61st Midwest Antique & Art Show, A Great Place to Find that Perfect Piece

Article & photos by Michelle Goltz

The trip from Milwaukee was smooth, great weather and company of my better half. We decided to leave on Saturday so we could enjoy a great dinner and head to the show as it opened. Cedar Rapids and the surrounding city have some unique areas, as well as great places to eat!

Sunday morning started a bit rough as I was trying to chase off a flu bug, but it didn't stop me from heading to the show that we were excited to attend. As I pulled into the parking lot just after 10, there were several people already walking out with some great finds. One couple had a van and with some help they were able to get two great pieces of furniture loaded safely. As I entered the hall, it was filled with vendors and shoppers and I could feel the energy! The ladies greeting at the door were smiley and helpful letting everyone know that there were two halls filled with great vendors as they handed brochures with the layout of the show!

I am looking forward to the October 22, 2017 show, and I intend to make sure I am healthy so that I can enjoy the show to the fullest! Hope to see you there, you will not be disappointed! Look for them on Facebook! Midwest Antique ^ Art and The Collector's Eye Shows <https://www.facebook.com/MWAntiqueShow> and watch for their ads in Auction Action Antique News.

Rich Penn Auctions presents: A Tribute To The Titans of Transportation and More!!

Toy planes, trains, automobiles, boats, ships, trucks, motorcycles and more, if it was built for transportation, it was collected. And on May 19-21 it will be sold! The companies that made these toys were Titans in the industry and are all well represented; Bing, Orkin Craft, Kenton, A.C. Williams, Arnold, Ives, Marklin, Dent, Fleischmann, Lionel, Arcade, Vindex, Marx, Schuco and others. They will all come together at the Rich Penn Auction event being held in Waterloo, Iowa at the Five Sullivan Brothers Convention Center. Penn said, "This is the first time we've held an auction in our home town and we're excited about it!! We were never able to get dates that matched our schedules and finally.....after working well in advance, it's come together! This will be a fabulous auction to be our "kick-off" in a new facility. There's a wonderful variety and we're selling several amazing collections...and as always, there are no reserves!"

There were Titans in the companies that made toys, and there were Titans that collected them. The late Dick Borgerding (1926-2016) and George Chartier, both from Michigan, were two of those collector Titans. Dick had one of America's greatest collections of toy boats, ships and motors. A pharmacist by profession, Dick started his collection in the 1970's. But his interest then was big boats, like the Chris Crafts. In the 1980's a friend gave him a toy Chris Craft. That started it! At his first toy show, in Saline, MI, Dick bought 31 toy boats! Hundreds of boats later and hundreds of friends later, Dick became well known in boating circles. Many of his boats were featured in reference books. His entire collection is now coming to auction.

saucer....complete with an Alien pilot!

Miniature motors also come in air driven models. Nearly 100 carefully hand-crafted and machined miniature motors were built by the late Clifton Eichelberger. He machined each and every part for these compressed air driven motors. The collection is amazing in detail and mechanics. From V-4s with overhead cams to unusual rotary engines, the engineering is remarkable.

Of the nearly 2,000 lots in this auction, these toys make up several hundred. But there's much more than toy boats and motors. There's a great collection of tin windup and cast iron toys. Many of the windup toys come with original boxes. Among those are Joe Penner, Jazzbo-Jim, Charleston Trio and a number of other. Many other much sought after windups are included: Superman roll-over, Tidy Tim, Jackee Hornpipe Dancer and many more. There are also banks, both still and mechanical. Advertising signs are offered in a variety of categories, Tobacco, Coca-Cola, other Soda Brands like Pepsi, Hires, 7 Up and other popular drinks, Breweriana, General Merchandise and others. Clocks are offered with advertising and neon as well as classic regulator and shelf styles.

Among the most exciting signs are a number of great Coca-Cola porcelain signs. From flanges to large double-sided porcelain, there are great choices. Perhaps the most striking Coca-Cola sign is a three-piece "Drink Coca-Cola" button flanked by two porcelain wings with a hand offering a Coke. In near mint condition, this 65" vending and juke boxes. This variety includes a number of "as found" juke boxes, many in storage for 40+ years. They just need some collector love to bring them back to life. Among the most rare are two AMI Streamliners. These machines were made in the 1930's in very limited numbers. With less than 3,000 made, there are only a handful still in existence. One of these machines was actually modified by a Canadian company. It's unusual in that the 20 selection machine selects by using one of 20 coin slots!

Slot machines are offered in both original and restored condition. One of the most unusual is a Caille 5 cent 4-reel Superior. Nearly all others are three reel. This is a 1930's machine and is a rare version of the Superior. Line up the 1, 2, 3 & 4 symbols on the pay line and win the "5 in Trade" jackpot! Another rare machine is the 5 cent Mills "Automatic Salesman" with side vendor. Both of these machines are great original examples. The coin-op machines also include rare Postage Machines, Harvard Metal Typers, Penny Scales and other vendors.

As always, a Rich Penn Auction Event comes with Great Country Store pieces. This auction is no exception. Several Salesman's Samples, Spool Cabinets, Dye Cabinets, Ribbon Cabinets, Display Cases and Show Cases come in a variety of sizes and configurations. A 10' seed counter, by Universal Counter Co., Herkimer, NY is one of the premier pieces. In original condition, it would make a great statement piece in any country store collection. Other decorative pieces are offered as well. A c.1870's Wooten Rotary roll top desk, walnut and oak furniture, lighting and a large variety of stoneware, including Sleepy Eye. All should make this an auction with something for everyone!

Penn added comments about the new location for their auctions. "We're pretty excited about doing our auctions in our hometown. The Five Sullivan Brothers Convention Center is just 100 yards from our office. We were finally able to get the dates we needed. It's a great facility and is connected to a hotel and parking ramp. Both are connected by an enclosed skywalk. Plus, it's within walking distance to some great restaurants. The hotel gave our guests a special $79 room rate and I think we'll have some other fun things lined up too. We're really looking forward to it!" The site is conveniently located in downtown Waterloo, just one block off the freeway.

For those who can't make it, Penn offers multiple bidding options, including absentee, telephone and live bidding online through LiveAuctioneers. Find the links to the online catalog on Penn's web site. Full color catalogs will be available for $40. Prices realized will be posted online. Just contact Rich Penn Auctions at 319-291-6688 to order yours. Go to www.RichPennAuctions.com to register or to preview the auction. Absentee and phone bidding are always welcome.

wide sign should attract serious attention. An Edelweiss double-sided porcelain is equally exciting. A 1940's sign, with original frame, this sign measures 33" x 33" and is in excellent condition. Not a sign...but another rare and desirable Breweriana piece is an excellent condition Anheuser-Busch 1910 serving tray. This c.1910 tray shows a Roman Goddess and cherubs w/A-B beer bottles.

Toys come in bigger sizes for bigger boys & girls. So you can expect to be offered coin-operated machines, slots, arcade, “30th Star Benefit Antiques Auction” FRIENDS of WHS Seek Donations of Antique Treasures!

Article & Photos by Debbie McArdle, FRIENDS of the Wisconsin Historical Society

The FRIENDS of the Wisconsin Historical Society are currently collecting tax-deductible donations of antiques and vintage items for their April 2018 "30th Star Benefit Antiques Auction" held at Old World Wisconsin in Eagle.

The inaugural auction, held in April 2010, was followed by three successful encores in April, 2012, 2014 & 2016. Thus far the proceeds from the four biennial auctions have provided important funding for the Wisconsin Historical Society's state historic sites as well as for National History Day.

Though a year away, the "30th Star Benefit Antiques Auction" demands a great deal of advance preparation. Contributions of antiques (more than 99 years old) and vintage items (50-99 years old) will be gathered from across middle America. In keeping with their goal to "preserve and share history", each item will be accompanied by a Provenance Statement. The auction catalog will list the known history of each piece as well as the donor's name, if desired. Tax deductible receipts will be provided.

A fifth grant just received from the Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association (WADA) continues their commitment as the auction's founding sponsors. The admissions charged at their October and February antiques shows in Waukesha fund their grant and scholarship programs. See <http://www.WisconsinAntiquesDealers.com> to learn more.

Carol Miller of Bailey's Honor Auction Service in Oconomowoc has once again volunteered to call the auction. You can follow her may auctions throughout the year at <http://baileyshonor.com/>

For questions about the April 2018 "30th Star Benefit Antiques Auction" or to make a donation of an antique or vintage item, please contact Riene Wells at 262.363.4700, info@eagle-house.com or Debbie McArdle at 815.575.1272, jjmcard@comcast.net.

When discussing quality shows for serious arms collectors, those sponsored by the Collectors Arms Dealers Association (CADA) are considered to be among the best. One of the oldest national arms dealers’ organizations, CADA currently concentrates on the greater Chicagoland area but has also held shows in New England, Florida, and Denver.

The upcoming show at the DuPage County Fairgrounds in Wheaton IL, will feature some of the best-known and respected dealers in collector-quality guns, swords and militaria from across the country. Though not as large as some shows, CADA’s shows are highly respected for the quality of their offerings. As a result, our shows attract serious collectors of quality collectibles. Indeed, comments such as “It’s almost like being in a museum!” are often heard from attendees.

Finally, CADA’s shows have also earned the respect of the authorities in an era when “gun” is all too often considered a four-letter word. We always invite the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms to take a table at our shows and they’ve frequently accepted, passing out literature and answering questions about gun ownership and transfers. We’ve also been told that the Illinois State Police consider our shows to be the cleanest and most responsible in the state.

Membership in CADA is limited to dealers with stellar reputations; Unethical or illegal behavior is not tolerated. We pride ourselves on the quality of our membership and the quality of our shows.
