Collectors Come to Play at the Toy and Doll Show at Kane County Fairgrounds

Article & photos by Michelle Goltz

Kane County Fairgrounds had a fabulous "Toy & Doll" show on April 23rd in St. Charles, Illinois. This is one of the LARGEST COMBINED Doll and Toy events in the area! The fairgrounds were pack with people of all ages! The show had four exhibit buildings filled with toys and collectibles, although there were children with their parents, I have to admit the majority were grown adult children rather than actual children! Everyone was having fun and carrying out bags full of great finds, there were even a few in costume of their favorite character (Transformer, Star Wars, action figures).

Out & About

Lots of outdoor events going on right now. Remember to pack for any kind of weather. Make an antiquing travel bag ready to go with water, umbrella, sunblock, some snacks and a portable chair. Mainly remember your Auction Action Antique News. Be sure to be cutting out that auction calendar and posting it on the fridge or bulletin board. I have this huge 5' x 4' bulletin board in my mud room. It holds all that little important paper work. I then have a large 3' x 2' wipe-off board by our entry door that all the kids put their schedules and work times on. It is color coded for each of us, so you know instantly where someone is.

Small percentage are staying & attending Fox Valley Tech.

Feel Like a Kid Again at St. Charles Toy and Doll Show

Article & Photos by Michelle Goltz

The vendors were smiley yet very busy helping shoppers! It was a breathe of fresh air to witness camaraderie amongst the vendors, their willingness to step in and watch over their neighbors space to the best of their ability until they returned is commendable! Whether you are looking for something fun to do or add to your collection or simply trying to get a jump on an upcoming birthday or the holiday gift season this is the place to be!

It was such a beautiful day and to top it off they had outdoor vendors with great food and the best start to Spring was the "Waffle Cones" vendor that made fresh cones as you wait! I couldn't pass that up, it was a great treat for my drive back to Milwaukee, it was the best waffle cone by far!

The National Museum of Cambridge Glass

On April 3, 2002, the National Cambridge Collectors, Inc. proudly opened a premier glass museum in downtown Cambridge, Ohio. It houses a superb collection of Cambridge glassware produced by The Cambridge Glass Company from 1902 to 1958.

The museum is located at 136 South Ninth Street, one block south of the main street of Cambridge, and is open April through October with hours of operation shown at the bottom of this page.

At right, you can view an interview conducted with Cindy Arent, one of our NCC Board Members who is the chairperson of the Museum Committee. Click on the arrow to start it. Here is a chance to hear first-hand about our world-class museum. If you'd like to see it a little larger, click on the picture while it is showing and you will be taken to the YouTube page where it is presented in a larger size.

The year 2002 marked the 100th anniversary of the making of the first piece of Cambridge Glass (the Big X pitcher, shown below and to the right). The Museum Grand Opening celebration took during NCC Convention week on June 27, 2002. We're easy to find - here's a map of the Cambridge area.

Museum Contents

Big X Pitcher The museum features over 6,000 pieces of glassware made by the Cambridge Glass Company, with an interpretive area demonstrating how glass was made from gathering, shaping, etching, and engraving.

The Sample Room features the door and shelving from the original factory, and a dining room display features a table setting arranged on period furniture much as it would have appeared in the early 1900s.

Guests can do their own rubbings from original etching plates in the Education Center, and view a movie made in the 1940s by the Cambridge Glass Company.

Pieces of Cambridge Glass and jewelry made from Cambridge Glass are available for sale in the gift shop, along with books and other items throughout the museum.

Multiphone Coin-Op Cylinder Phonograph Brings a Fantastic $49,000 at Donley Auctions

Article & Photos by Donley Auctions

The items up for bids that day were from the collections of Fred Plank and Wayne Cook. A 1936 Martin guitar drew a lot of attention from the crowd, and sold for a high bid of $35,000! But even those with a limited budget could find something, two Washburn Nuno Bettencourt guitars (signed), went for $200 each.

There were big pieces, like a Wurlitzer band organ, a Regina Sublima Piano and a large street organ, not to mention a nice Rock-Ola Bubbler CD jukebox. And there were smaller pieces, like over 100 cylinder & disc phonographs, as well as 1000's of unpicked cylinder & 78 RPM records. There were many fine instruments including 24 band autographed guitars from Austin's Saloon and vintage banjos including an Ikey Robinsons Bellstar tenor.

Donley Auctions is located at 8512 S. Union Rd. in Union, Illinois. We can be reached at 815-923-7000, by email: DonleyAuctions@outlook.com and be sure to visit our website: www.donleyauctions.com.

Grand Opening of Main Street Antique Mall In Historic Downtown Marinette

We are excited to announce the grand opening of the Main Street Antique Mall on Memorial Day Weekend 2017. Antiques dealers from around the region will be showcasing a wide array of treasures from Victorian to Eastlake and Mid-Century Modern to collectibles.

addition of the Main Street Antique Mall is the third new business this year to open its doors on Main Street in downtown Marinette, adding to the revitalization of the historic corridor. Wolfe and Brooks plan to open an additional antiques venue next summer. Their next retail business, an architectural antiques shop on Hall Avenue in Marinette, will be the second antique store in one year to open in the historic downtown. Their goal is to make Marinette and Menominee a destination for antiques shopping.

The expansive mall is in the former Globe Furnishings Building and has space for fifty dealers in its 6,000 square-foot showroom. The mall is exquisitely appointed and has already garnished the attention of out-of-state shoppers. Inside the mall is a mercantile section with locally-sourced products like honey, jams, and hand-made soaps as well as nostalgic candies and treats.

The mall will be open year round. Grand opening hours are Friday, May 26, 10-5, Saturday, May 27, 10-4, and Sunday, May 28, 12-4. For more information, please visit www.mainstreetantiquemalls.com

Proprietors Rusty Wolfe and Kim Brooks moved from Nashville, Tennessee, to open this new venture and bring twenty-five years of experience to the project. The

We look forward to seeing you in Marinette on Memorial Day Weekend!

$ Wanted! Reward! $

We own the large portrait photo of Wyatt Earp (taken by pioneer woman photographer Candace Reed in Quincy, Illinois in 1870) which is seen below on the top left. This photo was likely stored in the dark for almost 150 years along with the now missing matching portrait of Wyatt's first wife Urilla Sutherland. We believe both were sold out of the excess inventory of the Manitowoc, Wisconsin County Historical Society sometime in the 1900s. We will pay at least $25,000 (this amount is negotiable) to own the missing portrait of Urilla which is likely hanging in someone's house in Wisconsin or a nearby state. However, we must be able to examine it in order to determine it is her. If you have a portrait which measures 36" by 22" (frame O.D. 41.25" by 27.50"), and the frame matches the one Wyatt is framed in, and it's a woman wearing 1870s clothes- chances are you have the portrait we are looking for. We do not know what Urilla's dress looks like. Urilla may look like her sister Velma (seen below on the right) but she could be wearing a different style dress or jacket than the one shown in the frame below on the left. The best clue is the 36" by 22" actual size of the photograph which may also exhibit a strong resemblance to her sister Velma or the woman in the photo below in the center. Unlike Wyatt, the frame she is in may not be damaged. Like Wyatt, her portrait could also be signed Burger & Reed. An ad was run offering her for sale (as Wyatt's wife) around 2003-2006 in one of the antique newspapers distributed in WI. We will pay $5000 to the first person who can provide us with an original copy of that ad which shows Urilla's portrait.

If you have the portrait photo we are looking for and would like to part with it for some serious cash. Please call

Gary Stover at (303) 875-4271 or Marshall Bulle at (719) 489-2300

of Urilla (not sure)
