Treasures Galore at the Enormous Elkhorn Antique Flea Market

Article & photos by Michelle Goltz

With 500 dealers located both inside and outside at the Walworth County Fairgrounds in Elkhorn, Wisconsin this is probably the biggest antique show in the state. On May 21st, the Elkhorn Antique Flea Market opened for the season! Although the weather was a bit cloudy and there was a bit of chill in the air, it didn't stop the crowd from growing. Elkhorn Antique Flea Market began in 1982 with about 50 dealers and today in its 37th season, they are over 500!

Out & About

There are many shows, auctions and markets to choose from in the next few weeks. Everyone is busy deciding which events to attend, and how many they can put in to their schedule every week. So, the earlier you get your auctions, shows, malls and markets listed with us, the better for our subscribers, your customers. This helps them to plan ahead, which is what they tell us they prefer.

Advertisers, remember when sending us photos, try to use light backgrounds. Remove as many objects from in front of or on top of the object you are taking a picture of. This helps us provide you with better pictures for your ads.

If you have a budget you are working with, let us know so that we can better serve you, our customer. When sending a PDF be sure to call to get our color and size specifications.

Since 1982 - Elkhorn Antique Flea Market Continues to Grow

Article & Photos by Michelle Goltz

There is such a wide range of merchandise you will not leave this event empty handed, I sure didn't. If you are looking for something very unusual, then this is the place to find it. If you can't find it here than you probably won't find it anywhere. Collectors and decorators alike can select from the wares of many professional dealers. You can expect to find a variety of oak, walnut, pine and country furniture from large to small pieces. China and pottery selections include Nippon, Flow Blue, Roseville, Red Wing, Hull and Weller. There was a wide range of beautiful estate jewelry, as well as primitives, original paintings, lamps, linens, elegant glassware, toys, advertising pieces, folk art and much more. So if you are looking for something in particular or looking for that piece that catches your eye, this is the place to be!

Don't make the mistakes of others: bring a friend (more help for carrying items), wear sensible shoes, bring small bills (although there is an ATM on premise), bring a large vehicle or truck just in case and having a wagon or cart is a smart choice! Arrive early, stay late and you may find yourself hitting 10,000 steps on your FitBit! And be ready to find that piece you were looking for and this time you won't be able to leave without it.

Walworth County Fairgrounds are located just southwest of Milwaukee off I-43. It is very easy to find, so plan to attend one of these fine markets. Don't miss out- join them on August 13th or September 24th. The gates open 7am rain or shine, admission is only $5 and with free parking right on the grounds. Enjoy some great food and paved walkways, sorry no pets.

If you would like to know more about this great antique market or to reserve a spot at their upcoming events you can contact Nona at N.L. Promotions at 414-525-0820. Or you can check out their web site at www.nlpromotionsllc.com

Antiques & Appraising School Launches "New" e-Course

Article by Charles Green (Asheford Institute of Antiques)

The Asheford Institute of Antiques (AIA), a professional-level distance learning program on antiques, collectibles and appraising, recently rolled out its first ever online "e-Course," at an industry trade gathering earlier this month, in anticipation of the school's 50th anniversary to be held in New York later this year.

Described by school spokesperson Shelly Dumont, as a watershed moment for the Institute, Dumont said the school's first foray into e-learning was consistent with Asheford's innovative and groundbreaking teaching techniques employed over the last 50 years. "When we offer something new, we like to take the time to make sure it's done right," said Dumont at a Q & A session following the announcement.

When asked about the differences in curriculum between textbooks and the new e-Course format of the program, Dumont said there was literally no comparison. "In terms of sheer volume, it's almost double the size of the printed version, and comes loaded with interactive videos, multimedia-activities, web-based resource links, and a host of other features we simply can't add into the texts." Dumont went on to say that the e-Course had been in development for almost two years by the school's IT team, before any release dates were even considered.

Industry insiders attending the trade gathering were granted temporary passcodes to the e-Course, and were given full access to the programs options and features at a demonstration held during the event. Director of the school, Charles Green presided over the presentation, and noted during the unveiling, that the program had undergone almost a year of beta-testing by international students prior to its intended release in North America.

A statement issued from the school's Admissions Officer, Tony Drew seemed to indicate a "full" release date for the new e-Course to be some time in mid-July. "We don't want to rush it, but we're really pleased with the response so far," said Drew, "We think the e-Course is really going to be a game-changer when it comes to setting the bar for future antiques and appraising education." The press release went on to say that while the textbooks for the Asheford program were still available, they would likely be phased out in the next five to ten years.

For readers seeking more information about the school's new e-Course program, they can be contacted at: (877) 444-4508 or visit their web site at; www.asheford.com. # Luther Auctions Holds Fantastic 23rd Anniversary Auction on Memorial Day

Article & Photos by Luther Auctions

The auction featured a fabulous selection of furniture representing many periods and styles including Victorian and Mid-Century modern. A fine assortment of art-work included Elop Wedin, Clem Haupers, Carl Rawson & Edwin Dawes, George Morrison, Fitzpatrick, Bill Mack and more.

Also up for bids was pottery, including Red Wing, Roseville and Rookwood. There was also some nice art glass, lamps, bronzes and tapestries. Additionally, you could have rode off on a 1964 Vespa scooter, or on a 1968 Schwinn Mini Twinn double bike!

Luther Auctions is a full service family-owned and operated auction company with over 30 years of antique and estate experience. We handle quality consignments varying from individual items to full estates. Our specialty is fine antiques, original artworks, vintage collectibles and fine jewelry. Our friendly staff is the most knowledgeable in the business. Located North St. Paul, we are Minnesota's largest weekly live auction house. ## Evans Decoy Book Available Now

Ever since the inception of the Evans Society in the late 1990's there has been discussion of documenting the history of Walter Evans and the Evans Decoy

Factory. Over the years there have been a number of articles written based on information that was gathered by Evans collectors. A few years back, Jackie Robinson worked to put together a book on Walter Evans, but with Jackie's passing the book was never completed and we are not aware of what happened with all her work. In 2012, Terry Smart was elected president of the Evans Society. Andy Schoneich and Terry Smart began their independent work on the Evans book almost two years ago after agreeing at the 2015 Oshkosh Wisconsin Decoy show to take on the project.

The majority of the work started in July 2015. The goal of the book was to provide the collector a comprehensive pictorial guide to the different grades and species of Evans decoys. With the support of many collectors, we were able to assemble a comprehensive collection of all the species and grades of known Evans decoys. Through our research we were able to bring clarity to the (4) grades of Evans decoys (Mammoth, Standard, Competitive, and Hardware Store) and the distinguishing characteristics between each grade. The objective of the book was not to speculate, but only make claims based on known/documented facts. The book was completed in April 2017 and available to collectors at the 2017 North American Vintage Decoy and Sporting Collectibles Show. Given that this has been the first comprehensive publication regarding Walter Evans and his decoys, it has been well received and appreciated by collectors.

To order a copy, please go to www.decoyrelics.com, select the Evans Book tab and print an order form, or call us at (708) 448-3061 and we would be happy to help complete a form for you.

Wisconsin Pottery Association Holds 22nd Year Pottery Show & Sale

Article by Jim Riordan (Wisconsin Pottery Association)

The Wisconsin Pottery Association (WPA) will hold its 22nd annual Art Pottery Show and Sale on Saturday August 26th, 2017, 9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. This interesting and exciting event will be held at the Exhibition Hall, Alliant Energy Center, and Madison, Wisconsin.

All types of antique and collectible pottery, contemporary ceramics, dinnerware, stoneware, tile, figurines, and other types of vintage items and art will be on sale. Fifty of the best Pottery dealers from across the Midwest will participate, as well as noted studio potters. Pottery examples for sale will be Roseville, Van Briggles, Fulper, Rookwood, Weller, McCoy and Red Wing along with many more. The dealers gather some of the best American and European pottery along with other vintage items to bring to this annual sale, and the contemporary potters bring many items right out of the kiln!

Along with all of the pottery for purchase, pottery experts from the WPA and additional volunteers from the Iowa Art Pottery Association (IAPA) and the Minnesota Art Pottery Association (MAPA) will be available to help identify pottery pieces brought in by show attendees. (Maximum of two pottery pieces please). There is no charge for the identification.

The Ceramic Arts Studio Collectors will hold their 23rd annual convention that weekend and information can be found at Gazo Foudji was a Japanese-born artist who worked at the Weller Pottery before moving to Roseville (ca. 1905-1906) and creating the Fudji (pictured) and Fujiyama lines.

their web site www.cascollectors.com. They will also have an information booth set up at the Pottery Show. Many dealers at the show will have Ceramic Arts Studio pieces for sale!

Admission is $5, parking is free with the WPA show card, or download a card from the website: www.wisconsinpottery.org. The Wisconsin Pottery Association meets the 2nd Tuesday of every month, 9 times per year - February through December at the Goodman Center in Madison Wisconsin. The group gets together about 6 p.m. with a discussion about recent finds and mystery pieces. A presentation about pottery or a related collecting field starts about 6:45 p.m. Please see the WPA web site at www.wisconsinpottery.org for more information on meetings, presentations, and membership.

We hope to see Pottery Lovers and Antique Collectors at the WPA Pottery Show/Sale on Saturday August 26th, 2017! We are proud to present our show and sale for the 22nd consecutive year. Our first show occurred in August of 1995 at the Holiday Inn east in Madison WI. Betty Harrington, the designer of Ceramic Arts Studio Madison was the featured speaker. The WPA art pottery show and sale is a great opportunity to find just the piece you were looking for or to learn more about the many pottery items offered for sale!

Roseville Rosecraft, 1921, also known as Florane when it appears in this tan color. The form of this vase foreshadows the art deco telescoping and saucer-like shapes that were perfected in the Futura line seven years later.

Roseville Crystalis, 1906, is highly sought after by collectors for its crystalline glazes and creative forms.

A sleek blue Pine Cone "400 series" pitcher from 1953, and the smaller, older model designed in the 1930's.

Roseville Early Velmoss vase, ca. 1916. This line was unidentified as Roseville until collectors found a marked example and identified the shape numbers in a 1916 price guide in the 1990's.

Windsor, introduced by Roseville in 1931. This fern-decorated pattern was made in blue and rusty brown.

Roseville's Rosecraft Hexagon, 1925, was a simply shaped Art Deco line made in either brown or green, and more rarely, a glossy blue.

Roseville Egypto, 1905, in the form of an ancient Roman oil lamp.

Roseville Creamware "Good Night" candle holder. Roseville began making decaled Creamware utility ware by 1910 and continued making it at least through the 1920's if not longer.

Roseville Carnelian II, 1926. This line followed a line called Carnelian I and was produced in shades of red or green or a mix of red and green.

Early American Pattern Glass Society

... to foster and encourage the collection, appreciation, study, preservation, and documentation of early American pattern glassware, and its place in American life, past and present.

Our Mission:

The Society was founded in 1994 to foster and encourage the collection, appreciation, study, preservation and documentation of early American Pattern Glassware (EAPG), its makers, and its place in American life, past and present. We are a non-profit group of collectors and dealers sharing an interest in this beautiful American work.

Do you love old glass?

Would you like to make new friends who share your interests?

Are you fascinated by the people, animals, and/or plants pictured on Victorian Glass?

Are you a history buff interested in the glass make for fairs, events, organizations or political campaigns?

Have you wondered about the old glass that was in grandmother's cupboard?

Have you ever looked at this glass and wondered who, what, where, or why?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, you will want to join The Early American Pattern Glass Society.

Membership Benefits:

Four issue of the member's publication called the NewsJournal.

The NewsJournal contains articles on glass research, pattern identification, want ads and Society news

Invitations to be part of the annual meeting where you can meet other antique glass enthusiasts.

Regional meeting are held frequently providing another opportunity to build your network of glass contacts.

Both the regional and annual meetings offer education session to enhance your knowledge of pattern glass.

As a member you have controlled access to the "Member's Only" side of the website where you will find all the back issues of the NewsJournal, another dynamic research tool.

The "Member's Only" site will also provide you with an "up to the minute" membership directory which includes a members photo and his/her collecting interests.

The Society is the place where you can build lasting friendships with fellow collectors, researchers and dealers of early American pattern glass.

Northstar Collective Acquires Indy Ad Show

Article by Northstar Collective

Northstar Collective is pleased to announce the recent purchase of the Indianapolis Antique Advertising Show. The Indy Ad Show, as it is referred to by dealers and participants alike, is one of the longest running shows, of its kind, in the country. Entering its 45th year, this event has always been famously known where the best of the best could be found in all types of early advertising. Dealers from all over the country have gathered twice a year in Indianapolis to show off a broad base of items for sale to appeal to the beginning collector as well as the very advanced.

Previous owners Bruce and Donna Wier of, B&D Promotions, have owned and operated the show since 2010, and will operate the March show as they have in the past. The Fall Indy show will be held on September 23rd and 24th of this year under it's new ownership and will be moved 20 miles northwest of Indianapolis to the Boone County Fairgrounds located in Lebanon Indiana. The Lebanon location provides a beautiful rural setting with great potential to appeal to a large customer base. Northstar believes this new acquisition will complement the other two shows, the Boone County Gas & Oil and the Boone County Vintage Market that Northstar will be running simultaneously at the fairgrounds.

Northstar also acquired the Gateway Gas & Ad Show from B & D Promotions which runs once a year in February in the St Louis metro area. Combining these newly acquired shows with the Antique Sporting and Advertising Show Oshkosh, WI and the Minocqua Antique Show in Minocqua WI, Northstar's Portfolio will include 6 shows a year that they produce.

Any questions, or dealer inquiries about any of the shows we promote can be directed to Nona Amour Wilson. Email: info@boonecountytreasurehunt.com or call 906-250-1618 or visit our website at www.boonecountytreasurehunt.com
