Out & About

Luckily a lot of the farmers in our area were able to get in their first cutting of hay two weeks ago. The weather sure has been a little crazy since then. We had a few tornado's go through our area last week. A lot of people took video's on their phones of the different funnels starting. We are so used to getting the warnings and nothing ever happening that it seems people took these ones for granted. It has been raining every day, lets hope that the rain starts to subside and the sun makes more of an appearance. The planning for the party is coming along. I'm not going to say smoothly, but it will be appreciated when it is all over. Only 8 more days left and we are scurrying around and making lots of to do lists!

When Out and About this weekend, be sure to check out:

Fantastic 10' Leaded & Stained Glass Window Brings $30,000 at Donley Auctions

Article & Photos by Donley Auctions

Among the great things up for bids that day were rare German carousel vehicles including a flying saucer. Also, there were carved carousel animals including a rare cat, goat, reindeer & dragon. There was lots of nice architecture pieces, big chandeliers and a 16' back bar with leaded glass arch.

Also crossing the block that day were great saloon items, coin op, gambling, slots and pinballs, tons of signs and petroliana.

Owner Randy Donley has over 40 years experience as a collector & dealer of antique phonographs and music boxes. He is the co-owner of the Wild West Town, a family owned attraction with one of the best phonograph collections in the nation (certified by the Thomas Edison Institute). He is also the founder of the world's largest antique phonograph event held annually since 1975 in Union, Illinois.

Donley Auctions is located at 8512 S. Union Rd. in Union, Illinois. We can be reached at 815-923-7000, by email: DonleyAuctions@outlook.com and be sure to visit our website: www.donleyauctions.com. "We don't just sell antiques, we build relationships."

Simmons & Co. Auctioneers Sells Unique Collection of Mechanical & Hand Held Fluters, Box Irons and Sadd Irons in April

Article & Photos by Simmons & Co. Auctioneers

The auction was held at the Ray Co. Veterans Building in Richmond, Missouri. It was the lifetime collection of Mr. Charles Herrick, who had acquired some of the very best & rarest of pieces. Auctioneers Bob & David Simmons, and Larry Edwards did an excellent job selling this 450+ collection.

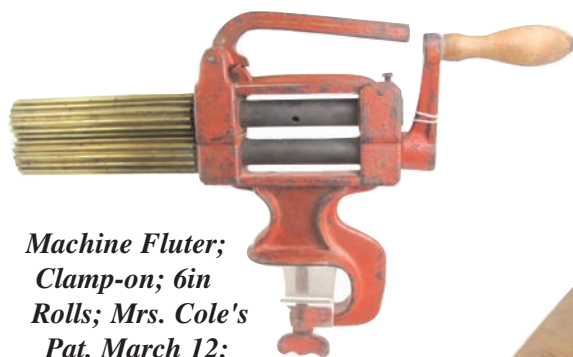

Even though prices were strong throughout the day, there was a bargain or two to be had. Like the NR Streeter Magic Fluter and Polisher with separate hand held roller fluter which crossed the block for $225. There was something for everyone in this remarkable collection, from the advanced collector to the newbies!

Says Rilla Simmons, "It was a fun auction of very interesting and scarcely seen antiques. The quality and condition of the fluters and irons was exceptional, as was the variety."

In the business since 1980, Simmons & Co. is experienced, licensed, professional and family owned & operated. Mostly dealing in specialized collections of Winchester, Keen Kutter (Simmons Hardware), Diamond Edge (Shapleigh Hardware), and other s, tools, firearms, cast iron cookware, advertising, pocket knives, sadd irons, graniteware, etc. We are members of the Antiques & Collectibles Association, THCKK, G & CICA, WAGS, and PITCA.

For further information about Simmons & Co. Auctioneers, you can contact them at 816-776-2936, Email: rilla@simmonsaucon.com and be sure to visit their website: www.simmonsaucon.com.

Great Pieces to be Auctioned During Red Wing Collectors Society 40th Anniversary Convention - July 6-8

Red Wing, MN - A signed Red Wing 10 gallon butterfly-decorated salt glaze water cooler, a "Holy Water" cooler and a coveted Potters Excursion jug are just a few of the impressive pieces highlighting the official members-only auction at the Red Wing Collectors Society Convention, July 6-8 in Red Wing.

The RWCS will celebrate its 40th Anniversary at this year's Convention, which will unofficially begin on Wednesday, July 5 when the RWCS Foundation holds its "Wine-ing for Red Wing" fundraiser from 6 to 9 p.m. at the Pottery Museum of Red Wing at 240 Harrison Street, Red Wing. Admission for the fundraising event is $20; it will feature food and beverages, and silent and live auctions.

The RWCS Convention officially kicks off the next day with a welcome from the city's mayor and a special 40th Anniversary Keynote Address at 10:30 a.m. on Thursday, July 6 at the Minnesota State College Southeast campus at 308 Pioneer Road in Red Wing. RWCS Historian Nancy Lambert has assembled a group of nearly a dozen RWCS collectors representing the past 40 years that will share insight into their passion for collecting and fond memories as members of the Society. Then RWCS Charter Members will be recognized and a special 40th Anniversary celebration for members will follow at noon in the college's cafeteria.

The official RWCS members-only auction*, which features more than 250 pieces consigned by members, will take place at 4:30 that evening at the Red Wing National Guard Armory at 885 E 7th Street in Red Wing. Onsite registration will be available to become a member. The auction preview will be open from 3 to 4:15 p.m. this year. Catalogs are for sale for $5 in advance at the Pottery Museum of Red Wing or can be purchased at the auction itself.

RWCS members will also have their lineup of usual favorites to attend during Convention, including street sales held at Red Wing's historic Pottery Place, other stoneware and pottery auctions held on Tuesday and Wednesday, educational seminars and the official RWCS Show & Sale at the Red Wing National Guard Armory that begins for members at 9 a.m. Saturday, July 8. It opens FREE to the public from 10:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. In addition to these activities, a "Crock Hop" celebration will feature music, food and fun from 5 to 6:30 p.m. on Friday, July 7 at the Pottery Museum of Red Wing.

Other Convention activities include a "Crock Hunt" scavenger hunt around Red Wing, pottery demonstrations by local potter Richard Spiller, and a special display room at Minnesota State College Southeast campus where members create their own unique displays of Red Wing items for the education and enjoyment of attendees.

An annual commemorative will be unveiled and distributed to members beginning Thursday, July 6. The commemorative piece is a closely guarded secret and there is much speculation as to what the piece will be each year. It is a miniature replica of a Red Wing pottery item with a limited number made. Last year's commemorative was a stoneware advertising mini jug.

Breakout education sessions scheduled for Friday, July 7 at the Minnesota State College Southeast campus will offer a great selection of diverse topics. The presentations are listed below; check out the "Education Seminars" page on the Convention section of the RWCS website for more detailed descriptions.

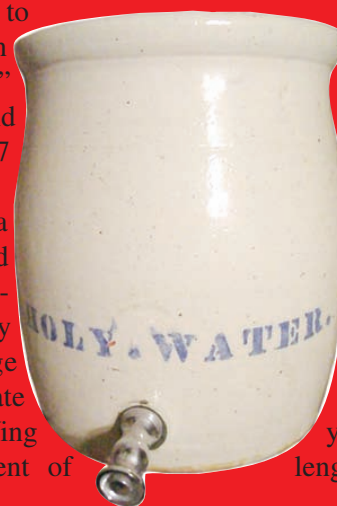

o The Journey of Collecting Red Wing by RWCS Hall of Famer Larry Peterson.

Fronted-stamped "Red Wing Stoneware Company", this 10 gallon straight-sided salt glaze water cooler hand-decorated with a cobalt butterfly is one of the top pieces consigned to the official RWCS members-only auction at the RWCS Convention.

This rare "Potters Excursion" Red Wing advertising jug is one of more than 250 pieces consigned by RWCS members that will be sold at the RWCS Convention Auction. You must be an RWCS member and registered for Convention to attend the auction and bid on items. New members can register onsite or visit redwingcollectors.org for more information.

Another great piece up for grabs is this hand-turned "Holy Water" dispenser, which the Red Wing Union Stoneware Co. produced turned out in the early 1900s. Very few are known to exist today.

- o Is That Right? Aftermarket Dinnerware & Art Pottery by Laura Beall.
- o Stoneware Fruit Jars by Marv Juel.
- o Digging Historic Privies and Dumps by RWCS Hall of Famer Steve Showers and his wife, Phyllis.
- o Dump Finds by Red Wing Dump Diggers Paul Boudin & Connie Mathison.
- o Early Colfax Springs History and Stoneware by Mark C. Wiseman.
- o Divided Minnesota, Divided Goodhue County: the WWI Years by Fred Johnson.
- o 19th Century Base Ball History and Fun Facts by Doug Ernst.
- o Ceramics Conservator by Jin Crimando, Pottery Museum of Red Wing Inventory Specialist.
- o Back to the Futura and Dinnerware Odds & Ends, Mid 1950s to Mid 1960s (two different presentations) by RWCS Hall of Famers Terry Moe & Larry Roschen.
- o Red Wing Cinema: A Video of Red Wing Designer Eva Zeisel's 2000 RWCS Convention Keynote Presentation.

Another unique aspect of the RWCS Convention is the participation of the younger generation through the KidsView program. The Society is on the leading edge of creating engaging and educational ways to get the younger generations involved in collecting. Children ages 3-12 will have several hands-on pottery creation projects and a

Kids' Show & Sale to participate in at the Minnesota State College Southeast campus from 9:45 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Friday, July 7.

To further complement KidsView, the RWCS Young Collectors is entering its 5th year of helping Red Wing collectors ages 13 to 20 grow their interest in Red Wing. This is a great opportunity to learn more about Red Wing, develop new friendships through peer-to-peer discussion groups and participate in hands-on activities. Young Collectors activities will begin at the Minnesota State College Southeast campus at 9 a.m. on Thursday, July 6. Participants will also take a field trip to the Pottery Museum of Red Wing and return to the college around noon.

To learn more about all the events and activities of the RWCS Convention, visit the RWCS website event page for the Convention.

The RWCS can also be followed on Twitter and be found on Facebook. Like most antique collecting clubs, attracting young new collectors has been a challenge for the RWCS. A bright spot in the organizations recruiting efforts has come through the RWCS Facebook Chapter, which is a highly active page where recent finds are shared, questions are answered and pieces are bought and sold by new and advanced collectors alike. To join the conversation, visit www.facebook.com/groups/RWCSChapter/.

* Registering onsite to attend the RWCS Convention costs $35 per person; kids 15 and under are free. Annual membership in the Red Wing Collectors Society also costs $35 and includes full-color newsletters mailed to your home throughout the year. The RWCS was founded in 1977 in Red Wing and there are more than 3,000 members worldwide. For more information or to become a member, call the RWCS business office at 800-977-7927, e-mail membership@redwingcollectors.org or log on to www.redwingcollectors.org. You can also join the RWCS on Facebook and follow it on Twitter at @RWCcollectors.

Stoneware isn't the only thing that will be sold at the RWCS Convention Auction. This desirable pair of 22-inch Red Wing Art Pottery cowboy figures will also cross the auction block. Designed in 1961 by iconic Red Wing designer Charles Murphy, these were made for a very short period and were somewhat expensive to buy at the time. This paired with the fact that the pieces were often damaged due to their size and fragility makes them quite hard to find.

Pottery on the Square

For the twelfth consecutive year, Monmouth's Public Square will host pottery enthusiasts for a pottery and stoneware swap meet and appraisal clinic. The 2017 Pottery on the Square is scheduled for Saturday, June 24th, from 8 a.m. to 12 noon. This event draws people from around the state and from the neighboring states of Iowa, Missouri and Wisconsin. Prior years' events average 35 swap meet participants in addition to numerous appraisal clinic participants. Anyone with vintage pottery is welcome to participate in the swap meet at no charge. The event celebrates Monmouth's historic tradition of creating quality stoneware and also provides a learning opportunity for the aspiring collector.

The pottery appraisal clinic will begin at 8:30am, where knowledgeable Illinois pottery collectors will be on hand to examine pieces of Illinois pottery brought by the public. Rare items have been seen at the appraiser's booth and it is exciting to see what prized item might show up.

The pottery appraisal is a form similar to the popular TV show Antique Road Show. If you wish to sell your item, pottery collectors will be on hand looking for that unique piece. The public is welcome to bring vintage items the day of the event. Swap meet and appraisal clinic participants are not limited to Illinois pottery, but pottery items must be vintage.

In conjunction with the event the Monmouth Area Chamber of Commerce is offering to the public an opportunity to purchase a handcrafted limited-edition, butter dish and lid with a Monmouth Pottery Company TM logo. The pitcher stands approximately 2 3/4 inches tall without lid and is 5 3/4 inches in diameter. Place your order now for the dishes that will be available the day of the event. They are priced at $35 and shipping charges vary based on quantity ordered.

For more information on the event or the commemorative Monmouth Pottery Company butter dish contact the Monmouth Area Chamber of Commerce at 309-734-3181 or e-mail info@monmouthilchamber.com. An order form, commemorative photo, and 2016 event photos are available on the Pottery on The Square page on the chamber's website www.monmouthilchamber.com.

Antique Vintage Handkerchiefs Fun To Collect And Use

By Shelby Weister, Four Seasons Antique Mall

Handkerchiefs have been around for centuries, but in the 1920's, Kleenex tissues began to take their place. A hanky became an inexpensive accessory for an outfit and the perfect "Christmas gift for a friend or relative because you didn't need to know the size to purchase. Also they were a special gift easy to enclose in a card and mail.

Today, many ladies carry or tie them on their purses or put them in the cuff of a blouse so they are handy when needed. The distinguishing features of handkerchiefs are patterns and designs. They come in many styles, colors and shapes. Many animals, such as dogs, appear o handkerchiefs, while floral ones are plentiful.

Children's hankies depict cartoon characters or nursery rhymes. In the 1930's, many children went to school with a handkerchief pinned to their clothing.

There are designer handkerchiefs, and some are signed like works of art. Though they were mass produced, you'll be able to recognize the style of a particular artist even if the handkerchief isn't signed.

History and patriotism is a way of learning of a handkerchief's age or time span. the red, white and blue hankies represent the armed forces and instill patriotism in the wearer. Many military personnel purchased hankies as gifts for loved ones. "Remember Pearl Harbor" is one of the most poignant of all the hankies. After World War II, gas rationing stopped and many people took to the road for vacations. No item was a better souvenir than a handkerchief - inexpensive and small.

Most handkerchiefs are cotton or linen and most have hand-rolled edges. There are also some that are silk.

To bring your handkerchiefs back to a nice condition, try to remove stains by soaking them in Oxy Clean or use cold water with hand soap. Always rinse thoroughly and never squeeze or wring it dry. Lay the handkerchief flat on a towel to dry and then iron it and store with acid free paper between each handkerchief.

Lace, crocheted and tatted handkerchiefs are very nice for special events, such as confirmation or first communion. For a wedding, a handkerchief can meet the need for something borrowed, blue, old or new.

25th Annual Kalamazoo Airgun It Is That Time Again To Mark Your Calendar

Article by Wesley Powers

This show started 25 years ago with a few Daisy BB gun collectors in the backyard of Bob Surface's home in Swartz Creek, Michigan. It has grown over the years and now boasts over 100 tables of bb guns, airguns of all makes and models, and toy guns. The name of the show was changed to the Kalamazoo Airgun Show & Daisy Get Together to better describe that the show welcomes all types of airguns from antique to modern. This show is a wonderful informative gathering of collectors, shooters, friends and good times. Last year the show has been sold out, and the managers expect the same this year.

The show will once again be held at the Kalamazoo County Fairgrounds Expo Center. This 8,500 square foot hall is wonderful with its great lighting, ample parking and its easy access off I-94 is an added bonus.

Host hotels this year will be the TownPlace Suites (269-353-1500) and the Fairfield Inn (269-353-6400) both are located at 5683 South 9th Street, Kalamazoo (I-94 exit #72)...please mention the Kalamazoo Airgun Show & Daisy bb and Toy Gun Show to get the special rate. We will continue our traditional Saturday evening reception once again this year. Please join us in the TownPlace Suites reception room around 7:30 p.m. for this event...a great time to relax and renew friendships. We have a special treat for everyone at this year's reception...world acclaimed airgun historian, collector and author Larry Hannusch from Houston Texas will entertain and educate us with a presentation featuring some of his very early airguns. Larry is one of the most knowledgeable collectors of airguns and specializes in the very early ball and butt stock reservoir guns, bellows airguns and gallery guns as early as the 1700's.

For airgun shooters, there will be an air gun field target shoot in the area on Saturday. Please contact Chris Martin cmartin@brakebush.com for information on that event.

Kalamazoo is a town with many fun things to do. They have the "Air Zoo" aviation museum, Kalamazoo Nature Center, The Crossroads Mall, St Julian Winery, Gilmore Car Museum and much more. We highly recommend you visit www.DiscoverKalamazoo.com for additional information.

The show will be held at the Kalamazoo County Fairground Expo Center, Kalamazoo, Michigan on Sunday, August 20th from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Admission is $3. (Admission for early buyers at 7:30 a.m. will be $30) Admission for children under 12 is free but they must be accompanied by an adult.

If you would like a show flyer or have any questions please call Wes or Theresa Powers at 517-423-4148 or email wespowers@comcast.net. You can also call Dennis Backer 937-660-9152. We look forward to seeing you at the show.

Northstar Collective Acquires Indy Ad Show

Article by Northstar Collective

Northstar Collective is pleased to announce the recent purchase of the Indianapolis Antique Advertising Show. The Indy Ad Show, as it is referred to by dealers and participants alike, is one of the longest running shows, of its kind, in the country. Entering its 45th year, this event has always been famously known where the best of the best could be found in all types of early advertising. Dealers from all over the country have gathered twice a year in Indianapolis to show off a broad base of items for sale to appeal to the beginning collector as well as the very advanced.

Previous owners Bruce and Donna Wier of, B&D Promotions, have owned and operated the show since 2010, and will operate the March show as they have in the past. The Fall Indy show will be held on September 23rd and 24th of this year under its new ownership and will be moved 20 miles northwest of Indianapolis to the Boone County Fairgrounds located in Lebanon Indiana. The Lebanon location provides a beautiful rural setting with great potential to appeal to a large customer base. Northstar believes this new acquisition will complement the other two shows, the Boone County Gas & Oil and the Boone County Vintage Market that Northstar will be running simultaneously at the fairgrounds.

Northstar also acquired the Gateway Gas & Ad Show from B & D Promotions which runs once a year in February in the St Louis metro area. Combining these newly acquired shows with the Antique Sporting and Advertising Show Oshkosh, WI and the Minocqua Antique Show in Minocqua WI, Northstar's Portfolio will include 6 shows a year that they produce.

Any questions, or dealer inquiries about any of the shows we promote can be directed to Nona Amour Wilson. Email: info@boonecountytreasurehunt.com or call 906-250-1618 or visit our website at www.boonecountytreasurehunt.com

Ackerman's Iowa City July 4th Stars & Stripes Antique Market Coming Soon!

Article by Bill & Karen Ackerman

Coming up in a few short weeks is Ackerman's July 4th Stars and Stripes Antique Market to be held at the Johnson County Fairgrounds located at the southwest edge of Iowa City at Exit 89 off the Avenue of the Saints.

Antique Dealers from a multi-state area will be set up in 3 buildings at the fairgrounds as well as many outdoor dealers set up adjacent to the campus of buildings.

Items that will be exhibited and sold by the many dealers will include but not limited to lots of antique furniture, primitives, farm and country antiques, antique jewelry, glassware, linens, antique quilts, antique clocks, stained glass windows, old pottery and stoneware, Iowa Hawkeye items, kerosene lamps, old coins, stamps, postcards and ephemera, paper advertising, advertising signs, antique tinware and wooden ware, brass and copper and so much more!

The show is from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. ON July 4th and there is ample parking in the south parking lot close to the show buildings.

Ackerman's July 4th Stars and Stripes Antique Market became the replacement area show for the former Hanson's Grove Antique Show held each year which ran at Solon, Iowa for 34 years and ceased operation in 2014. An immediate need was present for a good area antique show and Ackerman's July 4th Stars & Stripes Antique Market came into being in 2015

Bill & Karen Ackerman are the show promoter and managers and along with their hard working crew of helpers Ackerman's July 4th Stars & Stripes Antique Market comes to life each year at the Johnson County Fairgrounds at Iowa City, Iowa.

Spaces are still available at Ackerman's July 4th Stars & Stripes Antique Market and for information about the show, either from a dealer perspective or as a potential attender please call 319-430-3737
