Out & About

Sounds like everyone has a lot of projects they are trying to tackle this summer. I've been hearing from a lot of people about all of their projects, so I was wondering how we seem to forget how tiring projects are, yet every year we torture ourselves. For our family, we took on finishing our basement for the girl's graduation. We started mid-April emptying the basement of everything and building walls. We have a deadline of June 28th, when family starts to arrive. We know we will enjoy it when we are done, but for now we are getting exhausted. Plus I feel like I visit the recycle center every night with a car full of boxes, along with Home Depot knows us by sight.

Waukesha County Expo Center Hosts 35th Annual Milwaukee Miniature Motors, Model Car, Toy & Racing Memorabilia Show

Article & Photos by Michelle Goltz

The Auto Modlers Group started out over 30 years ago with just a couple of model car building enthusiasts gathering together taking turns meeting at one another's homes to build and discuss the virtues of the hobby. As time went on the club grew to its current roster of more than 60 members and now meets the first Friday of each month at the Waterstone Bank on 27th Street just south of College Ave.

Before the internet and Ebay the best way for modelers to find that rare sought after kit was to attend the local swap meets such as the Milwaukee Miniature Motors show. Many still prefer the "hands on" aspect of the swap meet where you can see what you are buying and converse with fellow modelers to the impersonal online experience.

When the club decided to host a NNL style model show 25 years ago it seemed only natural to schedule it in conjunction with the swap meet and it has proven to be a mutually beneficial decision. People that come to our show, not only locally, but from our neighboring states and as far away as Canada and Puerto Rico stay for the Miniature Motors show the following day and vice versa. The Auto Modelers Group always has a display table at the show to try and promote the club, the show and the hobby as a whole. It seems the model building hobby is a somewhat solitary endeavor by nature and having these types of events is a great way for the modeling enthusiasts to meet, add to their collections and enjoy the hobby!

Antique Motorcycle Club of America

The Antique Motorcycle Club of America was founded in 1954 by a group of antique-bike fans in the New England area (pictured from left are T.A. Hodgdon, Emmett Moore, Henry Wing Sr., and Henry Wing Jr.). AMCA FoundersIn the decades since, the AMCA has grown to become one of the largest organizations of antique-motorcycle enthusiasts in the world, with 11,000 members in the United States and more than a dozen other countries.

Owner with three-wheeled motorcycleFrom the beginning, the purpose of the club has been the “preservation, restoration and operation of old-time motorcycles.” Members of the AMCA own, restore, preserve, study or just admire motorcycles that fall into the antique category, meaning they are at least 35 years old. Although the Club is based in the United States, fans of motorcycles from all countries are welcome, and ownership of an antique motorcycle is not required to become a member.

Through its network of 59 affiliated Chapters in the U.S. and abroad, the AMCA provides a way for antique-bike fans to share their interest with others in their local area. Chapters typically host regular meetings, plus activities like bike shows, swap meets and antique-bike road runs.

At the national and international level, the AMCA maintains a calendar of National Meets and Road Runs that include some of the premier antique-motorcycle gatherings in the world. National Meets typically include a large vendor area, where members can sell everything from antique-bike parts to entire motorcycles that are at least 35 years old. In addition, National Meets offer a full schedule of other activities, ranging from seminars and bike shows to motorcycle field games and antique-bike racing.

JudgingAll National Meets also feature the AMCA's National Judging Program, in which members' motorcycles can win awards in three categories: Restored, Original Condition or Period Modified. Instead of competing against each other, bikes entered in the AMCA Judging Program are evaluated on a 100-point scale against the standard of the same motorcycle as it would have appeared when it originally left the factory.

National Road Runs provide an opportunity to use these classic machines for their intended purpose—riding on back roads in some of the most scenic parts of the country.

In addition to those events, AMCA members also get access to a number of benefits, including a high-quality magazine six times per year, online forums where they can seek advice from experts, and the AMCA Virtual Motorcycle Library, featuring downloadable copies of hundreds of old and rare sales brochures, parts lists and repair manuals. Plus, AMCA members receive discounts on admission to some of the country's premier motorcycle museums.

Mostly, though, people join the AMCA to meet up with others who share their interest in machines from the classic era of motorcycling. For some, that means the satisfaction that comes from investing thousands of hours in bringing a rusted hulk back to its original perfection. To others, it means preserving artifacts of the past so that they can be appreciated by future generations, or the simple pleasure of enjoying a two-lane road at an unhurried pace—just like motorcyclists generations ago.

Does that sound like you? Why not join with thousands of other like-minded antique-bike fans by becoming a member of the AMCA? Visit www.antiquemotorcycle.org

Tea Predates Coffee, but Exact Origin Unclear

By Shelby Weister, Four Seasons Antique Mall

Tea is making a comeback in the United States. Its consumption has more than doubled since 1990, with Americans consuming about 50 billion cups a year. Just as having a cup of tea is more popular, so are teapots.

Long before people were drinking coffee, they were drinking tea, which originates in one of two legends. One is that a Chinese emperor enjoyed drinking hot water. One day some tree leaves fell into the water and he enjoyed the taste. That was the start of cultivating tea.

The other legend is that a Buddhist monk planned to meditate for nine years. By the fifth year, he was losing his focus and reached for some leaves and chewed them. The result was wakefulness, so he added eater and now we have tea.

Teapots come in a lot of sizes and are made from a variety of materials. Children's tea sets became popular in the Victorian era. By the 1930's a lot of glass companies were making tea sets in the Depression glass colors of pink, green and clear.

In the 1940's and '50's, tea sets changed from china or glass to tin and plastic. Then the 1960's saw the popularity of aluminum tea sets grow. In the 1970's there were more tea sets for children again with cartoon characters or Barbie images as decoration.

People have remained faithful to tea for centuries. Perhaps it's because tea has a number of properties that are good for you, for example, green tea has a cancer-fighting agent.

Folk Art Society of America

The Folk Art Society of America, founded in 1987, has become a dynamic, non-profit organization which advocates the discovery, study, documentation, preservation and exhibition of folk art, folk artists and folk art environments. Artists, educators, historians, writers, collectors, dealers, curators, museums, libraries and art enthusiasts from across the United States and around the world join together to share a common bond of interest in self-taught art and the unique individuals involved in its creation.

The home page of the FASA website at www.folkart.org is pleasing to the eye. Against a rich dark green background, it features a piece of folk art, the name of the Society and logo, how to contact the the Society and seven simple links: About the Society, how to join, the Society's magazine, Calendar of events, Annual conference, Catalog of books and links to other folk art sites.

Navigating the site couldn't be simpler and FASA seems to have all bases covered. The site certainly should give any first-time visitor a good feeling about the Folk Art Society of America.

Advertising Openers

The "ultimate guide to bottle openers" will appeal to breweriana enthusiasts and antiques collectors alike. Advertising Openers: A Guide to Beer Openers & More is authored by Just For Openers society founder Donald A. Bull and lifelong collector John R. Stanley.

Collectors and military buffs will also be intrigued by The First World War on Cigarette and Trade Cards: An Illustrated and Descriptive History by Cyril Mazansky.

This valuable and expansive guide to advertising openers of all sorts features over 1,500 images picturing more than 2,800 openers and corkscrews. It is the ultimate guide to bottle openers. Whether you are interested in flat figural, key shape, wire formed, souvenir, and multipurpose openers or lifters, piercers, can keys, and smokers tools, you will find them here. Part 1 groups beer advertising openers and corkscrews in an alphanumeric system. Part 2 has special chapters on manufacturers' openers, beverage openers, can keys, smoker's tools, souvenir openers, and World's Fair openers. Patent drawings and details are included with many of the photo captions. Value ranges are shown. A chronological index of American patents and a type index in Part 3 also make this book an invaluable reference. Ackerman's Stars & Stripes Antique Market To Be Held At The Johnson County Fairgrounds At Iowa City, Iowa On July 4th

Article by Bill & Karen Ackerman

The third annual ACKERMAN'S JULY 4TH STARS AND STRIPES ANTIQUE MARKET will be held on Tuesday July 4th at the Johnson County Fairgrounds just off of the Avenue of the Saints, Exit 89), locally 27/218 at the south edge of Iowa City, Iowa, then about 1/2 mile north. Hours of the show are from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. on the Fourth of July.

Show admission is just $3/person and there is lots of close by free parking.

ACKERMAN'S STARS AND STRIPES ANTIQUE MARKET originated in 2015 after the former long running Hanson's Grove Antique Show ended in 2014 and a replacement show was needed in the area. The Johnson County Fairgrounds was secured and the show took off very successfully and featured about 120 dealers in 2016 with a strong eager attendance of almost 2800 good buyers. Customers arrived all day and were still arriving going into the closing hour of the show. Many good reports about dealers sales were related and the show was a star spangled success.

Dealers from several states will be set up selling from all categories of antiques in several buildings at the fairgrounds as well as outdoor dealers who will be displaying around the campus of buildings at the fairgrounds.

ACKERMAN'S JULY 4TH STARS AND STRIPES ANTIQUE MARKET attributes its success to good advertising (including advertising you will read later in this publication) and a willingness of the dealers who do the show to pass out the flyers that we provide. Thanks also to all the great support staff who work the market and keep things going smoothly.

A good lunch stand is provided by Denkman's and some really yummy good tastin' food will be provided for all who attend.

If you are a customer looking for a well advertised and well located July 4th antique show to attend, ACKERMAN'S JULY 4TH STARS AND STRIPES ANTIQUE MARKET is for you. If you are a dealer looking for a great July 4th venue to sell your antiques, ACKERMAN'S JULY 4TH STARS AND STRIPES ANTIQUE MARKET is the place to be.

For information about ACKERMAN'S STARS AND STRIPES ANTIQUE MARKET please call Bill and Karen Ackerman at 319-338-8449 or 319-430-3737

Keep looking for upcoming ads and news releases in this publication about this great event.

ACKERMAN'S JULY 4TH STARS AND STRIPES ANTIQUE MARKET welcomes you all as a buyer or a dealer on July 4th 2017

The History of the W. Nelson McCoy's Blue Bird Pottery

By Dewayne Imsand
An Old "Blue Bird" Pot Shop

W. Nelson McCoy was born in 1820 in Harpers Ferry, Virginia, which is located in West Virginia. In January 1848, he and his wife Ester moved to Ohio's, Muskingum County, Springfield Township, in a community called Putnam. At that time, Putnam was a suburb of Zanesville, but in 1872, it became incorporated into Zanesville.

During the same year as W. Nelson and his wife arrived in Putnam, they had a son whose name was James W. Years later J.W. would go on to establish a well-known pottery, the "J.W. McCoy Pottery".

W. Nelson came to Putnam as a farmer. He acquired some land and built a house. In addition to farming, he also built a small, log building to produce stoneware during the warmer months. The pottery was a small, "Blue Bird" type shop, which was like the ones many of the farmers had at the time. It was primitive in its equipment, and the ware it produced was rough and unfinished. Although during that period, most of the home-owned, "Bluebird" shops operated under primitive conditions.

W. Nelson only produced pottery for a few years, not eight as previously believed. In January 1853, a notice was published in the "Zanesville Daily Courier" stating that a partnership that W. Nelson had with Jeremiah Elder was dissolved. The partnership was in a Putnam grocery store, named Elder & McCoy, which had been established at some uncertain prior time.

On the same date that W. Nelson ended his partnership with Elder, a second notice was published reporting that he had taken another partner, Norman Dodge, in the grocery business. Later W. Nelson bought out Elder, and the name of the grocery was changed to "McCoy & Dodge".

35Considering his job at the grocery, and the labor involved in farming, maintaining his household, supplying clay and firewood for his kiln, one would imagine that W. Nelson only had a small amount of time for actual pottery production. Surely, the volume he produced was small, and it was undoubtedly unmarked, since none that is attributable to him has been found.

Prior to 1853 a grocery store in Zanesville was owned by "James Benjamin & Co.". Sometime after 1858 W. Nelson acquired the major share in the "Benjamin & Co.", and the name of the store was then changed to "McCoy – Benjamin & Co.". Hugh McDonald was another owner besides McCoy and Benjamin.

In addition to the operation of the store itself, James Benjamin had other interests; he was a wholesale dealer in stoneware. The newspaper "Zanes Times Signal" carried an article in 1957 by Norris F. Schneider, who, quoting old sources, said that during the 1870's Benjamin was one of the three major stoneware wholesalers in the region. The other major stoneware wholesalers at the time were J.C. Gillespie, and Hudson C. Ward.

The crock shown is an example of Benjamin's wares. The inscription on it is stenciled in blue ink, and reads, "Jas. Benjamin Wholesale Stoneware Depot Zanesville, O".

W. Nelson is not known to have been associated with James Benjamin in the pottery business in Zanesville. However, he and Benjamin were associated in the pottery business located in Cincinnati. (See the article, "The History of the James Benjamin Potteries and his Connection with W. Nelson McCoy", which is contained on this Web site).

W. Nelson as a long-time, Zanesville businessman, became respected and popular. In 1881, he was elected the mayor of Zanesville, and in 1883, he was reelected. W. Nelson continued managing and working in his grocery and dry goods store until the early 1890's. He died in 1894. For more information visit: www.mccoypotterycollec-

Northstar Collective Acquires Indy Ad Show

Article by Northstar Collective

Northstar Collective is pleased to announce the recent purchase of the Indianapolis Antique Advertising Show. The Indy Ad Show, as it is referred to by dealers and participants alike, is one of the longest running shows, of its kind, in the country. Entering its 45th year, this event has always been famously known where the best of the best could be found in all types of early advertising. Dealers from all over the country have gathered twice a year in Indianapolis to show off a broad base of items for sale to appeal to the beginning collector as well as the very advanced.

Previous owners Bruce and Donna Wier of, B&D Promotions, have owned and operated the show since 2010, and will operate the March show as they have in the past. The Fall Indy show will be held on September 23rd and 24th of this year under it's new ownership and will be moved 20 miles northwest of Indianapolis to the Boone County Fairgrounds located in Lebanon Indiana. The Lebanon location provides a beautiful rural setting with great potential to appeal to a large customer base. Northstar believes this new acquisition will complement the other two shows, the Boone County Gas & Oil and the Boone County Vintage Market that Northstar will be running simultaneously at the fairgrounds.

Northstar also acquired the Gateway Gas & Ad Show from B & D Promotions which runs once a year in February in the St Louis metro area. Combining these newly acquired shows with the Antique Sporting and Advertising Show Oshkosh, WI and the Minocqua Antique Show in Minocqua WI, Northstar's Portfolio will include 6 shows a year that they produce.

Any questions, or dealer inquiries about any of the shows we promote can be directed to Nona Amour Wilson. Email: info@boonecountytreasurehunt.com or call 906-250-1618 or visit our website at www.boonecountytreasurehunt.com

Czech Collectors Association

The origins of CCA stretch back to 1995 when the Czechoslovakian Collector's Guild International (CCGI) was founded. The club was reorganized in 2001 and renamed the Czechoslovakian Collector's Association (CCA). This new name, however, only partially captures our interests as the organization also encompasses a wide range of Austrian, Bohemian, and Czechoslovakian Decorative Arts, what many members refer to as the ABCs of collecting.

Our mission is to foster the collection and appreciation of the art glass, ceramics, and other decorative arts of Austria, Bohemia, and Czechoslovakia from the years 1850 to 1940. CCA's mission is accomplished through: research, education, the publication of a Newsletter twice a year, the sponsorship of an annual Convention, and a comprehensive Web site which features articles and columns devoted to deepening our understanding of the history and production of these beautiful objects of art.

The current board members of CCA were elected at the 2010 and 2011 Annual Conventions and will serve two year, staggered terms. They are David Phelps (President, elected 2011), Rosie Bodien (Director of Publicity, elected 2011), David Fein (Director of Membership, elected 2010), Aggie Elwell (Treasurer, elected 2009), Bob Collier (Secretary, appointed 2011)

Our general membership includes both beginning and advanced collectors, researchers, educators, appraisers, and dealers. Most of the members have been collecting or dealing in the Czech decorative arts for many years. Collectively, the expertise of the members of CCA is unrivaled and our annual conventions also feature seminars from leading researchers in the field. Members can also tap into this expertise through one of our new on-line services, a regular column entitled "Ask the Experts." We also remain committed to an ongoing program of research and publication. In addition to the newsletter, CCA has published three volumes of the Journal of Czech Decorative Arts. Back issues are available through this Web site. Forthcoming articles will be appearing in an on-line version of the journal.

In addition to our commitment to providing club members with the latest research in the field of Austrian, Bohemian, and Czech Decorative Arts, we also realize that many members are active collectors and, as a club, we try to facilitate avenues for club members to purchase those elusive, beautiful, whimsical, and sought after pieces. The annual show, which is held in conjunction with our yearly convention, has always served as a major venue for collectors to view and purchase a wide range of glass, pottery, jewelry, and perfumes and it will continue to serve this function. In addition, we are now offering new services on this Web site, a "where the dealers are" page, a "for sale by members" page, a "Flea Market Finds" page, a "Collection of the Month" page.

The "where the dealers are" page will help members locate dealers who specialize in Austrian, Bohemian, and Czech decorative arts by providing information on the dealers, their locations and their upcoming shows. The "for sale by members" page will allow members of CCA to buy and sell pieces from their individual collections on the CCA website free of charge.

Ackerman's Iowa City July 4th Stars & Stripes Antique Market Coming Soon!

Article by Bill & Karen Ackerman

Coming up in a few short weeks is Ackerman's July 4th Stars and Stripes Antique Market to be held at the Johnson County Fairgrounds located at the south-west edge of Iowa City at Exit 89 off the Avenue of the Saints.

Antique Dealers from a multi-state area will be set up in 3 buildings at the fairgrounds as well as many outdoor dealers set up adjacent to the campus of buildings.

Items that will be exhibited and sold by the many dealers will include but not limited to lots of antique furniture, primitives, farm and country antiques, antique jewelry, glassware, linens, antique quilts, antique clocks, stained glass windows, old pottery and stoneware, Iowa Hawkeye items, kerosene lamps, old coins, stamps, postcards and ephemera, paper advertising, advertising signs, antique tinware and wooden ware, brass and copper and so much more!

The show is from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. ON July 4th and there is ample parking in the south parking lot close to the show buildings.

Ackerman's July 4th Stars and Stripes Antique Market became the replacement area show for the former Hanson's Grove Antique Show held each year which ran at Solon, Iowa for 34 years and ceased operation in 2014. An immediate need was present for a good area antique show and Ackerman's July 4th Stars & Stripes Antique Market came into being in 2015

Bill & Karen Ackerman are the show promoter and managers and along with their hard working crew of helpers Ackerman's July 4th Stars & Stripes Antique Market comes to life each year at the Johnson County Fairgrounds at Iowa City, Iowa.

Spaces are still available at Ackerman's July 4th Stars & Stripes Antique Market and for information about the show, either from a dealer perspective or as a potential attendee please call 319-430-3737

National Depression Glass Association

The National Depression Glass Association - preserving America's glass manufacturing heritage - is dedicated to the preservation of American made glassware manufactured just before, during, and immediately after the "Great Depression". The organization is also dedicated to the dissemination of educational information regarding the same - including a membership newsletter, "The News & Views," an annual convention and show, and a variety of other member services. The NDGA's ultimate goal is a first-class museum of American-made glass and related items.

The NDGA website - www.ndga.net - has been greatly improved with a total new design and look earlier this year. The primary purpose of the site is to provide information to the members and other site visitors. The homepage provides a listing of contents and features the latest NDGA news. Appropriately heading this list is the latest news on the much anticipated July 2009 annual convention.

There is a growing section on The National Collection and how to donate either glass or cash for this project.

The site contains a wealth of information. Articles on Depression Glass, dozens of past features from the NDGA publications, glass reference books, past glass company advertisements, a directory of glass dealers and another of glass collecting clubs and photos of members' glass collections.

Anyone who happens to have the least bit of interest and appreciation for glassware is going to find this site a place on the Internet to visit again and again... and it must be a tremendous resource for NDGA members. Actually there also are members-only pages on the site in addition to all the public pages.
