and J.B. Owens at the store, and that G.W. went on to establish a pottery around 1850. In 1883, J.B. established the J.B. Owens Pottery Company .

In April 1870, a connection between the Brown family and the McCoy family occurred. The McCoy in this connection was James W. McCoy. J.W. was born in 1848, the same year as his family arrived in Muskingum County. His father, W. Nelson and wife Esther, had settled in Putnam, which later became a part of Zanesville. J.W. was 22 years old in 1870 when he married Sarah (Sade) Elizabeth Brown, the daughter of James E. Brown.

During the following year, J.W. and Sarah moved to Uniontown, Newton Township, Muskingum County, where he operated a dry goods store. In 1872, they moved to the community of Roseville, very near his wife s parents. McCoy references have reported that J.W. opened a general merchandise store in Roseville in 1876, but I was always curious why he, and his wife, moved to Roseville five years earlier, and what J.W. did during that time.

It was discovered that the reason he moved to Roseville was that his father-in-law offered to take him in as a partner in his mercantile business, and their partnership became known as Brown & McCoy . The Brown and McCoy business operated from 1872 until 1888. It is surprising that neither the name James Brown, nor information about the Brown & McCoy business, has appeared in the literature.

After 1888, evidently the Brown & McCoy business was sold; for James E. Brown went on to establish a furniture store on First Street in Roseville - he was 68 years old at the time. He died in 1907 at the age of 88. It is not known when J.W. left the business, but as mentioned above, J.W. opened a general merchandise store in Roseville in 1876. Then in 1886, he entered into a series of partnerships in the pottery business. Finally, in 1899 he, along with several investors, established a pottery in Roseville solely in his own name, the J. W. McCoy Pottery.
