Article & photos by Cady Auction

In February, Cady Auction was approached by 3 different estates to assist in marketing collections of World War II militaria and firearms. All three were assembled by respected collectors in the military collecting community and very similar in the kind of items collected. After discussing the best way to market them, the owners agreed to allow Cady Auction to combine all 3 and spread them over 3 different auctions, to minimize duplications and the chance of flooding the market.

Perfect Weather Boosts Dealer & Visitor Count at July 9th Centreville Antique & Collectible Show

Many folks checked out Carol Lindsey's 30 by-33' hard rock maple butcher block table tagged at $450. 269-420-8932

Book dealer Denny Olsen of Vicksburg, Michigan, displayed more than 1,000 books at the fairgrounds show. Many stopped to check out his 1908 "Dorothy and the Wizard of Oz" hardcover book priced at $200. 269-649-1281

Article & photos by Jack Kelly

"The perfect combination of balmy July temperatures and a light breeze came together to make for our biggest dealer and visitor count," said a smiling Bob Zurko, promoter of the summertime event.

Shoppers and vendors alike agreed with his assessment as they browsed or set up for the Sunday, July 9th antique & collectibles show held at the St. Joseph County-Grange Fairgrounds in Centreville, Mich.

And, while some vendors set up just to sell, others used the show to also promote their own individual shops and malls.

Out & About College Bound

Well move in day went extremely smooth. We pulled up into the horseshoe and the girls whole soccer team unloaded the truck and carried it all to her dorm room in a matter of 5 minutes. Kenzy, Brandon and Tia had her room set up in a matter of two hours. By the time they were done, it looked like she had been living in the room for the past six months. Worked out perfect because then her roommate showed up and we could give her the space to move in. Wednesday is Tia's turn, we hope it will go just as smooth.

Shoppers Come From all Around to Centreville Antique & Collectible Show in Search of Treasures

Article & Photos by Jack Kelly

Gary Petelle of Churubusco, Ind., 15 miles northwest of Fort Wayne showed off a fancy 18-inch-long commercial cast iron Bonanza apple peeler priced at $295. At the same spot, a 24-inch-tall Jardiniere and pedestal with daffodill flower pattern could grace your home for $365.

The dealer opened his shop, Gary's on Main in Churubusco in 2015 and hours are Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 4p.m. and "by chance or appointment" at other times.

He called attention to "lots more dealers and shoppers" at Centreville in July.

More than 350 items including 1890s R.S. Prussia, Waterford Crystal, Lalique vases, depression glass and fine pottery filled the outdoor tent manned by Jeff Botruff, Cutlerville Antiques and Collectibles, Grand Rapids, Mich. The dealer said they were priced from $5 to $250 each and were "just a sample of the items offered in his shop.

"Those shades are outlandishly gorgeous" gushed one shopper pointing to a matching pair of 3-foot-tall 1950s lamps, with wavy shades. They were tagged $65 for the pair by Lori West, proprietor of Jive Junction, Galesburg, Mich. The dealer said she opened the shop in "in a small storefront" on Mother's Day weekend adding "it's going well." Her business card reads, "an eclectic mix of vintage, re-purposed and jazzy junk."

Also from Galesburg, Ken and Karen Mahaffay have a spot at Burgess Antique Mall, downtown Galesburg. They are five-year Centreville dealers and called attention to "regular customers" adding that promoter Bob Zurko is "easy and fair to work with." Scale collectors checked out their early 1900s cast iron and brass Fairbanks Scale number 2, priced at $125. Catching many an eye was a late 1800s cast iron collar crimper offered at $95. "I asked my wife to crimp my collar with the device," said Ken, chuckling, "But I just got ignored."

"Mark it sold," said dealer Jim Dykstra of Coldwater, Mich., pointing to a 1940s Marx wind-up tin "Sparks" race car with a price tag of $125. The dealer also offered a 12-inch-tall 1940s pewter pitcher "in need of some loving care" for $29.

Morton and Kathleen Tucker traveled to the show from Hobart, Ind., and offered antiques and collectibles in a wide price range. A good looking 1962 black

Illinois Bell telephone that Tucker said "works like a champ" could dial up at your home for $60. Foot traffic stopped at their booth to admire a 5-foot-tall fancy brass and cast iron floor lamp with original shade priced at $600. 517-368-4909

Carol Lindsey of Delton, Mich., has been setting up at the Centreville market "on and off for 25 years." Primitive collectors admired her early 1900s square nail construction table measuring a whopping 12-feet-long and priced at $250. Others checked out her 30 by-33-inch hardrock maple butcher block table tagged at $450. A 28-inch-long butcher cleaver perched along side the massive table could be taken home – and used – for $125.

"I've got about a thousand books for sale here at Centreville and another quarter million back at home," said book dealer Denny Olson of Vicksburg, Mich. He pointed out two of his favorites: A 1908 hardcover "Dorothy and the Wizard of Oz" priced at $200 and a 1939 hardcover "Nicodemus and the Gang" that could also be read and displayed for $200. Others at his booth were priced at $1 and up.

"I love to buy military items – and sell them too," said dealer Ed Danaher of Jones, Mich. Sword collectors checked out his World War II german police sword and an 1840 Civil War artillery model priced at $650 each. A collection of WWII knives were offered for $20 to $500 each. The dealer said he enjoyed good luck in July both buying and selling at the fairgrounds show.

Among the many shoppers at the Centreville market were Three Rivers, Mich., residents Brian and Elizabeth Dangelo and 19-month-old son Oliver, who was carried on dad's back with an awning-top backpack. "We usually come to every show," said Brian, adding, "We're looking for items for our finished basement." The tiny tot seemed very comfortable on Poppa's back.

The next Centreville Antique Market is scheduled Aug. 13 at the St. Joseph County Fairgrounds at Centreville, Mich., just south of Kalamazoo.

"And we expect shoppers from the big Michigan Highway U.S. 12 statewide garage sale that stretches from Detroit to New Buffalo on that same weekend," said promoter Zurko. He added, "We're just 12 miles north of Sturgis, Mich., part of the trail for that big event."

For more information call 715-526-9769 or www.zurkopromotions.com.

Gary Petelle of Churubusco, IN., demonstrated and offered a fancy 18-" long cast iron Bonanza apple peeler for $295. At the same spot, a 24" tall Jardiniere and pedestal with daffodil flower pattern could grace your home for $365. 260-615-2766.

Shoppers Brian and Elizabeth Dangelo and 19-month-old son Oliver from Three Rivers, Mich., check out a wood corner cabinet priced at $375 by Jeff Guise of Reading, Mich. 517-368-4909

This matching pair of 1950s lamps could light up the room at your place for $65 for the pair. They were shown by Lori West, who recently opened Jive Junction in Galesburg, Mich. She also showed off vintage Campbell's soup collectibles priced from $5 to $15 each. 517-852-0029.

Looking for a late 1800s cast iron collar crimper? You could have purchased one for $95 at the booth of Ken and Karen Mahaffay of Galesburg, Mich. 269-267-0497

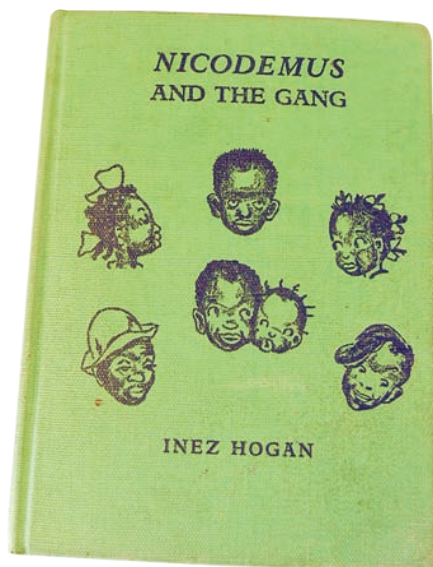

Jim Dykstra of Coldwater, Mich., smiled as he placed a sold sign on a 1940s Marx tin windup sports car tagged at $125. The dealer also offered a 12-inch-tall 1940s pewter pitcher "in need of some loving care" for $29. 517-238-2482.

Carol Lindsey of Delton, Mich., prepares her early 1900s square nail construction 12-foot-long table that could serve your family-- and friends too -- for $250. 269-420-8932

A 1939 hardcover "Nicodemus and the Gang" that could be read and displayed for $200. Denny Olsen, 269-649-1281

Ed Danaher of Jones, Mich., set up to sell – and to scour the offerings at Centreville, for vintage military items. Many folks stopped to browse his collection of World War II knives priced from $20 to $500 each. 269-476-1332.

Brian Moore of Plainwell, Mich., showed off his 4' long hand constructed ship, "beautiful dreamer" pond boat that could sail on your water for $695. Toy collectors checked out his 18-inch Powerhouse Airplane toy that could spin on command for $225.

Two members of the non-profit Sportsmens Outreach Team, Jerald Scarbrough and Danny Slinker, set up at the Centreville show to sell hand made bird houses. "We've done excellent," said Scarbrough who explained all profits are used for operations serving veterans and handicapped children. All labor is volunteer – "even the wood is donated," said Slinker, adding, "promoter Bob Zurko was kind enough to let us set up to sell here." (803) 341-2742

Jeff Botruff, Cutlerville Antiques and Collectibles, Grand Rapids, Mich., used his truck as a backdrop to show off just one portion of the 350 fine items priced from $5 to $250 each at the fairgrounds show. 616-304-2867.

Ray and Glenda Fultz of Three Rivers, Mich., offered three crocks priced at $45 to $60 each. Milk bottle collectors eyed their 1930s to 1970s group priced from $5 to $15 each – and a vintage metal milk cap lifter priced at $20. 269-273-7775.

Joan Bogart displayed this 14-inch-tall 1920s Phoenix glass vase priced at $120. Other items at her booth were tagged at $5 and up. 269-375-5415.

Morton and Kathleen Tucker showed off this cool working vintage telephone that could be dialed up for $60. 219-364-0079.

A collectible 6-foot-tall wooden Indian, priced at $825 looks right at home next to dealer Bill Brown of Richland, Mich. Fish lure collectors check out his selection priced at $10 to $200 each. 269-731-4042.

Children and adults alike admired a hand-made kids roll-a-top and chair set priced at $75. At the same spot, dealer Denise McNabb of Mongo, Ind., showed off a 20-inch-tall Gone With the Wind lamp that could light up a room at your home for $125. 260-367-1000.

Shabby-Shiek collectors “oohed and ahhed” over the three piece chair and farm table set priced at $85, Dealer Stacy Cochard of Kendallville, Ind., also offered a 5-piece strawberry design plate and cookie jar set tagged $20 for the set. 260-582-9812.

Antiques Abbreviations

by Mike Paul

A while ago a reader asked about explaining some of the abbreviations they encounter in auction ads. This got me thinking about the abbreviations auctioneers use and why we use them. After a phone call to Gloria I offered to put together a listing.

By definition, an abbreviation is a shortened form of a word or phrase used for brevity. Within context and reason it identifies certain aspects of a piece to the buyer without needlessly going into detail. A lamp buyer will know what a “bracket lamp” is. It’s unnecessary to say, “Victorian cast iron wall bracket with mercury glass reflector, chimney & drop in finger font”. Most auctioneers use abbreviations in order to keep the size of the ad affordable. However it can be too much of a good thing and some of the more arcane descriptions can confuse or mislead the reader. To a person who collects a particular category most abbreviations in that category are readily recognized. To anybody else they are probably gibberish. Even a novice farm toy buyer won’t need a three day weekend to decipher IH, McD & JD. WWI & WWII are obvious but would most folks recognize CW (Civil War) out of context? Coins, firearms, Hummels (152/A TMK3 UB K255 HB, anyone?) and other categories all have their own abbreviations that often are exclusive to that field. But if you are a glassware buyer does it really matter if you can’t translate a 28g, o/u, d-bbl, ss w/syn stock and vr?

Some descriptions, while not technically correct, get the point across. For example “Jewel T”, (which is short for Jewel Tea, a grocery chain) takes up less space than “Autumn Leaf”, (a pattern name for china offered as a premium by Jewel Tea). This may seem like a trivial difference but similar descriptions over several publications begin to add up.

A listing that encompassed all of the collecting fields would be more of a project than I can take on but the following abbreviations should get you through most ads for antique auctions. If you have others you’d like to add to the list or that you’ve wondered about, please email them to me at mike@paulauction.com.

A&C - Arts & Crafts. Refers to the style of furniture usually associated with early 1900s Stickley. Often but erroneously referred to as Mission or Prairie.

ABC - American Brilliant Cut. Refers to the “Brilliant” period of late 19th/early 20th century American cut glass

B&H - Bradley & Hubbard. A manufacturer of quality lighting and decorative accessories.

B&W - Blue & White. The glaze colors used on utilitarian stoneware that was often found in the kitchen.

CI - Cast Iron.

COP - Century Of Progress. Typically refers to souvenirs hauled back from the Chicago World’s Fair of 1933/34. Even in the middle of the Great Depression, a lot of Wisconsinites made the trip to see the COP.

CRS - Somebody explained this to me once, but I can’t seem to remember what they said.

Dmg - Damage.

gl - Gallon. Typically used when advertising stoneware capacity

For Rest - For Restoration. Don’t go to the auction expecting a cream puff.

GBCF - Glass Ball Claw Foot. Describes the foot usually found on late Victorian parlor and lamp tables.

GWTW - Gone With The Wind. A style of lamp with a matching font and top globe. Correctly referred to as a parlor lamp but popularly known as a Gone With The Wind, after the movie of the same name.

LRRH - Little Red Riding Hood. Typically refers to the Regal China products that feature her.

MIB - Mint In Box. Any item, but often a toy, that is in the same condition as new and in the original box.

MOP - Mother of Pearl. Polished nacre usually derived from mollusk shells. Typically found in jewelry, ladies dresser articles, buttons and in the windows of RPOG art.

NIB - New In Box. Similar to above but often assumed to be of modern production

NOS - New Old Stock. Old merchandise, often with original manufacturer’s tags and merchant’s price tags, that has never been sold or used.

NWOT - New With Original Tags, but sometimes used as New With Out Tags. eBay sellers are usually guilty of using this both ways. If buying online, clarify before bidding.

o/b - Outboard. An outboard motor.

OOB - Oil on Board. Art work done on a board, usually Masonite.

OOB - Oil on Canvas. Art work done on canvas.

Pre Pro - Pre Prohibition, prior to 1920. Refers specifically to alcohol related advertising.

Post Pro - Post Prohibition, after 1933. Refers specifically to alcohol related advertising.

QA - Queen Anne. Generally refers to a 1920’s or 30’s revival style exemplified by a cabriole leg.

Repro - Reproduction. A good definition would require a separate article but you get the idea. Occasionally people will use the slang “Repop” for repro or “Repo” which is inaccurate and what happens to your car when Vinnie pulls up in a tow truck.

RPOG - Reverse Painted on Glass. Less common as ROG. Any item where the design or artwork has been applied to the obverse side of the glass but typically a lamp shade, decorative framed art or advertising items.

RPPC - Real Photo Post Card. Differentiates a post card that was printed, (developed) off your film from one that was commercially printed. These were so popular that Kodak marketed the 3A folder specifically for the RPPC.

RR - Railroad.

RW - Red Wing. Red Wing, or less often, the several other stoneware companies that called Red Wing, MN their home.

/s/ - Signed.

s/g - Salt Glaze. Refers to the type of glaze used on stoneware and to differentiate it from the later, more common, zinc glaze.

TOC - Tin Over Cardboard. A type of sign made of tin wrapped over a piece of paperboard and hung by a piece of short thread mounted to the back side of the sign. Commonly used in the 1930’s and 40’s by brewing and other industries.

T&S - Time & Strike. Refers to clock movements. Differentiates between time only and striking movements.

Amazing collection from New York to be Auctioned off in Earlville, Iowa

Harry Lahr Auctions of Earlville, IA will hold an auction for the Bill Lukan Estate from Long Island, New York on September 9th, 2017 at their Auction Center in Earlville. While living in Long Island, Bill purchased & remodeled a classic carriage house with an attached castle tower that he filled with very high quality and ornate pieces. The nephew in charge of the estate contacted Auctioneer Matt Lahr and said, "I am in charge of an estate and could you come take a look at the items and see if an auction would be possible and worth while?" The first items we saw were the refectory table and chandelier. He then explained to me that this estate was his uncle's, who originated from Dyersville, and was moved a few months ago from Long Island, New York back to Iowa. I thanked him for the call and opportunity to work with him and we started writing up the auction.

This lifetime collection includes 3 large stained glass windows with elaborate scrolling, small stained glass panels, Favrile glass lamp shades, a large marble fireplace mantel & hearth, a Lionel toy train set with boxes, (2) Edison phonographs, a Regina disk music box & a beautiful brass chandelier with male & female busts. A partial listing of the furniture includes a Renaissance Revival stained oak refectory table & stained oak sideboard, both heavily decorated with carvings, both circa 1870. Marble top parlor tables, Bishop's chairs, early game tables with inlay tops, cylinder roll desk, 2 door display case & iron patio set.

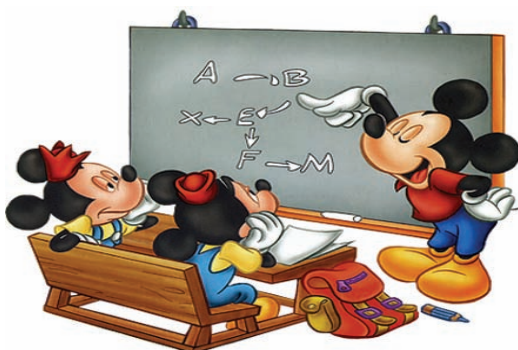

There are original works of art, advertising pieces, retro & mid-century items, clocks & a very early metal toy train set. Early literature, tin litho plates, 2 hanging sanctuary lamps, brass candelabra and even an autographed poster by Michael Jackson.

This will be a cataloged auction with approximately 450 lots. There will also be a selection of good quality household items. Go to harrylahrauctions.com for updated listings and pictures and a cataloged, numbered list the week of the auction. Harry Lahr Auctions has a great line up of fall auctions including the September 9th Lukan Estate, September 23rd Snyder Estate of Manchester, IA., October 7th & October 21st are both very high quality all antique & collectible auctions. Coming in November will be a large stoneware, advertising & antique auction. For more information or to bid on The Lukan Estate Auction or any upcoming auctions, call Matt at 563-329-1010 or Lisa at 563-880-2538 or visit their website at harrylahrauctions.com.

WWII German Technische Nothilfe Dress Dagger Brings $2,200 at Cady Auction Gallery

Article & Photos by Cady Auction

On April 23 the first of the 3 auctions was held. The auction was attended by a strong in-house crowd, very active phone bidders and a large number of online bidders, equaling 700 bidders. Some of the hottest and most sought after items were knives and daggers especially German WW II. Topping the list was a WWII German Technische Nothilfe Dress Dagger selling for $2200 (all prices are before buyer's premium), a WWII German Kriegsmarine dagger Model II sold for $800 and a WWII German paratrooper gravity knife sold for $600. Other WW III sharp edges that were fought over were a Japanese Samurai sword with an iron tsuba guard with the bidding ending at $2000, a United States M3 Fighting Knife with Scabbard selling for $850 and a New Zealand / Australian fighting knuckle knife with sheath selling for $600. Other examples of WWII items that were popular were a M38 US Army 3rd Armored Division tanker helmet selling for $975, Japanese Type 99 81mm mortar selling for $500, German 1939 U-Boat badge selling for $390 and a German Army tunic selling for $700.

Of course, since Cady Auction is the premier firearms auction house in eastern Iowa, firearms are always hot items. A Colt Python 357 mag revolver sold for $2100, a Webley & Scott 1909 9 mm Browning cal pistol sold for $1700, S&W Model 27-2 357 cal revolver ended at $800 and a S&S Model 1879 Reichs 10.55 mm revolver sold for $750.

Cady Auction is known for their quality auctions so watch for highlight from the next 2 auctions in this series. You can view all auction results on their website www.cadyauction.com. If you are interested in discussing how the Cady advantages can assist you in marketing your collections please call Mike or Deb Cady at 319-364-4143.

Chippewa Falls Antique Show & Sale

Article by Jerry Fults

Join us for the 2nd Annual Chippewa Falls Antique Show and Sale featuring the Northern Wisconsin Antique Dealers Association! This event will take place in Hall C at the Chippewa Falls Fair Grounds, 225 Edwards Street, on Friday, September 29th, 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM and on Saturday, September 30th, 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM.

The Northern Wisconsin Antique Dealers Association has been actively showing and selling antiques at the annual Eagle River Antique Show and Sale for the last 57 years. The recently organized antique show in Chippewa Falls will feature the same experienced exhibitors and their selected guest dealers. We've worked hard to put together a quality antique show and sale with a variety of merchandise! Our professional antique dealers will be bringing some of their best merchandise...including items that they have saved especially for this show.

You can expect an excellent selection of antique furniture in a variety of woods and styles. You will also find antique and vintage costume jewelry; sterling silver; brass and copper, ironstone, art pottery, elegant, depression & kitchen glassware; kitchen collectibles and crocks; art and vintage pictures; children's toys and collectibles; art glass; along with small primitives and country pieces at this show. There is something for everyone in all price ranges.

This show has free parking. Food and beverages will be available for purchase during the show. Mark your calendar now!

For questions or additional information call (715) 617-4310.

Hamm's Beer And General Beer Advertising Show

Article by Kirk Schnitker (Hamm's Club)

Back by popular demand the Fall Classic Hamm's Beer Collectors Show will again be held on September 9, 2017. This show had been held every year for 17 years and is an outdoor show, held right on the grounds of the Old Hamm's Brewery rain or shine. There will be lots of breweriana including Midwest Beer Advertising signs from Wisconsin and surrounding states as well as Minnesota advertising.

This is not a real big show with 14 - 18 dealers set up but those dealers who set up bring very good supplies of signs and other beer advertising to sell. One can expect to see some of the best Hamm's and beer items at this show.

Expect also to just plain have a good time at this show. Many clubbers make it an all day affair. Hot dogs and brats are served, as well as plenty of cool refreshments.

If you want a very fun show with a chance to spend a good time with others who enjoy beer advertising, take in the Hamm's Brewery Show at 707 Minnehaha Ave E, St. Paul. The fun starts at 9 am and runs until 3pm.

Dealers are welcome to sign up for a space. For more information about the show or to buy or sell email hammsclub@gmail.com or call 763-252-0114.

INDY ANTIQUE ADVERTISING SHOW

Always The Biggest Always The Best in Indianapolis, Indiana

Northstar Collective Acquires Indy Ad Show

Article by Northstar Collective

Northstar Collective is pleased to announce the recent purchase of the Indianapolis Antique Advertising Show. The Indy Ad Show, as it is referred to by dealers and participants alike, is one of the longest running shows, of its kind, in the country. Entering its 45th year, this event has always been famously known where the best of the best could be found in all types of early advertising. Dealers from all over the country have gathered twice a year in Indianapolis to show off a broad base of items for sale to appeal to the beginning collector as well as the very advanced.

Previous owners Bruce and Donna Wier of, B&D Promotions, have owned and operated the show since 2010, and will operate the March show as they have in the past. The Fall Indy show will be held on September 23rd and 24th of this year under it's new ownership and will be moved 20 miles northwest of Indianapolis to the Boone County Fairgrounds located in Lebanon Indiana. The Lebanon location provides a beautiful rural setting with great potential to appeal to a large customer base. Northstar believes this new acquisition will complement the other two shows, the Boone County Gas & Oil and the Boone County Vintage Market that Northstar will be running simultaneously at the fairgrounds.

Northstar also acquired the Gateway Gas & Ad Show from B & D Promotions which runs once a year in February in the St Louis metro area. Combining these newly acquired shows with the Antique Sporting and Advertising Show Oshkosh, WI and the Minocqua Antique Show in Minocqua WI, Northstar's Portfolio will include 6 shows a year that they produce.

Any questions, or dealer inquiries about any of the shows we promote can be directed to Nona Amour Wilson. Email: info@boonecountytreasurehunt.com or call 906-250-1618 or visit our website at www.boonecountytreasurehunt.com
