Out & About

Graduation Day! Congratulations Tia & Mekenzy

The girls graduate on Thursday, June 1st. For all of you who have been with us since their birth and have heard all about them growing up. Now you get to hear and be a part of them graduating. The Grandparents will all be in attendance for the special day. We all keep saying we will not cry but I'm sure there will be a few tears.

Be sure to watch the auction ads for those outdoor auctions. Be prepared and have your inclement weather kit available in the car. The weather sure has been a little unpredictable lately. The other day, I washed clothes and hung them out to dry and within 30 minutes they were dry. For my next load, just as I was checking it, it started to sprinkle with sunshine. Brandon told me it had just started. It then turned so windy, everything was blowing off the porch. Here is a funny for everyone. I was sitting in my home office doing work on Memorial Day listening to Brandon run his truck in the garage. So, I went in the garage and said lets go for a ride. His eyes lit up and said really! I said sure, we will stay in the neighborhood. He said he didn't know how much gas he had because his gauge was broke and I said that was fine. We ran out of gas and Mekenzy had to run and get us some. We laughed the whole time we were waiting for the gas.

On May 21st, Renee's nephew Dylan received his Bachelor of Science degree from the Marquette University School of Business. We could not be more proud of Dylan's accomplishments and his character. He's done some fantastic things the last few years, from a Mission trip to Mississippi to help rebuild homes, to an internship at Kohler and most recently, an International Studies trip to the Czech Republic. We look forward to the amazing things he has in his future. Congrats Dylan!!

W. Yoder Auction was founded by Wayne Yoder Jr. in 1999, and has been a member of the National Auctioneers Association since 2002. When asked why he became an auctioneer, he will tell you it is because he enjoys the many different types of people he meets across the country that come to the auctions and the action each auction provides. In 2008, Wayne became the Wisconsin Auctioneer State Champion when he participated in the competition held every year at the Wisconsin State Fair located in Milwaukee, WI. "It was a wonderful experience that I will never forget." He had participated in the competition 3 times prior to winning and each year learned from his mistakes and bettered himself. His hard work shows through in every auction that he has.

Since opening, W Yoder Auctions has been dedicated to staying on top of the most technologically advanced system to provide their customers with a smooth auction experience. We want everyone who comes to our auctions to have the most positive experience possible, and that is why we believe in having fun at our auctions. We look forward to seeing you at our next auction, and hope you walk away having a smile on your face with that winning item in your hands.

Antiques & Appraising School Launches "New" e-Course

Article by Charles Green (Ashford Institute of Antiques)

The Ashford Institute of Antiques (AIA), a professional-level distance learning program on antiques, collectibles and appraising, recently rolled out its first ever online "e-Course," at an industry trade gathering earlier this month, in anticipation of the school's 50th anniversary to be held in New York later this year.

Described by school spokesperson Shelly Dumont, as a watershed moment for the Institute, Dumont said the school's first foray into e-learning was consistent with Ashford's innovative and groundbreaking teaching techniques employed over the last 50 years. "When we offer something new, we like to take the time to make sure it's done right," said Dumont at a Q & A session following the announcement.

When asked about the differences in curriculum between textbooks and the new e-Course format of the program, Dumont said there was literally no comparison. "In terms of sheer volume, it's almost double the size of the printed version, and comes loaded with interactive videos, multimedia-activities, web-based resource links, and a host of other features we simply can't add into the texts." Dumont went on to say that the e-Course had been in development for almost two years by the school's IT team, before any release dates were even considered.

Industry insiders attending the trade gathering were granted temporary passcodes to the e-Course, and were given full access to the programs options and features at a demonstration held during the event. Director of the school, Charles Green presided over the presentation, and noted during the unveiling, that the program had undergone almost a year of beta-testing by international students prior to its intended release in North America.

A statement issued from the school's Admissions Officer, Tony Drew seemed to indicate a "full" release date for the new e-Course to be some time in mid-July. "We don't want to rush it, but we're really pleased with the response so far," said Drew, "We think the e-Course is really going to be a game-changer when it comes to setting the bar for future antiques and appraising education." The press release went on to say that while the textbooks for the Ashford program were still available, they would likely be phased out in the next five to ten years.

For readers seeking more information about the school's new e-Course program, they can be contacted at: (877) 444-4508 or visit their web site at; www.ashford.com. You can also write to them at; the Ashford Institute of Antiques 981 Harbor Blvd., Suite 3, Dept. 275EC11 Destin, FL 32541-2525, or at their Canadian office at; 131 Bloor Street West, Suite 200, Dept. 124EC11 Toronto, ON M5S 1R8.

Northstar Collective Acquires Indy Ad Show

Article by Northstar Collective

Northstar Collective is pleased to announce the recent purchase of the Indianapolis Antique Advertising Show. The Indy Ad Show, as it is referred to by dealers and participants alike, is one of the longest running shows, of its kind, in the country. Entering its 45th year, this event has always been famously known where the best of the best could be found in all types of early advertising. Dealers from all over the country have gathered twice a year in Indianapolis to show off a broad base of items for sale to appeal to the beginning collector as well as the very advanced.

Previous owners Bruce and Donna Wier of, B&D Promotions, have owned and operated the show since 2010, and will operate the March show as they have in the past. The Fall Indy show will be held on September 23rd and 24th of this year under its new ownership and will be moved 20 miles northwest of Indianapolis to the Boone County Fairgrounds located in Lebanon Indiana. The Lebanon location provides a beautiful rural setting with great potential to appeal to a large customer base. Northstar believes this new acquisition will complement the other two shows, the Boone County Gas & Oil and the Boone County Vintage Market that Northstar will be running simultaneously at the fairgrounds.

Northstar also acquired the Gateway Gas & Ad Show from B & D Promotions which runs once a year in February in the St Louis metro area. Combining these newly acquired shows with the Antique Sporting and Advertising Show Oshkosh, WI and the Minocqua Antique Show in Minocqua WI, Northstar's Portfolio will include 6 shows a year that they produce.

Any questions, or dealer inquiries about any of the shows we promote can be directed to Nona Amour Wilson. Email: info@boonecountytreasurehunt.com or call 906-250-1618 or visit our website at www.boonecountytreasurehunt.com

American Breweriana Association

The American Breweriana Association was incorporated in 1980 as a non-profit historical and educational association organized to advance the public knowledge of brewing and brewery history, to serve collectors and historians, and dedicated to the preservation of the memories and artifacts of America's brewing industry. The ABA reached a major goal earlier this year with the dedication of National Brewery Museum in Potosi, Wisconsin in conjunction with their national convention in nearby Dubuque, Iowa.

The ABA website - www.americanbreweriana.org - presents a magazine approach to the look of the site. The homepage gives a center "pitch" on "Why Join ABA?" along with blocks on their American Breweriana Journal, the new National Brewery Museum and upcoming events.

Drop downs from the masthead provide important links to contact information, how to join, ABA chapters, ABA officers and board, Code of Ethics and events.

The ABA site appears to be equally informative for both their 3,000 members and other site visitors... including some who may well decide to become members. And, areas on the site seem to indicate there is much more to come regarding new site features.

Dodgeville Lion's Club To Hold A Silver Event

Article by Bob Kratochwill (Dodgeville Lions Club)

Our 25th year for holding the Dodgeville Lion's Club Flea Market and Antique Show. On Sunday June 11th make the drive to Dodgeville, Wisconsin fit into your plans for a fun filled outing.

The Ley Pavilion at Harris Park is the site of this great show and it promises to be great as always. Fantastic items are always found being brought in by fifty or more dealers who set up at this show. Past shows had shoppers finding great items. Classic metal advertising signs, vintage toys, carousel animals, old wooden trunks, fancy glassware, vintage jewelry, historic books, vintage tools, a huge selection of old postcards, antique furniture and so much more. Whether you are a serious antique shopper or an avid collector, chances are you will find something you will want to have.

This is a fun filled show to attend. The dealers who set up love this show and their enthusiasm shows. They are a wealth of knowledge about most of their products and may have a delightful bit of information about other items.

The show runs from 8:30 AM To 3:30 PM. Come early and stay late to allow for a relaxing day of shopping. A great food stand is on site including fresh baked homemade pies made by members of the Dodgeville Lioness club. A $3.00 admission fee is charged for the event. All funds go toward Lion's Club projects. Information... Please phone Bob at 608-574-4011

Annual Czech Collectors Convention to be Held in June

The 2017 Czechoslovakian Collectors Association Annual Convention will be held June 8-10, 2017 across the river from downtown Cincinnati, Ohio at the Cincinnati Marriott at RiverCenter.

The CCA is proud to sponsor their annual convention - an Antique Show and Sale featuring multiple dealers, educational displays and the opportunity to learn and share knowledge of Austrian, Bohemian and Czechoslovakian Antiques with special emphasis on the Decorative Arts.

The Czechoslovakian Collectors Association is dedicated to the ABC's - Austrian, Bohemian, and Czechoslovakian Decorative Arts. Its mission is to foster the collection and appreciation of the art glass, ceramics and other decorative arts from the years 1850 to 1940. This encompasses a vast range of styles - Victorian, Art Nouveau, and Deco; of makers - Amphora, Dressler, Mrazek and Urbach, Loetz, Kralik and Moser; of forms - jewelry, art, lighting, perfume bottles, pottery and much, much more!

Most members attending are experts in their own area of collecting interest but in 2017 we are pleased to have three exceptional speakers on the topics of Mrazek Pottery and Art Glass made in Czechoslovakia. These speakers will share their insights on the wide diversity of beautiful and colorful objects.

This year the entire show is open free to the public beginning on Thursday, afternoon. Seminars will begin at 9:00 on Friday and 9:30 on Saturday. Saturday evening, the convention will close with the Convention Banquet.

This weekend is a perfect opportunity to explore, appreciate and buy the unique products exported from this cultural crossroads which was a world renowned center for artistic design in the late 19th and early 20th Centuries. With newfound insights, the figural or funky pitcher pushed to the back of a cupboard, that unusual piece of Grandma's glass or a colorful beaded necklace will take on new value and appreciation. People arriving early may want to visit one of the many antique shops and malls or visit one of the museums in the area. Of particular note is the restored Cincinnati Museum Center at Union Terminal.

For further information about the convention and membership and registration forms, please visit the web page at www.czechcollectors.org or contact: Dave Phelps at dave@czechpottery.com

2nd Annual Blue & White Pottery Old Sleepy Eye Collectors Club Convention to be held in East Peoria, Illinois

Article by Tammy Green

The Blue & White Pottery Old Sleepy Eye Collectors Club will kick off its 2nd Annual Convention on Thursday, June 8 at the Embassy Suites in East Peoria, Illinois. Early registration begins at 3:30 p.m. and members can shop room sales in the afternoon and throughout the evening. Club members can enjoy the hotel manager's reception held in the atrium from 5:30 - 7:30.

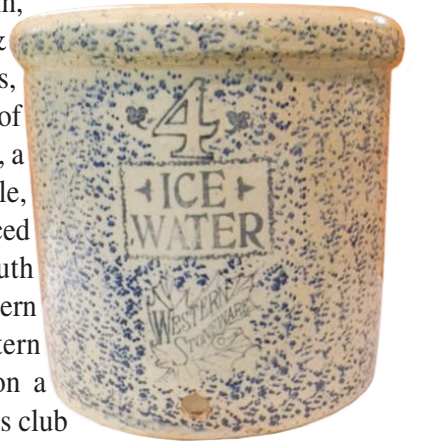

Friday, June 9 will be a busy day starting with the antique show and sale at 9:30 a.m. in the convention center adjacent to the hotel. In the past couple of years, the club has turned the show into an "Antique Show" with great quality antiques. You will find not only Blue & White Stoneware and Sleepy Eye, but everything from antique quilts, tools, & signs, to spice tins, advertising items, dolls, & you name it, it's probably there. Presentation of member displays will take place at 1:00 followed by the annual business meeting. This years seminar after the business meeting, will be on Anna Pottery with Max Eakin and Greg Mathis sharing some great pieces of Anna Pottery and Cornwall E. Kirkpatrick IV will be talking about the Kirkpatrick family.

Friday evening the Antique/Fun Auction starts at 7:30 and you never know what's going to show up in this auction.

Saturday morning June 10 at 10:30 a.m. is the club consignment auction with many great quality pieces already consigned such as a Rare Sleepy Eye creamer and sugar in yellow, a Multi colored Sleepy Eye Stein, Sleepy Eye Milling Flour Barrel with lid, Green & White Sleepy Eye Vase, White Hall Sugar Jars, Whites Utica batter pail with lid, a variety of wonderful Blue & White stoneware pitchers, a miniature blue bowl with lid and bail handle, 4 Gallon Western Stoneware sponged iced water, unusual bottom marked Monmouth Pottery flower planter with lions, & Western Stoneware brush ware vases, & Western Stoneware Crackers Jar with lid to mention a few. You won't want to miss this auction. This club auction has been the talk of many clubs for many years with its quality items being auctioned and prices realized. Saturday evening members enjoy the banquet, visit with friends and say goodbye until next year.

In order to attend convention, you must be a current member of the BWPOSECC and registered for convention. The only exception is the Friday Show & Sale & business meeting. Any current member can attend both the Show & Sale & business meeting without paying convention registration. For more information visit the club website at bluewhitepottery.org where you will find a membership form along with a convention registration form.

The National Milk Glass Collectors Society to Hold 30th Annual Convention

The National Milk Glass Collector's Society will hold its annual convention September 15 and 16, 2017 at the Marriott Pittsburgh Airport Hotel in the greater Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania area.

Convention activities will include tours to the Heinz History Center to view their exhibit Glass: Shattering Notions and see the related glass artifacts. Jay Hawkins, author of Glasshouses and Glass Manufacturers of the Pittsburgh Region: 1795 - 1910, will speak. There will also be a 250 piece milk glass auction and a dealer's room sale, both important parts of the convention where attendees find new and rare pieces to add to their collections. A banquet program will include entertainment and several members discussing their favorite milk glass pieces.

The NMGCS was founded in 1987 to educate people on the aesthetic value and beauty of opaque glass, commonly known as milk glass, and to provide an organization where the members communicate through a newsletter and a website as well as meetings to promote knowledge, interest, enjoyment, preservation and collecting of such glass. Hotel reservation may be made by calling 412-788-8800 requesting the NMGCS block rate. Registration information may be found on the society's website www.nmgcs.org.
