Out & About

Our house has been full of excitement with Tia and Mekenzy getting ready for college. I must admit I'm not that nervous but have had some moments of sadness. Mostly because I will miss the moments when something exciting happens for them and they would come home and talk for hours. Hopefully, they will still call or facetime. Brandon on the other hand, is already adapting to their absence very well. Still had to go school supply shopping with all of them, so some things never change. It is hard to imagine that in only a little more than four weeks, some less, kids everywhere will be going back to school. Summer went very fast this year. Be sure to be slowing down for those school zones and cross walks

The History of the W. Nelson McCoy's Blue Bird Pottery

By Dewayne Imsand
An Old "Blue Bird" Pot Shop

W. Nelson McCoy was born in 1820 in Harpers Ferry, Virginia, which is located in West Virginia. In January 1848, he and his wife Ester moved to Ohio's, Muskingum County, Springfield Township, in a community called Putnam. At that time, Putnam was a suburb of Zanesville, but in 1872, it became incorporated into Zanesville.

During the same year as W. Nelson and his wife arrived in Putnam, they had a son whose name was James W. Years later J.W. would go on to establish a well-known pottery, the "J.W. McCoy Pottery".

W. Nelson came to Putnam as a farmer. He acquired some land and built a house. In addition to farming, he also built a small, log building to produce stoneware during the warmer months. The pottery was a small, "Blue Bird" type shop, which was like the ones many of the farmers had at the time. It was primitive in its equipment, and the ware it produced was rough and unfinished. Although during that period, most of the home-owned, "Bluebird" shops operated under primitive conditions.

W. Nelson only produced pottery for a few years, not eight as previously believed. In January 1853, a notice was published in the "Zanesville Daily Courier" stating that a partnership that W. Nelson had with Jeremiah Elder was dissolved. The partnership was in a Putnam grocery store, named Elder & McCoy, which had been established at some uncertain prior time.

On the same date that W. Nelson ended his partnership with Elder, a second notice was published reporting that he had taken another partner, Norman Dodge, in the grocery business. Later W. Nelson bought out Elder, and the name of the grocery was changed to "McCoy & Dodge".

35Considering his job at the grocery, and the labor involved in farming, maintaining his household, supplying clay and firewood for his kiln, one would imagine that W. Nelson only had a small amount of time for actual pottery production. Surely, the volume he produced was small, and it was undoubtedly unmarked, since none that is attributable to him has been found.

Prior to 1853 a grocery store in Zanesville was owned by "James Benjamin & Co.". Sometime after 1858 W. Nelson acquired the major share in the "Benjamin & Co.", and the name of the store was then changed to "McCoy – Benjamin & Co.". Hugh McDonald was another owner besides McCoy and Benjamin.

In addition to the operation of the store itself, James Benjamin had other interests; he was a wholesale dealer in stoneware. The newspaper "Zanes Times Signal" carried an article in 1957 by Norris F. Schneider, who, quoting old sources, said that during the 1870's Benjamin was one of the three major stoneware wholesalers in the region. The other major stoneware wholesalers at the time were J.C. Gillespie, and Hudson C. Ward.

The crock shown is an example of Benjamin's wares. The inscription on it is stenciled in blue ink, and reads, "Jas. Benjamin Wholesale Stoneware Depot Zanesville, O".

W. Nelson is not known to have been associated with James Benjamin in the pottery business in Zanesville. However, he and Benjamin were associated in the pottery business located in Cincinnati. (See the article, "The History of the James Benjamin Potteries and his Connection with W. Nelson McCoy", which is contained on this Web site).

W. Nelson as a long-time, Zanesville businessman, became respected and popular. In 1881, he was elected the mayor of Zanesville, and in 1883, he was reelected. W. Nelson continued managing and working in his grocery and dry goods store until the early 1890's. He died in 1894.

Great Toys and Collectibles Auction at W. Yoder Auction Service in June

Article & Photos by W. Yoder Auction Service

Also crossing the block that day was around 100 Ertl toy tractors, 1/8th & 1/16th scale. There was also some 60 vintage lunch boxes (some with the thermos) which included Dukes of Hazzard, Daniel Boone, The Rifleman, Zorro, Bonanza and Hopalong Cassidy to name just a few.

There was a nice collection of autographs from celebrities such as Jackie Gleason, Jack Nicklaus, Joe DiMaggio, Mickey Mantle, Willie Masconi and Arnold Palmer! Also up for bids was advertising pieces, toy cap guns & BB guns, lots of Roy Rogers & Dale Evans memorabilia, vintage Boy Scout, Cub Scout & Girl Scout collectibles, as well as John Wayne memorabilia.

W. Yoder Auction was founded by Wayne Yoder Jr. in 1999, and has been a member of the National Auctioneers Association since 2002. When asked why he became an auctioneer, he will tell you it is because he enjoys the many different types of people he meets across the country that come to the auctions and the action each auction provides. In 2008, Wayne became the Wisconsin Auctioneer State Champion when he participated in the competition held every year at the Wisconsin State Fair located in Milwaukee, WI. "It was a wonderful experience that I will never forget." He had participated in the competition 3 times prior to winning and each year learned from his mistakes and bettered himself. His hard work shows through in every auction that he has.

Since opening, W Yoder Auctions has been dedicated to staying on top of the most technologically advanced system to provide their customers with a smooth auction experience. We want everyone who comes to our auctions to have the most positive experience possible, and that is why we believe in having fun at our auctions. We look forward to seeing you at our next auction, and hope you walk away having a smile on your face with that winning item in your hands.

ALADDIN COLLECTORS MANUAL #23 AT ALADDIN LAMP SHOW & SALE

The Manual, revised since 2006, will be available at the 45th Aladdin Gathering & Lamp Show & Sale, August 11 & 12, Columbia, Missouri. Hot off the press!

The world recognized Aladdin® Collectors Manual & Price Guide is the complete reference for collectors, dealers, and users of the famous Aladdin® kerosene lamps. The book is a “collectors manual” and a “guide to prices.” Highly illustrated, Manual #23 identifies and values kerosene Aladdin lamps made from 1908 through 2015. Models of Aladdin kerosene mantle lamps are illustrated for easy identification.

The 2017 edition has been updated with new information for collectors and changes in trends of lamp values since PG #22 in 2006. The demand for rare lamps, moonstone lamps and desirable colors of lamps is strong while demand for common lamps is soft. Availability of lamps on auction websites such as eBay has increased supply. The buyer, however, has a difficult task of evaluating condition and important quality defects. More important are fakes and reproductions where the bidder cannot closely inspect the lamp offered for sale. These are discussed in PG #23.

Buyers beware! Reproductions offered for sale cause alarm and collectors must know and beware of new lamps, shades and accessories in the market. Information and illustrations in Guide #23 tell how to identify reproduction lamps and shades. This section will keep you from paying high prices for “new” lamps and shades. Do not pay hundreds of dollars for a lamp that “looks old,” costs less than $50, and is worth even less to a collector.

Aladdin lamp prices range from fifty dollars for common lamps to several thousand dollars for collectible rare Aladdin lamps. The value reflects the current emphasis on quality and rarity. The manual describes how to evaluate condition that is critical to establish value. Original parts to repair and restore old lamps are in strong demand.

The Collectors Manual gives tips for collectors under the major headings-“How to Determine The Collector Value of Aladdin Lamps;” “Collecting Kerosene Aladdins;” “Using Wick Raiser Knobs to Identify Models;” “Collecting Alacite;” “How to Light Your Aladdin;” “Interchangeability of Aladdin Parts” and “How To Tell New Lamps From Original Aladdins.”

Manual #23 is useful in combination with “Aladdin-The Magic Name in Lamps”, the large hardbound book revised and printed in 1997. Both books written by J. W. Courter are available on the website www.aladdinknights.org. Courter also publishes a newsletter-Mystic Light of the Aladdin Knights-for Aladdin lamp collectors.

For more information on Aladdin lamps, The National Association of Aladdin Lamp Collectors and the International Lamp Show & Sale please see the website: www.aladdincollectors.org. Aladdin® is a registered trademark of Aladdin Industries LLC, Nashville, Tennessee.

History - Brown & McCoy Pottery

By Dewayne Imsand

Paul Moody of Richmond, VA made a remarkable discovery of a previously unknown salt glazed crock, labeled, BROWN & McCOY WHOLESALE DEALERS IN STONEWARE ROSEVILLE, O. Just how this piece fit into the known history of the McCoy potteries was intriguing, so an investigation was begun. At first it was thought that the crock was made by a Brown & McCoy Company where the McCoy was unrelated to the McCoy family known to us, but subsequently the following was found.

The Brown in the inscription was James E. Brown who was born in 1820. His father, Joseph Brown who was from Delaware, moved his family in 1837 to McLuney, Ohio. McLuney is located in Perry County in Harrison Township about 1 1/2 miles south of Crooksville.

James E. Brown had married Lucy Ann Sowers before 1850, and moved to Roseville. Throughout their marriage they had seven children, one of which was Sarah E. Brown. There is more about Sarah below. James E. Brown became a well-known merchant, and both he, and later his son George Washington Brown, was quite influential in the Roseville area. Among James' business ventures was a general merchandising store. In the Federal censuses of the late 1800s, James listed his occupation as a merchant rather than a potter, indicating that he was not involved in making pottery, but rather a wholesale seller of it in his store. It is known from a history of the Brown family, that James employed his son G. W. Brown, and J.B. Owens at the store, and that G.W. went on to establish a pottery around 1850. In 1883, J.B. established the J.B. Owens Pottery Company.

In April 1870, a connection between the Brown family and the McCoy family occurred. The McCoy in this connection was James W. McCoy. J.W. was born in 1848, the same year as his family arrived in Muskingum County. His father, W. Nelson and wife Esther, had settled in Putnam, which later became a part of Zanesville. J.W. was 22 years old in 1870 when he married Sarah (Sade) Elizabeth Brown, the daughter of James E. Brown.

During the following year, J.W. and Sarah moved to Uniontown, Newton Township, Muskingum County, where he operated a dry goods store. In 1872, they moved to the community of Roseville, very near his wife's parents. McCoy references have reported that J.W. opened a general merchandise store in Roseville in 1876, but I was always curious why he, and his wife, moved to Roseville five years earlier, and what J.W. did during that time.

It was discovered that the reason he moved to Roseville was that his father-in-law offered to take him in as a partner in his mercantile business, and their partnership became known as Brown & McCoy. The Brown and McCoy business operated from 1872 until 1888. It is surprising that neither the name James Brown, nor information about the Brown & McCoy business, has appeared in the literature.

After 1888, evidently the Brown & McCoy business was sold; for James E. Brown went on to establish a furniture store on First Street in Roseville - he was 68 years old at the time. He died in 1907 at the age of 88. It is not known when J.W. left the business, but as mentioned above, J.W. opened a general merchandise store in Roseville in 1876. Then in 1886, he entered into a series of partnerships in the pottery business. Finally, in 1899 he, along with several investors, established a pottery in Roseville solely in his own name, the J. W. McCoy Pottery.

National Depression Glass Association

The National Depression Glass Association - preserving America's glass manufacturing heritage - is dedicated to the preservation of American made glassware manufactured just before, during, and immediately after the "Great Depression". The organization is also dedicated to the dissemination of educational information regarding the same - including a membership newsletter, "The News & Views," an annual convention and show, and a variety of other member services. The NDGA's ultimate goal is a first-class museum of American-made glass and related items.

The NDGA website - www.ndga.net - has been greatly improved with a total new design and look earlier this year. The primary purpose of the site is to provide information to the members and other site visitors. The homepage provides a listing of contents and features the latest NDGA news. Appropriately heading this list is the latest news on the much anticipated July 2009 annual convention.

There is a growing section on The National Collection and how to donate either glass or cash for this project.

The site contains a wealth of information. Articles on Depression Glass, dozens of past features from the NDGA publications, glass reference books, past glass company advertisements, a directory of glass dealers and another of glass collecting clubs and photos of members' glass collections.

Anyone who happens to have the least bit of interest and appreciation for glassware is going to find this site a place on the Internet to visit again and again... and it must be a tremendous resource for NDGA members. Actually there also are members-only pages on the site in addition to all the public pages.

“30th Star Benefit Antiques Auction” FRIENDS of WHS Seek Donations of Antique Treasures!

Article & Photos by Debbie McArdle, FRIENDS of the Wisconsin Historical Society

The FRIENDS of the Wisconsin Historical Society are currently collecting tax-deductible donations of antiques and vintage items for their April 2018 "30th Star Benefit Antiques Auction" held at Old World Wisconsin in Eagle.

The inaugural auction, held in April 2010, was followed by three successful encores in April, 2012, 2014 & 2016. Thus far the proceeds from the four biennial auctions have provided important funding for the Wisconsin Historical Society's state historic sites as well as for National History Day.

Though a year away, the "30th Star Benefit Antiques Auction" demands a great deal of advance preparation. Contributions of antiques (more than 99 years old) and vintage items (50-99 years old) will be gathered from across middle America. In keeping with their goal to "preserve and share history", each item will be accompanied by a Provenance Statement. The auction catalog will list the known history of each piece as well as the donor's name, if desired. Tax deductible receipts will be provided.

A fifth grant just received from the Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association (WADA) continues their commitment as the auction's founding sponsors. The admissions charged at their October and February antiques shows in Waukesha fund their grant and scholarship programs. See <http://www.WisconsinAntiquesDealers.com> to learn more.

Carol Miller of Bailey's Honor Auction Service in Oconomowoc has once again volunteered to call the auction. You can follow her may auctions throughout the year at <http://baileyshonor.com/>

For questions about the April 2018 "30th Star Benefit Antiques Auction" or to make a donation of an antique or vintage item, please contact Riene Wells at 262.363.4700, info@eagle-house.com or Debbie McArdle at 815.575.1272, jjmcard@comcast.net.
